Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 27, 2006, contemporaneously with the closing of its acquisition of Zen Technology, Inc. (Zen Technology), as further discussed below, SI International, Inc. and its subsidiaries (SI International) entered into a First Amendment to the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (First Amendment) with a syndicate of lenders, including Wachovia Bank, National Association, a national banking association, which acted as administrative agent for the lenders.

The First Amendment amended the terms and conditions of the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement entered into on February 9, 2005 (the Credit Agreement), by (i) establishing a new term loan in principal amount of $129.25 million, which replaced the then existing term loan under the Credit Agreement, (ii) reducing both the base rate margin and the LIBOR margin on the term facility, (iii) increasing the leverage ratio for the financial covenants and (iv) amending certain restrictive covenants. The principal balance of the new term loan is to be repaid in twenty-one (21) quarterly installments commencing March 31, 2006, with the balance due upon the expiration of the Credit Agreement on February 9, 2011. If an event of default occurs and is continuing, SI International may be required immediately to repay all amounts outstanding under the Credit Agreement, as amended.

The funds borrowed under the new term loan will be used to (i) refinance the $99.25 million in principal remaining under the then existing term loan under the Credit Agreement and to pay any and all fees and expenses related thereto; (ii) to finance the acquisition of Zen Technology and pay any and all fees and expenses related thereto; and (iii) to provide for working capital expenditures, and other general corporate uses.

As amended, the borrowing capacity under the Credit Agreement totals $189.25 million and is comprised of a $60 million five-year revolving credit facility and a $129.25 million term loan facility. Additionally, a $75 million uncommitted incremental term loan facility will be available upon SI International s request at any time for up to two years from the date of the Credit Agreement from one or more of the lenders.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the First Amendment is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under and Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On February 27, 2006, SI International entered into the First Amendment, the terms of which are described in Item 1.01 above.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 27, 2006, SI International closed the acquisition of Zen Technology, a Virginia corporation, pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated February 8, 2006 (the Agreement) by and among SI International, Zen Technology, and Donald E. Reed, Leslie W. Butler,

Edgar Filing: SI INTERNATIONAL INC - Form 8-K

Barbara M. Reed and Cindy Andre (the Sellers). The terms of the Agreement provide that SI International will acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Zen Technology for $60 million in cash, of which $6 million will be held back by SI International for 15 months after closing in order to secure post-closing indemnity obligations of the Sellers. The purchase price is subject to a two-way adjustment based upon whether the working capital of Zen Technology at the closing of the acquisition is above or below the target working capital specified in the Agreement. Each of the parties to the Agreement has made customary representations and warranties and agreed to certain indemnification obligations. The Agreement also contemplates a non-competition covenant agreed to by each of the Sellers and a post-closing consulting relationship between SI International and each of Mr. Reed, Ms. Butler and Ms. Andre.

SI International's February 27, 2006 press release announcing the closing of the acquisition of Zen Technology is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

* Included with this filing.

The press release filed herewith contains various remarks about the future expectations, plans and prospects of SI International, Inc. that constitute forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provisions under The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The actual results of SI International may differ materially from those indicated by these forward-looking statements as a result of various risks and uncertainties, including the following risks and uncertainties that relate specifically to the acquisition: (i) the risk that the Zen Technology businesses will not be integrated successfully into SI International; (ii) the risk that the expected benefits of the acquisition may not be realized, including the realization of accretive effects from the acquisition and cross-selling opportunities; and (iii) SI International's increased indebtedness after the acquisition. Other non-acquisition related risks and uncertainties include: differences between authorized amounts and amounts received by SI International under government contracts; government customers' or prime contractor's failure to exercise options under contracts; changes in Federal government (or other applicable) procurement laws, regulations, policies and budgets; SI International's ability to attract and retain qualified personnel; and the important factors discussed in the Risk Factors section of the annual report on Form 10-K filed by SI International, Inc. with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available directly from the Commission at www.sec.gov.
