The Non-Interested Directors of the Korea Fund
The Korea Fund, Inc.

To: The Non-Interested Directors of The Korea Fund

City of London Investment Management Co. Ltd. (CoL) filed a 13D with respect to The Korea Fund (NYSE: KF) on February 17, 2004.

Yesterday, two of my colleagues and I received a telephone call from Richard Hale and two of his colleagues at Deutsche Asset Management with regard to our 13 D filing. During the telephone call, Mr. Hale informed us that Mr. Bratt's departure in no way affected the Board's deliberations regarding the recently completed tender offer, and that retention of the Korean License both saved the Company $650,000 a year and did not influence the size of the tender offer.

As you will be aware, CoL does not deal with interested directors and officers when considering corporate governance matters.

You will recall that in our 2003 Statement on Corporate Governance and Voting Policy for Closed End Funds, which was sent to the company secretary, we refer to the independence of Boards of Directors and the conflicts of interest that have to be dealt with by Interested Directors.

Edgar Filing: KOREA FUND INC - Form SC 13D/A

Regulators in many jurisdictions (in addition to the US) are effectively requesting that non- interested directors take a keen interest in companies where shareholders have supported their appointment. We expect them to act as a counterbalance to interested directors and officers. The Korea Fund has many of these.

We take our responsibilities as a long-term shareholder seriously, just as we expect the independent directors to take their responsibilities seriously as well.

The 10% tender offer that has just been completed has been accepted by shareholders representing approximately 63% of the Fund. We are not aware on what basis the 10% figure for the tender offer was calculated; but the tender offer seems to have substantially fallen short of "the duties of our Board of Directors [which] are related to all of the Funds Shareholders."*

It now seems that after the deduction of 10% of the shares outstanding from the 63% of the Fund that tendered shares, would still leave a majority of the Fund's shareholders prepared to exit at a 5% discount to NAV. Further it seems that even after the next two announced tenders offers there will still be a significant percentage of shareholders expecting to exit the Fund at close to NAV.

In our 13D Filing we requested a written response from the Board by March 20th 2004 prior to our deciding the next course of action. Please note that we do not consider Mr. Hale's verbal intervention as such a response. As an alternative we would be prepared to meet the Non-Interested Directors.

I remain yours sincerely,

B.M.Olliff
Director
