ITEM 9. SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's directors and executive officers and persons who own more than 10% of the Company's Common Stock or other equity securities to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company on Forms 3, 4 and 5. Officers, directors and 10% beneficial owners are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5 they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company, the Company believes all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and 10% beneficial owners were complied with during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002.

The Company's non-employee directors are paid a fee of $300 for attendance at each of its Board of Directors meetings plus related out-of-pocket expenses.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS

Effective July 1, 1995, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Robert S. Soloff, who is serving as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, for an initial term that expired on June 30, 1998. The agreement provided for an annual base salary of $180,000, $198,000 and $218,000 in each of the first three years of the agreement. On June 30, 1998, the Board of Directors unanimously voted to extend the term of the contract under the same terms and conditions. For fiscal years 1999, and 2000, Mr. Soloff voluntarily reduced his salary to $114,000. In fiscal year 2001, Mr. Soloff's salary was increased to $138,000, and in fiscal year 2002 Mr. Soloff's salary was increased to $144,000. Under the original agreement, Mr. Soloff's base salary may be increased at the discretion of the Board of Directors through (i) any bonus arrangement provided by the Company in its discretion and (ii) other compensation or employee benefit plans and arrangements, if any, provided to other officers and key employees of the Company. Such bonuses will be determined by the non-employee or independent members of the Board of Directors who will take into account the performance of Mr. Soloff and the Company in making such determination. Such bonuses may not exceed 10% of Mr. Soloff's annual compensation for three years. Mr. Soloff is subject to a two-year covenant not to compete with the Company, which restrictive period begins upon the expiration of the employment agreement.

EQUITY PLAN COMPENSATION PLAN INFORMATION

The following table sets forth information as of the end of the most recently completed fiscal year, June 30, 2002.

Plan Category	Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants and rights	Weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights
	(A)	(B)
Equity compensation plans approved by security holders	N/A	N/A
Equity compensation plans not approved by security holders	331,366	$.95
Total	331,366	$.95

The Company has reserved a total of 250,000 shares for issuance under its Incentive Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"). Options may be granted to officers, directors, and other key Company employees. Options granted under the Plan are intended to qualify as incentive stock options as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The plan is administered by the Board of Directors and a Stock Option Committee presently consisting of two members of the Board that determines which persons are to receive options, the number of options to be granted and the exercise prices. In the event an optionee voluntarily terminates employment with the Company, the optionee has the right to exercise his accrued options within thirty (30) days of such termination. However, the Company may exercise any accrued options held by each optionee by paying the difference between the option exercise price and the then fair market value.

All employee options issued to date under the Plan have a five-year term and vest evenly over the first three years commencing on the date of the grant. Director options vest over a one-year period.

The Company has also granted nonqualified stock options for 285,366 shares of common stock at option prices ranging from $.31 to $1.03 per share expiring at various dates through 2004.

There were no options granted or exercised in fiscal year 2001 or 2002.
