SCHEDULE A

IMA EXPLORATION INC.
NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2003
(Unaudited - Prepared by Management)

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

The Company is in the process of exploring its mineral properties in South America and evaluating other mineral properties. The Company presently has no proven or probable reserves and on the basis of information to date, it has not yet determined whether these properties contain economically recoverable ore reserves. The amounts shown as mineral properties and deferred costs represent costs incurred to date, less amounts amortized and/or written off, and do not necessarily represent present or future values. The underlying value of the mineral properties and deferred costs is entirely dependent on the existence of economically recoverable reserves, securing and maintaining title and beneficial interest in the properties, the ability of the Company to obtain the necessary financing to complete development, and future profitable production.

The Company considers that it has adequate resources to maintain its core operations for the next year. See also Note 9.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The interim consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The consolidated financial statements have, in management's opinion, been properly prepared using careful judgement with reasonable limits of materiality. These interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the most recent annual consolidated financial statements. The significant accounting policies follow that of the most recently reported annual consolidated financial statements.

5. STOCK BASED COMPENSATION

During the three months ended March 31, 2003, the Company granted stock options to its employees and directors to purchase up to 223,500 shares of the Company. The options are exercisable at $0.84 per share and have a 5 year term to expiry.

As the Company did not adopt the fair value method of accounting for stock options granted to employees and directors, Section 3870 requires disclosure of pro forma amounts that reflect the impact as if the Company had adopted the fair value based method of accounting. Had compensation costs for the Company's stock options granted to employees and directors been accounted for under the fair value method, the Company's net loss and loss per share would have increased as follows:

Net loss for the period
- as reported	(309,032)
- compensation expense	(113,985)

- pro-forma	(423,017)
Basic and diluted loss per share
- as reported	$(0.01)
- pro-forma	$(0.02)

The fair value of stock options granted to employees and directors was estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions used for the grants made during the period:

Risk-free interest rate	4.37%
Estimated volatility	104%
Expected life	2.5 years

The weighted average fair value per share of stock options, calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model, granted during the period to the Company's employees, directors and consultants was $0.51 per share.

Option-pricing models require the use of estimates and assumptions including the expected volatility. Changes in the underlying assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimates and therefore, existing models do not necessarily provide reliable measure of the fair value of the Company's stock options.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

Edgar Filing: IMA EXPLORATION INC - Form 6-K

INTRODUCTION

The following management's discussion and analysis and financial review should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements and related notes.

OVERVIEW

After carrying out a successful Phase I exploration program on Las Bayas during the fall of 2002, the Company during the first quarter of 2003 completed a 1,953 metre, 20 hole drill program on the Las Bayas property, completed a detailed Phase II surface exploration program on its 100 % owned Mogotes property and completed the preliminary mapping, rock sampling and grid soil sampling on the Silver-copper-lead property at its Navidad project in Chubut Province, all of which are located in Argentina. The results of the follow up exploration program on the Navidad project significantly expanded the potential size of the bonanza-grade silver-copper-lead mineralization zone as did the work on Mogotes.

The Company and Amera Resources Corporation a private company which has a common director entered into agreements to option or sell, subject to TSX Exchange approval, interest in various mineral concessions located in Argentina on March 6, 2003 as follows:

- i) letter of intent for Amera to earn a undivided 51 % interest to further explore the Arturo Property (Mogotes). To earn a 51 % interest in the property, Amera must issue 1,650,000 common shares to the Company and incur US $1.25 million of expenditures, including work programs and underlying option payments, all over five years.
- ii) property purchase agreement to sell a 100 % undivided interest in three mineral properties, comprising 24,280 hectares (the "Chubut Properties"), located in Chubut Province, Argentina, for 500,000 common shares of Amera. In addition, in the event that a decision is made to place the properties into commercial production, the Company will receive a bonus of US $250,000 an a 3 % net smelter returns royalty.

During the quarter, Barrick and the Company agreed to extend the Selection Notice Period in the option agreement from November 30,2002 to December 30,2003. In return for the extension Barrick paid US $65,000 which will be used to make payments to maintain the option properties in good standing.

SUMMARY OF FINANCIAL RESULTS

The Company reported a consolidated loss of $309,032 ($0.01 per share) for the period ended March 31,2003, an increase of $76,353 from the loss of $232,679 ($0.01 per share) in 2002. The increase in the loss experienced by the Company in 2003, compared to 2002, was attributed to certain operating expenditures such as $22,202 for increase in Corporate development and Investor relations cost , $43,297 for increase in General Exploration and $24,937 for increase in Professional fees and an increase in non-operating items of $15,502 as a result of a favourable foreign exchange rate and increased interest income.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS (continued)

The Company considers that it does have adequate resources to maintain its ongoing operations and property commitments for the year. The Company may require additional financing if it proceeds with further planned exploration and property acquisitions for the remainder of fiscal 2003. The Company will continue to rely on successfully completing additional equity financing and/or conducting joint venture arrangements to further exploration on its properties. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in obtaining additional financing or negotiating joint venture agreements.

OPERATING CASH FLOW

Cash outflow from operating activities for the period ended March 31, 2003, was $351,896 or $0.01 per share compared to cash outflow in 2002 of $178,324 or $0.01 per share. The cash outflows for 2003 were largely due to increase in corporate development and investor relations, general exploration and professional fees.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Reference should be made to the Company's significant accounting policies contained in note 2 of the interim consolidated financial statements. These accounting policies can have a significant impact of the financial performance and financial position of the Company.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the period. Significant areas requiring the use of management estimates relate to the determination of environmental obligations and impairment of mineral properties and deferred costs. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

MINERAL PROPERTIES AND DEFERRED COSTS

Consistent with the Company's accounting policy disclosed in Note 3 of the annual consolidated financial statements, direct costs related to the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties held or controlled by the Company have been capitalized on an individual property basis. It is the Company's policy to expense any exploration associated costs not related to specific projects or properties. Management of the Company periodically reviews the recoverability of the capitalized mineral properties. Management takes into consideration various information including, but not limited to, results of exploration activities conducted to date, estimated future metal prices, and reports and opinions of outside geologists, mine engineers and consultants. When it is determined that a project or property will be abandoned or its carrying value has been impaired, a provision is made for any expected loss on the project or property.

RISK FACTORS

The Company's operations and results are subject to a number of different risks at any given time. These factors, include but are not limited to disclosure regarding exploration, additional financing, project delay, titles to properties, price fluctuations and share price volatility, operating hazards, insurable risks and limitations of insurance, management, foreign country and regulatory requirements, currency fluctuations and environmental regulations risks. For a full understanding of these risks and others, reference should be made to the Company's "Annual Information Form".

OUTLOOK

BONANZA-GRADE SILVER DISCOVERY AT NAVIDAD, PATAGONIA, ARGENTINA

At the beginning of the quarter, IMA announced that it had staked a new silver-copper-lead discovery at Navidad in Chubut Province, Argentina. This discovery, made by IMA geologists while conducting grassroots regional exploration in the district, includes two distinct styles of mineralization: bonanza silver- copper-lead and replacement silver-lead.

Subsequent work on the Navidad project in Patagonia has achieved the following:

- Doubled the strike length of the mapped bonanza-grade silver-copper-lead mineralization at Navidad Hill.
- Significantly expanded the size of replacement-style silver-lead mineralization which has clear bulk tonnage potential.
- Demonstrated the potential for additional discoveries within an 8 kilometre by 3 kilometre area of favourable geology and anomalous geochemistry.

Ongoing work at Navidad included detailed mapping and sampling, infill soil sampling, geophysical surveys including induced polarization and gravimetrics with the goal of defining drill targets.

The results of the recently completed soil sampling survey to date are very encouraging as it continues to meet and exceed expectations of IMA's Technical Team. Significant naturally-occurring metal anomalies in soils have now been extended to an overall strike length of 5.8 km.

Highlights of the soil survey include a 1,700 by 300 metre silver-copper-lead anomaly over the Navidad Hill and Galena Hill areas. This strong soil anomaly, which IMA Geologists believe to be very significant, is defined by greater than 2 grams per tonne (g/t) silver and generally greater than 100 ppm copper. Within this zone there is a central core of greater than 10 g/t silver in soils (includes values of up to 298 g/t Ag) of approximately 600 by 200 metres. Portions of this central core correlate with the outcropping bonanza-grade mineralization at Navidad Hill and these soil results demonstrate the potential to expand this zone significantly.

Significant soil anomalies also exist at Barite and Calcite Hills. Silver values of up to 531 g/t have been received from outside areas of known high-grade mineralization and show excellent potential for additional discoveries. Lead values are consistently elevated and correlate well with silver over the entire 5.8 kilometre survey length. Samples of greater than 500 ppm lead have been returned from every line within the survey area. A total of 958 soil samples have now been collected on the Navidad project at 50 metre sample spacing on lines spaced 100 metres and 50 metres apart in key areas.

The first phase of detailed 1:500 and 1:1,000 scale mapping and sampling in the Navidad, Galena, and Barite Hill areas was completed and 824 rock chip samples have been collected. Results will be released over the next few weeks, once they are received and reviewed by IMA geologists. In addition, Quantec Geoscience Argentina S.A. is currently collecting IP/Resistivity data over a 2.5 by 7.0 kilometre area at Navidad. Preliminary results indicate significant anomalies over areas of known bonanza-grade structures and known galena matrix breccia, anomalies have also been defined in new areas that are completely soil covered. Final results from this survey are expected in mid to late June. It is anticipated that drilling will commence in the Patagonian Spring (approximately September) of 2003.

BARRICK OPTION AGREEMENT

IMA and Barrick Gold Corporation have agreed to extend the Selection Notice Period in the Exploration and Option Agreement dated August 17, 1999 by an additional year from November 30, 2002 to December 31, 2003. By that time, Barrick can select if it will continue with an option to earn an interest in either the Potrerillos or the Rio de las Taguas property. No further exploration work will be carried out on the Potrerillos and Rio de las Taguas properties until December 31, 2003.

Edgar Filing: IMA EXPLORATION INC - Form 6-K

Both properties have confirmed drill targets and are located in close proximity to Barrick's Pascua and Veladero gold discoveries in, a world class gold mining district containing over 38 million ounces of gold and 780 million ounces of silver.
