Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 15, 2009, at 10:00 p.m. Eastern time, Discovery Channel will begin broadcasting Treasure Quest, an 11-episode television series that covers some of Odyssey Marine Exploration Inc.'s shipwreck exploration operations and related activities during 2008. Although the series will depict Odyssey personnel, both employees and independent consultants, Odyssey does not have editorial control of the show. The final editing of each episode is performed by the independent production company and/or Discovery Channel. Thus, there may be implications made which are not necessarily those intended to be communicated by Odyssey.

Additionally, Odyssey believes that the episodes may contain opinions, estimates, predictions, forecasts and similar statements regarding Odyssey, its business and operations, shipwrecks and other matters that are made by Discovery Channel, the producers of the series, and other third-parties not associated or affiliated with Odyssey.

Any opinions, estimates, predictions, forecasts or similar statements made by Discovery Channel, the producers of the series, or other third-parties, whether or not employed or contracted by Odyssey, are theirs alone and do not represent opinions, estimates, predictions, or forecasts of Odyssey or its management. Odyssey does not, by being the subject of the series, imply its endorsement of or concurrence with such opinions, estimates, predictions, forecasts or similar statements, and any statements made by Odyssey personnel as edited and displayed in the series are similarly not intended to represent the opinions, estimates, predictions or forecasts of Odyssey or its management.

Information regarding Odyssey, its business and operations, shipwrecks, and related other matters contained in the series should not be relied upon as investment information nor be the basis for any investment decision. Any investment decision should only be made after careful consideration of all available information about Odyssey. Odyssey files annual, quarterly, and current reports, proxy statements, and other information with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. Such materials are available at the SEC's Public Reference Room maintained at 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549 or by visiting the SEC's Internet site at <http://www.sec.gov>.
