SUPPORT RITE AID'S PATH TOWARDS VALUE CREATION BY VOTING TO APPROVE ITS MERGER WITH ALBERTSONS

Dear Rite Aid Shareholder:

On February 20, 2018, Rite Aid announced plans to merge with privately held Albertsons Companies (“Albertsons”) to create a new publicly traded leader in food, health and wellness. You are being asked to vote to approve this merger and show your support for the future of Rite Aid.

The Rite Aid Board and management team are confident that the merger with Albertsons is the right combination, with the right partner, at the right time. This combination significantly enhances the company’s scale and diversifies its business. We also expect it will improve the company’s growth prospects, financial strength and ability to deliver compelling long-term value for shareholders and customers. In addition to ownership in a stronger, better-positioned company, Rite Aid shareholders will also share in the incremental benefits created by the $375 million in expected run-rate cost synergies and $3.6 billion of expected incremental revenue opportunities.

In the face of a consolidating and evolving marketplace, we have worked hard to defend and improve our competitive position. This merger accelerates those efforts by transforming our business strategically and financially and providing shareholders with the opportunity to realize significant value anticipated from the combination.

Accelerating Rite Aid’s Transformation for the Future

By strengthening the company’s geographic presence and local market leadership in existing markets, and creating new levers for growth through access to attractive new markets, we believe the transaction will enable Rite Aid to deliver more value to customers and shareholders. A graphical representation of how this merger creates a top-five food and drug retailer with an expected 4,310 pharmacy counters nationwide is available here: <https://bit.ly/2K6y1yt>

Strategic Transformation

The combined company is expected to be a top five food and drug retailer with significantly improved scale and market position, as well as an enhanced ability to compete in the face of increasing competition, drug reimbursement rate pressure and consolidation.

Combination Highlights:

Differentiated leader in Food, Health and Wellness with expected ~$83 billion in revenues and 40+ million customers per week

· Unique opportunity to drive loyalty among pharmacy and grocery customers

Best-in-class omni-channel retail experience, strong loyalty program and compelling technology capabilities to build strong customer relationships

- Increased local-market scale to better compete in markets where scale matters, with highly recognizable brands
- Strengthened presence in key existing markets with #1 or #2 position in 66% of combined metropolitan markets

Financial Transformation

In addition to the strategic transformation, the merger is expected to transform Rite Aid's pro forma financial profile in terms of scale, profitability, financial strength and growth:

Increased Scale ⁽¹⁾	· ~4x expected increase in revenues from ~$22 billion to ~$83 billion
Improved EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	· ~6x expected increase in Adjusted EBITDA from ~$645 million to ~$3.7 billion with higher margins
Reduced Leverage	· Combined company leverage, including synergies, anticipated to be 3.9x, which is lower than current standalone Rite Aid leverage of 4.6x ⁽²⁾
Substantial Estimated Merger Synergies	· Clear path to reducing leverage to less than 2.75x within 36 months after closing
Strong and Diversified Cash Flow	· $375 million in identified run-rate cost synergies expected by February 2022 ⁽³⁾
Attractive Growth Outlook (3 Year CAGR)	· $3.6 billion of expected incremental revenue opportunities ⁽³⁾
	· $1.9 billion FY18E combined free cash flow ⁽⁴⁾ from multiple revenue sources: Grocery (72%), Pharmacy (13%), Front End (8%) and PBM (8%)
	· Expected revenue growth of 3.5% -- 4.5%
	· Expected Adjusted EBITDA growth of 11% -- 15%

Market Commentators Agree on the Merits of a Combination⁽⁵⁾

Enhanced Competitive Position

“We also think that the omni-channel platform makes the business more defensible against the potential threat of AMZN and retailers offering delivery services.” – Cowen, May 15, 2018

“CVS and WBA will face a stronger competitor as opposed to a share donor as they have in recent years with RAD.” – Leerink, Feb. 20, 2018

“We think this is a good option for the remaining pro forma RAD as it yields attractive synergies, makes the combined company a stronger regional player.” – Mizuho, Feb. 20, 2018

Necessary Scale and Capabilities

“We believe the increased scale should provide additional leverage in negotiations with the supply chain.... allows the Rite Aid business to become part of a more diversified business ... allows for a greater opportunity to reinvest cash flow into the store base. Further, we point to the ability to leverage a broader footprint in key markets as it relates to narrow/preferred network opportunities under EnvisionRx integrated PBM model.” – J.P. Morgan, Feb. 21, 2018

“With 4,345 pharmacies post-close, the combined company will be better positioned, due to greater scale and broader geographic presence, to compete for preferred pharmacy networks. Additionally, the combination of RAD and ABC provides greater leverage in discussions with MCK, which could result in better and/or earlier relief in its drug purchasing costs.” – Cowen, May 15, 2018

Preferred Strategic Option

“...we view the deal as preferable for Rite Aid shareholders relative to the company pursuing a stand-alone strategy.” – J.P. Morgan, Feb. 21, 2018

“We believe there is a low likelihood that others step in with a competing bid.” – J.P. Morgan, Feb 21, 2018

“We think the acquisition by ABS is the best outcome for RAD shareholders, given the challenges it was facing as a smaller, regional pharmacy player.” – Cowen, May 15, 2018

“We do not expect any other bidders for RAD.” – Mizuho, Feb 20, 2018

Over the last few years, we have faced unprecedented challenges in our industry. Our management team and Board of Directors have worked hard to respond to these challenges with decisive action, including entering into the pending merger with Albertsons.

Under the guidance of our highly engaged Board, over the past several years, we have had robust discussions, including with an extensive list of third parties, around a range of strategic options for Rite Aid. Based on these discussions and a thorough analysis of the growth opportunities this proposed combination presents for both companies, our Board ultimately determined this merger is the best path forward. Rite Aid conducted rigorous due diligence and engaged in extensive negotiations with Albertsons prior to entering into the merger agreement, the terms of which provide Rite Aid with the ability to entertain a superior proposal should one arise prior to the shareholder vote. Ultimately, Rite Aid, with the unanimous approval of our Board, agreed to terms for the merger that we believe will create significant value for you.

Shareholders will benefit from the combined expertise of the Rite Aid and Albertsons management teams in leading the company. There will be significant Rite Aid representation on the combined Board which will include nine directors, with four appointed by Rite Aid, four appointed by Albertsons and one jointly designated by Rite Aid and Albertsons. There are also strong Rite Aid shareholder protections in place post-merger, including a standstill agreement with Cerberus, Albertsons' largest shareholder, and agreements with all of Albertsons' current significant shareholders which, among other things, provide for the orderly sale of such shareholders' ownership in the combined company over time.

Your vote is important, as a failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger proposal.

In order to pass, the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Rite Aid common stock. No matter how many shares you own, we urge you to sign and return your proxy card and vote FOR the proposal to approve this highly compelling combination with Albertsons. You may also vote by phone or Internet by following the instructions on your proxy card.

We hope you share our excitement for this transformational next chapter in Rite Aid's history.

We kindly ask you for your vote. Please vote your proxy today, either by Internet, phone or mail. If you have questions about how to vote your shares, please contact Morrow Sodali, our proxy solicitor at (800) 662-5200 or at RAD.info@morrowsodali.com.

Thank you for your continued investment in and support of Rite Aid.

Sincerely,

John Standley

These Non-GAAP Measures are performance measures that provide supplemental information that Albertsons and Rite Aid believe are useful to analysts and investors to evaluate ongoing results of operations, when considered alongside other GAAP measures such as net income, operating income and gross profit. These Non-GAAP Measures exclude the financial impact of items management does not consider in assessing the ongoing operating performance of Albertsons, Rite Aid or the combined company, and thereby facilitate review of its operating performance on a period-to-period basis. As a result of the effects of these factors and factors specific to other companies, Albertsons and Rite Aid believe these Non-GAAP measures provide helpful information to analysts and investors to facilitate a comparison of their operating performance to that of other companies. A reconciliation of the Non-GAAP Measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures are included at the end of this communication. Additional information regarding these Non-GAAP measures are available in previously disclosed SEC filings of Albertsons, Albertsons Companies, LLC and Rite Aid.
