On December 5, 2007, Gold Resource Corporation, which we refer to as the Company, completed the sale of 5,413,500 shares of its common stock in a transaction that was not registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which we refer to as the 1933 Act. Each share of common stock was sold for a price of $4.00, for aggregate gross proceeds of $21,654,000. The sales were made pursuant to a subscription agreement between the Company and each subscriber.

The Company has agreed to pay finders' fees in certain instances in connection with the placement in an amount up to 5% of the gross proceeds in cash and 5% of the number of shares placed in the offering in shares of its common stock. The finders' fees will be paid after the offering is completed or terminated.

Sales of common stock in the private placement were made outside the United States in reliance on the provisions of Regulation S of the 1933 Act, and to persons in the United States in reliance on Rule 506 under the 1933 Act. In connection with sales made in reliance on Regulation S:

- (i) The offer was not made to any person in the United States and at the time the buy order was originated, the Company believed that the buyer was outside the United States;
- (ii) No directed selling efforts were made in the United States; and
- (iii) (a) Offering restrictions were implemented; and
  - (b) (1) The offer and sale of the securities were not made to a U.S. person or for the account or benefit of a U.S. person; (2) the purchaser of the securities certified that it was not a U.S. person and was not acquiring the securities for the account or benefit of a U.S. person or was a U.S. person who purchased securities in a transaction that did not that did not require registration under the Act; (3) the purchaser of the securities agreed to resell such securities only in accordance with the provision of Regulation S, pursuant to registration under the 1933 Act or pursuant to an available exemption from registration and further agreed not to engage in hedging transactions with regard to said securities unless in compliance with the 1933 Act; (4) the Company caused or will cause a legend to be placed on the certificates representing the shares noting the restrictions on transfer in accordance with Regulation S; and (5) the Company is required by contract to refuse to register any transfer of the securities not made in accordance with the provisions of Regulation S, pursuant to registration under the 1933 Act or pursuant through an available exemption.

In connection with the sales made in reliance on Rule 506 of the 1933 Act:

- (i) Neither the Company nor any person acting on its behalf offered or sold the securities by any form of general solicitation or general advertising;

- (ii) The Company implemented limitations on resale, including:
  - (a) Making reasonable inquiry to determine if the purchaser acquired the securities for itself or for other persons;
  - (b) Providing disclosure to each purchaser prior to sale stating that the securities had not been registered under the 1933 Act and cannot be sold unless they are registered under the 1933 Act or unless an exemption from registration is available; and
  - (c) Promising to place a legend on certificates evidencing the securities noting the foregoing restrictions; and

(iii) The Company reasonable believes that all of the purchasers of the securities were “accredited investors” within the meaning of Rule 501 of the 1933 Act.

The Company intends to use the proceeds of the private placement to acquire and construction a mill at its El Aguila project in Oaxaca, Mexico and for working capital.
