For Immediate Release

August 8, 2005

M. Ray "Hoppy" Cole, President of the Picayune Office and Regional Manager of the Gulf Coast Division, has been named President of The First Bancshares, Inc.

Cole joined The First as President of the Picayune office in September of 2002, and has been a director of The First Bancshares, Inc. and The First National Bank of Pine Belt since 1998. A native of Pascagoula, Mississippi, Cole holds both a Bachelors and a Masters degree in Business Administration from The University of Mississippi. Cole has more than a decade of banking experience.

"Hoppy's vision for the company and insights regarding customers make him a key to our organization's success," said David Johnson, CEO-The First Bancshares, Incorporated. Cole will keep his office in Picayune where he and his wife, Cindy-Picayune City Clerk, are the proud parents of four sons. Cole and his family are members of Roseland Park Baptist Church.
