Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

Three and Six Months Ended June 30, 2014 and 2013

Note 1 Basis of Presentation

Hanmi Financial Corporation (Hanmi Financial, the Company, we or us) is a Delaware corporation and is subject to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended. Hanmi Bank (the Bank), a California state chartered bank, is a wholly owned subsidiary of Hanmi Financial. During the second quarter of 2014, we disposed of our other subsidiaries, Chun-Ha Insurance Services, Inc., a California corporation (Chun-Ha), and All World Insurance Services, Inc., a California corporation (All World). See Note 3 Sale of Insurance Subsidiaries and Discontinued Operations.

In management's opinion, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of Hanmi Financial and its subsidiaries reflect all adjustments of a normal and recurring nature that are necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim period ended June 30, 2014, but are not necessarily indicative of the results that will be reported for the entire year or any other interim period. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) have been condensed or omitted. The aforementioned unaudited consolidated financial statements are in conformity with GAAP. Such interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The interim information should be read in conjunction with our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013 (the 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K).

The preparation of interim consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Descriptions of our significant accounting policies are included in Note 1 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies in our 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K. During the three months ended June 30, 2014, we adopted an accounting policy related to accounting for investments in low-income housing tax credit according to Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) ASU 2014-01, Accounting for Investments in Qualified Affordable Housing Projects. See Note 2 Accounting for Investments in Qualified Affordable Housing Projects.

Note 2 Accounting for Investments in Qualified Affordable Housing Projects

The Bank invests in qualified affordable housing projects (low income housing) and previously accounted for them under the equity method of accounting. The Bank recognized its share of partnership losses in other operating expenses with the tax benefits recognized in the income tax provision. In January 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-01, Accounting for Investments in Qualified Affordable Housing Projects, which amends ASC 323-720 to provide the ability to elect the proportional amortization method with the amortization expense and tax benefits recognized through the income tax provision. This ASU is effective for the annual period beginning after December 15, 2014, with early adoption being permitted. The Bank elected to early adopt the provisions of the ASU in the second quarter of 2014 and elected the proportional amortization method as retrospective transition. This accounting change in the amortization methodology resulted in changes to account for amortization recognized in prior periods, which impacted the balance of tax credit investments and related tax accounts. The investment amortization expense is presented as a component of the income tax provision.

The cumulative effect of the retrospective application of this accounting principle as of January 1, 2012 was a negative $1.1 million. Net income in the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 decreased by $32,000 and $84,000, respectively, due to the change in accounting principle.

Table of Contents

The following tables present the effect of the retrospective application of this change in accounting principle on the Company's Balance Sheets, Statement of Income and Statement of Cash Flows for the respective periods:

The Bank determined that there were no events or changes in circumstances indicating that it is more likely than not that the carrying amount of the investment will not be realized. Therefore, no impairment was recognized as of June 30, 2014 or December 31, 2013. The investment in low income housing was $12.4 million and $3.0 million as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively. The Bank's unfunded commitments related to low income housing investments was $9.8 million as of June 30, 2014 and zero as of December 31, 2013. The Bank recognized $276,000 and $447,000 as a component of income tax expense during the three and six months ended June 30, 2014, respectively, and tax credits and other benefits received from the tax expenses were $423,000 and $665,000 during the three and six months ended June 30, 2014, respectively.

Note 3 Sale of Insurance Subsidiaries and Discontinued Operations

In June 2014, Hanmi Financial sold its insurance subsidiaries, Chun-Ha and All World, and entered into a stock purchase agreement for their sale. The subsidiaries were classified as held for sale in April 2014 and accounted for as discontinued operations. The operations and cash flows of the businesses have been eliminated and in accordance with the provisions of ASC 205, Presentation of Financial Statements, the results are reported as discontinued operations for all periods presented.

Hanmi Financial completed the sale of its two insurance subsidiaries to Chunha Holding Corporation on June 30, 2014. The total sales price was $3.5 million, of which $2.0 million was paid upon signing. The $2.0 million was reduced by $1.6 million cash and cash equivalents included in net assets of Chun-Ha and All World, resulting in $398,000 net cash proceeds. The remaining $1.5 million will be payable in three equal installments on each anniversary of the closing date through June 30, 2017.

The sale resulted in a $51,000 gain and a $4,000 income tax benefit from operating loss, offset by a $470,000 capital gain tax and a $52,000 operating loss. Consequently, net loss from discontinued operations in the second quarter of 2014 was $467,000, or $0.01 per diluted share. The discontinued operations generated non-interest income, primarily in the line item for insurance commissions, of $2.7 million in the first six months of 2014 and $1.3 million in the first quarter of 2014. They also incurred non-interest expense in various line items of $2.7 million in the first six months of 2014 and $1.4 million in the first quarter of 2014.

All individual securities that have been in a continuous unrealized loss position for 12 months or longer as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 had investment grade ratings upon purchase. The issuers of these securities have not established any cause for default on these securities and the various rating agencies have reaffirmed these securities long-term investment grade status as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013. These securities have fluctuated in value since their purchase dates as market interest rates have fluctuated.

FASB ASC 320 requires other-than-temporarily impaired investment securities to be written down when fair value is below amortized cost in circumstances where: (1) an entity has the intent to sell a security; (2) it is more likely than not that an entity will be required to sell the security before recovery of its amortized cost basis; or (3) an entity does not expect to recover the entire amortized cost basis of the security. If an entity intends to sell a security or if it is more likely than not the entity will be required to sell the security before recovery, an OTTI write-down is recognized in earnings equal to the entire difference between the security's amortized cost basis and its fair value. If an entity does not intend to sell the security or it is not more likely than not that it will be required to sell the security before recovery, the OTTI write-down is separated into an amount representing credit loss, which is recognized in earnings, and the amount related to all other factors, which is recognized in other comprehensive income.

The Company does not intend to sell these securities and it is not more likely than not that we will be required to sell the investments before the recovery of its amortized cost basis. In addition, the unrealized losses on municipal and corporate bonds are not considered other-than-temporarily impaired, as the bonds are rated investment grade and there are no credit quality concerns with the issuers. Interest payments have been made as scheduled, and management believes this will continue in the future and that the bonds will be repaid in full as scheduled. Therefore, in management's opinion, all securities that have been in a continuous unrealized loss position for the past 12 months or longer as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 were not other-than-temporarily impaired, and therefore, no impairment charges as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 were warranted.

Table of ContentsNote 5 Loans

The Board of Directors and management review and approve the Bank's loan policy and procedures on a regular basis to reflect issues such as regulatory and organizational structure changes, strategic planning revisions, concentrations of credit, loan delinquencies and non-performing loans, problem loans, and policy adjustments.

Real estate loans are loans secured by liens or interest in real estate, to provide purchase, construction, and refinance on real estate properties. Commercial and industrial loans consist of commercial term loans, commercial lines of credit, and Small Business Administration (SBA) loans. Consumer loans consist of auto loans, credit cards, personal loans, and home equity lines of credit. We maintain management loan review and monitoring functions that review and monitor pass graded loans as well as problem loans to prevent further deterioration.

The majority of the Bank's loan portfolio consists of commercial real estate and commercial and industrial loans. The Bank has been diversifying and monitoring commercial real estate loans based on property types, tightening underwriting standards, and portfolio liquidity and management, and has not exceeded certain specified limits set forth in the Bank's loan policy. Most of the Bank's lending activity occurs within Southern California.

The allowance for off-balance sheet items is maintained at a level believed to be sufficient to absorb estimated probable losses related to these unfunded credit facilities. The determination of the allowance adequacy is based on periodic evaluations of the unfunded credit facilities including an assessment of the probability of commitment usage, credit risk factors for loans outstanding to these same customers, and the terms and expiration dates of the unfunded credit facilities. As of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, the allowance for off-balance sheet items amounted to $1.6 million and $1.2 million, respectively. Net adjustments to the allowance for off-balance sheet items are included in the provision for credit losses.

Credit Quality Indicators

As part of the on-going monitoring of the credit quality of our loan portfolio, we utilize an internal loan grading system to identify credit risk and assign an appropriate grade (from (0) to (8)) for each and every loan in our loan portfolio. A third party loan review is required on an annual basis. Additional adjustments are made when determined to be necessary. The loan grade definitions are as follows:

Pass and Pass-Watch: Pass and Pass-Watch loans, grades (0-4), are in compliance in all respects with the Bank's credit policy and regulatory requirements, and do not exhibit any potential or defined weaknesses as defined under Special Mention, Substandard or Doubtful. This category is the strongest level of the Bank's loan grading system. It incorporates all performing loans with no credit weaknesses. It includes cash and stock/security secured loans or other investment grade loans.

Special Mention: A Special Mention credit, grade (5), has potential weaknesses that deserve management's close attention. If not corrected, these potential weaknesses may result in deterioration of the repayment of the debt and result in a Substandard classification. Loans that have significant actual, not potential, weaknesses are considered more severely classified.

Substandard: A Substandard credit, grade (6), has a well-defined weakness that jeopardizes the liquidation of the debt. A credit graded Substandard is not protected by the sound worth and paying capacity of the borrower, or of the value and type of collateral pledged. With a Substandard loan, there is a distinct possibility that the Bank will sustain some loss if the weaknesses or deficiencies are not corrected.

Doubtful: A Doubtful credit, grade (7), is one that has critical weaknesses that would make the collection or liquidation of the full amount due improbable. However, there may be pending events which may work to strengthen the credit, and therefore the amount or timing of a possible loss cannot be determined at the current time.

Table of Contents

Loss: A loan classified as Loss, grade (8), is considered uncollectible and of such little value that their continuance as active bank assets is not warranted. This classification does not mean that the loan has absolutely no recovery or salvage value, but rather it is not practical or desirable to defer writing off this asset even though partial recovery may be possible in the future. Loans classified as Loss will be charged off in a timely manner.

As of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, pass/pass-watch (grade 0-4), criticized (grade 5) and classified (grade 6-7) loans, disaggregated by loan class, were as follows:

Impaired Loans

Loans are considered impaired when non-accrual and principal or interest payments have been contractually past due for 90 days or more, unless the loan is both well-collateralized and in the process of collection; or they are classified as Troubled Debt Restructuring (TDR) loans to offer terms not typically granted by the Bank; or when current information or events make it unlikely to collect in full according to the contractual terms of the loan agreements; or there is a deterioration in the borrower s financial condition that raises uncertainty as to timely collection of either principal or interest; or full payment of both interest and principal is in doubt according to the original contractual terms.

We evaluate loan impairment in accordance with applicable GAAP. Impaired loans are measured based on the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan s effective interest rate or, as a practical expedient, at the loan s observable market price or the fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral dependent, less costs to sell. If the measure of the impaired loan is less than the recorded investment in the loan, the deficiency will be charged off against the allowance for loan losses or, alternatively, a specific allocation will be established. Additionally, loans that are considered impaired are specifically excluded from the quarterly migration analysis when determining the amount of the allowance for loan losses required for the period.

The allowance for collateral-dependent loans is determined by calculating the difference between the outstanding loan balance and the value of the collateral as determined by recent appraisals. The allowance for collateral-dependent loans varies from loan to loan based on the collateral coverage of the loan at the time of designation as non-performing. We continue to monitor the collateral coverage, using recent appraisals, on these loans on a quarterly basis and adjust the allowance accordingly.

Table of ContentsNon-Accrual Loans

Loans are placed on non-accrual status when, in the opinion of management, the full timely collection of principal or interest is in doubt. Generally, the accrual of interest is discontinued when principal or interest payments become more than 90 days past due, unless management believes the loan is adequately collateralized and in the process of collection. However, in certain instances, we may place a particular loan on non-accrual status earlier, depending upon the individual circumstances surrounding the loan's delinquency. When a loan is placed on non-accrual status, previously accrued but unpaid interest is reversed against current income. Subsequent collections of cash are applied as principal reductions when received, except when the ultimate collectability of principal is probable, in which case interest payments are credited to income. Non-accrual loans may be restored to accrual status when principal and interest payments become current and full repayment is expected.

The following table details non-accrual loans, disaggregated by loan class, as of the dates indicated:

Loans on non-accrual status, excluding loans held for sale, totaled $25.4 million as of June 30, 2014, compared to $25.9 million as of December 31, 2013, representing a 1.9 percent decrease. Delinquent loans (defined as 30 days or more past due), excluding loans held for sale, were $16.9 million as of June 30, 2014, compared to $16.3 million as of December 31, 2013, representing a 3.9 percent increase.

As of June 30, 2014, other real estate owned (OREO) consisted of two properties in California with a combined carrying value of $1.7 million and no valuation adjustment. As of December 31, 2013, there were three OREOs located in Washington and California with a combined carrying value of $756,000 and a valuation adjustment of $56,000.

Troubled Debt Restructuring

In April 2011, the FASB issued ASU 2011-02, A Creditor's Determination of Whether a Restructuring is a Troubled Debt Restructuring, which clarifies the guidance for evaluating whether a restructuring constitutes a TDR. This guidance is effective for the first interim or annual period beginning on or after June 15, 2011, and should be applied retrospectively to the beginning of the annual period of adoption. For the purposes of measuring impairment of loans that are newly considered impaired, the guidance should be applied prospectively for the first interim or annual period beginning on or after June 15, 2011.

Table of Contents

As a result of the amendments in ASU 2011-02, we reassessed all restructurings that occurred on or after the beginning of the annual period and identified certain receivables as TDRs. Upon identifying those receivables as TDRs, we considered them impaired and applied the impairment measurement guidance prospectively for those receivables newly identified as impaired.

The following table details troubled debt restructurings, disaggregated by concession type and by loan type, as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013:

As of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, total TDRs, excluding loans held for sale, were $23.6 million and $30.0 million, respectively. A debt restructuring is considered a TDR if we grant a concession that we would not have otherwise considered to the borrower, for economic or legal reasons related to the borrower's financial difficulties. Loans are considered to be TDRs if they were restructured through payment structure modifications such as reducing the amount of principal and interest due monthly and/or allowing for interest only monthly payments for six months or less. All TDRs are impaired and are individually evaluated for specific impairment using one of these three criteria: (1) the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate; (2) the loan's observable market price; or (3) the fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral dependent.

At June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, TDRs, excluding loans held for sale, were subjected to specific impairment analysis, and $2.6 million and $2.8 million, respectively, of reserves relating to these loans were included in the allowance for loan losses.

During the three months ended June 30, 2014, we restructured monthly payments on six loans, with a net carrying value of $2.5 million as of June 30, 2014, through temporary payment structure modifications or re-amortization. For the restructured loans on accrual status, we determined that, based on the financial capabilities of the borrowers at the time of the loan restructuring and the borrowers' past performance in the payment of debt service under the previous loan terms, performance and collection under the revised terms are probable.

Table of ContentsServicing Assets

The changes in servicing assets for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013 were as follows:

| | Six Months Ended June 30, | |
|---------------------------------|----------------------------------|-----------------|
| | 2014 | 2013 |
| | (In thousands) | |

| Balance at end of period | $ 6,355 | $ 6,383 |

At June 30, 2014 and 2013, we serviced loans sold to unaffiliated parties in the amounts of $333.0 million and $330.4 million, respectively. These represented loans that have been sold for which the Bank continues to provide servicing. These loans are maintained off balance sheet and are not included in the loans receivable balance. All of the loans being serviced were SBA loans.

Note 6 Income Taxes

The Company's income tax expenses for the continuing operations were $6.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014, compared to $6.0 million for the same period in 2013. The effective income tax rate was 37.37 percent for the three months ended June 30, 2014, compared to 38.98 percent for the same period in 2013. The decrease in the effective tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2014, as compared to the same period in 2013, was due mainly to a $400,000 discrete deferred tax benefit generated from the sale of the insurance businesses and tax benefits to be realized from investments in low income tax credit funds, which further reduced tax rates in the quarter, offset by the expiration of the California EZ net interest deduction and EZ hiring credits. Management concluded that deferred tax assets were more likely than not to be realized, and therefore, no valuation allowance was required as of June 30, 2014.

As of June 30, 2014, the Company was subject to examinations by various federal and state tax authorities for the tax years ended December 31, 2004 through 2012. As of June 30, 2014, the Company was subjected to audits or examinations by the Internal Revenue Service for the 2009 tax year and the California Franchise Tax Board for the 2008 and 2009 tax years. Management does not anticipate any material changes in our financial statements due to the results of the audits.

Note 7 Stockholders EquityStock Warrants

As part of the agreement dated as of July 27, 2010 with Cappello Capital Corp., the placement agent in connection with our best efforts offering and the financial advisor in connection with our completed rights offering, we issued warrants to purchase 250,000 shares of our common stock for services performed. The warrants have an exercise price of $9.60 per share. According to the agreement, the warrants vested on October 14, 2010 and are exercisable until their expiration on October 14, 2015. The Company followed the guidance of FASB ASC Topic 815-40, Derivatives and Hedging - Contracts in Entity's Own Stock, which establishes a framework for determining whether certain freestanding and embedded instruments are indexed to a company's own stock for purposes of evaluation of the accounting for such instruments under existing accounting literature. Under GAAP, the issuer is required to measure the fair value of the equity instruments in the transaction as of earlier of (i) the date at which a commitment for performance by the counterparty to earn the equity instruments is reached or (ii) the date at which the counterparty's performance is complete. The fair value of the warrants at the date of issuance totaling $2.0 million was recorded as a liability and a cost of equity, which was determined by the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The expected stock volatility was based on historical volatility of our common stock over the expected term of the warrants. We used a weighted average expected stock volatility of 111.46 percent. The expected life assumption was based on the contract term of five years. The dividend yield of zero was based on the fact that we had no intention to pay cash dividends for the term at the grant date. The risk free rate of 2.07 percent used for the warrants was equal to the zero coupon rate in effect at the time of the grant.

Upon re-measuring the fair value of the stock warrants at June 30, 2014, the fair value decreased to $400 for the three months ended June 30, 2014. We used a weighted average expected stock volatility of 26.41 percent and a remaining contractual life of 1.1 years based on the contract terms. We also used a dividend yield of 1.30 percent and a risk free rate of 0.35 percent that was equal to the zero coupon rate in effect at the end of the measurement period.

For the six months ended June 30, 2014, there were a $9.0 million of net unrealized gain on available-for-sale securities and interest-only strip, and a $1.8 million reclassification from accumulated other comprehensive income to gains in earnings resulting from the sale of available-for-sale securities. The $1.8 million reclassification adjustment out of accumulated other comprehensive income was included in net gain on sales of investment securities under non-interest income. The securities were previously recorded as unrealized losses of $177,000 in accumulated other comprehensive income.

For the six months ended June 30, 2013, there were a $3.5 million of net unrealized loss on available-for-sale securities and interest-only strip, and a $312,000 reclassification from accumulated other comprehensive income to gains in earnings resulting from the redemption of available-for-sale securities. The $312,000 reclassification adjustment out of accumulated other comprehensive income was included in net gain on sales of investment securities under non-interest income. The securities were previously recorded as unrealized gains of $856,000 in accumulated other comprehensive income.

Note 9 Regulatory MattersRisk-Based Capital

Federal bank regulatory agencies require bank holding companies and banks to maintain a minimum ratio of qualifying total capital to risk-weighted assets of 8.0 percent and a minimum ratio of Tier 1 capital to risk-weighted assets of 4.0 percent. In addition to the risk-based guidelines, the agencies require bank holding companies and banks to maintain a minimum ratio of Tier 1 capital to average assets, referred to as the leverage ratio, of 4.0 percent.

In order for banks to be considered well capitalized, the agencies require them to maintain a minimum ratio of qualifying total capital to risk-weighted assets of 10.0 percent and a minimum ratio of Tier 1 capital to risk-weighted assets of 6.0 percent. In addition to the risk-based guidelines, the agencies require depository institutions to maintain a minimum ratio of Tier 1 capital to average assets, referred to as the leverage ratio, of 5.0 percent.

The capital ratios of Hanmi Financial and the Bank as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 were as follows:

Table of ContentsRegulatory Capital Rule Adjustments

In July 2013, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation approved the Basel III regulatory capital framework and related Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act changes. The rules revise minimum capital requirements and adjust prompt corrective action thresholds. The rules also revise the regulatory capital elements, add a new common equity Tier I capital ratio, and increase the minimum Tier I capital ratio requirement. The revisions permit banking organizations to retain, through a one-time election, the existing treatment for accumulated other comprehensive income. Additionally, the rules implement a new capital conservation buffer. Under the final rules, an institution is subject to limitations on paying dividends, engaging in share repurchases, and paying discretionary bonuses if its capital level falls below the capital conservation buffer amount. The rules will become effective January 1, 2015 for smaller, non-complex banking organizations with full implementation of the capital conservation buffer and certain deductions and adjustments to regulatory capital through January 1, 2019. The Company will continue to evaluate the new changes, and expects that the Company and the Bank will meet the capital requirements.

Note 10 Fair Value MeasurementsFair Value Measurements

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value including a three-level valuation hierarchy, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. The three-level fair value hierarchy requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value are defined as follows:

Level 1 Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the entity has the ability to access as of the measurement date.

Level 2 Significant other observable inputs other than Level 1 prices, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices in markets that are not active, and other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3 Significant unobservable inputs that reflect a company's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.

Fair value is used on a recurring basis for certain assets and liabilities in which fair value is the primary basis of accounting. Additionally, fair value is used on a non-recurring basis to evaluate assets or liabilities for impairment or for disclosure purposes.

We record investment securities available for sale at fair value on a recurring basis. Certain other assets, such as loans held for sale, impaired loans, other real estate owned, and other intangible assets, are recorded at fair value on a non-recurring basis. Non-recurring fair value measurements typically involve assets that are periodically evaluated for impairment and for which any impairment is recorded in the period in which the re-measurement is performed.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instrument below:

Investment securities available for sale The fair values of investment securities available for sale are determined by obtaining quoted prices on nationally recognized securities exchanges. If quoted prices are not available, fair values are measured using matrix pricing, which is a mathematical technique used widely in the industry to value debt securities without relying exclusively on quoted prices for the specific securities but rather by relying on the securities relationship to other benchmark quoted securities, or other model-based valuation techniques requiring observable inputs other than quoted prices such as yield curve, prepayment speeds, and default rates. Level 1 investment securities include U.S. government and agency debentures and equity securities that are traded on an active exchange or by dealers or brokers in active over-the-counter markets. The fair value of these securities is determined by quoted prices on an active exchange or over-the-counter market. Level 2 investment securities primarily include mortgage-backed securities, municipal bonds, collateralized mortgage obligations, SBA loan pool securities, and equity securities in market that are not active. In determining the fair value of the securities categorized as Level 2, we obtain reports from nationally recognized broker-dealers detailing the fair value of each investment security held as of each reporting date. The broker-dealers use prices obtained from nationally recognized pricing services to value our fixed income securities. The fair value of the municipal bonds is determined based on a proprietary model maintained by the broker-dealers. We review the prices obtained for reasonableness based on our understanding of the marketplace, and also consider any credit issues related to the bonds. As we have not made any adjustments to the market quotes provided to us and as they are based on observable market data, they have been categorized as Level 2 within the fair value hierarchy. Level 3 investment securities are instruments that are not traded in the market. As such, no observable market data for the instrument is available, which necessitates the use of significant unobservable inputs.

Table of Contents

As of June 30, 2014, we had a zero coupon tax credit municipal bond of $728,000 compared to $748,000 as of December 31, 2013. This bond was recorded at estimated fair value using a discounted cash flow method, and was measured on a recurring basis with Level 3 inputs. Key assumptions used in measuring the fair value of the tax credit bond as of June 30, 2014 were discount rate and cash flows. The discount rate was derived from the term structure of Bank Qualified (BQ) BBB rated municipal bonds, as the tax credit bond's guarantee had the similar credit strength. The contractual future cash flows were the tax credits to be received for a remaining life of 0.74 year. We do not anticipate a significant deterioration of the tax credit bond's credit quality. Management reviews the discount rate on an ongoing basis based on current market rates.

SBA loans held for sale SBA loans held for sale are carried at the lower of cost or fair value. As of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, we had $3.8 million and zero of SBA loans held for sale, respectively. Management obtains quotes, bids or pricing indication sheets on all or part of these loans directly from the purchasing financial institutions. Premiums received or to be received on the quotes, bids or pricing indication sheets are indicative of the fact that cost is lower than fair value. At June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, the entire balance of SBA loans held for sale was recorded at its cost. We record SBA loans held for sale on a nonrecurring basis with Level 2 inputs.

Non-performing loans held for sale We reclassify certain non-performing loans as held for sale when we decide to sell those loans. The fair value of non-performing loans held for sale is generally based upon the quotes, bids or sales contract prices which approximate their fair value. Non-performing loans held for sale are recorded at estimated fair value less anticipated liquidation cost. As of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, we did not have non-performing loans held for sale, which are measured on a nonrecurring basis with Level 2 inputs.

Stock warrants The Company followed the guidance of FASB ASC Topic 815-40, Derivatives and Hedging Contracts in Entity's Own Stock, which establishes a framework for determining whether certain freestanding and embedded instruments are indexed to a company's own stock for purposes of evaluation of the accounting for such instruments under existing accounting literature. Under GAAP, the issuer is required to measure the fair value of the equity instruments in the transaction as of earlier of (i) the date at which a commitment for performance by the counterparty to earn the equity instruments is reached or (ii) the date at which the counterparty's performance is complete. The fair value of the warrants was recorded as a liability and a cost of equity, which was determined by the Black-Scholes option pricing modeling and was measured on a recurring basis with Level 3 inputs.

⁽¹⁾ Reflects a zero coupon tax credit municipal bond. As the Company was not able to obtain a price from independent external pricing service providers, the discounted cash flow method was used to determine its fair value. The bond carried a par value of $700,000 and an amortized value of $699,000 with a remaining life of 0.74 year at June 30, 2014.

⁽²⁾ Reflects warrants for our common stock issued in connection with services Cappello Capital Corp. provided to us as a placement agent in connection with our best efforts public offering and as our financial adviser in connection with our completed rights offering. The warrants were immediately exercisable when issued at an exercise price of $9.60 per share of our common stock and expire on October 14, 2015. See Note 7 Stockholders Equity for more details. The carrying value at June 30, 2014 was $400.

Assets and Liabilities Measured at Fair Value on a Non-Recurring Basis

As of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis are as follows:

FASB ASC 825 requires disclosure of the fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities, including those financial assets and financial liabilities that are not measured and reported at fair value on a recurring basis or non-recurring basis. The methodologies for estimating the fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis or non-recurring basis are discussed above.

The estimated fair value of financial instruments has been determined by using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. However, considerable judgment is required to interpret market data in order to develop estimates of fair value. Accordingly, the estimates presented herein are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that we could realize in a current market exchange. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methodologies may have a material effect on the estimated fair value amounts.

The estimated fair values of financial instruments were as follows:

Table of Contents

The methods and assumptions used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it was practicable to estimate that value are explained below:

Cash and cash equivalents The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments (Level 1).

Investment securities The fair value of investment securities, consisting of investment securities available for sale, is generally obtained from market bids for similar or identical securities, from independent securities brokers or dealers, or from other model-based valuation techniques described above (Level 1, 2 and 3).

Loans receivable, net of allowance for loan losses The fair value for loans receivable is estimated based on the discounted cash flow approach. The discount rate was derived from the associated yield curve plus spreads and reflects the offering rates offered by the Bank for loans with similar financial characteristics. Yield curves are constructed by product type using the Bank's loan pricing model for like-quality credits. The discount rates used in the Bank's model represent the rates the Bank would offer to current borrowers for like-quality credits. These rates could be different from what other financial institutions could offer for these loans. No adjustments have been made for changes in credit within the loan portfolio. It is our opinion that the allowance for loan losses relating to performing and nonperforming loans results in a fair valuation of such loans. Additionally, the fair value of our loans may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market existed for such loans and may differ materially from the values that we may ultimately realize (Level 3).

Loans held for sale Loans held for sale are carried at the lower of aggregate cost or fair market value, as determined based upon quotes, bids or sales contract prices, or as may be assessed based upon the fair value of the collateral which is obtained from recent real estate appraisals (Level 2). Adjustments are routinely made in the appraisal process by the appraisers to adjust for differences between the comparable sales and income data available. Such adjustment is typically significant and results in Level 3 classification of the inputs for determining fair value.

Accrued interest receivable The carrying amount of accrued interest receivable approximates its fair value (Level 1).

Investment in Federal Home Loan Bank and Federal Reserve Bank stock The carrying amounts of investment in FHLB and FRB stock approximate fair value as such stock may be resold to the issuer at carrying value (Level 1).

Non-interest-bearing deposits The fair value of non-interest-bearing deposits is the amount payable on demand at the reporting date (Level 2).

Interest-bearing deposits The fair value of interest-bearing deposits, such as savings accounts, money market checking, and certificates of deposit, is estimated based on discounted cash flows. The cash flows for non-maturity deposits, including savings accounts and money market checking, are estimated based on their historical decaying experiences. The discount rate used for fair valuation is based on interest rates currently being offered by the Bank on comparable deposits as to amount and term (Level 3).

Borrowings Borrowings consist of FHLB advances and other borrowings. Discounted cash flows based on current market rates for borrowings with similar remaining maturities are used to estimate the fair value of borrowings (Level 3).

Accrued interest payable The carrying amount of accrued interest payable approximates its fair value (Level 1).

Stock warrants The fair value of stock warrants is determined by the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The expected stock volatility is based on historical volatility of our common stock over expected term of the warrants. The expected life assumption is based on the contract term and dividend yield is based on the Company's annual dividend divided by its current share price. The risk free rate used for the warrants is equal to the zero coupon rate in effect at the end of the measurement period (Level 3).

Commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit The fair values of commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit are based upon the difference between the current value of similar loans and the price at which the Bank has committed to make the loans (Level 3).

Note 11 Share-Based Compensation

Share-Based Compensation Expense

For the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, share-based compensation expense was $447,000 and $92,000, respectively, and the related tax benefits on non-qualified stock options were $72,000 and $21,000, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, share-based compensation expense was $1.1 million and $189,000, respectively, and the related tax benefits on non-qualified stock options were $183,000 and $32,000, respectively.

Table of Contents

There were 18,500 and 33,695 stock options exercised during the three and six months ended June 30, 2014, compared to 562 and 2,241 stock options exercised during the same periods in 2013.

Restricted Stock Awards

Restricted stock awards granted under the 2013 Equity Compensation Plan, which replaced the 2007 Equity Compensation Plan, generally become fully vested after three to five years of continued employment from the date of grant. Hanmi Financial becomes entitled to an income tax deduction in an amount equal to the taxable income reported by the holders of the restricted stock awards when the restrictions are released and the shares are issued. Restricted stock awards are forfeited if officers and employees terminate prior to the lapsing of restrictions. Forfeitures of restricted stock awards are treated as cancelled shares.

The table below provides information for restricted stock awards for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014:

Note 12 Earnings Per Share

Earnings per share (EPS) is calculated on both a basic and a diluted basis. Basic EPS excludes dilution and is computed by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur if stock options or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that would then share in earnings, excluding common shares in treasury. Unvested restricted stock is excluded from the calculation of weighted-average common shares for basic EPS. For diluted EPS, weighted-average common shares include the impact of restricted stock under the treasury method.

The following table is a reconciliation of the components used to derive basic and diluted EPS for the periods indicated:

For the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, stock options totaling 58,975 and 74,275, respectively, were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because their effect would be anti-dilutive.

Note 13 Off-Balance Sheet Commitments

The Bank is a party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of our customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. These instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk similar to the risk involved with on-balance sheet items recognized in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The Bank's exposure to credit losses in the event of non-performance by the other party to commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit is represented by the contractual notional amount of those instruments. The Bank uses the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for extending loan facilities to customers. The Bank evaluates each customer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis. The amount of collateral obtained, if deemed necessary by the Bank upon extension of credit, was based on management's credit evaluation of the counterparty.

Collateral held varies but may include accounts receivable, inventory, premises and equipment, and income-producing or borrower-occupied properties. The following table shows the distribution of undisbursed loan commitments as of the dates indicated:

| | June 30, 2014 | December 31, 2013 |
|---|--------------------------|------------------------------|
| | (In thousands) | |
| Commitments to extend credit | $ 271,225 | $ 246,161 |
| Standby letters of credit | 8,310 | 8,926 |
| Commercial letters of credit | 4,066 | 4,179 |
| Unused credit card lines | 1,495 | 12,223 |
| Total undisbursed loan commitments | $ 285,096 | $ 271,489 |

Note 14 Liquidity

Hanmi Financial

Management believes that Hanmi Financial, on a stand-alone basis, has adequate liquid assets to meet its operating cash needs through June 30, 2015.

Hanmi Bank

The principal objective of our liquidity management program is to maintain the Bank's ability to meet the day-to-day cash flow requirements of our customers who either wish to withdraw funds or to draw upon credit facilities to meet their cash needs. Management believes that the Bank, on a stand-alone basis, has adequate liquid assets to meet its current obligations. The Bank's primary funding source will continue to be deposits originating from its branch platform. The Bank's wholesale funds historically consisted of FHLB advances and brokered deposits. As of June 30, 2014, the Bank had no brokered deposits.

We monitor the sources and uses of funds on a regular basis to maintain an acceptable liquidity position. The Bank's primary source of borrowings is the FHLB, from which the Bank is eligible to borrow up to 30 percent of its assets. As of June 30, 2014, the total borrowing capacity available based on pledged collateral and the remaining available borrowing capacity were $630.7 million and $533.7 million, respectively, compared to $343.3 million and $215.8 million, respectively, as of December 31, 2013. The Bank's FHLB borrowings as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 totaled $97.0 million and $127.5 million, respectively, which represented 3.13 percent and 4.17 percent of assets as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively.

The amount that the FHLB is willing to advance differs based on the quality and character of qualifying collateral pledged by the Bank, and the advance rates for qualifying collateral may be adjusted upwards or downwards by the FHLB from time to time. To the extent deposit renewals and deposit growth are not sufficient to fund maturing and withdrawable deposits, repay maturing borrowings, fund existing and future loans and investment securities and otherwise fund working capital needs and capital expenditures, the Bank may utilize the remaining borrowing capacity from its FHLB borrowing arrangement.

As a means of augmenting its liquidity, the Bank had an available borrowing source of $70.6 million from the Federal Reserve Discount Window, to which the Bank pledged loans with a carrying value of $95.4 million, and had no borrowings as of June 30, 2014. In December 2012, the Bank established a line of credit with Raymond James & Associates, Inc. for repurchase agreements up to $100.0 million. The Bank established unsecured federal funds lines of credit totaling $95.0 million from three financial institutions in June 2014 primarily to support short-term liquidity.

The Bank has Contingency Funding Plans (CFPs) designed to ensure that liquidity sources are sufficient to meet its ongoing obligations and commitments, particularly in the event of a liquidity contraction. The CFPs are designed to examine and quantify its liquidity under various stress scenarios. Furthermore, the CFPs provide a framework for management and other critical personnel to follow in the event of a liquidity contraction or in anticipation of such an event. The CFPs address authority for activation and decision making, liquidity options and the responsibilities of key departments in the event of a liquidity contraction.

Note 15 Segment Reporting

Through our branch network and lending units, we provide a broad range of financial services to individuals and companies located primarily in Southern California. These services include demand, time and savings deposits; and commercial and industrial, real estate and consumer lending. While our chief decision makers monitor the revenue streams of our various products and services, operations are managed and financial performance is evaluated on a company-wide basis. Accordingly, we consider all of our operations to be aggregated in one reportable operating segment.

Note 16 Subsequent Events

In connection with Hanmi Financial's acquisition of Central Bancorp, Inc. (CBI), the Bank received notice of approval from the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco on July 17, 2014. On August 1, 2014, Hanmi Financial, received a waiver of the application requirements under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 from the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, acting on delegated authority from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, in connection with the proposed merger of CBI with and into Hanmi Financial and the proposed merger of United Central Bank (UCB), the Texas state-chartered bank subsidiary of CBI, with and into Hanmi Bank.

Table of Contents

On August 4, 2014, the California Department of Business Oversight approved Hanmi Bank's application to merge with UCB.

All necessary regulatory clearances to consummate the mergers have been received. The transaction, which was announced on December 16, 2013 and approved by the shareholders of CBI on April 17, 2014, is expected to be completed on August 31, 2014, subject to the satisfaction of other customary closing conditions pursuant to the definitive agreement.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following is management's discussion and analysis of the major factors that influenced our results of operations and financial condition as of and for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014. This analysis should be read in conjunction with our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 (the 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K) and with the unaudited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto set forth in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2014 (this Report).

Forward-Looking Statements

Some of the statements under Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and elsewhere in this Report constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). All statements in this Report other than statements of historical fact are forward looking statements for purposes of federal and state securities laws, including, but not limited to, statements about anticipated future operating and financial performance, financial position and liquidity, business strategies, regulatory and competitive outlook, investment and expenditure plans, capital and financing needs, plans and objectives of management for future operations, and other similar forecasts and statements of expectation and statements of assumption underlying any of the foregoing. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as may, will, should, could, expects, plans, intends, anticipates, believes, estimates, predicts, potential, or continue, or terms and other comparable terminology. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements to differ from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statement.

For a discussion of some of the other factors that might cause such a difference, see the discussion contained in this Report under the heading Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations. Also see Item 1A. Risk Factors, Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations-Interest Rate Risk Management and Capital Resources and Liquidity in our 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K, as well as other factors we identify from time to time in our periodic reports, including our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, filed pursuant to the Exchange Act. We undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that occur after the date, on which such statements were made, except as required by law.

Critical Accounting Policies

We have established various accounting policies that govern the application of GAAP in the preparation of our financial statements. Our significant accounting policies are described in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in our 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K. Certain accounting policies require us to make significant estimates and assumptions that have a material impact on the carrying value of certain assets and liabilities, and we consider these critical accounting policies. For a description of these critical accounting policies, see Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations Critical Accounting Policies in our 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K. We use estimates and assumptions based on historical experience and other factors that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ significantly from these estimates and assumptions, which could have a material impact on the carrying value of assets and liabilities at the balance sheet dates and our results of operations for the reporting periods. Management has discussed the development and selection of these critical accounting policies with the Audit Committee of Hanmi Financial's Board of Directors.

Table of ContentsNon-GAAP Financial Measures*Tangible Stockholders' Equity to Tangible Assets Ratio

Tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio is supplemental financial information determined by a method other than in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). This non-GAAP measure is used by management in analyzing Hanmi Financial's capital strength. Tangible equity is calculated by subtracting goodwill and other intangible assets from stockholders' equity. Banking and financial institution regulators also exclude goodwill and other intangible assets from stockholders' equity when assessing the capital adequacy of a financial institution. Management believes the presentation of this financial measure excluding the impact of these items provides useful supplemental information that is essential to a proper understanding of the capital strength of Hanmi Financial. This disclosure should not be viewed as a substitution for results determined in accordance with GAAP, nor is it necessarily comparable to non-GAAP performance measures that may be presented by other companies.

The following table reconciles this non-GAAP performance measure to the GAAP performance measure as of the dates indicated:

Executive Overview

For the second quarter ended June 30, 2014, we recognized net income of $11.0 million, or $0.35 per diluted share, compared to net income of $9.5 million, or $0.30 per diluted share, for the second quarter ended June 30, 2013.

Financial highlights include:

Gross loans increased 7.4 percent to $2.35 billion at June 30, 2014 from $2.19 billion at June 30, 2013 and increased 3.2 percent from $2.28 billion at March 31, 2014.

Deposits grew 7.7 percent to $2.54 billion as of June 30, 2014 from $2.36 billion as of June 30, 2013, with non-interest bearing deposits up 23.6 percent and representing 35.9 percent of deposits.

The mix of core deposits increased to 80.9 percent of deposits at June 30, 2014, as compared to 76.1 percent of deposits at June 30, 2013.

Improving asset quality contributed to a $3.9 million negative loan loss provision in the second quarter of 2014.

Net income from continuing operations in the second quarter of 2014 increased 4.5 percent to $11.5 million, or $0.36 per diluted share, compared to $11.0 million, or $0.34 per diluted share, in the first quarter of 2014, and grew 23.4 percent from $9.3 million, or $0.29 per diluted share, in the second quarter of 2013.

Net interest margin was 3.94 percent for the second quarter of 2014, down 8 basis points from the first quarter of 2014 and 16 basis points from 4.10 percent in the second quarter of 2013.

A cash dividend of $0.07 per share, representing a 19.4 percent payout ratio for the second quarter of 2014, was paid on July 14, 2014.

Results of Operations

Net Interest Income

Our primary source of revenue is net interest income, which is the difference between interest and fees derived from earning assets, and interest paid on liabilities obtained to fund those assets. Our net interest income is affected by changes in the level and mix of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, referred to as volume changes. Net interest income is also affected by changes in the yields earned on assets and rates paid on liabilities, referred to as rate changes. Interest rates charged on our loans are affected principally by changes to interest rates, the demand for such loans, the supply of money available for lending purposes, and other competitive factors. Those factors are, in turn, affected by general economic conditions and other factors beyond our control, such as federal economic policies, the general supply of money in the economy, legislative tax policies, governmental budgetary matters, and the actions of the Federal Reserve Board.

Table of Contents

The following table shows the average balances of assets, liabilities and stockholders' equity; the amount of interest income and interest expense; the average yield or rate for each category of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities; and the net interest spread and the net interest margin for the periods indicated. All average balances are daily average balances.

(1) Loans are net of deferred fees and related direct costs, but exclude the allowance for loan losses. Non-accrual loans are included in the average loan balance. Loan fees have been included in the calculation of interest income. Loan fees were $403,508 and $205,000 for the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

(2) Computed on a tax-equivalent basis using an effective marginal rate of 35 percent.

(3) Represents the average rate earned on interest-earning assets less the average rate paid on interest-bearing liabilities.

(4) Represents annualized net interest income as a percentage of average interest-earning assets.

The table below shows changes in interest income and interest expense and the amounts attributable to variations in interest rates and volumes for the periods indicated. The variances attributable to simultaneous volume and rate changes have been allocated to the change due to volume and the change due to rate categories in proportion to the relationship of the absolute dollar amount attributable solely to the change in volume and to the change in rate.

Interest income on a tax-equivalent basis increased $769,000, or 2.5 percent, to $31.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014 from $30.4 million for the same period in 2013. Interest expense remained the same at $3.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013. For the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, net interest income before provision for credit losses on a tax-equivalent basis was $28.0 million and $27.2 million, respectively. The increase in net interest income before provision for credit losses was primarily attributable to growth in average loan balances and investment securities, partially offset by lower average yields on new and renewing loans. The net interest spread and net interest margin for the three months ended June 30, 2014 were 3.64 percent and 3.94 percent, respectively, compared to 3.81 percent and 4.10 percent, respectively, for the same period in 2013.

Average gross loans increased $133.3 million, or 6.2 percent, to $2.30 billion for the three months ended June 30, 2014 from $2.17 billion for the same period in 2013. Average investment securities increased $74.2 million, or 16.4 percent, to $526.5 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014 from $452.3 million for the same period in 2013. Average interest-earning assets increased $196.4 million, or 7.4 percent, to $2.85 billion for the three months ended

June 30, 2014 from $2.66 billion for the same period in 2013. The increase in average interest-earning assets was due mainly to an increase in new loan productions and investment security purchases, partially offset by a decrease in low-yield interest-bearing deposits in other banks. Average interest-bearing liabilities increased $54.9 million to $1.72 billion for the three months ended June 30, 2014, compared to $1.66 billion for the same period in 2013. The increase in average interest-bearing liabilities resulted primarily from increases in non-jumbo time deposits and FHLB advances, partially offset by a decrease in jumbo time deposits.

The average yield on loans decreased to 4.95 percent for the three months ended June 30, 2014 from 5.16 percent for the same period in 2013. The average yield on investment securities decreased to 2.14 percent for the three months ended June 30, 2014 from 2.26 percent for the same period in 2013. The average yield on interest-earning assets decreased 21 basis points to 4.38 percent for the three months ended June 30, 2014 from 4.59 percent for the same period in 2013, due primarily to lower average yields on the new and renewing loans. The average cost on interest-bearing liabilities decreased 4 basis points to 0.74 percent for the three months ended June 30, 2014 from 0.78 percent for the same period in 2013. This decrease was due primarily to decreases in the average rates of savings and jumbo time deposits, partially offset by an increase in non-jumbo time deposits.

Interest income on a tax-equivalent basis increased $2.6 million, or 4.3 percent, to $62.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014 from $59.9 million for the same period in 2013. Interest expense decreased $563,000, or 8.0 percent, to $6.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014, compared to $7.0 million for the same period in 2013. For the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, net interest income before provision for credit losses on a tax-equivalent basis was $56.0 million and $52.8 million, respectively. The increase in net interest income before provision for credit losses was primarily attributable to growth in average loan balances and investment securities, and the elimination of interest payments on trust preferred securities (TPS), which were partially offset by lower average yields on new and renewing loans and investment securities. The net interest spread and net interest margin for the six months ended June 30, 2014 were 3.68 percent and 3.98 percent, respectively, compared to 3.68 percent and 3.98 percent, respectively, for the same period in 2013.

Average gross loans increased $158.3 million, or 7.5 percent, to $2.28 billion for the six months ended June 30, 2014 from $2.12 billion for the same period in 2013. Average investment securities increased $68.1 million, or 14.7 percent, to $530.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014 from $462.8 million for the same period in 2013. Average interest-earning assets increased $164.5 million, or 6.1 percent, to $2.84 billion for the six months ended June 30, 2014 from $2.68 billion for the same period in 2013. The increase in average interest-earning assets was due mainly to an increase in new loan productions and investment security purchases, primarily offset by a decrease in low-yield interest-bearing deposits in other banks. Average interest-bearing liabilities increased $42.5 million to $1.74 billion for the six months ended June 30, 2014, compared to $1.70 billion for the same period in 2013. The increase in average interest-bearing liabilities resulted primarily from an increase in non-jumbo time deposits and FHLB advances, partially offset by the reduction of jumbo time deposits and the redemption of TPS.

The average yield on loans decreased to 5.01 percent for the six months ended June 30, 2014 from 5.20 percent for the same period in 2013. The average yield on investment securities decreased to 2.01 percent for the six months ended June 30, 2014 from 2.07 percent for the same period in 2013. The average yield on interest-earning assets decreased 8 basis points to 4.43 percent for the six months ended June 30, 2014 from 4.51 percent for the same period in 2013, due primarily to lower average yields on the new and renewing loans. The average cost on interest-bearing liabilities decreased 8 basis points to 0.75 percent for the six months ended June 30, 2014 from 0.83 percent for the same period in 2013. This decrease was due primarily to elimination of interest payments on TPS.

Table of ContentsProvision for Credit Losses

For the three months ended June 30, 2014, a negative provision for credit losses of $3.9 million was recorded due to improvements in historical loss rates, qualitative factors, and classified loans, compared to zero provision for the same period in 2013. Classified loans decreased 49.6 percent to $45.2 million as of June 30, 2014 from $89.6 million a year ago. For the six months ended June 30, 2014, a negative provision for credit losses of $7.2 million was recorded due to aforementioned reasons, compared to zero provision for the same period in 2013. For the six months ended June 30, 2014, recoveries on loans previously charged off increased $3.4 million to $6.0 million from $2.6 million for the same period in 2013, and charge-offs were $4.2 million, compared to $6.5 million for the same period in 2013. See

Non-Performing Assets and Allowance for Loan Losses and Allowance for Off-Balance Sheet Items for further details.

Non-Interest Income

The following table sets forth the various components of non-interest income for the periods indicated:

| | Three Months Ended | | Increase (Decrease) | |
|---|---------------------------|-----------------|----------------------------|-------------------|
| | June 30, | 2013 | Amount | Percentage |
| | 2014 | 2013 | | |

| Trade finance fees | 306 | 276 | 30 | 10.87% |
| Other service charges and fees | 369 | 335 | 34 | 10.15% |
| Bank-owned life insurance income | 224 | 233 | (9) | -3.86% |
| Gain on sales of SBA loans guaranteed portion | 498 | 2,378 | (1,880) | -79.06% |
| Net loss on sales of other loans | | (460) | 460 | -100.00% |
| Net gain on sales of investment securities | 364 | 303 | 61 | 20.13% |
| Other operating income | 253 | 248 | 5 | 2.02% |
| Total non-interest income | $ 5,073 | $ 6,738 | $ (1,665) | -24.71% |

For the three months ended June 30, 2014, non-interest income was $5.1 million, a decrease of $1.7 million, or 24.7 percent, compared to $6.7 million for the same period in 2013. The decrease was primarily attributable to a $1.9 million decrease in gain on sales of SBA loans guaranteed portion and a $316,000 decrease in service charges on deposit accounts, offset mainly by no loss on sales of other loans for the three months ended June 30, 2014. Service charges on deposit accounts, which represent 42.8 percent of total non-interest income for the three months ended June 30, 2014, decreased to $2.6 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014, compared with $2.9 million for the same period in 2013, due mainly to decreases in non-sufficient funds and analysis fee charges. Net gain on sales of SBA loans guaranteed portion, which represent 9.8 percent of total non-interest income for the three months ended June 30, 2014, decreased to $498,000 for the three months ended June 30, 2014, compared to $2.4 million for the same period in 2013, which reflects the on-going reforms in the SBA lending department.

| Total non-interest income | $ 10,901 | $ 13,887 | $ (2,986) | -21.50% |

For the six months ended June 30, 2014, non-interest income was $10.9 million, a decrease of $3.0 million, or 21.5 percent, compared to $13.9 million for the same period in 2013. The decrease was primarily attributable to a $4.0 million decrease in gain on sales of SBA loans guaranteed portion, offset mainly by a $1.5 million increase in net gain on sales of investment securities. Service charges on deposit accounts, which represent 46.2 percent of total non-interest income for the six months ended June 30, 2014, decreased to $5.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014, compared with $5.9 million for the same period in 2013, due mainly to decreases in non-sufficient funds and analysis fee charges. Net gain on sales of investment securities, which represent 16.4 percent of total non-interest income for the six months ended June 30, 2014, increased to $1.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014, compared to $312,000 for the same period in 2013.

Non-Interest Expense

The following table sets forth the breakdown of non-interest expense for the periods indicated:

| | Three Months | | Increase (Decrease) | |

| Total non-interest expense | $ 18,557 | $ 18,607 | $ (50) | -0.27% |

Non-interest expense was $18.6 million for the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013. The slight decrease of $50,000, or 0.27 percent, in non-interest expense was attributable mainly to a $1.6 million increase in salaries and employee benefits, reflecting stock based compensation grants, one-time severance payments for the reduction in-force initiatives, and normal salary and employee benefits costs escalation. This increase was offset mainly by a $1.6 million decrease in professional fees, reflecting lower costs associated with strategic reviews and litigations.

| Total non-interest expense | $ 36,830 | $ 36,263 | $ 567 | 1.56% |

For the six months ended June 30, 2014, non-interest expense was $36.9 million, an increase of $567,000, or 1.56 percent, compared to $36.3 million for the same period in 2013. The increase was attributable mainly to a $3.5 million increase in salaries and employee benefits, reflecting stock based compensation grants, one-time severance payments for the reduction-in-force initiatives, and normal compensation escalation. This increase was offset mainly by a $3.0 million decrease in professional fees, reflecting lower costs associated with strategic reviews and litigations.

Provision for Income Taxes

The second quarter provision for income taxes from continuing operations was $6.9 million, which is an effective tax rate of 37.37 percent, compared to $7.8 million, or 41.70 percent, in the first quarter of 2014 and $6.0 million, or 38.98 percent, in the second quarter of 2013. For the first six months of 2014, the provision for income taxes from continuing operations was $14.7 million, or 39.56 percent, compared to $10.9 million, or 35.96 percent, in the first six months of 2013. Two major items reduced the second quarter tax rate; the sale of the insurance businesses generated a $400,000 discrete deferred tax benefit and tax benefits to be realized from investments in low income tax credit funds further reduced tax rates in the quarter.

Financial ConditionInvestment Portfolio

Investment securities are classified as held to maturity or available for sale in accordance with GAAP. Those securities that we have the ability and the intent to hold to maturity are classified as held to maturity. All other securities are classified as available for sale. There were no trading or held-to-maturity securities as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013. Securities classified as held to maturity are stated at cost, adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts, and available-for-sale securities are stated at fair value. The composition of our investment portfolio reflects our investment strategy of providing a relatively stable source of interest income while maintaining an appropriate level of liquidity. The investment portfolio also provides a source of liquidity by pledging as collateral or through repurchase agreement and collateral for certain public funds deposits.

As of June 30, 2014, the investment portfolio was composed primarily of mortgage-backed securities, collateralized mortgage obligations and U.S. government agency securities. Investment securities available for sale were 100 percent of the investment portfolio as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013. Most of the securities carried fixed interest rates. Other than holdings of U.S. government agency securities, there were no investments in securities of any one issuer exceeding 10 percent of stockholders' equity as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013.

As of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, loans receivable, net of deferred loan costs and allowance for loan losses, totaled $2.30 billion and $2.18 billion, respectively, representing an increase of $123.3 million, or 5.7 percent. Gross loans increased by $115.1 million, or 5.2 percent, to $2.35 billion as of June 30, 2014, from $2.23 billion as of December 31, 2013. The increase was mainly attributable to increases in residential property loans by 37.3 percent and other commercial property loans by 9.0 percent. The increase was partially offset by declines in commercial term loans by 7.2 percent and consumer loans by 11.3 percent.

During the six months ended June 30, 2014, total loan disbursement consisted of $224.6 million in commercial real estate loans, $70.8 million in commercial and industrial loans, $35.4 million in residential property loans and $1.5 million in consumer loans. The increase was offset by $142.2 million of pay-offs, $54.0 million of other net amortization, $16.6 million of transfers to loans held for sale and $4.2 million of gross charge-offs.

As of June 30, 2014, our loan portfolio included the following concentrations of loans to one type of industry that were greater than 10 percent of gross loans outstanding:

| Industry | Balance as of June 30, 2014 | Percentage of Gross Loans Outstanding |
|------------------------------------|--|--|
| | (In thousands) | |
| Lessor of nonresidential buildings | $ 676,788 | 28.8% |
| Accommodation | $ 348,975 | 14.9% |
| Gas station | $ 291,744 | 12.4% |

There was no other concentration of loans to any one type of industry exceeding 10.0 percent of gross loans outstanding.

Table of ContentsNon-Performing Assets

Non-performing loans consist of loans on non-accrual status and loans 90 days or more past due and still accruing interest. Non-performing assets consist of non-performing loans and other real estate owned (OREO). Loans are placed on non-accrual status when, in the opinion of management, the full timely collection of principal or interest is in doubt. Generally, the accrual of interest is discontinued when principal or interest payments become more than 90 days past due, unless management believes the loan is adequately collateralized and in the process of collection. However, in certain instances, we may place a particular loan on non-accrual status earlier, depending upon the individual circumstances surrounding the loan's delinquency. When an asset is placed on non-accrual status, previously accrued but unpaid interest is reversed against current income. Subsequent collections of cash are applied as principal reductions when received, except when the ultimate collectability of principal is probable, in which case interest payments are credited to income. Non-accrual assets may be restored to accrual status when principal and interest become current and full repayment is expected. Interest income is recognized on the accrual basis for impaired loans not meeting the criteria for non-accrual. OREO consists of properties acquired by foreclosure or similar means that management intends to offer for sale.

Except for non-performing loans set forth below, management is not aware of any loans as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 for which known credit problems of the borrower would cause serious doubts as to the ability of such borrowers to comply with their present loan repayment terms, or any known events that would result in the loan being designated as non-performing at some future date. Management cannot, however, predict the extent to which a deterioration in general economic conditions, real estate values, increases in general rates of interest, or changes in the financial condition or business of borrower may adversely affect a borrower's ability to pay.

The following table provides information with respect to the components of non-performing assets as of the dates indicated:

⁽¹⁾ Includes non-performing troubled debt restructured loans of $11.1 million and $10.5 million as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively.

Non-accrual loans totaled $25.4 million as of June 30, 2014, compared to $25.9 million as of December 31, 2013, representing a 1.9 percent decrease. Delinquent loans (defined as 30 days or more past due) were $16.9 million as of June 30, 2014, compared to $16.3 million as of December 31, 2013, representing a 3.9 percent increase. As of June 30, 2014, delinquent loans of $13.3 million were included in non-performing loans. The $12.2 million of delinquent loans as of December 31, 2013 was included in non-performing loans. During the six months ended June 30, 2014, loans totaling $9.7 million were placed on non-accrual status. The additions to non-accrual loans were offset by $4.6 million in principal paydowns and payoffs, $3.6 million in charge-offs and $1.8 million in upgrades to accrual.

Table of Contents

The ratio of non-performing loans to gross loans decreased to 1.08 percent at June 30, 2014 from 1.16 percent at December 31, 2013. Of the $25.4 million non-performing loans, approximately $21.5 million were impaired based on the definition contained in FASB ASC 310, Receivables, which resulted in aggregate impairment reserve of $3.5 million as of June 30, 2014. The allowance for collateral-dependent loans is calculated as the difference between the outstanding loan balance and the value of the collateral as determined by recent appraisals less estimated costs to sell. The allowance for collateral-dependent loans varies from loan to loan based on the collateral coverage of the loan at the time of designation as non-performing. We continue to monitor the collateral coverage, based on recent appraisals, on these loans on a quarterly basis and adjust the allowance accordingly.

As of June 30, 2014, OREO consisted of two properties in California with a combined carrying value of $1.7 million and no valuation adjustment. As of December 31, 2013, there were three OREOs located in Washington and California with a combined carrying value of $756,000 and a valuation adjustment of $56,000.

Impaired Loans

We evaluate loan impairment in accordance with applicable GAAP. Loans are considered impaired when it is probable that we will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement, including scheduled interest payments. Impaired loans are measured based on the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate or, as an expedient, at the loan's observable market price or the fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral dependent, less costs to sell. If the measure of the impaired loan is less than the recorded investment in the loan, the deficiency will be charged off against the allowance for loan losses or, alternatively, a specific allocation will be established. Additionally, impaired loans are specifically excluded from the quarterly migration analysis when determining the amount of the allowance for loan losses required for the period.

The following table provides information on impaired loans as of the dates indicated:

Total impaired loans decreased by $5.2 million, or 9.8 percent, to $47.9 million as of June 30, 2014 as compared to $53.1 million at December 31, 2013. Accordingly, specific reserve allocations associated with impaired loans decreased by $1.3 million, or 20.1 percent, to $5.2 million as of June 30, 2014, as compared to $6.5 million as of December 31, 2013.

During the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, interest income that would have been recognized had impaired loans performed in accordance with their original terms totaled $1.2 million and $1.1 million, respectively. Of these amounts, actual interest recognized on impaired loans was $794,000 and $926,000 for the three months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively. During the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, interest income that would have been recognized had impaired loans performed in accordance with their original terms totaled $2.4 million and $2.1 million, respectively. Of these amounts, actual interest recognized on impaired loans was $1.6 million and $1.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

For the three months ended June 30, 2014, we restructured monthly payments for six loans, with a net carrying value of $2.5 million at the time of modification, which we subsequently classified as troubled debt restructured loans. Temporary payment structure modifications included, but were not limited to, extending the maturity date, reducing the amount of principal and/or interest due monthly, and/or allowing for interest only monthly payments for six months or less.

As of June 30, 2014, TDRs on accrual status totaled $12.5 million, all of which were temporary interest rate and payment reductions or extensions of maturity, and a $1.4 million reserve relating to these loans was included in the allowance for loan losses. For the restructured loans on accrual status, we determined that, based on the financial capabilities of the borrowers at the time of the loan restructuring and the borrowers' past performance in the payment of debt service under the previous loan terms, performance and collection under the revised terms is probable. As of June 30, 2014, TDRs on non-accrual status totaled $11.1 million, and a $1.3 million reserve relating to these loans was included in the allowance for loan losses.

As of December 31, 2013, TDRs on accrual status totaled $19.4 million, all of which were temporary interest rate and payment reductions or extensions of maturity, and a $1.4 million reserve relating to these loans was included in the allowance for loan losses. For the restructured loans on accrual status, we determined that, based on the financial capabilities of the borrowers at the time of the loan restructuring and the borrowers' past performance in the payment of debt service under the previous loan terms, performance and collection under the revised terms is probable. As of December 31, 2013, restructured loans on non-accrual status totaled $10.5 million, and a $1.4 million reserve relating to these loans was included in the allowance for loan losses.

Allowance for Loan Losses and Allowance for Off-Balance Sheet Items

Provisions to allowance for loan losses are made quarterly to recognize probable loan losses. The quarterly provision is based on the allowance need, which is determined through analysis involving quantitative calculations based on historic loss rates for general reserves and individual impairment calculations for specific allocations to impaired loans as well as qualitative adjustments.

Table of Contents

In the first quarter of 2010, the look-back period was reduced from twelve quarters to eight quarters, with 60.0 percent weighting given to the most recent four quarters and 40.0 percent to the oldest four quarters, to place greater emphasis on losses taken by the Bank during the economic downturn. In the second quarter of 2013, management reevaluated the look-back period and restored the twelve quarter look-back period in order to capture a period of higher losses that would have otherwise been excluded. Risk factor calculations are weighted at 50.0 percent for the most recent four quarters, 33.0 percent for the next four quarters, and 17.0 percent for the oldest four quarters. In the first quarter of 2014, management evaluated the look-back period once again and extended the periods to sixteen quarters to continue capturing a period of higher losses that would have been dropped off and to reflect potential losses in our current credit portfolio. Risk factor calculations are weighted at 46.0 percent for the first four quarters, 31.0 percent for the second four quarters, 15.0 percent for the third four quarters, and 8.0 percent for the last four quarters. As homogenous loans are bulk graded, the risk grade is not factored into the historical loss analysis. The change in methodology maintained the Bank's allowance at a level consistent with the prior quarter. Under the previous methodology, the Bank would have recognized a negative provision of $9.5 million in the first quarter of 2014, which the Bank did not consider to be prudent, given inherent risks in the loan portfolio.

To determine general reserve requirements, existing loans are divided into 11 general loan pools of risk-rated loans as well as three homogenous loan pools. For risk-rated loans, migration analysis allocates historical losses by loan pool and risk grade to determine risk factors for potential loss inherent in the current outstanding loan portfolio. In addition, specific reserves are allocated for loans deemed impaired.

When determining the appropriate level for allowance for loan losses, management considers qualitative adjustments for any factors that are likely to cause estimated credit losses associated with the Bank's current portfolio to differ from historical loss experience, including, but not limited to, national and local economic and business conditions, volume and geographic concentrations, and problem loan trends.

To systematically quantify the credit risk impact of trends and changes within the loan portfolio, a credit risk matrix is utilized. The qualitative factors are considered on a loan pool by loan pool basis subsequent to, and in conjunction with, a loss migration analysis. The credit risk matrix provides various scenarios with positive or negative impact on the portfolio along with corresponding basis points for qualitative adjustments.

The following table reflects our allocation of allowance for loan losses by loan category as well as the loans receivable for each loan type:

Table of Contents

The following table sets forth certain information regarding allowance for loan losses and allowance for off-balance sheet items for the periods presented. Allowance for off-balance sheet items is determined by applying reserve factors according to loan pool and grade as well as actual current commitment usage figures by loan type to existing contingent liabilities.

Allowance for loan losses decreased by $4.7 million, or 8.3 percent, to $51.9 million as of June 30, 2014, compared to $56.6 million as of March 31, 2014. Allowance for loan losses as a percentage of gross loans decreased to 2.21 percent as of June 30, 2014 from 2.49 percent as of March 31, 2014. For the three months ended June 30, 2014, a $3.9 million negative provision for credit losses was recorded, compared to a $308,000 provision for credit losses for the same period in 2013. The $3.9 million negative provision for credit losses was offset partially by the $35,000 provision for off-balance sheet items, resulting in $3.9 million negative provision for credit losses for the three months ended June 30, 2014. The $308,000 provision for credit losses was offset by the $308,000 reversal in provision for off-balance sheet items, resulting in a zero provision for credit losses for the same period in 2013.

The decrease in allowance for loan losses as of June 30, 2014 was due primarily to improvements in historical loss rates, qualitative factors, and classified loans. Due to these factors, the general loan reserves as of June 30, 2014 decreased by $1.8 million, or 10.7 percent, to $12.8 million, as compared to $14.6 million as of March 31, 2014, and the qualitative adjustment as of June 30, 2014 decreased by $3.0 million, or 9.0 percent, to $32.5 million, as compared to $35.4 million as of March 31, 2014.

An allowance for off-balance sheet exposure, primarily unfunded loan commitments, as of June 30, 2014 remained unchanged at $1.6 million when compared to March 31, 2014. The Bank closely monitors the borrower's repayment capabilities, while funding existing commitments to ensure losses are minimized. Based on management's evaluation and analysis of portfolio credit quality and prevailing economic conditions, we believe these reserves are adequate for losses inherent in the loan portfolio and off-balance sheet exposure as of June 30, 2014.

Deposits increased by $32.5 million, or 1.29 percent, to $2.54 billion as of June 30, 2014 from $2.51 billion as of December 31, 2013. The increase in deposits was attributable mainly to increases in noninterest-bearing demand deposits, offset by decreases in interest-bearing deposits.

Core deposits (defined as demand, savings, money market checking, NOW accounts and other time deposits) increased by $52.4 million, or 2.6 percent, to $2.06 billion at June 30, 2014 from $2.01 billion at December 31, 2013. Noninterest-bearing demand deposits as a percentage of deposits grew to 35.8 percent at June 30, 2014 from 32.6 percent at December 31, 2013. We had no brokered deposits as of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013.

Federal Home Loan Bank Advances and Other Borrowings

FHLB advances and other borrowings mostly take the form of advances from the FHLB of San Francisco and overnight federal funds. At June 30, 2014, advances from the FHLB were $97.0 million, a decrease of $30.5 million from $127.5 million at December 31, 2013, and the weighted-average interest rate was 0.17 percent at June 30, 2014.

Interest Rate Risk Management

Interest rate risk indicates our exposure to market interest rate fluctuations. The movement of interest rates directly and inversely affects the economic value of fixed-income assets, which is the present value of future cash flow discounted by the current interest rate; under the same conditions, the higher the current interest rate, the higher the denominator of discounting. Interest rate risk management is intended to decrease or increase the level of our exposure to market interest rates. The level of interest rate risk can be managed through such means as the changing of gap positions and the volume of fixed-income assets. For successful management of interest rate risk, we use various methods to measure existing and future interest rate risk exposures, giving effect to historical attrition rates of core deposits. In addition to regular reports used in business operations, repricing gap analysis, stress testing and simulation modeling are the main measurement techniques used to quantify interest rate risk exposure.

The repricing gap analysis measures the static timing of repricing risk of assets and liabilities (i.e., a point-in-time analysis measuring the difference between assets maturing or repricing in a period and liabilities maturing or repricing within the same period). Assets are assigned to maturity and repricing categories based on their expected repayment or repricing dates, and liabilities are assigned based on their repricing or maturity dates. Interest-bearing core deposits that have no maturity dates (savings, and money market checking and NOW accounts) are assigned to categories based on expected decay rates.

As of June 30, 2014, the cumulative repricing gap for the three-month period was at an asset-sensitive position and was 21.83 percent of interest-earning assets, which decreased from 29.84 percent as of December 31, 2013. The decrease was due mainly to a $75.7 million decrease in interest-bearing deposits in other banks, a $73.7 million decrease in floating rate loans, a $47.5 million decrease in fixed rate investment securities, and a $68.5 million increase in time deposits, offset by a $33.0 million increase in fixed rate loans and a $28.1 million decrease in FHLB advances.

As of June 30, 2014, the cumulative repricing gap for the twelve-month period was at an asset-sensitive position and was 8.39 percent of interest-earning assets, which decreased from 14.35 percent of an asset-sensitive position as of December 31, 2013. The decrease was due mainly to an $86.3 million decrease in floating rate loans, a $75.7 million decrease in interest-bearing deposits in other banks, and a $56.2 million decrease in fixed rate investment securities, offset by a $65.1 million decrease in time deposits and a $30.5 million decrease in FHLB advances.

The following table summarizes the status of the cumulative gap position as of the dates indicated:

| | Less Than Three Months | | Less Than Twelve Months | |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------|----------------------|
| | June 30, 2014 | December 31, 2013 | June 30, 2014 | December 31, 2013 |
| | (In thousands) | | | |
| Cumulative repricing gap | $ 634,920 | $ 859,764 | $ 244,086 | $ 413,479 |
| Percentage of assets | 20.52% | 28.14% | 7.89% | 13.53% |
| Percentage of interest-earning assets | 21.83% | 29.84% | 8.39% | 14.35% |

The spread between interest income on interest-earning assets and interest expense on interest-bearing liabilities is the principal component of net interest income, and interest rate changes substantially affect our financial performance. We emphasize capital protection through stable earnings rather than maximizing yield. In order to achieve stable earnings, we prudently manage our assets and liabilities and closely monitor the percentage changes in net interest income and equity value in relation to limits established within our guidelines.

To supplement traditional gap analysis, we perform simulation modeling to estimate the potential effects of interest rate changes. The following table summarizes one of the stress simulations performed to forecast the impact of changing interest rates on net interest income and the market value of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities reflected on our balance sheet (i.e., an instantaneous parallel shift in the yield curve of the magnitude indicated below). This sensitivity analysis is compared to policy limits, which specify the maximum tolerance level for net interest income exposure over a one-year horizon, given the basis point adjustment in interest rates reflected below.

| Change in Interest Rate | Percentage Changes | | Change in Amount | |
|----------------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------------|
| | Net Interest Income | Economic Value of Equity | Net Interest Income | Economic Value of Equity |
| | (In thousands) | | | |
| 300% | 14.58% | -15.20% | $ 135,390 | $ 391,989 |
| 200% | 9.43% | -11.40% | $ 129,305 | $ 409,689 |
| 100% | 4.47% | -4.90% | $ 123,441 | $ 439,613 |
| -100% | -4.49% | -3.30% | $ 112,853 | $ 447,012 |

The estimated sensitivity does not necessarily represent our forecast, and the results may not be indicative of actual changes to our net interest income. These estimates are based upon a number of assumptions including the nature and timing of interest rate levels including yield curve shape, prepayments on loans and securities, pricing strategies on loans and deposits, and replacement of asset and liability cash flows. While the assumptions used are based on current economic and local market conditions, there is no assurance as to the predictive nature of these conditions, including how customer preferences or competitor influences might change.

Capital Resources

Historically, our primary source of capital has been the retention of operating earnings. In order to ensure adequate levels of capital, the Board continually assesses projected sources and uses of capital in conjunction with projected increases in assets and levels of risk. Management considers, among other things, earnings generated from operations, and access to capital from financial markets through the issuance of additional securities, including common stock or notes, to meet our capital needs.

At June 30, 2014, the Bank's total risk-based capital ratio of 17.92 percent, Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio of 16.65 percent, and Tier 1 leverage capital ratio of 14.09 percent, placed the Bank in the "well capitalized" category, which is defined as institutions with total risk-based capital ratio equal to or greater than 10.00 percent, Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio equal to or greater than 6.00 percent, and Tier 1 leverage capital ratio equal to or greater than 5.00 percent.

For a discussion of recently implemented changes to the capital adequacy framework prompted by Basel III and the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, see "Note 9 Regulatory Matters" of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited) in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

For a discussion of off-balance sheet arrangements, see "Note 13 Off-Balance Sheet Commitments" of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited) in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and "Item 1. Business Off-Balance Sheet Commitments" in our 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

FASB ASU 2014-08, Reporting Discontinued Operations and Disclosures of Disposals of Components of an Entity, was issued to change the criteria for reporting discontinued operations and requires additional disclosures about discontinued operations. ASU 2014-08 requires that an entity report as a discontinued operation only a disposal that represents a strategic shift in operations that has a major effect on its operations and financial results. ASU 2014-08 is effective prospectively for new disposals (or classifications as held-for-sale) that occur within annual periods beginning on or after December 15, 2014, and interim periods within those annual periods, for public business entities and not-for-profit entities that have issued (or are a conduit obligor for) securities that are traded, listed, or quoted on an exchange or an over-the-counter market. For other entities, the ASU is effective for disposals (or classifications as held-for-sale) that occur within annual periods beginning on or after December 15, 2014, and interim periods thereafter. The adoption of the ASU is not expected to have a significant impact on our financial condition or result of operations.

FASB ASU 2014-04, Reclassification of Residential Real Estate Collateralized Consumer Mortgage Loans upon Foreclosure (Topic 310-40), was issued to define the term in substance a repossession or foreclosure and physical possession in accounting literature and when a creditor should derecognize the loan receivable and recognize the real estate property. The amendments in this update are intended to reduce diversity in practice by clarifying when an in substance repossession or foreclosure occurs, that is, when a creditor should be considered to have received physical possession of residential real estate property collateralizing a consumer mortgage loan such that the loan receivable should be derecognized and the real estate property recognized. The amendment is effective for public business entities for annual periods, and interim periods within those annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2014. The adoption of FASB ASU 2014-04 is not expected to have a significant impact on our financial condition or result of operations.

FASB ASU 2014-01, Accounting for Investments in Qualified Affordable Housing Projects (a consensus of the Emerging Issues Task Force), was issued to permit a reporting entity to make an accounting policy election to account for investments in qualified affordable housing projects using the proportional amortization method if certain conditions are met. The amendments are expected to enable more entities to record the amortization of the investment in income tax expense together with the tax credits and other tax benefits generated from the partnership. The ASU is effective retrospectively for public business entities for annual periods and interim reporting periods within those annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2014. For all entities other than public business entities, the amendments are effective retrospectively for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2014, and interim periods within annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2015. Early adoption is permitted. The Company adopted the ASU effective April 1, 2014. See Note 2 Accounting for Investment in Qualified Affordable Housing Projects. for further details.

For quantitative and qualitative disclosures regarding market risks in Hanmi Bank's portfolio, see Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations Interest Rate Risk Management and Capital Resources and Liquidity.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of June 30, 2014, Hanmi Financial carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act, under the supervision and with the participation of our senior management, including our Chief Executive Officer (principal executive officer) and our Chief Financial Officer (principal financial and accounting officer). The purpose of the disclosure controls and procedures is to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports that are filed or submitted under the Exchange Act, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that Hanmi Financial's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of June 30, 2014.
