PARK CITY GROUP, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2003

Note 1. Unaudited Financial Statements

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for quarterly financial statements, and include all adjustments of a normal recurring nature, which in the opinion of management are necessary in order to make the financial statements not misleading. Although the Company believes that the disclosures in these unaudited financial statements are adequate to make the information presented for the interim periods not misleading, certain information and footnote information normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and these financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited annual financial statements included in the Company's June 30, 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-KSB.

Note 2. Going Concern

 The accompanying consolidated condensed financial statements have been prepared under the assumption that the Company will continue as a going concern. Such assumption contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. As shown in the consolidated condensed financial statements, the Company incurred a net loss for the six months ended December 31, 2003 and incurred a loss for the year ended June 30, 2003. The Company has a working capital deficit at December 31, 2003. The consolidated condensed financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

The Company's continuation as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to generate sufficient cash flow to meet its obligations on a timely basis, to obtain additional financing as may be required, and ultimately to attain profitability. Potential sources of cash include new sales contracts, external debt, the sale of new shares of Company stock or alternative methods such as mergers or sale transactions. No assurances can be given, however, that the Company will be able to obtain any of these potential sources of cash. The Company currently requires additional cash to meet current obligations, ongoing capital requirements, and to repay debt maturing in July and December 2004.

Note 3 - Stock-Based Compensation

 At December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company has issued stock options to certain of its employees. The Company accounts for these options under the recognition and measurement principles of APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related Interpretations. No stock-based employee compensation cost is reflected in net income or loss, as all options granted had an exercise price equal to or greater than the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant. Had compensation cost for the Company's stock option plans been determined based on fair value consistent with the provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, the Company's net loss and loss per share would have been increased to the pro forma amounts indicated below for the three and six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002:

Note 4 - Related Party Transactions

In August 2002 the Company issued approximately $575,000 in Bridge Note A financing, at a stated interest rate of 10% per annum with a due date of December 15, 2002, and which were issued at a 7% discount. This financing carried warrants to purchase 5,350,000 common shares at $.10 per share, expiring in August 2007. The discount from the warrants was determined to be $183,109, which was amortized into interest over the term of the Bridge Notes. For the period from the date of Bridge Note A to December 31, 2002, $223,378 of the interest discount and $152,461 of the warrants discount were amortized into interest expense. Total interest expense including the 7% interest discount, 10% interest and $183,109 warrants discount was $242,553, or an effective annual interest rate of 49%. The individual note holders include the Company's CEO and certain directors, a former director and a principal of AW Fields Acquisition.

As a result of the price of Bridge Note A warrants being issued at $.10 per share, the antidilution rights associated with the sale of shares made earlier in the year (AW Fields Acquisition and private placement, including directors and an officer) were triggered. This resulted in 12,556,667 additional shares being issued and the number of shares to be purchased under warrants with antidilution rights increased by 8,458,334 shares. The warrant price to purchase a total of 20,125,001 common shares was reduced to $0.10. The issuance of the 12,556,667 shares resulted in an increase to common stock of $125,666, an increase to additional paid in capital of $79,750, and a charge to general and administrative expense for shares issued to an officer and directors of $205,416.

In November 2002 Bridge Note A was repaid and replaced with a new Bridge Note B totaling approximately $799,000 at a stated interest rate of 10% per annum, a due date of July 31, 2003 and was issued at a 7.5% discount. The new Bridge Note B carried warrants to purchase 19,972,451 shares of common stock at $.04 per share, expiring in November 2007. The discount from the warrants was determined to be $738,981, which is being amortized into interest over the term of the Bridge Note B. Total interest expense including the 7.5% interest discount, 10% interest and $738,981 warrants discounts is $848,829 or an effective annual interest rate of 110%.

As a result of the price of the warrants in Bridge Note B being $.04 per share, this triggered the anti-dilution rights associated with warrants of Bridge Note A and the anti-dilution rights associated with the sale of shares made earlier in the year (AW Fields Acquisition and private placement including directors and officer). As a result, an additional 12,814,286 common shares were issued and the number of shares to be purchased under warrants with anti-dilution rights increased by 8,625,000 shares, and the warrant price to purchase a total of 28,750,001 and 8,297,619 common shares were reduced to $.07 and $.04 per share, respectively. The AW Fields Acquisition agreement allows for the further anti-dilution right to the $.04 per share level, but AW Fields Acquisition has waived this right for this transaction. The issuance of the 12,814,286 shares resulted in an increase to common stock of $128,143, an increase to additional paid-in capital of $39,428, and a charge to general and administrative expense for shares issued to an officer and directors of $167,571, all during the quarter ended December 31, 2002. The modification of Bridge Note A warrants from an exercise price of $.07 to $.04 resulted in an expense of $11,178.

In July 2003 Bridge Note B was repaid and replaced with a new Bridge Note C totaling $868,334 at a stated interest rate of 18% and a due date of July 31, 2004. The new Bridge Note C required an incentive fee of 1,738,680 shares of common stock to be issued to the note holders. The fair value of these shares is $86,933 ($.05 per share), which is being amortized into interest expense over the term of Bridge Note C. During the three and six months ended December 31, 2003 $7,903 and $23,709, respectively, were amortized into interest expense. An additional 1,738,680 shares of common stock were issued to the noteholders, as called for by the notes, in November 2003. The fair value of these shares was $86,933, which is being amortized into interest expense over the remaining term of Bridge Note C. During the quarter ended December 31, 2003 $27,222 was amortized into interest expense. Additional shares are required to be issued on April 15 and July 15, 2004 equal to 10% of the unpaid balance of the Bridge Note C, based on the market price of the stock, but not less than $.05 per share. The AW Fields Acquisition agreement and agreements with certain directors allow for the further anti-dilution right to the $.05 per share level, but they have waived their right for this transaction. The remaining Bridge Note B discounts of $7,049 and $87,477 resulting from an interest discount and discount associated with warrants issued, respectively, were amortized into interest expense in July 2003.

Effective September 1, 2003 the Company reached agreement with Riverview Financial Corporation to combine the principal and accrued interest on the note payable into a new note, to extend the due date of the note to July 31, 2004, and to convert $1,100,000 of the principal balance into common stock. The Company has issued 15,714,286 shares of common stock to effect this transaction. The balance of the new note is $3,296,406. The note is subordinated to the Bridge Loan and no payments may be made until the Bridge Loan is paid in full. The interest rate on the note remains at 12%, but until the Bridge Loan is paid in full, interest may only be paid with additional shares of common stock at the fair market price, but not less than $0.07 per share. No shares have been issued in payment of interest.

In May 2003 the Company arranged an unsecured, revolving line of credit with its CEO. Advances bear interest at 12%, and are repaid as funds availability permits. The line of credit expires July 31, 2004. Because advances under the line of credit are expected to be repaid as soon as cash flow allows, borrowings under the line of credit of $410,000 at December 31, 2003 have been classified as a current liability. Interest expense for the three and six months ended December 31, 2003 was $3,409 and $13,364, respectively.

Note 5 - Supplemental Cash Flow Information

In connection with the note payable funding in December 2002 from Whale Investment, Ltd. the Company issued warrants and issued shares of common stock as a finders fee. The value of the warrants was recorded as a discount on the note payable, of which $22,464 and $44,928 were amortized into interest expense during the three and six months ended December 31, 2003, respectively. The value of the shares issued for the finders fee was recorded as a prepaid expense, of which $19,048 and $38,096 were amortized into expense during the three and six months ended December 31, 2003, respectively.

The fair value of the 857,143 shares issued in connection with the $345,000 note payable funding in December 2002 from Riverview obtained as a condition of the Whale Investment, Ltd. funding was recorded as a discount on the note payable, of which $2,143 and $4,286 were amortized into interest expense during the three and six months ended December 31, 2003, respectively.

The fair value of the 7,000,000 shares issued in August 2003 in connection with the extension of the due date of the Riverview note payable was recorded as a discount to the note payable, of which $32,813 and $65,626 were amortized to interest expense during the three and six months ended December 31, 2003, respectively.

In October 2003 the Company issued 1,250,000 shares of common stock in settlement of a payable of approximately $38,000. In November 2003 the Company issued 1,000,130 shares of common stock to employees in lieu of $30,004 in cash compensation. In November and December 2003 the Company issued a total of 112,000 shares of common stock to a consultant for investor relations services. In November 2003 the Company issued 1,000,000 shares of common stock in settlement of a payable of approximately $50,000.

For the six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 the Company paid interest in cash of $220,568 and $299,549, respectively. No cash was paid for income taxes.

See also Note 4.

Note 6 - Net Loss Per Common Share

Basic net loss per common share ("Basic EPS") excludes dilution and is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net loss per common share ("Diluted EPS") reflects the potential dilution that could occur if stock options or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock. The computation of Diluted EPS does not assume exercise or conversion of securities that would have an anti-dilutive effect on net loss per common share.

Options and warrants to purchase 82,250,870 and 43,029,942 shares of common stock for the six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, were not included in the computation of Diluted EPS. The inclusion of these options would have been anti-dilutive, thereby decreasing net loss per common share.

Options and warrants to purchase 1,650,000 and 0 shares of common stock for the three months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, were included in the computation of Diluted EPS. However, the remaining 80,600,870 and 43,029,942 shares of common stock for the three months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, were excluded from the computation of Diluted EPS as the inclusion of these options would have been anti-dilutive.

Note 7 - Subsequent Event

In January 2004 the Company issued 1,896,079 shares of common stock in settlement with some of the parties of a lawsuit.

In February 2004 the Company issued 1,448,892 shares of common stock to certain directors, an officer and others in connection with the extension of the Bridge Note payable.

In February 2004 the Company issued 406,267 shares of common stock to employees in lieu of $24,376 in cash compensation.

of risks and uncertainties, including those risks factors contained in our Form 10-KSB annual report at June 30, 2003, incorporated herein by reference. Three Months Ended December 31, 2003 and 2002

Total revenues were $1,901,110 and $980,574 for the quarters ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 94% increase in 2003 over the comparable period for 2002. Software license revenues were $1,093,888 and $279,081 for the quarters ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 292% increase. License sales in 2003 included the recognition of deferred prepaid license sales of $175,000 on the expiration of an agreement with a reseller; and a bulk sale of licenses to a new reseller totaling $918,888. The reseller is anticipated to sell these licenses to end user customers during the next twelve months. Under terms of the agreement, the reseller can purchase additional licenses when their inventory has been resold. Maintenance and support revenues were $577,276 and $483,522 for the quarters ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 19% increase. This increase is primarily attributable to maintenance contracts on Fresh Market Manager software and increased maintenance on additional locations for an existing customer. Consulting and other revenue was $229,946 and $217,971 for the quarters ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 5% increase. Other sales in 2003 included the sale of the Company's domain name of parkcity.com for $150,000. The Company now uses parkcitygroup.com as its domain name. Service revenues in 2003 declined significantly from 2002 because there were no new license sales during the quarter that required implementation services.

Research and development expenses were $321,818 and $205,764 for the quarters ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 respectively, a 56% increase. During the quarter ended December 31, 2002 software development costs were being capitalized. With the release of the new software products, development costs were no longer being capitalized in the quarter ended December 31, 2003 and were included in expenses. This increased expense is partially offset by a general reduction of expenses and headcount implemented in September 2003.

Sales and marketing expenses were $254,448 and $336,345 for the quarters ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 24% decrease. This decrease is primarily attributable to a sales team reorganization and related reduction in sales personnel implemented in October 2002.

General and administrative expenses were $498,146 and $704,233 for the quarters ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 29% decrease. This decrease is primarily attributable to cost control measures and expense reductions implemented in October 2002, and again in September 2003.

Six Months Ended December 31, 2003 and 2002

Total revenues were $3,101,740 and $2,419,370 for the six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 28% increase in 2003 over the comparable period for 2002. Software license revenues were $1,628,276 and $1,151,198 for the six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 41% increase. License sales in 2003 included the recognition of deferred prepaid license sales of $175,000 on the expiration of an agreement with a reseller; and a bulk sale of licenses to a new reseller totaling $918,888. The reseller is anticipated to sell these licenses to end user customers during the next twelve months. Under terms of the agreement, the reseller can purchase additional licenses when their inventory has been resold. License sales in 2002 included both new and existing customers, including one sale to a new customer that was larger than recent license sales. Maintenance and support revenues were $1,105,755 and $947,522 for the six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 17% increase. This increase is primarily attributable to maintenance contracts on Fresh Market Manager software and increased maintenance on additional locations for an existing customer. Consulting and other revenue was $367,709 and $320,650 for the six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 15% increase. Other sales in 2003 included the sale of the Company's domain name of parkcity.com for $150,000. The Company now uses parkcitygroup.com as its domain name. Service revenues in 2003 declined significantly from 2002 because there were no new license sales during the quarter that required implementation services.

Research and development expenses were $728,527 and $325,328 for the six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 respectively, a 124% increase. During the six months ended December 31, 2002 certain software development costs were being capitalized. With the release of the new software products, development costs were no longer being capitalized in the six months ended December 31, 2003 and were included in expenses. This increased expense is partially offset by a general reduction of expenses and headcount implemented in September 2003.

Sales and marketing expenses were $468,776 and $716,766 for the six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 35% decrease. This decrease is primarily attributable to a sales team reorganization and related reduction in sales personnel implemented in October 2002.

General and administrative expenses were $947,692 and $1,274,797 for the six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, a 26% decrease. This decrease is primarily attributable to cost control measures and expense reductions implemented in October 2002 and a headcount reduction in September 2003.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company had a working capital deficit at December 31, 2003 and incurred a net loss for the six months then ended.

The Company reduced its overall monthly cash operating expenses by approximately $90,000 in October 2002. In October 2003 the Company again reduced monthly cash operating expenses by another approximately $70,000. A combination of efforts to judiciously monitor, control and, where appropriate, reduce ongoing expenses has been adopted by the Company's management. Beginning October 1, 2003, 10% of employee compensation has been paid in shares of common stock. For the quarter ended December 31, 2003, 1,000,130 shares of common stock were issued in lieu of $30,004 of cash compensation. The marketing focus of the Company is primarily on the promotion of Fresh Market Manager (FMM), by parlaying the success of the most recent licensees to drive sales momentum in this industry segment (grocery), and taking advantage of the sales potential by increasing the licensing of new customers. The sales cycle for FMM has proven to be extended, with most customers requiring several months from initial contact to licensing. Therefore, FMM licensing sales have been lower than anticipated. However, demonstrations of the product have been made to a significant number of potential customers, and proposals are outstanding to many of these potential customers. Management believes that new license sales will increase as the sales pipeline, although longer than anticipated, begins to yield additional revenue, although there is no assurance that the Company will realize significant additional revenue.

To date, the Company has financed its operations through operating revenues, loans from directors, officers and stockholders, loans from the CEO and majority shareholder, and private placements of equity securities. The Company may be unable to raise additional equity capital until it achieves sustained, profitable operations and refinances its debt. Because essentially all of the Company's assets are pledged to secure existing debt, additional debt financing may be unavailable. The Company anticipates that it will meet its working capital requirements primarily through increased revenue, while controlling and reducing costs and expenses. However, no assurances can be given that the Company will be able to meet its working capital requirements, or that its revenues will increase. Bridge notes payable totaling approximately $1,000,000 including interest mature on July 31, 2004. These Bridge notes are primarily with directors and the CEO. The Company anticipates being able to repay these loans with cash generated from operations. If such cash is insufficient to repay the notes, it may be possible to extend the due date, although there is no assurance that the note holders would agree to do so. The note payable to Riverview Financial Corporation for $3,296,406, plus interest, is due July 31, 2004. No payments can be made on this note until the Bridge Note is paid in full. Because Riverview Financial Corporation is owned by the Company's CEO, the Company believes that an agreement to extend the due date can be reached, although the issuance of additional shares of common stock may be required to reach such an agreement. The revolving line of credit with the CEO is also due July 31, 2004. Payments on the line of credit are not restricted by the Bridge Note and the Company anticipates being able to repay the line of credit. If sufficient cash is not available the Company believes that an extension of the due date can be negotiated. Additional debt of $2,345,000 is due in December 2004. Cash generated from operations is not expected to be sufficient to repay this debt and the Company plans to refinance this debt with a bank or other lender. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to refinance this debt.
