Commentary

The Saudi British Bank ("SABB") recorded a net profit of SAR2,263 million (US$603 million) for the nine months ended 30 September 2008. This represents a 19.0 per cent increase over the same period in 2007. Net special commission increased by SAR193 million (USD51 million) or 8.6 per cent driven by higher volumes and non funds income grew by SAR352 million (USD94 million) or 38.3 per cent reflecting strong performance from SABB's well diversified product portfolio.

Overheads increase by SAR184 million (USD49 million) in the nine months to 30 September 2008, or 18.3 per cent compared with the same period in 2007, mainly due to an increase in headcount and performance related compensation. Provisions for bad debts have reduced by SAR15 million (USD 4 million) in the nine months to 30 September 2008, or 5.1 per cent compared with the same period in 2007, with increased recoveries offsetting higher volume driven general impairment charges.

John Coverdale, managing director of SABB, said: "These results demonstrate SABB's commitment to providing consistent and sustainable results by carefully balancing our risk and growth appetite. Furthermore we advise that we have no significant exposure to the sub-prime mortgage market which would have an adverse impact on these results.

"We thank our customers for their continued support and our staff for their commitment and contribution to the bank's success"
