Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which presently consists of Messrs. Taylor (Chairman), Beeler, Gregory, A. Frank Hooker, Jr. and Walker:

identifies individuals qualified to become Board members;

selects, or recommends that the Board select, nominees to the Board and each committee;

assists the Board with respect to corporate governance matters applicable to the Company; and assists the Board in senior management succession planning.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, a current copy of which is available on the Company's Web site at www.hookerfurniture.com. Each member of the Committee is independent as defined by applicable Nasdaq listing standards.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for evaluating and making recommendations to the Board regarding the size and composition of the Board, developing and recommending criteria for the selection of individuals to be considered as candidates for election to the Board and identifying, investigating and recommending prospective director candidates. Candidates for director nominees will be assessed in the context of the current composition of the Board, the operating requirements of the Company and the long-term interests of shareholders. The Committee has not established a set of specific, minimum qualifications for director candidates, but in conducting its assessment, the Committee will consider such factors as it deems appropriate given the current needs of the Board and the Company. In the case of incumbent directors, the Committee will review each director's overall service to the Company during his or her term in deciding whether to renominate the director.

The Committee will consider a director candidate recommended by a shareholder for the 2005 Annual Meeting if the recommendation is submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Company and is received at the Company's principal executive offices on or before November 2, 2004. The recommendation must include a description of the candidate's qualifications for serving as a director and the following information: (1) the name and address of the shareholder making the recommendation; (2) a representation that the shareholder will be entitled to vote at the meeting and, if necessary, would appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons recommended; (3) information regarding the director candidate that would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed under the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, if the candidate were to be nominated by the Board of Directors; (4) information concerning the director candidate's independence as defined by applicable Nasdaq listing standards; and (5) the consent of the director candidate to serve as a director of the Company if nominated and elected. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may refuse to consider the recommendation of any person not made in compliance with this procedure.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee presently includes Messrs. Cole (Chairman), Gregory, Groves, A. Frank Hooker, Jr. and Walker. During fiscal 2003, the Committee consisted of Messrs. Groves (Chairman), Beeler, Cole (beginning March 2003), Gregory, A. Frank Hooker, Jr., J. Clyde Hooker, Jr., Taylor (beginning March 2003) and Walker. The Committee reviews and makes determinations with regard to the employment arrangements and compensation for the senior executive officers, including the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, the President and Chief Operating Officer, the Executive Vice President-Finance and Administration, each of the Senior Vice Presidents and the President and Chief Executive Officer of Bradington-Young. No member of the Compensation Committee may be a current employee of the Company. Each current member of the Compensation Committee is independent as defined by applicable Nasdaq Marketplace Rules. The Board plans to adopt a written charter for the Compensation Committee during this fiscal year. Upon adoption, a copy of the charter will be available on the Company's Web site at www.hookerfurniture.com. The Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation begins on page 9.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee, which presently consists of Messrs. Beeler (Chairman), Cole, Groves and Taylor:

Edgar Filing: HOOKER FURNITURE CORP - Form DEF 14A

approves the appointment of a firm of independent public accountants to audit the Company's financial statements;

reviews and approves the scope, purpose and type of audit and non-audit services to be performed by the external auditors; and oversees the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the audits of the Company's annual financial statements.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, a current copy of which is included as Appendix A of this proxy statement and is available on the Company's Web site at www.hookerfurniture.com. The Report of the Audit Committee is set forth below. Each member of the Audit Committee is independent as defined by applicable Nasdaq listing standards. The Company's Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Beeler is an audit committee financial expert for purposes of the SEC's rules.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2003 with management, including a discussion of the quality and acceptability of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Committee discussed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, the independent auditors' judgments as to the quality and acceptability of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures and letter from the independent auditors to the Committee required by Independence Standard Board Standard No. 1. The Committee has also considered whether the provision of non-audit related services by the independent auditors is compatible with maintaining the independent auditors' independence and found it to be acceptable.

The Committee met with the Company's independent auditors, with and without management present, and discussed the overall scope of their audit, the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2003 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

The Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's executive officers and directors, and any persons owning more than 10% of the Common Stock, to file certain reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Based solely on its review of the copies it has received of the Forms 3, 4 and 5 filed during or with respect to the fiscal year ended November 30, 2003, and written representations from certain reporting persons that no Forms 5 were required to be filed by those persons for that fiscal year, the Company believes that all executive officers, directors and 10% shareholders complied with such filing requirements, except as follows: Alan D. Cole and C. Scott Young were late in filing a Form 3; Henry P. Long was late in filing a Form 4 for one sale transaction; and Paul B. Toms, Jr. was late in filing a Form 5 with respect to one disposition of shares by gift.

In 2002 and 2001, the Company made contributions for premiums under the split-dollar life insurance agreements for these named executive officers. The present value of the benefit of those contributions is included under All Other Compensation for those periods. Paul B. Toms, Jr.	$ 5,948	$ 6,000
Douglas C. Williams	10,348	7,000
E. Larry Ryder	10,348	7,039

- (4) Mr. Young became an executive officer of the Company effective January 2, 2003, in connection with the acquisition of the assets of Bradington-Young, LLC (see Certain Relationships and Related Transactions on page 11).

Salary Continuation Agreements

Through December 2003, each named executive officer (other than Mr. Young) had been a party to a salary continuation agreement under a program maintained by the Company for certain management employees. Salary continuation benefits under the agreements were based on the annual compensation level attained by the executive officer, calculated as follows:

Annual Compensation	Total Salary Continuation Benefit
$175,000 and over	$ 400,000
150,000 to 174,999	350,000
125,000 to 149,999	300,000
100,000 to 124,999	250,000
75,000 to 99,999	200,000
50,000 to 74,999	150,000
Under 50,000	100,000

Once a specified salary continuation benefit level had been attained, that benefit could only increase upon a subsequent increase in annual compensation and would not decrease as a result of any decrease in annual compensation. Pursuant to these agreements each of these named executive officers, or his beneficiary, would have been entitled to receive the maximum benefit of $400,000, payable in ten annual installments of $40,000 upon the named executive officer's retirement at age 60, death or disability. If the named executive officer retired after attaining age 55 but before age 60, the annual payment would have been reduced by 120th of that payment for each full month remaining from the date of retirement until the named executive officer's 60th birthday. Benefits payable on account of the death of the named executive officer commenced immediately, while benefits payable on account of the disability of the named executive officer would not commence until the date on which the named executive officer reached age 60. In December 2003, all of these salary continuation agreements were terminated (see Recent Changes to Executive Compensation below).

Recent Changes to Executive Compensation

In December 2003, the Company restructured certain executive compensation arrangements that cover Messrs. Toms, Williams, Ryder and Spece, as well as certain other executives of the Company. The arrangements that were restructured, and the manner in which they were restructured, are as follows:

The salary continuation agreement for each executive was terminated;

Each executive's split-dollar life insurance agreement was terminated and the executive transferred to the Company his ownership interest in the life insurance policy or policies underlying his split-dollar life insurance agreement;

Each executive received a cash payment from the Company equal to the amount of premiums the executive had paid with respect to the life insurance policy or policies underlying his split-dollar life insurance agreement; and

The Company adopted a new life insurance program and a new supplemental executive retirement plan which cover each of these executives.

Edgar Filing: HOOKER FURNITURE CORP - Form DEF 14A

The new life insurance program provides a death benefit of $1.5 million if the executive dies on or before his 60th birthday, and a $1 million death benefit if he dies after his 60th birthday but on or before his 65th birthday. The life insurance benefit automatically terminates when the executive terminates employment with the Company for any reason other than death or when he attains age 65, whichever occurs first. The life insurance policies funding the new life insurance program are owned by the Company.

The new supplemental executive retirement plan provides a monthly supplemental retirement benefit equal to 40% of the executive's final average monthly compensation, payable for a 15-year period following the executive's termination of employment. Final average monthly compensation means the average monthly base salary and any bonuses paid to the executive during the five-year period prior to his termination of employment with the Company. An executive becomes vested in 75% of the monthly supplemental benefit if the executive remains continuously employed with the Company until attainment of age 60, and is vested in additional 5% increments for each subsequent year that the executive remains continuously employed with the Company. Executives who remain continuously employed to age 65 become fully vested in their monthly supplemental benefit. However, Mr. Spece will become fully vested if he remains continuously employed until he reaches age 60. In addition, the monthly retirement benefit for each participant in the plan, regardless of age, will become fully vested and the present value of all plan benefits will be paid to participants in a lump sum upon a change in control of the Company (as defined in the plan).

The estimated annual benefit payable upon retirement at normal retirement age (assuming full vesting) to each of the named executive officers who participates in the supplemental executive retirement plan is set forth below:

	Estimated Annual Retirement Benefit*
Paul B. Toms, Jr.	$ 130,006
Douglas C. Williams	131,494
E. Larry Ryder	103,393
Michael P. Spece	81,865

* Calculated based on historical average salary and bonus amounts for the five-year period ending November 30, 2003. Actual benefits would be calculated based on the five-year period prior to termination of employment with the Company.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

During the Company's fiscal year ended November 30, 2003, the Compensation Committee included Messrs. Groves (Chairman), Beeler, Cole (beginning March 2003), Gregory, A. Frank Hooker, Jr., J. Clyde Hooker, Jr., Taylor (beginning March 2003) and Walker. A. Frank Hooker, Jr. was an officer of the Company until his retirement in May 1999 and J. Clyde Hooker, Jr. was an officer of the Company until his retirement in December 2000.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

General Policy

The Company's Executive Officer Compensation Program is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The Committee reports to the Board on all compensation matters regarding the Company's senior management. For fiscal 2003, the Committee was composed entirely of non-management directors.

The overall objectives of the program are to attract and retain highly qualified executive talent, to motivate executives to achieve the goals inherent in the Company's business strategy, and to link executive compensation to individual performance as well as the financial performance of the Company.

For fiscal 2003, the primary elements of the program were base salary, annual bonus, salary continuation, and life insurance. While the elements of compensation described below were considered separately, the Committee took into account all of these items of compensation as a whole in determining the appropriate levels of executive compensation.

Base Salaries and Bonus Opportunities

Base salaries for the Company's Chief Executive Officer and other senior executive officers, as well as changes in those salaries, are approved by the Compensation Committee for submission to the Board after considering recommendations by management, and factors such as the nature and responsibilities of each executive's position, competitive industry salaries and the officer's length of service. The Chief Executive Officer reviews management's salary recommendations with the Compensation Committee, which then considers those recommendations in determining appropriate salaries. The executive officer salaries approved by the Compensation Committee are then recommended to the Company's Board of Directors for approval.

The annual bonus program for the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers is intended to motivate and reward the executive officers for achieving high levels of corporate financial performance. The bonus opportunity for each executive officer is expressed as a percentage of the amount by which the Company's pre-tax earnings exceed a specified dollar threshold.

In November of 2002, the Committee reviewed proposed 2003 annual salary and bonus opportunities for the Chief Executive Officer and other senior officers that were prepared by the Company's management. Management proposed that the 2003 base salaries for the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President - Finance and Administration be increased approximately 3.5% above 2002 levels and other senior officers be increased an average of 5.9% for 2003, and suggested that the maximum bonus opportunities for each executive officer be the same as for 2002.

In conducting its review of management's proposals, the Committee reviewed a furniture industry association report on executive compensation, including salary and bonus, for 68 companies engaged in furniture manufacturing. The report analyzed industry cash compensation levels for executive positions identical to or similar to the positions held by the Company's senior executives. The report presented industry salary and total cash compensation by size of the reporting organizations. The Company's most direct competitors for executive talent are not necessarily identical to the companies included in the peer group established to compare shareholder returns. Thus, the peer group of companies in the furniture industry compensation report that was utilized by the Compensation Committee in analyzing management's proposals, is not the same as the peer group index in the Performance Graph included in this Proxy Statement.

The Committee analyzed projections provided by management of total cash compensation (base salary and maximum bonus opportunity) for the Chief Executive Officer and other senior executives based on management projections of levels of future Company earnings. The Committee then compared total 2003-projected compensation for the Chief Executive Officer and the other senior executives to the data contained in the furniture industry compensation report. The projected total compensation for the Company's senior executives generally fell in the top quartile of the companies who participated in the report. The Committee determined that the projected compensation levels were appropriate for a number of reasons. The Company had experienced significant growth in net sales and earnings over the past five years, particularly in comparison to the rest of the wood household furniture industry. Also, the senior executives had overseen the listing of the Company's stock on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market during the year and had been successful in negotiating the purchase of Bradington-Young, LLC. In addition, the Committee observed that management helped the Company to maintain excellent employee relationships, which were enhanced through the administration and performance of the Company's Employee Stock Ownership Plan.

As a result of these considerations, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the total compensation (base salary and maximum bonus opportunity) for the Chief Executive Officer and each of the other senior executives be established as originally proposed by the Chief Executive Officer. The Board of Directors approved the Committee's recommendation.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

For 2003, the salary and bonus of the Chief Executive Officer were determined by the Compensation Committee substantially in conformance with the policies described above for all executive officers. The Committee evaluates the Chief Executive Officer's contribution to the achievement of the Company's financial and non-financial goals on an ongoing basis. Additionally, the Committee annually evaluates the Chief Executive Officer based upon a variety of financial factors as well as the extent to which strategic goals are met. The Committee makes no relative weights or rankings to these factors, but makes a subjective determination based upon consideration of all such factors.

Salary Continuation

During fiscal 2003, the Company maintained a salary continuation program for certain management employees of the Company, including the Chief Executive Officer and each of the other named executive officers (other than Mr. Young). The program was designed to help retain executive talent and to provide additional retirement or disability benefits to supplement the benefits payable under the Company's tax-qualified retirement plans upon an executive's retirement.

The program provided benefits in specified amounts to the executives upon retirement, death, or disability. Executives became entitled to receive the full amount of benefits available under the plan upon attainment of age 60, and a reduced level of benefits upon attainment of age 55. Benefits were also payable in connection with an executive's death or disability. Benefits payable on account of the death of the executive officer commenced immediately, while benefits payable on account of the disability of the executive officer would not commence until the date on which the executive officer reached age 60.

Life Insurance

During fiscal 2003, the Company provided senior executives (other than Mr. Young) with life insurance benefits during their working life and paid up insurance at their retirement. The Company was entitled to recover premiums paid to the insurer on such insurance and retained a collateral interest in each policy to the extent of the premiums paid with respect to such policy. The Committee believes that the life insurance program was helpful in retaining key executive talent.

Recent Changes

In December 2003, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors approved certain changes in the salary continuation and life insurance programs for senior executive officers. For a review of those changes, refer to the heading titled "Recent Changes to Executive Compensation" under "Compensation of Executive Officers."

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally prohibits the Company from deducting compensation of over $1 million that is paid in any taxable year to the Company's Chief Executive Officer or to any of the other four most highly compensated individuals who are executive officers at the end of the year. Current compensation levels for each of the Company's executive officers are below this threshold. In the future, the Board of Directors may approve compensation that would not be fully deductible under Section 162(m) if, in the Board of Director's judgment, after considering the additional costs of not qualifying for full deduction, such compensation is appropriate.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

On January 2, 2003, the Company, through its wholly owned subsidiary B-Y Acquisition LLC, acquired substantially all of the assets of Bradington-Young, LLC, a North Carolina-based manufacturer of upscale leather reclining chairs, executive desk chairs and motion and stationary upholstery in the upper-medium to high-end price niches (Bradington-Young NC). After the closing of the acquisition, B-Y Acquisition LLC changed its name to Bradington-Young, LLC (Bradington-Young VA). C. Scott Young, a member and manager of Bradington-Young NC, now serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Bradington-Young VA and is deemed to be an executive officer of the Company. The aggregate purchase price for the transaction was $29.3 million, consisting of $22.1 million in cash (net of cash acquired), $6.8 million in assumed liabilities and $457,000 of acquisition-related fees. The purchase price was the result of arms-length negotiations between the parties and was approved by the Company's Board of Directors. At the time of the transaction, Mr. Young had a 36% membership interest in Bradington-Young NC. Certain of Mr. Young's immediate family members were also members of Bradington-Young NC at the time of the transaction: Charles S. Young, Jr., Mr. Young's father, had a 7% membership interest; Craig S. Young, Mr. Young's brother, had a 20% membership interest; Clark S. Young, Mr. Young's brother, had an 11% membership interest; and Jay A. Young, Mr. Young's brother, had an 11% membership interest. In addition, Craig S. Young serves as Vice President of Sales of Bradington-Young VA and received $176,855 in salary and bonus for fiscal 2003. Clark S. Young serves as an independent commissioned sales representative for Bradington-Young VA on the same terms as the Company's other independent commissioned sales representatives. He earned $287,722 in commissions in fiscal 2003. Both Craig S. Young and Clarke S. Young are expected to continue to serve in these capacities during fiscal 2004. Before the transaction, the Company had no material relationship with C. Scott Young or any of his immediate family members.

In fiscal 2003, the Company reimbursed to J. Clyde Hooker, Jr., the Chairman Emeritus and a director of the Company, a total of $71,496.47 for (1) the payment of annual premiums under a split-dollar life insurance agreement, plus (2) an additional amount intended to make the premium reimbursement tax-neutral to Mr. Hooker. Mr. Hooker's split-dollar life insurance agreement was established while he was an executive officer of the Company. The Company expects to make a similar payment to Mr. Hooker during fiscal 2004.

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has selected the firm of KPMG LLP as independent public accountants for the Company for fiscal 2004, subject to ratification by the shareholders. Action by the shareholders is not required by law in the selection of independent public accountants, but their selection is submitted by the Company in order to give shareholders an opportunity to ratify the Audit Committee's selection of KPMG. If the shareholders do not ratify the selection of KPMG, the Audit Committee will reconsider the selection of independent public accountants. Unless otherwise specified, shares represented by proxies will be voted for the ratification of the selection of KPMG, as independent public accountants for fiscal 2004.

Representatives of KPMG are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting. They will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Change in Accountant

On September 30, 2002, the Company engaged KPMG to serve as the Company's principal accountant to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending November 30, 2003. BDO Seidman, LLP, the Company's previous principal accountant, continued to serve as the Company's principal accountant to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2002, through the completion of that audit and the date of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for that period. The change in the Company's principal accountant was recommended by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors.

The reports of BDO Seidman with respect to the Company's financial statements for fiscal years 2001 and 2002 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. During fiscal years 2001 and 2002 and the period from November 30, 2002 through the end of BDO Seidman's engagement by the Company, there were no disagreements between the Company and BDO Seidman on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of BDO Seidman, would have caused BDO Seidman to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in its report on the Company's financial statements for such years.

During fiscal years 2001 and 2002 and the period from November 30, 2002 to the date of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended November 30, 2002, the Company did not consult with KPMG regarding either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or any matter that was the subject of a disagreement, as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K under the Exchange Act, or reportable event, as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company has provided BDO Seidman and KPMG with a copy of the foregoing disclosures.

Fees Billed to Company by the Company's Principal Accountant for Fiscal 2003

Audit Fees. Fees billed to the Company by KPMG for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2003 and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q during that fiscal year totaled $218,000.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. The Company did not engage KPMG to provide advice to the Company regarding financial information systems design and implementation during the fiscal year ended November 30, 2003.

All Other Fees. Fees billed to the Company by KPMG during the Company's fiscal year ended November 30, 2003 for all non-audit services, including tax-related services, totaled approximately $31,000.

Audit Committee Preapproval of Audit and Non-Audit Services

The Audit Committee is required to preapprove all audit and permitted non-audit services provided by KPMG, the Company's auditing firm. The Audit Committee has authorized the Committee Chair to preapprove such services between meetings of the Committee up to $15,000 during any fiscal quarter and $50,000 during any fiscal year. The Committee Chair must report any preapproval to the Committee at its next meeting.

OTHER BUSINESS

Management knows of no other business that will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting, but should any other matters be brought before the meeting, it is intended that the persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote that proxy at their discretion.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Voting Procedures

Votes will be tabulated by one or more Inspectors of Elections. A majority of the total votes entitled to be cast on matters to be considered at the Annual Meeting constitutes a quorum. If a share is represented for any purpose at the Annual Meeting, it is deemed to be present for quorum purposes and for all other matters as well. Abstentions and shares held of record by a broker or its nominee (Broker Shares) that are voted on any matter are included in determining the number of votes present or represented at the Annual Meeting. However, Broker Shares that are not voted on any matter at the Annual Meeting will not be included in determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting.

In the election of directors, the ten nominees receiving the greatest number of votes cast in the election of directors will be elected. Votes that are withheld and Broker Shares that are not voted in the election of directors will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, therefore, will have no effect on the election of directors. Actions on all other matters to come before the meeting, including the ratification of the selection of the Company's independent public accountants, will be approved if the votes cast in favor of the action exceed the votes cast against it. Abstentions and Broker Shares that are not voted are not considered cast either for or against a matter and, therefore, will have no effect on the outcome of that matter.

Shareholder Proposals for 2005 Annual Meeting

Any shareholder desiring to present a proposal to the shareholders at the 2005 Annual Meeting and who desires that the proposal be included in the Company's proxy statement and proxy card relating to that meeting, must transmit the proposal to the Secretary of the Company so that it is received at the Company's principal executive offices on or before November 2, 2004. All proposals must comply with applicable Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. With respect to shareholder proposals that are not included in the proxy statement for the 2005 Annual Meeting, the persons named in the proxy solicited by the Company's Board of Directors for the 2005 Annual Meeting will be entitled to exercise the discretionary voting power conferred by that proxy under the circumstances specified in Exchange Act Rule 14a-4(c), including with respect to proposals received by the Company after January 16, 2005.
