2002 OUTLOOK

- o Core Portfolio Performing Well in Challenging Environment
 - Increasing occupancies
 - High renewal rates
 - Maintaining high net effective rents
- o Lease-up of Development Projects Tracking Ahead of Schedule
- o Cautious Near-Term Outlook on Market
 - Sublet space still having large impact on markets
 - Tenant stability remains a concern
- o Positive Long-Term Outlook on Markets
 - No new supply
 - Sublet space should dissipate more quickly than direct space
 - Potential for strong market recovery when job growth resumes ('04)
- o Challenging Investment Environment
 - Significant capital availability and limited product has created an overheated investment market
 - Aggressively pursuing opportunities but maintaining discipline
 - Continue to pursue strategic dispositions to capitalize on strength of investment market
 - Positive stock performance has impacted ability to opportunistically repurchase shares

Edgar Filing: RECKSON ASSOCIATES REALTY CORP - Form 8-K

- o Well-Positioned to Maximize Shareholder Value

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Estimates of future FFO per share and certain other matters discussed herein are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Although the Company believes the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, forward-looking statements are not guarantees of results and no assurance can be given that the expected results will be delivered. Such forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks, trends and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expected. Among those risks, trends and uncertainties are the general economic climate, including the conditions affecting industries in which our principal tenants compete; changes in the supply of and demand for office and industrial properties in the New York Tri-State area; changes in interest rate levels; downturns in rental rate levels in our markets and our ability to lease or re-lease space in a timely manner at current or anticipated rental rate levels; the availability of financing to us or our tenants; changes in operating costs, including utility costs; repayment of debt owed to the Company by third parties (including FrontLine Capital Group); risks associated with joint ventures; and other risks associated with the development and acquisition of properties, including risks that development may not be completed on schedule, that the tenants will not take occupancy or pay rent, or that development or operating costs may be greater than anticipated. For further information on factors that could impact Reckson, reference is made to Reckson's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Reckson is subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission and undertakes no responsibility to update or supplement information contained in this presentation that subsequently becomes untrue.
