Table of ContentsManagement Performance and Financial Conditions*1. Outline of Operations and Business Results

For the interim period ended September 30, 2007, the Komatsu Group registered its sixth consecutive interim period of growth in consolidated interim sales and profits, which also represents record-high 6-month figures. These results reflect a continued improvement of the construction and mining equipment business as well as a good performance of the industrial machinery, vehicles and others business.

Consolidated net sales for the interim period under review reached ¥1,080.0 billion (US$9,392 million), up 21.6% from the previous interim period. For the construction and mining equipment business, demand remained strong against the backdrop of buoyant resource developments and infrastructure improvements around the world. While collaborating with its suppliers, the Komatsu Group continued to expand its production capacity by embarking on full-scale production at the Ibaraki Plant and building the second manufacturing facility for transmissions at the Awazu Plant. The Komatsu Group boosted interim sales by advancing sales of DANTOTSU products which feature enhanced fuel consumption and operating efficiency, by achieving price realization, and by reinforcing its product support capabilities. The Komatsu Group also stepped up interim sales of the industrial machinery, vehicles and others business, centering on forklift trucks and industrial machinery, as steady capital investments remained in Japan and overseas.

Operating income for the interim period totaled ¥162.9 billion (US$1,417 million), registering a substantial increase of 44.8% over the previous interim period. Operating income ratio improved to 15.1%, up 2.4 percentage points a year ago. The solid improvement in operating income reflects not only expanded sales centering on construction and mining equipment but also price realization both in Japan and overseas. As a result, income from continuing operations before income taxes, minority interests and equity in earnings of affiliated companies increased 46.7% over the previous interim period, to ¥158.5 billion (US$1,379 million) for the interim period under review. Net income for the interim period reached ¥103.8 billion (US$903 million), up 54.4% a year ago.

Japan

While public-sector investments remained slack, demand for new equipment increased, especially in the rental industry, reflecting not only an increase in private-sector investments but also further stock adjustment of the market driven by buoyant exports of used equipment. For the interim period under review, the Komatsu Group worked to expand sales of new equipment, realize prices and strengthen the rental and used equipment business. However, interim sales in Japan declined slightly from the previous period a year ago, due largely to intensified competition and the withdrawal from unprofitable businesses.

Table of Contents

The Americas

In North America, the decline of U.S. housing starts became more evident, further reducing the demand for equipment, especially in the residential construction sector. In Latin America, meanwhile, demand expanded particularly in the mining sector. Amid such market conditions, the Komatsu Group worked to sharpen its competitiveness by expanding sales of DANTOTSU models which improve fuel consumption and offer KOMTRAX (Komatsu Machine Tracking System) as a standard feature, while continuing to optimize distributors' inventories in North America. Additionally, the Komatsu Group worked to reinforce sales and product support capabilities for mining customers in North and Latin America. However, sales in the Americas declined slightly from the previous interim period, affected by declined North American demand.

Europe & CIS

Demand in Europe grew, including the five major markets of Germany, the United Kingdom, France, Italy and Spain as well as central and eastern Europe where infrastructure investments were buoyant in tandem with EU expansion. Under that environment, the Komatsu Group worked to accelerate sales of DANTOTSU models with machine capabilities enhanced by KOMTRAX as a standard feature, while improving the efficiency of production, including the reduction of production lead-time. In CIS (Commonwealth of Independent States), demand remained strong in resource and energy development-related sectors as well as urban infrastructure development, and the Komatsu Group worked to strengthen its distribution network and mining equipment business. As a result, interim sales in Europe & CIS made an impressive gain over the previous interim period a year ago.

China

Demand continued to advance in China, fueled by infrastructure development projects expanded nationwide, development of new mines and progress in mechanization of mining to improve management efficiency as the Chinese economy stayed on a high-growth track. The Komatsu Group concerted its efforts to expand sales of new equipment based on IT-capitalized information concerning business negotiations and equipment operations, while working to improve operational efficiency of sales and production. As a result, interim sales in China expanded sharply over the previous interim period a year ago.

Asia & Oceania

In Indonesia, the largest market in Southeast Asia, demand continued to grow in civil engineering, agricultural and forestry industries. Demand for mining equipment also remained strong there. In India, demand remained strong in infrastructure development and mining sectors. Demand for mining equipment also remained strong in Australia. Reflecting expanded local production and reinforced sales and product support capabilities for mining customers in Asia, interim sales in Asia & Oceania expanded substantially over the previous interim period a year ago.

The Middle East & Africa

Demand continued to accelerate in both regions, driven by expanded urban and infrastructure developments in Turkey, the largest market in the Middle East, and oil producing countries on the Gulf as well as by aggressive resource development in Africa. By carrying out proactive sales activities with distributors and reinforcing its product support capabilities, the Komatsu Group boosted interim sales in the Middle East & Africa over the previous interim period a year ago.

Table of Contents

Industrial Machinery, Vehicles and Others

Consolidated net sales of industrial machinery, vehicles and other operations increased 10.6% over the previous interim period a year ago, to ¥165.6 billion (US$1,441 million) for the interim period under review, reflecting expanded sales of large presses in addition to boosted sales of forklift trucks by Komatsu Utility Co., Ltd. Segment profit of the industrial machinery, vehicles and others business improved 23.2% over the previous interim period, to ¥16.9 billion. (US$147 million) Segment profit ratio also improved to 10.2%, up 1.0 percentage point over the previous interim period a year ago.

In the forklift truck business, Komatsu Utility worked to reinforce its business foundation by expanding sales of new equipment and strengthening its sales and service capabilities in fast-growth markets, such as Asia and the Middle East, implementing aggressive sales of electric forklift trucks and launching the hybrid battery model in Japan, which achieves outstanding efficiency of energy consumption.

In the industrial machinery business, the Komatsu Group advanced interim sales by zooming in on demand for capital investments both in Japan and overseas, especially by the automobile industry. With respect to large presses, Komatsu worked to step up sales of DANTOTSU products such as the AC Servo press and expanded its production capacity by embarking on full-scale production at the Kanazawa Plant which began operation in January 2007. As a result, interim sales of large presses advanced over the previous interim period a year ago. In addition, the Komatsu Group advanced collaborative efforts with NIPPEI TOYAMA CORPORATION in which Komatsu made equity participation last year, including mutual use of sales and production facilities of the two.

Notes: 1) Komatsu Forklift Co., Ltd. merged with Komatsu Zenoah Co. and changed its corporate name to Komatsu Utility Co., Ltd. in April 2007.

2) The outdoor power equipment business of Komatsu Zenoah Co. was sold to a Japanese subsidiary of Husqvarna AB of Sweden in April 2007.

2. Conditions of Consolidated Cash Flows

Net cash provided by operating activities declined by ¥15.8 billion from the previous interim period, to ¥86.7 billion (US$754 million), because working capital increased, offsetting an increase in net income resulting from good business performance. Net cash used in investing activities decreased by ¥38.6 billion from the previous interim period, to ¥33.4 billion (US$291 million), because aggressive investments were made in Japan and overseas to expand production capacities and improve productivity, offsetting proceeds from the sale of the outdoor power equipment business. Net cash used in financing activities amounted to ¥27.4 billion (US$239 million), an increase of ¥10.8 billion from the previous interim period.

As a result, cash and cash equivalents totaled ¥117.5 billion (US$1,022 million) at September 30, 2007, an increase of ¥25.3 billion compared to a year ago.

3. Projections for the Fiscal Year Ending March 31, 2008

In the construction and mining equipment business, while there are some serious concerns such as declining demand for residential houses and deteriorating economic climate triggered by the subprime loan problem, we anticipate that global demand will remain buoyant driven by thriving infrastructure investments especially in China and India as well as strong resource development activities in Asia, Australia, Latin America, Africa and some other regions.

As of October 30, 2007, we have revised our earlier projections for consolidated and non-consolidated business results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2008, which we announced on July 30, 2007, as follows.

4. Basic Policy for Redistribution of Profits for the Interim Period Ended September 30, 2007 and Projections for the Fiscal Year Ending March 31, 2008

Komatsu is building a sound financial position and flexible and agile corporate strength to increase its corporate value. Concerning cash dividends to shareholders, the Company maintains the policy of redistributing profits by first striving to continue stable dividends and then considering consolidated business results, while working for the goal of a consolidated payout ratio of 20% or higher.

With respect to interim cash dividends, the Board of Directors set ¥20 per share, an increase of ¥7 from ¥13 for the previous interim dividends paid a year ago. This decision was reached by considering the interim business results and future business prospects at the board meeting held on October 30, 2007.

Furthermore, the Company plans to increase the annual dividends per share by ¥9, to ¥40 (i.e., ¥20 for the interim and ¥20 for the fiscal year-end dividends per share).

Management Policy

1. Basic Management Policy

The cornerstone of Komatsu's management is commitment to Quality and Reliability for maximization of its corporate value. This commitment is not limited to delivering safe and innovative products and services which incorporate the viewpoints of customers. Komatsu is continuing its efforts to enhance the Quality and Reliability of all organizations, businesses, employees and management of the entire Komatsu Group. It is the top management task of Komatsu to continue improving the Quality and Reliability of all these year after year.

2. Mid to Long-Range Management Plan, Target and Issues Ahead

We at the Komatsu Group define our corporate value as the total sum of trust given to us by society and all stakeholders. To increase this corporate value, we have designated the following two management goals.

- 1) To maintain our top-level profitability and financial position in the industry and enhance our position in the global marketplace, especially in Greater Asia.
- 2) To continue management, while keeping market value in mind, which reflects the amount of trust given to us by society and shareholders

To achieve these management goals, we have developed the mid-range management plan "Global Teamwork for 15" for the target year ending March 31, 2010. Under this new management plan, we are focusing our efforts on the following tasks.

- 1) We will continue to concert our efforts on the market introduction of DANTOTSU products, the further enhancement of our market position in Greater Asia and further improvements of fixed costs, on a permanent basis, all which have been carried over from the first-stage Reform of Business Structure project.
- 2) We will continue to work on value-chain reform, a core element of the second-stage Reform, and human resource development on a global, group-wide basis through the reform activities.
- 3) We will also tackle the following new tasks.
 - a) Establishment of flexible manufacturing operations
 - b) Expansion of utility equipment business
 - c) Expansion of parts business
 - d) Reinforcement of industrial machinery business

	¥ 85.40	¥ 90.40	¥ 5.00		¥ 83.34

Note: The amounts in parentheses indicate the changes from the previous interim period.

Table of Contents3. Reasons for the Revision

As we had earlier projected concerning the global market conditions for construction and mining equipment, the decline in North American demand was covered by the increase in demand in other regions of the world. This demonstrated the strong growth of global demand during the first half period under review. However, we are anticipating larger sales in China, Latin America and some other regions of the world than our earlier projections, and thereby we have revised our projection of both consolidated and non-consolidated full-year business results based on the assumption of average foreign exchange rates below.

	1st half results	2nd half projection	Full year projection
JPY/USD	119	115	117
JPY/EUR	163	155	159

Effective date	November 30, 2007		December 1, 2006
Resource for dividend	Retained earnings		Retained earnings

2. Reasons for the Revision

Concerning cash dividends to shareholders, Komatsu maintains the policy of redistributing profits by first striving to continue stable dividends and the considering consolidated business results, while working toward the goal of a consolidated payout ratio of 20% or higher.

For the interim period of the current fiscal year ending March 31, 2008, the Komatsu Group improved its business results centering on the construction and mining equipment business. Concerning the full-year business results, we have also revised our earlier projections upward.

After considering the interim business results and the future business outlook of the Komatsu Group, the Board of Directors set the interim dividends at ¥20 per share, an increase of ¥2 from the projected amount announced on April 26, 2007. The Company has also revised and set the year-end dividends at ¥20 per share, an increase of ¥2 yen from the earlier projection. As a result of these revisions, cash dividends for the year, ending March 31, 2008, will be ¥40 per share, an increase of ¥9 from the previous fiscal year.
