Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.
Purchase and Investment Agreement

American Apparel, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into a Purchase and Investment Agreement, dated as of April 21, 2011 (the Investor Purchase Agreement), with certain investors led by Canadian financier Michael Serruya and his family, Delavaco Capital, Inc., Dynamic Power Hedge Fund and Front Street Investment Management Inc. (each a Purchaser and collectively, the Purchasers), and on April 26, 2011 closed the transactions under the Investor Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which (i) the Purchasers purchased from the Company approximately 15.8 million shares of the Company's common stock, par value $.0001 per share (the Common Stock and, such shares, the Investor Initial Shares), at a price of $0.90 per share (the Per Share Price), for the aggregate cash purchase price of approximately $14.2 million, and (ii) the Purchasers have the right to purchase up to an aggregate of approximately 27.4 million additional shares of Common Stock (such right, the Investor Purchase Right and, such shares, the Investor Purchase Right Shares) at the Per Share Price for a 180-day period after the Closing Date (as defined below), in each case subject to certain topping-up and anti-dilution adjustments for additional issuances for cash of Common Stock (or securities exercisable, exchangeable or convertible for Common Stock), prior to the one-year anniversary of the Closing Date (a New Issuance), including reduction of the Per Share Price to the lowest-issued price for New Issuances made at a price below the Per Share Price, subject to some exceptions, as described in the Investor Purchase Agreement. The Investor Initial Shares and the Investor Purchase Right Shares (if exercised in full), represent approximately 15% and 22%, respectively, of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock after giving effect to such respective transactions under the Investor Purchase Agreement but not the Charney Purchase Agreement (as defined below). The closing of the purchase of the Investor Initial Shares occurred on April 26, 2011 (the Closing Date).

The Purchasers also were granted one demand registration right with respect to the Investor Initial Shares and one additional demand registration right if the Investor Purchase Right is exercised, in each case exercisable after the four-month anniversary of the Closing Date and subject to customary notice and suspension periods and other terms and conditions set forth in the Investor Purchase Agreement.

In addition, as a condition to the Purchasers purchasing the Initial Shares, the Purchasers required that Dov Charney (Mr. Charney) be provided a right to receive up to approximately 38.0 million shares of Common Stock as anti-dilution protection if the market price of the Common Stock meets certain thresholds, on the terms and conditions described in the Charney Purchase Agreement (as defined below) (the Charney Anti-Dilution Provision).

Pursuant to the Investor Purchase Agreement and the Charney Purchase Agreement, the Company agreed, to the extent that the Company determines that stockholder approval is required for any of the transactions thereunder, to, as soon as practicable after the Closing Date, amend its preliminary proxy statement filed with the SEC on April 5, 2011 accordingly, including to seek approval of (i) a charter amendment to increase the number of authorized shares by a number sufficient to include the shares issuable pursuant to the Investor Purchase

Right, the Charney Purchase Right (as defined below) and the Charney Anti-Dilution Provision (the Charter Amendment Proposal ) and (ii) as and to the extent required under the rules of the NYSE Amex, the issuance of shares pursuant to the Investor Purchase Right, the Charney Purchase Right and the Charney Anti-Dilution Provision (the Additional Shares Proposal ). The Company also will seek stockholder approval of the issuance of the Charney Initial Shares (as defined below) to Mr. Charney pursuant to the Charney Purchase Agreement, as described below.

In connection with the Investor Purchase Agreement, Mr. Charney entered into a Voting Agreement (the Voting Agreement ), dated as of April 26, 2011, with the Purchasers. Pursuant to the Voting Agreement, Mr. Charney has agreed to vote or execute consents, as applicable, with respect to all of the shares of Common Stock that he at such time beneficially owns, or cause to be voted or a consent to be executed with respect to such shares of Common Stock he at such time controls, in favor of the Charter Amendment Proposal and the Additional Shares Proposal. Mr. Charney is the Company's Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and principal stockholder.

Purchase Agreement with Dov Charney

The Company also entered into a Purchase Agreement, dated as of April 27, 2011, with Mr. Charney (the Charney Purchase Agreement ), pursuant to which, subject to receipt of requisite stockholder approval, (i) Mr. Charney agreed to purchase from the Company 777,778 shares of Common Stock at the Per Share Price, for the aggregate cash purchase price of $700,000 (the Charney Initial Shares ); (ii) the Company granted to Mr. Charney a right to purchase up to 1,555,556 additional shares of Common Stock on substantially the same terms as the Investor Purchase Right granted to Purchasers in the Investor Purchase Agreement (the Charney Purchase Right ); and (iii) the Company provided Mr. Charney with the Charney Anti-Dilution Provision.

The Charney Anti-Dilution Provision provides that Mr. Charney has a right to receive from the Company, subject to the satisfaction of certain average volume weighted closing price targets, and other terms and conditions set forth in the Charney Purchase Agreement, up to approximately 38.0 million shares of Common Stock comprised of (i) up to approximately 12.7 million shares of Common Stock as anti-dilution protection with respect to the issuance to the Purchasers of the Investor Initial Shares (the Charney Initial Anti-Dilution Shares ), and (ii) in proportion to the exercise by the Purchasers of the Investor Purchase Right, an additional up to approximately 25.3 million shares of Common Stock as anti-dilution protection with respect to the issuance to the Purchasers of the Investor Purchase Right Shares (the Charney Purchase Right Anti-Dilution Shares ). Each of the Charney Initial Anti-Dilution Shares and, if applicable, the Charney Purchase Right Anti-Dilution Shares are issuable in three equal installments, one per each measurement period set forth below, subject to meeting the applicable average volume weighted closing price for 60 consecutive trading days, calculated as set forth in the Charney Purchase Agreement ( VWAP ), as follows: (i) for the measurement period from April 16, 2012 to and including April 15, 2013, if the VWAP of the Common Stock during a period of 60 consecutive trading days exceeds $3.25 per share; (ii) for the measurement period from but not including April 16, 2013 to and including April 15, 2014, if the VWAP of the Common Stock during a period of 60 consecutive trading days exceeds $4.25 per share; and (iii) for the measurement period from but not including April 16, 2014 to and including April 15, 2015, the VWAP of the Common Stock during a period of 60 consecutive trading days exceeds $5.25 per share.

(ii) provides that the OSP will report to Company's Audit Committee, will develop and have power to implement a business operating plan to be approved by the Company's Audit Committee and acceptable to BofA and will develop thirteen week cash flow budgets reasonably acceptable to BofA on an ongoing basis which will be tested weekly via variance reports as follows: (a) cumulative receipts will be tested on a rolling three-week basis to ensure aggregate cumulative receipts are not less than 90% of projections and (b) cumulative disbursements will be tested to ensure aggregate cumulative disbursements do not exceed 110% of projections;

(ii) provides that the OSP (so long as the OSP is in effect) will have authority to implement the operating plan;

(iv) provides that, in the event of the issuance and sale of common or preferred stock (including securities convertible, exercisable or exchangeable for common stock) or a debt-for-equity exchange by the Company (other than certain issuances, including (a) common stock or options granted or issued under a board-approved equity incentive plan or other stock option plan for employees of the Company and its subsidiaries, (b) common stock issuable upon the exercise of existing warrants issued to Lion and (c) equity sales pursuant to the Investor Purchase Agreement and the Charney Purchase Agreement (which are subject to a separate provision as described below)) (collectively, a New Equity Sale), in a transaction definitively agreed or consummated prior to the earlier of 365 days after the effectiveness of the Lion Amendment and the repayment of the obligations under the Lion Credit Agreement, the Company will (x) issue additional warrants to Lion exercisable for a number of shares sufficient to prevent the dilution of Lion's fully-diluted beneficial ownership of common stock as a result of such New Equity Sale at an initial exercise price equal to the lesser of $0.90 and the lowest issued price for such New Equity Sale, and (y) subject to receiving any required stockholder approval, reduce the exercise price of the existing warrants issued to Lion to the lowest issued price for such New Equity Sale;

(v) provides that, in the event of a New Equity Sale for a per share price lower than $1.00 per share (or the applicable exercise price of the warrants issued to Lion) in a transaction definitively agreed or consummated on or after the earlier of 365 days after the effectiveness of the Lion Amendment and prior to the repayment of the obligations under the Lion Credit Agreement, the Company will (x) issue additional warrants to Lion exercisable for a number of shares sufficient to prevent the dilution of Lion's fully-diluted beneficial ownership of common stock as a result of such New Equity Sale at an initial exercise price equal to the lowest issued price for such New Equity Sale, and (y) if the net cash proceeds of such New Equity Sale (and any other New Equity Sale within a three month period) are equal to or greater than $5.0 million, and subject to receiving any required stockholder approval, which the Company agreed to seek at an annual meeting of its stockholders, reduce the exercise price of the warrants issued to Lion to the lowest issued price for such New Equity Sale;

In connection with the Closing, on the Closing Date, in accordance with the Lion Credit Agreement (as amended by the Lion Amendment described above), the Company issued to Lion a warrant (the New Lion Warrant), which expires in 2018 and is exercisable at any time during its term, to purchase an aggregate of 3,063,101 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.00 per share, as such price may be adjusted from time to time pursuant to the adjustments specified in the New Lion Warrant and the Lion Credit Agreement.

When the Charney Initial Shares are issued to Mr. Charney, and if shares are issued to Mr. Charney pursuant to the Charney Anti-Dilution Provision or if the Purchasers or Mr. Charney exercise the Investor Purchase Right or the Charney Purchase Right, respectively, the Lion Credit Agreement would require the Company to issue to Lion additional new warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock, as described in the Lion Credit Agreement.

The effectiveness of the Existing Lion Warrant Amendment to the 2009 Warrant is subject to the approval by the Company's stockholders of the exercise price adjustment and the potential issuance of additional shares of Common Stock contemplated by such Existing Lion Warrant Amendment to the 2009 Lion Warrant.

In connection with the issuance of the shares and the purchase rights under the Investor Purchase Agreement and the Charney Purchase Agreement, the exercise price of the warrant issued to SOF Investments, L.P. Private IV on December 19, 2008, was adjusted pursuant to its terms to $2.151.
