reference in this Item 5.03. Filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 is a copy of the Bylaws, marked to show changes from the Amended and Restated Bylaws as previously in effect.

Majority Voting for Uncontested Director Elections

Article II, Section 7 of the Bylaws now provides that a director nominee shall be elected to the Board by a majority of the votes cast with respect to such nominee's election; provided, however, that if the number of nominees for director exceeds the number of directors to be elected, then directors shall be elected by a plurality of the shares of the Company's capital stock present in person or represented by proxy at any meeting of stockholders and entitled to vote on the election of directors. A majority of votes cast in an election of directors is defined to mean that the number of votes cast for a director's election exceeds the number of votes cast against that director's election, with abstentions and broker non-votes not counted as a vote cast either for or against that director's election.

Exclusive Forum

New Article VIII, Section 9 of the Bylaws provides that, unless a majority of the Board acting on behalf of the Company consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or, if the Court of Chancery does not have jurisdiction, another Delaware state court or, if no Delaware state court has jurisdiction, the federal district court for the District of Delaware) shall be the sole and exclusive forum for: (i) any derivative action brought on behalf of the Company; (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or other employee of the Company to the Company or the Company's stockholders; (iii) any action asserting a claim against the Company or any of its directors, officers or other employees arising under the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), the Company's Certificate of Incorporation (the "Charter") or the Bylaws (each as in effect from time to time); or (iv) any action asserting a claim against the Company or any of its directors, officers or other employees governed by the internal affairs doctrine of Delaware.

Nominations and Stockholder Business

Article II, Section 4 was revised and updated principally to: (i) make clear that, when bringing matters to a stockholder meeting for a vote, the deadlines and procedures contemplated by the advance notice provisions in the Bylaws are distinct from those contemplated by Rule 14a-8 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"); and (ii) delineate clearly between the advance notice provisions applicable to director nominations and those applicable to any other business to be brought before a stockholder meeting. Revised Article II, Section 4 provides that advance notice with respect to an annual meeting of stockholders, to be timely, must be received by the corporate secretary no later than the close of business on the 90th day and no earlier than the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders, whereas those deadlines were previously measured in relation to the anniversary of the mailing date for the prior year's proxy materials. The notice provisions for an annual meeting where the date of the annual meeting is changed by more than 30 days from the anniversary date of the previous year's annual meeting were also revised such that a stockholder notice must be received no later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made, whichever occurs first. Revised Article II, Section 4 provides that advance notice with respect to a special meeting of stockholders, to be timely, must be received by the corporate secretary no earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such special meeting and no later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the special meeting was mailed or public disclosure of the date of the special meeting was made, whichever occurs first. The revisions also require that additional information be provided in the advance notice of an annual meeting or special meeting of stockholders concerning, among other things, any arrangements by the party or parties giving advance notice that have the effect or intent of (i) mitigating loss to, managing risk for, or benefitting stock price changes for such parties or their affiliates or associates, or (ii) increasing or decreasing the voting power or pecuniary or economic interest of such parties or any of their affiliates or associates with respect to shares of capital stock of the Company.

Other

The Board also approved various additional changes to modify certain other provisions to more closely align the Bylaws with the requirements of the DGCL and current market practices, and to make other ministerial, clarifying and conforming changes, including, but not limited to, the following:

- updating Article III, Section 1 to increase the minimum number of directors required on the Board from one to three and the maximum number of directors permitted on the Board from eleven to twelve to reflect the Board's classified structure;
- modifying Article III, Section 8, to comport with the Section 141(k) of the DGCL and to clarify that, because the Board is classified, directors may only be removed from office by the stockholders with cause;
- adding clarifying language to Article II, Section 8 concerning stockholder action by written consent that more closely tracks the provisions of the DGCL but does not substantively change the stockholder right to act by written consent;
- updating the notice provisions in Article VI, Section 1 and Article III, Section 4 to reflect changes in the technologies used to perform ministerial tasks;
- updating Article IV to add the office of President to the offices contemplated by the Bylaws and making other conforming changes;
- making changes in Article III, Section 2 concerning vacancies on the Board to conform more closely to the provisions of the Charter; and
- revising Article VIII, Section 3 to require that a stockholder seeking to inspect the Company's books and records is required to, among other things, first enter into a confidentiality agreement with the Company.
