Listing

Since July 16, 1996 the Company's American Depositary Receipts, each representing one Ordinary Share, are listed on the New York Stock Exchange and trade under the symbol PV. The depository for the ADRs was until March 12, 2002 the Bank of New York, since March 13, 2002 it is the Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas in New York. The ADRs also trade on the Berliner Freiverkehr, the Stuttgart Freiverkehr, the Frankfurt Freiverkehr, the Düsseldorf Freiverkehr and the Hamburg Freiverkehr in Germany.

The General Standard is subject to the requirements prescribed under German law; the Prime Standard additionally includes internationally customary transparency requirements (quarterly reporting, IAS/IFRS or U.S. GAAP international accounting standards, presentation of a corporate calendar, at least one analyst conference per year, as well as ad-hoc press releases in German and English). The Deutsche Börse AG confirmed the Company's inclusion in the Prime Standard beginning January 1, 2003.

In June 2003, all previously at Neuer Markt listed companies were integrated in the new segments Prime Standard or General Standard of Deutsche Börse AG. Consequently, Neuer Markt was closed on June 5, 2003.

The Company has incorporated the recommendations of the Corporate Governance Code into its corporate strategy. More detailed information about DCGK is published on the Company's internet-homepage (www.pfeiffer-vacuum.de).

The risk early warning system is regularly reviewed for its fundamental suitability for identifying developments that could endanger the continued existence of the Company. The Company's risk coordinator is responsible for compiling timely risk reports and forwarding them to the risk committee, comprising the Management Board, department heads and the risk coordinator. The risk coordinator is also responsible for monitoring the adopted measures. The respective department heads bear the responsibility for instituted measures. SFAS 123 requires disclosure of pro forma information regarding net income and earnings per share as if the Company had accounted for its stock-based compensation to employees using the fair value method.

The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions used for grants in 2002 and 2000: Risk-free interest rates ranging from 4% to 5%; expected lives ranging from 4.5 to 6 years; expected dividend yield of 1% to 2%; and expected volatility ranging from 30% to 40%.

For pro forma purposes, the estimated fair value of the Company's stock-based awards is amortized over the vesting period. For the years 2003 and 2002, the fair value method did not materially impact net income or earnings per share.

Derivatives and Hedging Transactions

Effective January 1, 1999, the Company adopted the provisions of SFAS No. 133 issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board in accounting for its forward currency hedging activities as cash flow hedges. SFAS No. 133 requires the Company to recognize derivative financial instruments as either assets or liabilities at their fair values. Derivatives that are not hedges must be adjusted to fair value through current income. If the derivative is a hedge, depending on the nature of the hedge, changes in fair value are either offset against current income or recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income until the hedged item is recognized in earnings. Changes in the fair market value of the derivative transactions (hedging contracts) will continue to be recognized in the corresponding asset or liability items of the balance sheet until the forecasted transaction is recognized in earnings.

The Company enters into foreign currency forward contracts to hedge the exposure of its forecasted sales to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. These forward contracts are limited to currencies in which the Company has significant sales that are denominated in foreign currencies (primarily U.S. dollars) and are designed to protect specifically against the impact of changes in exchange rates on these sales.

The Company has assessed these contracts to be highly effective hedges of the impact of foreign exchange rate changes on its sales. The Company does not engage in speculative hedging for investment purposes. The maturities for all forward contracts are aligned with the date the sales are anticipated to occur. As of September 30, 2003 no contracts held by the Company had a maturity date greater than fifteen months from the contract dates. The Company's derivative contracts result in little to no ineffectiveness due to the nature of the foreign currency forward hedging activities.

All of the Company's contracts are marked to market at period end using quoted forward rates. The fair value recorded in other assets at September 30, 2003 was approximately 726,000. As of September 30, 2003 the notional amount of the forward contracts was approximately 11.2 million. All realized gains and losses upon settlement of foreign currency forward contracts are recorded in the income statement as foreign exchange gains/(losses). The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of the parties to these contracts and enters into contracts only with well-established financial institutions.

The basis of the flexitime model is to decrease or increase the working time depending on the rate of capacity utilisation using the time spread of the whole year.

Segment Information

The Company evaluates the success and performance of its subsidiaries on the basis of their income before income tax. The accounting principles used in regional reporting are identical to those described in the Basis of Presentation.

The Company's business activities include the development, manufacture, sale and service of vacuum pumps, vacuum components and instruments, as well as vacuum systems and production equipment used in the manufacturing of DVDs. The subsidiaries in the individual countries are independent legal entities with their own management. Consequently, segment reporting is therefore country-based.

Income Tax Expense

Under German corporate tax law, taxes on income are composed of corporate taxes, trade taxes and an additional surtax.

Effective January 1, 2002, a corporation and trade tax entity with corresponding profit and loss transfer agreements was established for the consolidated German companies. Additionally, the Company had a claim to a tax credit on distributed earnings in 2003 for the fiscal year 2002. In conformity to the German Tax Legislation this claim reduced the income tax expense and the income tax rate for the year 2002.

On April 11, 2003 the German Tax Authorities passed a resolution effective April 12, 2003 regarding the refund of corporation tax credits resulting from distributed earnings to the shareholders. The Company's dividend payment for the year 2002 (within 2003) is no longer eligible for tax relief. Subsequently, the Company's rights of claim for the year 2002 are invalidated. The Company deleted the refund of the corporation tax for 2002 amounting to approximately 0.9 million in 2003 and consequently the Company's combined tax rate of the year 2003 is burdened with this amount and increased to approximately 47.0%. Additionally there is no claim for reimbursement of the corporation tax 2003 due to an eventually expected dividend payment for the year 2003 within 2004.

Due to this new legislation the Company's expected effective tax rate in Germany for years beginning 2004 will be approximately the statutory rate of 39.0%, only reduced by the benefits in consequence of the trade tax entity and the profit and loss transfer agreements in Germany.

Beginning December 31, 2005 under the new tax legislation it is possible to claim a partial reimbursement of the corporation tax depending on future dividend payments.

The effective tax rate for the three month period ended September 30, 2002 was 39.0%.

Acquisition

At July 31, 2003 the Company acquired 250 registered shares of Pfeiffer Vacuum Systems International AG in Zuzwil/Swiss. The purchase price was 1 Swiss Franc. The Company owns now 100% of the share capital. The proforma effect of this acquisition is not significant to the Company's operational and financial condition.

The Company recorded in the third quarter 2003 net sales revenues amounting to 35.6 million, compared to 37.4 million in the prior year's period. Net sales decreased in Germany by 1.4 million, in Europe excluding Germany by 1.3 million. In consequence of the weakness of the U.S. dollar against the euro the Company's net sales were adversely impacted by the effect of changes in these exchange rates, amounting to approximately 1.2 million, although the Company's net sales revenue in the U.S. increased by U.S. dollar 0.6 million in the three months ended September 30, 2003. In the rest of world (mainly in Asia) the Company increased its sales by 1.2 million or 29.3%. The Company expects these first positive factors are an indication for a potential economic upturn.

Sales in vacuum instruments and components decreased by 2.0 million. Increased sales were recorded in fore vacuum pumps by 0.5 million and in systems by 0.5 million. The service revenues decreased from 6.5 million in the third quarter 2002 by 0.1 to 6.4 million in the current period; compared to the second quarter 2003 an increase of 0.4 million was recorded.

Order intake and Order backlog

Orders received amounted to 36.2 million in the three months ended September 30, 2003 and increased by 1.8 million, from 34.4 million in the three months ended September 30, 2002. Order intake of turbo pumps increased by 4.1 million. Order intake of systems and vacuum instruments and components decreased by 2.1 million. Service orders received are flat compared to the previous year's quarter. The weakness of the U.S. dollar against the euro impacted adversely the order intake by approximately 1.5 million.

The Company's backlog decreased from 25.2 million in the third quarter of 2002 by 0.8 million to 24.4 million in 2003. Compared to the second quarter of 2003 a small increase in orders received (by 0.5 million) indicate a slightly positive trend.

Contracts are included in backlog only if they represent firm orders and include firm shipping schedules. Generally, the backlog position at any particular time should not be construed to represent future levels of sales and orders.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Gross Profit

Gross profit decreased by 1.4 million or 8.1% from 16.9 million in the three month period ended September 30, 2002 to 15.5 million in the comparable period in 2003. The Company's gross margin decreased from 45.2% in 2002 to 43.5% in 2003. An essential part of this decrease (0.9 million) is due to the weakness of the U.S. dollar against the euro. Additionally the slight decline in the plant utilization rate due to the weakening of the economy led to a lower gross profit.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

Selling and marketing expenses decreased from 6.0 million in the third quarter 2002 to 4.8 million in the third quarter 2003. As a percentage of sales, selling and marketing expenses decreased from 16.0% to 13.4%. The manpower of the sales and marketing force dropped in 2003 by 11.1% and led to a decrease in selling and marketing expenses.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses amounted to 2.7 million in the three months ended September 30, 2003 and decreased by 0.2 million from 2.9 million in the prior year's period. As a percentage of sales, general and administrative expenses decreased from 7.9% in 2002 to 7.7% in 2003. The availment of services by third parties (temporary work) decreased and led to lower general and administrative expenses.

Research and Development

Research and development expenses decreased from 2.5 million in the third quarter of 2002 to 2.0 million in the third quarter 2003. The research and development expenses as percentage of the net sales revenue decreased from 6.7% in 2002 to 5.6% in the current period. The Company's intention is to invest in the needs of future markets, to hold its technical advantages, to improve its market position and to enter new markets. It expects research and development expenses in future will correspond to the current level, approximately. The Company expenses all research and development costs as they are incurred.

Operating Profit

Operating profit increased from 4.2 million in the three months ended September 30, 2002 to 5.0 million in the three months ended September 30, 2003. As a percentage of sales the operating profit increased from 11.4% to 14.1%, primarily as the result of the factors discussed above. The operating profit is burdened with the negative effect of the exchange rate changes due to the strong euro against the U.S. dollar amounting to approximately 0.7 million.

Foreign exchange gain/loss

The Company recorded in both, the third quarter 2002 and the third quarter 2003, exchange gains amounting to approximately 0.4 million.

Table of Contents

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

Income Tax Expense

In the item Income Tax Expense (page 16) the Company defined the effects of the new German tax legislation.

The claim of the tax reimbursement for the dividend payment to the shareholders for the year 2002, paid in June 2003, is invalidated. The Company has to expense an amount of approximately 0.9 million corporation tax within the year 2003. Consequently, the effective tax rate of the third quarter of 2003 is burdened with this records and increased to 47.0%. The effective tax rate for the three month period ended September 30, 2002 was 39.0%.

Net income

With 3.1 million, the net income in the three month period ended September 30, 2003 was at the same level as in the previous year, despite the increased income tax rate. As a result of higher sales and reduced costs the Company was able to increase its income in the third quarter 2003 compared to the second quarter 2003 by 2.2 million.

Net income per Ordinary Share and ADR was 0.35 (basic) and 0.35 (diluted) in both, the three months ended September 30, 2003 and in the three months ended September 30, 2002.

Total	102,276	100.0	110,853	100.0

Total net sales revenues decreased by 8.6 million or 7.7% from 110.9 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2002 to 102.3 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2003. Sales in Germany decreased by 3.2 million from 32.3 million in the year 2002 to 29.1 million in the year 2003. Also in Europe (excluding Germany) a decrease in net sales by 2.7 million from 36.3 million in the three quarters of 2002 to 33.6 million in three quarters of 2003 was recorded. The net sales in the U.S. accounted for 23.1 million and 27.3 million in the nine months ended September 2003 and September 2002, respectively. The revenue of the sales subsidiary in the U.S. increased in U.S. dollar, but the weakness of the U.S. dollar against the euro led to an adverse currency exchange difference amounting to approximately 4.6 million. This effect reflects approximately 53.5% of the total sales decrease. Sales in the rest of world (mainly Asia) increased by 1.5 million or 10.1% from 15.0 million in 2002 to 16.5 in 2003.

In most of the Company's product groups decreased sales were accounted. Sales in fore vacuum pumps decreased by 0.6 million, sales in vacuum instruments and vacuum components decreased by 4.8 million, sales in service decreased by 0.7 million, partly offset by increased sales in systems by 1.2 million.

The Company's opinion is that there are first indications for potential economic upturn.

Order-intake and Order-backlog

Orders received decreased by 3.5 million or 3.2%, from 109.2 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2002 to 105.7 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2003. Approximately 5.1 million of the decrease in orders received are due to an adverse impact of exchange rate differences between the strong euro against the weak U.S. dollar.

Table of Contents

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Company's backlog shows a decrease in the comparative periods by 0.8 million or 3.2%, from 25.2 million to 24.4 million for the periods ended September 30, 2002 and 2003, respectively. The changes in the exchange rates of the strong euro against the weak U.S. dollar accounted for approximately 1.1 million and had a negative effect on the backlog.

Contracts are included in backlog only if they represent firm orders and include firm shipping schedules. The backlog position at any particular time should not be construed to represent future levels of sales and orders generally.

Gross Profit

Gross profit decreased by 6.2 million or 12.5% from 50.0 million in the nine month period ended September 30, 2002 to 43.8 million in the nine month period ended September 2003. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales ( gross margin ) decreased from 45.1% to 42.8% in the respective periods. Declining sales and rising cost of sales led to the lower margin. An essential part of this decrease is due to negative exchange rate differences between the strong euro against the U.S. dollar which accounted for approximately 3.5 million. Additionally the slight decline in the plant utilization rate due to the weakening of the economy led to a lower gross profit.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

Selling and marketing expenses decreased by 2.2 million from 17.3 million in the first nine months of the year 2002 to 15.1 million in the first nine months of 2003. As a percentage of sales, selling and marketing expenses decreased from 15.6% to 14.8%.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses amount to 9.0 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and increased by 0.4 million from 8.6 million in the prior year's period. As a percentage of sales, general and administrative expenses increased from 7.8% in 2002 to 8.8% in 2003, due to the lower net sales revenue.

Research and Development

Research and development expenses decreased from 7.5 million in the period ended September 30, 2002 by 0.7 million to 6.8 million in 2003. As percentage of sales the research and development expenses decreased from 6.8% in 2002 to 6.7% in 2003.

The Company's intention is to invest in the needs of future markets, to hold its technical advantages, to improve its market position and to enter new markets.

The Company expenses all research and development costs as they are incurred. It expects research and development expenses in future will correspond to the current level, approximately.

Operating profit decreased by 3.2 million or 24.5% from 12.9 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2002 to 9.8 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2003. As a percentage of sales, the operating profit decreased from 11.7% to 9.6%, as the result of the factors discussed above. The operating profit is burdened with a negative effect of the exchange rate changes due to the strong euro against the U.S. dollar amounting to approximately 2.5 million or 79.8% of the total decrease in operating profit.

Interest income and interest expense

The interest income in the first nine months of the year 2003 amounted to 1.0 million and decreased slightly from 1.1 million in 2002. In June 2003 the Company repaid the loan of Kreditanstalt für Wiederaufbau totaling approximately 9.0 million, using its high cash position.

Foreign exchange gain/loss

The Company recorded in the nine month period 2002 foreign exchange gains amounting to 0.2 million and in the nine month period 2003 foreign exchange gains amounting to 1.8 million. According to U.S. GAAP unrealised exchange gains amounting to 0.9 million are included in 2003, due to the strengthening of the euro against the U.S. dollar.

Income Tax Expense

In the item Income Tax Expense (page 16) the Company defined the effects of the new German tax legislation.

The claim of the tax reimbursement for the dividend payment to the shareholders for the year 2002, paid in June 2003, is invalidated. The Company has to expense an amount of approximately 0.9 million corporation tax within the year 2003. Consequently, the effective tax rate of the nine months ended September 30, 2003 is burdened with this records and increased to 47.0%. The effective tax rate for the nine month period ended September 30, 2002 was 39.0%.

Net Income

Net income decreased by 2.0 million, or 23.3% from 8.7 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2002 to 6.7 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2003, primarily as a result of the factors discussed above.

Net income per Ordinary Share and ADR was 0.76 (basic) and 0.76 (diluted) in the nine months ended September 30, 2003 compared to 0.99 (basic) as well as 0.99 (diluted) in the nine months ended September 30, 2002.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's business continues to generate sufficient cash to fund its operations, including its working capital and capital expenditure requirements. In the nine months ended September 30, 2003 net cash provided by operating activities totaled 14.9 million as compared to 10.7 million for the same period in the prior year.

The increase in net cash provided by operating activities is primarily due to the balancing of income tax receivables, an increase in trade accounts payable to the normal level and the decreased net income of the Company.

The Company's use of cash in investing activities decreased by 3.8 million, primarily due to the purchase of selected assets ( 2.4 million) in the prior year, and lower capital expenditures ( 0.6 million) in 2003.

The investments have been financed by the Company's cash reserves.

The increase in cash flow used by financing activities, amounting to approximately 15.7 million (in 2002 6.1 million) is primarily a result of the repayment of the long-term debt totaling 9.0 million. The Company used its high cash position, to repay its loan due to Kreditanstalt für Wiederaufbau. Additionally the Company started a share buy back program. The treasury stock accounted for approximately 1.8 million and included the buy back of 75,136 non par value ordinary shares of the Company.

In June 2003, the Company paid dividends to its shareholders amounting to 4,902,785.44 for the fiscal year 2002.

The Company had no long-term debt as at September 30, 2003.
