EXHIBIT 1

SGL Carbon: Preliminary Figures for 2002

WIESBADEN, Germany--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 12, 2003--SGL Carbon:

- Debt reduction and free cash flow well above expectations
- Profit from operations close to break-even due to provisions for antitrust risks, restructurings and additional inventory reduction

The SGL Carbon Group has significantly exceeded its goals for 2002, as announced in March 2002 under its five-point program to increase enterprise value.

According to preliminary unaudited figures, net financial liabilities were reduced by roughly (EUR)100 million to around (EUR)430 million by the end of 2002 - significantly beating the original target of a reduction of at least 5% to below (EUR)500 million. The improvement in free cash flow by more than (EUR)100 million is also significantly above the target of (EUR)60 million.

Earnings after Adjustments in Line with Earlier Guidance

The SGL Carbon Group recorded preliminary revenue for fiscal 2002 of around (EUR)1.1 billion (2001: (EUR)1.2 billion).

The Company has increased its existing provisions for the fine imposed on Graphite Specialties in December 2002 by (EUR)22 million. SGL Carbon believes that the (EUR)28 million fine imposed by the European Commission is unjustified and will file an appeal with the European Court.

In Q4/2002, the Company's focus on reducing financial debt, improving working capital and strengthening cash flow affected profit from operations in the period. The reductions in costs generated by restructuring and workforce reduction measures, which exceeded forecasts significantly, additionally required a non-cash revaluation of inventories at year-end also affecting profit from operations. Together with the aforementioned 22 Mio. (EUR) non-cash provision, SGL Carbon's profit from operations will be around break-even point in 2002. Without these special non-cash effects, the Company's full year 2002 profit from operations is in line with estimates given at the nine-months reporting. SGL Carbon will present its audited figures for 2002 at the annual financial press conference in Frankfurt am Main on March 13, 2003.

A Confident Outlook for 2003

The restructurings and measures to boost efficiency have significantly reduced the Company's cost base, allowing it to move forward in 2003. Therefore, despite the continuing economic downturn the Company expects a strong improvement in profit from operations.
