ITEM 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On September 24, 2002, Reunion Industries, Inc. (the "Registrant"), completed the sale of its Kingway Material Handling division located in Acworth, Georgia for a purchase price of $32.0 million in cash and a note to Kingway Acquisition, Inc. ("KAI"), a Delaware corporation. KAI is a portfolio company of American Capital Strategies, Ltd., headquartered in Bethesda, Maryland, a lender to and investor in middle market companies.

The sale was consummated pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement dated September 12, 2002 by and between Buyer and Seller. Of the $32.0 million purchase price, cash proceeds totalled $25.0 million. The remainder is a $7.0 million note, the payment of which is contingent upon KAI's future operating results over a three year period beginning January 1, 2003. Net cash proceeds received by the Registrant totalled $24,119,000 after payment of transaction related fees and expenses. Of the $24,119,000, $18,961,000 was used to reduce bank revolving credit facility borrowings, $4,108,000 was used to reduce bank term loans and $1,050,000 was used to repay accrued overadvance fees. Final determination of the purchase price is subject to a post-closing working capital adjustment. Specifically, the purchase price shall be adjusted for the amount by which Kingway's final agreed-to closing date working capital exceeds or is less than $5,000,000, Kingway's Seller-determined working capital at September 24, 2002.

ITEM 7. Financial Statement and Exhibits.

(b) Pro Forma Financial Information

REUNION INDUSTRIES, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements and related notes are presented in accordance with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") to show the pro forma effects of the Registrant's Kingway Material Handling division.

The sale of Kingway occurred on September 25, 2002. The net cash proceeds of $24,119,000 were used to repay bank debt and accrued overadvance fees.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed balance sheet as of June 30, 2002 includes the effect of the sale and is based on the assumption that the sale of Kingway was completed on June 30, 2002. The unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2002 and the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2001 is based on the assumption that the sale of Kingway was completed January 1, 2001.

The Registrant's historical financial information presented in the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed balance sheet and statement of operations at and for the six months ended June 30, 2002 is derived from the Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2002 filed August 19, 2002. The Registrant's pro forma financial information presented in the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2001 is derived from the Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 as filed on April 16, 2002. Note that the Company classified the Kingway division as a discontinued operation in 2001. Therefore, Kingway's historical operating results are classified below continuing operations in the "Reunion Industries Historical" column.

Pro forma data are based on assumptions and include adjustments as explained in the notes to the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements. The pro forma data are not necessarily indicative of the financial results that would have occurred had the transactions been effective on the dates indicated above, and should not be viewed as indicative of operations in future periods. The unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements should be read in conjunction with the accompanying notes and with the Registrant's financial statements as filed with the SEC.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (in thousands)

Note 1. Pro Forma Adjustments to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet

Adjustments to the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2002:

(1) To record the receipt of $25,000,000 of cash proceeds from the disposition and the payment of a total of $881,000 of transaction related fees and expenses.

(2) To reflect the use of the net cash proceeds of $24,119,000 to paydown bank term loan ($4,108,000), bank revolving credit debt ($18,961,000) and overadvance fees ($1,050,000). Note that at June 30, 2002, $500,000 of overadvance fees had been accrued. Therefore, the difference between overadvance fees paid and accrued of $550,000 is recorded as prepaid overadvance fees in the pro forma balance sheet.

(3) Represents the elimination of the Company's net investment in Kingway upon disposition and resulting $938,000 gain based on Kingway's June 30, 2002 net asset balances. Note that the Asset Purchase Agreement between the Buyer and the Company provides for a post-closing adjustment to the purchase price based Kingway's working capital at the closing date. Specifically, within 120 days of the closing date, the purchase price shall be adjusted for the amount by which Kingway's working capital (working capital defined as in the Asset Purchase Agreement as being current assets less current liabilities) is more or less than $5,000,000. At the closing on September 24, 2002, it was determined that Kingway's working capital was $5,000,000. At June 30, 2002, Kingway's working capital was $7,731,000. Therefore, had the transaction closed on June 30, 2002 an additional $2,731,000 on a pro forma basis would be due from the Buyer 120 days subsequent to the pro forma June 30, 2002 balance sheet.

(4) Represents the write-off of goodwill related to a Kingway purchase price adjustment not previously classified within net assets of discontinued operations.

(5) Represents the reclassification of the remaining discontinued operations net liability to the liability side of the pro forma balance sheet. Such net liability relates primarily to the Company's discontinued bridges and cranes operations.

(h) Accounts Receivable. All Accounts Receivable that are reflected on the Balance Sheet or the Interim Balance Sheet or on the accounting records of Seller as of the Closing Date represent or will represent valid obligations arising from sales actually made or services actually performed by the Division in the Ordinary Course of Business. The quantities of each item of Inventories (whether raw materials, work-in-process, or finished goods) are not excessive, but are reasonable in the present circumstances of the Division. (b) Seller acknowledges and agrees that its obligations under this Section 5.13 are a material inducement and condition to Buyer's entering into this Agreement and performing its obligations hereunder and that the restrictions and remedies contained in this Section 5.13 are reasonable as to time, geographic area and scope of activity and do not impose a greater restraint than is necessary to protect the goodwill and other legitimate business interests of Buyer.

(c) If the provisions of this Section 5.13 are found by a court of competent jurisdiction to contain unreasonable or unnecessary limitations as to time, geographic area or scope of activity, then such court is hereby directed to reform such provisions to the minimum extent necessary to cause the limitations contained therein as to time, geographical area and scope of activity to be reasonable and enforceable.

(d) Seller acknowledges and agrees that Buyer would be irreparably harmed by any violation of its obligations under this Section 5.13 and that, in addition to all other rights or remedies available at law or in equity, Buyer will be entitled to seek injunctive and other equitable relief to prevent or enjoin any such violation. If any Person violates Section 5.13, the period of time during which the provisions thereof are applicable will automatically be extended for a period of time equal to the time that such Person began such violation until such violation permanently ceases.

5.14 Employees. Effective as of the Closing Date, Buyer shall hire, or offer immediate employment to, all employees of the Division, which employment initially shall be on comparable terms (including salary and benefits) as such employees are employed by Seller immediately prior to Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement shall not be deemed to restrict the right of Buyer to deal with the employees who are hired by Buyer as employees-at-will, in the same manner as it would be free to deal with such employees in the absence of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6

INDEMNIFICATION

6.1 Survival.

All representations, warranties, covenants and obligations in this Agreement, the certificates delivered pursuant to Section 2.6 and any other certificate or document delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the Closing and the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions for a period of two (2) years; provided, however, that (a) the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.1(a) and (c) shall survive indefinitely and (b) the representations and warranties set forth in Section 4.1(p) and (q), and the indemnification set forth in Section 6.3, shall survive for the lesser of ten (10) years or the relevant statutory period permitted by applicable law. Except as set forth in Section 6.9, the waiver of any condition based on the accuracy of any representation or warranty, or on the performance of or compliance with any covenant or obligation, will not affect the right to indemnification, reimbursement or other remedy based on such representations, warranties, covenants and obligations.

6.2 Indemnification and Reimbursement by Seller.

Seller will indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, and its subsidiaries and Affiliates (collectively, the "Indemnified Persons"), and will reimburse the Indemnified Persons, for any loss, liability, claim, damage, expense (including costs of investigation and, subject to Section 6.6, defense and reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) or diminution of value, whether or not involving a third-party claim (collectively, "Damages"), arising from or in connection with:

(a) any Breach of any representation or warranty made by Seller in this Agreement, the certificates delivered pursuant to Section 2.6 as of the Closing Date as if made on the Closing Date, any transfer instrument or any other certificate or document delivered by Seller pursuant to this Agreement;

(b) any Breach of any covenant or obligation of Seller in this Agreement or in any other Transaction Document delivered by Seller pursuant to this Agreement;

(c) any claim by any Person for brokerage or finder's fees or commissions or similar payments based upon any agreement or understanding alleged to have been made by any such Person with Seller (or any Person acting on its behalf) in connection with any of the Contemplated Transactions;

(d) any product or component thereof manufactured by or shipped, or any services provided by, the Division, in whole or in part (with respect to such part only), prior to the Closing Date;

(e) any Liabilities that are not Assumed Liabilities;

(f) any noncompliance with any bulk sales or fraudulent transfer law in respect of the Contemplated Transactions, including without limitation, Section 11-2-102, et. seq., of the Official Code of Georgia in effect as of the date hereof or any successor statutes thereof; and

(g) any Benefit Plan Liabilities (except to the extent any such Benefit Plan Liabilities are reflected on the Interim Balance Sheet).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no indemnification by Seller shall be required hereunder unless and until the aggregate of all Damages hereunder, or under Section 6.3, exceeds $100,000. If the aggregate of all Damages hereunder exceeds $100,000, then Seller will provide indemnification against Damages only with respect to amounts in excess of $100,000. For purposes of this paragraph, Damages shall be deemed to have accrued even in the event that Seller is not liable to pay such Damages as the result of any relevant standard of materiality. In addition, no claim for indemnification shall be made, and Seller shall not have any obligation, with respect to any individual claim which is less than $1,000. In no event will the aggregate liability of Seller for the breach of one or more representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, including liability for such breach or breaches indemnified against pursuant to any of the foregoing indemnification provisions, exceed an amount equal to $20,000,000.

6.3 Indemnification and Reimbursement by Seller " Environmental Matters.

In addition to the indemnification under Section 6.2, Seller will indemnify and hold harmless Buyer and the other Indemnified Persons, and will reimburse Buyer and the other Indemnified Persons, for any Damages (including costs of cleanup, containment, or other remediation) arising from or in connection with any Environmental Liabilities arising out of or relating to the operation by Seller at any time on or prior to the Closing Date of any of the Leased Real Property, Assets or the business of the Division. Buyer will be entitled to control any Removal, Remedial and Response actions or any Proceeding relating to an Environmental Liability, in consultation with the Seller, and, except as provided in the following sentence, any other Proceeding with respect to which indemnity may be sought under this Section 6.3; provided, however, that (i) Buyer may in its sole discretion delegate or assign such responsibilities to Seller, and (ii) any investigation, response activities or remediation conducted by Buyer shall be limited to such investigation, response activities or remediation which, Buyer decides in its sole discretion, is required under applicable Environmental Laws (including but not limited to the use of deed restrictions, risk based standards, natural attenuation and engineered or institutional controls). The procedure described in Section 6.6 will apply to any claim solely for monetary damages relating to a matter covered by this Section 6.3.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no indemnification by Seller shall be required under this Section 6.3 unless and until the aggregate of all Damages hereunder, or under Section 6.2, exceeds $100,000. For purposes of this paragraph, Damages shall be deemed to have accrued even in the event that Seller is not liable to pay such Damages as the result of any relevant standard of materiality. If the aggregate of all Damages hereunder exceeds $100,000, then Seller will provide indemnification against Damages only with respect to amounts in excess of $100,000. In addition, no claim for indemnification shall be made, and Seller shall not have any obligation, with respect to any individual claim which is less than $1,000. In no event will the aggregate liability of Seller for the breach of one or more representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, including liability for such breach or breaches indemnified against pursuant to any of the foregoing indemnification provisions, exceed the Purchase Price, as adjusted.

6.4 Indemnification and Reimbursement by Buyer.

Buyer will indemnify and hold harmless Seller, and will reimburse Seller, for any Damages arising from or in connection with:

- (a) any Breach of any representation or warranty made by Buyer in this Agreement or in any other Transaction Document delivered by Buyer pursuant to this Agreement;
- (b) any Breach of any covenant or obligation of Buyer in this Agreement or in any other Transaction Document delivered by Buyer pursuant to this Agreement;
- (c) any claim by any Person for brokerage or finder's fees or commissions or similar payments based upon any agreement or understanding alleged to have been made by such Person with Buyer (or any Person acting on Buyer's behalf) connection with any of the Contemplated Transactions; or
- (d) any Assumed Liabilities.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no indemnification by Buyer shall be required hereunder unless and until the aggregate of all Damages hereunder exceeds $100,000. If the aggregate of all Damages hereunder exceeds $100,000, then Buyer will provide indemnification against Damages only with respect to amounts in excess of $100,000. For purposes of this paragraph, Damages shall be deemed to have accrued even in the event that Buyer is not liable to pay such Damages as the result of the application of any relevant standard of materiality. In addition, no claim for indemnification shall be made, and Buyer shall not have any obligation, with respect to any individual claim which is less than $1,000. In no event will the aggregate liability of Buyer for the breach of one or more representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, including liability for such breach or breaches indemnified against pursuant to any of the foregoing indemnification provisions, exceed an amount equal to $20,000,000.

6.5 Right of Set Off.

Upon notice to Seller specifying in reasonable detail the basis for such claim, Buyer may set off any amount to which it may be entitled under this Agreement against amounts otherwise payable under the Contingent Note; provided that Buyer shall have no right to set-off with respect to any of the Due Diligence Matters.

6.6 Procedure for Indemnification " Third Party Claims.

- (a) Promptly after receipt by an Indemnified Person under Section 6.2, 6.3 (to the extent provided in the last sentence of Section 6.3) or 6.4 of notice of the commencement of any Proceeding against it, such Indemnified Person will, if a claim is to be made against an Indemnified Person under such Section, give notice to the indemnifying party of the commencement of such Proceeding, but the failure to notify the indemnifying party will not relieve the indemnifying party of any liability that it may have to any indemnified

party, except to the extent that the indemnifying party demonstrates that the defense of such action is prejudiced by the indemnifying party's failure to give such notice.

(b) If any Proceeding referred to in Section 6.6(a) is brought against an Indemnified Person and it gives notice to the indemnifying party of the commencement of such Proceeding, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in such Proceeding and, to the extent that it wishes (unless (i) the indemnifying party is also a party to such Proceeding and the Indemnified Person determines in good faith that joint representation would be inappropriate, or (ii) the indemnifying party fails to provide reasonable assurance to the Indemnified Person of its financial capacity to defend such Proceeding and provide indemnification with respect to such Proceeding), to assume the defense of such Proceeding with counsel satisfactory to the indemnified party and, after notice from the indemnifying party to the Indemnified Person of its election to assume the defense of such Proceeding, the indemnifying party will not, as long as it diligently conducts such defense, be liable to the Indemnified Person under this Article 6 for any fees of other counsel or any other expenses with respect to the defense of such Proceeding, in each case subsequently incurred by the indemnified party in connection with the defense of such Proceeding, other than reasonable costs of investigation. If the indemnifying party assumes the defense of a Proceeding, no compromise or settlement of such claims may be effected by the indemnifying party without the Indemnified Person's Consent unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of Law or any violation of the rights of any Person and no effect on any other claims that may be made against the Indemnified Person, and (ii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the indemnifying party. If notice is given to an indemnifying party of the commencement of any Proceeding and the indemnifying party does not, within ten (10) days after the Indemnified Person's notice is given, give notice to the Indemnified Person of its election to assume the defense of such Proceeding, the indemnifying party will be bound by any determination made in such Proceeding or any compromise or settlement effected by the Indemnified Person.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an Indemnified Person determines in good faith that there is a reasonable probability that a Proceeding may adversely affect it or its Affiliates other than as a result of monetary damages for which it would be entitled to indemnification under this Agreement, the Indemnified Person may, by notice to the indemnifying party, assume the exclusive right to defend, compromise, or settle such Proceeding, but the indemnifying party will not be bound by any determination of a Proceeding so defended for the purposes of this Agreement or any compromise or settlement effected without its consent (which may not be unreasonably withheld). If an Indemnified Person intends to assume the defense of a Proceeding pursuant to this Section 6.6(c), the Indemnified Person shall notify the indemnifying person in writing, including a detailed explanation of the basis on which the Indemnified Person has determined that this Section 6.6(c) applies to such Proceeding.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.6, Buyer and Seller hereby consent to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any court within the State of Delaware for purposes of any claim that an Indemnified Person may have under this Agreement with respect to such Proceeding or the matters alleged therein, and agree that process may be served on Seller or Buyer with respect to such a claim anywhere in the world.

(e) With respect to any Proceeding subject to indemnification under this Article 6:

Edgar Filing: REUNION INDUSTRIES INC - Form 8-K

- (i) both the Indemnified Person and the indemnifying party, as the case may be, shall keep the other party fully informed of the Proceeding at all stages thereof where such party is not represented by its own counsel, and

- 41 -

- (ii) the parties agree (each at its own expense) to render to each other such assistance as they may reasonably require of each other and to cooperate in good faith with each other in order to ensure the proper and adequate defense of any Proceeding brought by any third party.

(f) With respect to any Proceeding subject to indemnification under this Article 6, the parties agree to cooperate in such a manner as to preserve in full (to the extent possible) the confidentiality of all confidential business records and the attorney-client and work-product privileges. In connection therewith, each party agrees that: (i) it will use its Best Efforts, in any Proceeding in which it has assumed or participated in the defense, to avoid production of confidential business records (consistent with applicable law and rules of procedure), and (ii) all communications between any party hereto and counsel responsible for or participating in the defense of any Proceeding shall, to the extent possible, be made so as to preserve any applicable attorney-client or work-product privilege.

6.7 Procedure for Indemnification " Other Claims.

A claim for indemnification for any matter not involving a third-party claim may be asserted by notice to the party from whom indemnification is sought.

6.8 [Intentionally Omitted].

6.9 No Indemnification or Set-Off For Certain Matters.

Buyer hereby acknowledges that, after execution of the letter of intent entered into by Buyer and Seller with respect to the Contemplated Transactions, Buyer identified certain matters relating to the Division, as described in Schedule 6.9 (the "Due Diligence Matters"). Buyer further acknowledges that, in response to the Due Diligence Matters, the Purchase Price was adjusted downward. In consideration of the adjustment of the Purchase Price, Buyer hereby agrees that it shall have no right to seek or obtain any remedies, including indemnification under this Article 6, from Seller for any Damages, claims or other amounts relating to or arising from the Due Diligence Matters, nor shall Buyer have any right to set-off against the Contingent Note for any Damages, claims or other amounts relating or arising from the Due Diligence Matters.

ARTICLE 7

MISCELLANEOUS

7.1 Termination.

This Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby may be terminated and abandoned (a) at any time prior to the Closing by mutual written consent of Buyer and Seller; or (b) by either Buyer or Seller if a condition to performance by the terminating party hereunder has not been satisfied or waived prior to September 20, 2002. Notwithstanding the foregoing clause (b), (i) Buyer may not terminate this Agreement if the event giving rise to its termination right results from Buyer's willful failure to perform or observe any of its covenants or agreements set forth herein or if Buyer is, at such time, in breach of this Agreement, and (ii) Seller may not terminate this Agreement if the event giving rise to its termination right results from the willful failure of Seller to perform or observe any of its covenants or agreements set forth herein or if Seller is, at such time, in breach of this Agreement.

- (i) Within ten (10) Business Days, the parties shall mutually agree on one (1) person who has the technical background and expertise necessary to resolve the environmental matter in dispute (a "Technical Expert") (not a current or former employee or agent of either party); or, failing such agreement, the parties shall each designate one such Technical Expert and, within 15 Business Days after such designation, the two (2) Technical Experts shall designate a third Technical Expert (not a current or former employee or agent of either party or of their respective Technical Experts);
