PROXY STATEMENT OF DELAVAN BANCSHARES, INC.

PROSPECTUS OF WINTRUST FINANCIAL CORPORATION

Merger Proposal Your Vote Is Important

DEAR DELAVAN SHAREHOLDERS:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Delavan Bancshares, Inc., which will be held on _____, 2015, at _____, local time, at _____.

At the meeting, you will be asked to adopt the merger agreement, as amended on November 19, 2014, and as it may be amended from time to time, between Delavan and Wintrust Financial Corporation that provides for Wintrust's acquisition of Delavan through the merger of Delavan with and into Wintrust Merger Co., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust. Delavan is the parent company of Community Bank CBD. The aggregate merger consideration paid by Wintrust to Delavan shareholders is expected to be approximately $38,000,000, subject to possible downward adjustment as described below. Assuming that the reference price as described below is between $39.50 and $49.50, 50% of the aggregate merger consideration will be paid in shares of Wintrust common stock, no par value per share, and 50% will be paid in cash.

The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Wintrust common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock, par value $1.00 per share, will be determined based on the average high and low sale price of Wintrust common stock as reported on NASDAQ, which we refer to as the reference price, during the 10 trading day period ending on the second trading day prior to completion of the merger, subject to a minimum and maximum reference price equal to $39.50 and $49.50, respectively. The merger consideration is subject to downward adjustment as described in this proxy statement/prospectus, and the exchange ratio will not be determined until after the date of the special meeting. Therefore, at the time of the special meeting, you will not know the precise value of the merger consideration you may receive on the date the merger is completed.

Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, based on a reference price of $, which is equal to the reference price if it were calculated as of , 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that a Delavan shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock would be $ in cash and shares of Wintrust common stock. In each case assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, if the reference price were equal to the minimum of $39.50, each share of Delavan common stock would instead be entitled to 1.286 shares of Wintrust common stock, and if the reference price were equal to the maximum of $49.50, each share of Delavan common stock would be entitled to 1.027 shares of Wintrust common stock. Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and assuming that the reference price is between $39.50 and $49.50, we estimate that Wintrust may issue up to 500,000 shares of Wintrust common stock to Delavan shareholders as contemplated by the merger agreement.

Wintrust common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, under the symbol WTFC. The closing price of Wintrust common stock on November 25, 2014 was $45.58 per share.

The merger cannot be completed unless the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote adopt the merger agreement. Your board of directors has unanimously adopted the merger agreement, as amended on November 19, 2014 and as it may be amended from time to time and recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement, at the special meeting. Your board of directors also unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, and FOR the approval to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement, and the transactions contemplated thereby and appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent.

Additional information regarding the merger, the merger agreement, Delavan and Wintrust is set forth in the attached proxy statement/prospectus. This document also serves as the prospectus for up to 525,000 shares of Wintrust common stock that may be issued by Wintrust in connection with the merger. We urge you to read this entire document carefully, including the section entitled Risk Factors beginning on page 18.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Murphy
President and Chief Executive Officer

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What am I being asked to vote on? What is the proposed transaction?

A: You are being asked to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement that provides for Wintrust's acquisition of Delavan through the merger of Delavan with and into Wintrust Merger Co., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust. Upon completion of the merger, all shares of Delavan common stock will be cancelled and you will become a shareholder of Wintrust. You are also being asked to vote on the approval of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders' Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders' Agent, with respect to taking any and all actions specified or contemplated by the merger agreement on behalf of all Delavan shareholders.

Q: What will Delavan shareholders be entitled to receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, the shares of Delavan common stock that you own immediately before the completion of the merger will be converted into the right to receive cash and shares of Wintrust common stock (in each case subject to possible adjustment). The aggregate merger consideration paid by Wintrust to Delavan shareholders is expected to be approximately $38,000,000, subject to possible downward adjustment as described below. Assuming that the reference price as described below is between $39.50 and $49.50, 50% of the aggregate merger consideration will be paid in shares of Wintrust common stock and 50% will be paid in cash.

For each of your shares of Delavan common stock, you will receive the per share merger consideration to be calculated as set forth in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Wintrust common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock will be determined based on the average high and low sale price of Wintrust common stock as reported on NASDAQ, which we refer to as the reference price, during the 10 trading day period ending on the second trading day prior to completion of the merger, subject to a minimum and maximum reference price equal to $39.50 and $49.50, respectively. Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock outstanding remain unchanged at the closing, based on a reference price of $, which is equal to the reference price if it were calculated as of , 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that a Delavan shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock would be $ in cash and shares of Wintrust common stock. In each case assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, if the reference price were equal to the minimum of $39.50, each share of Delavan common stock would instead be entitled to 1.286 shares of Wintrust common stock, and if the reference price were equal to the maximum of $49.50, each share of Delavan common stock would be entitled to 1.027 shares of Wintrust common stock. For a description of how the per share merger consideration will be calculated, see Description of the Merger Agreement Consideration to be received in the merger on page 48.

In addition, the merger consideration may be adjusted downward if the balance sheet delivered to Wintrust by Delavan as of the closing date of the merger reflects that Delavan's shareholders' equity, as determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is less than $26,000,000, or to account for certain environmental conditions that may be discovered in the real property of Delavan or its subsidiaries. For a description of the possible adjustment of the merger consideration, see Description of the Merger Agreement Consideration to be received in the merger Adjustment to

Q: What will holders of Delavan options be entitled to receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, each outstanding and unexercised option to acquire a share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as a Delavan option, will be converted into an option to acquire shares of Wintrust common stock, which we refer to as a converted option. The number of shares of Wintrust common stock subject to each converted option will be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares of Delavan common stock subject to such Delavan option by (2) the quotient obtained by dividing the per share merger consideration by the reference price, which we refer to as the option exchange ratio. The per share exercise price for each converted option will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (1) the per share exercise price of the Delavan option by (2) the option exchange ratio. Upon exercise of each converted option, the aggregate number of shares of Wintrust common stock deliverable upon such exercise will be rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole share and the aggregate exercise price will be round up, if necessary, to the nearest cent. Except as described above, each converted option will be governed by the same terms and conditions as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Q: Why do Delavan and Wintrust want to engage in the merger?

A: Delavan believes that the merger will provide Delavan shareholders with substantial benefits and that it presents the best option to maximize shareholder value, and Wintrust believes that the merger will further its strategic growth plans by allowing it to expand its presence in southeastern Wisconsin. As a larger company, Wintrust can provide greater capital and resources and efficiencies from integrating the operations of Community Bank CBD, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Delavan, into Wintrust's existing operations and allow Community Bank to compete more effectively and to offer a broader array of products and services to better serve its banking customers. To review the reasons for the merger in more detail, see "The Merger" Wintrust's reasons for the merger on page 41 and "The Merger" Delavan's reasons for the merger and recommendation of the board of directors on page 39.

Q: What does the Delavan board of directors recommend?

A: Delavan's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement, as amended on November 19, 2014 and as it may be amended from time to time, FOR the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders' Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders' Agent, and FOR the approval to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and appointment of the Shareholders' Agent and the Alternate Shareholders' Agent. Delavan's board of directors has determined that the merger agreement and the merger are in the best interests of Delavan and its shareholders. To review the background and reasons for the merger in greater detail, see "The Merger" beginning on page 27.

Q: What vote is required to adopt the merger agreement?

A: Holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote must vote in favor of the merger. Abstentions and broker non-votes have the effect of votes against the adoption of the merger agreement. On October 13, 2014, all of Delavan's directors who own shares of Delavan common stock agreed to vote their shares at the special meeting in favor of the merger and any other matter necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These shareholders and their affiliates owned approximately 28% of Delavan common stock outstanding as of September 30, 2014. Wintrust's shareholders will not be voting on the merger agreement. See The Merger Interests of certain persons in the merger on page 45 and The Merger Voting agreement on page 45.

Q: What vote is required to appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement?

A: Holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote must vote in favor of the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto as Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer as Alternate Shareholders Agent. Abstentions and broker non-votes have the effect of votes against appointment of Mr. Murphy and any successors thereto as Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including Mr. Saer as Alternate Shareholders Agent. If a shareholder does not vote in favor of appointing Mr. Murphy and any successors thereto as Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including Mr. Saer as Alternate Shareholders Agent, but Mr. Murphy and Mr. Saer nonetheless receive the approval of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote, Mr. Murphy and any successors thereto will serve as the Shareholders Agent for all shareholders upon adoption of the merger agreement, including Mr. Saer as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, regardless of whether a particular shareholder may have voted for such individuals to serve in that capacity.

Q: What vote is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby?

A: The proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies, requires the affirmative vote of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy, if a quorum is present at the special meeting. In the absence of a quorum, holders of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting may adjourn the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes have the effect of votes against the proposal.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: Delavan's shareholders are being asked to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. If you do not submit your proxy by mail or vote in person at the special meeting, it will be more difficult for Delavan to obtain the necessary quorum to hold the special meeting. In addition, your failure to submit your proxy or attend the special meeting will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement and make it more difficult to obtain adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: What do I need to do now? How do I vote?

A: You may vote at the special meeting if you own shares of Delavan common stock of record at the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, , 2014. After you have carefully read and considered the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, please complete, sign, date and mail your proxy form in the enclosed prepaid return envelope as soon as possible. This will enable your shares to be represented at the special meeting. You may also vote in person at the special meeting. If you do not return a properly executed proxy form and do not vote at the special meeting, this will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: How will my proxy be voted?

A: If you complete, sign, date and mail your proxy form, your proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you sign, date and send in your proxy form, but you do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted FOR adoption of the merger agreement and the other proposals in the notice.

Q: Can I revoke my proxy and change my vote?

A: You may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by filing with the secretary of Delavan a duly executed revocation of proxy or submitting a new proxy form with a later date. You may also revoke a prior proxy by voting in person at the special meeting.

Q: What if I oppose the merger? Do I have dissenters' rights?

A: Delavan shareholders who do not vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and who otherwise comply with all of the procedures of Sections 18.1301 through 18.1331 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law, which we refer to as the WBCL, will be entitled to receive payment in cash of the fair value of their shares of Delavan common stock as ultimately determined under the statutory process. A copy of these sections of the WBCL is attached as Annex B to this document.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

A: In general, the conversion of your shares of Delavan common stock into Wintrust common stock in the merger will be tax-free for United States federal income tax purposes. However, you generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount limited to the amount of cash you receive in the merger. Additionally, you will recognize gain or loss on any cash that you receive in lieu of fractional shares of Wintrust's common stock. You should consult with your tax adviser for the specific tax consequences of the merger to you. See "The Merger" Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger on page 41.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The Delavan special meeting will take place on _____, 2015, at _____ local time, at _____.

Q: Who may attend the meeting?

A: Delavan shareholders on the record date may attend the special meeting. If you are a shareholder of record, you may need to present proof of identification in order to be admitted into the meeting.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, the exchange agent for the merger will send you a letter of transmittal with instructions informing you how to send in your stock certificates to the exchange agent. You should use the letter of transmittal to exchange your Delavan stock certificates for the merger consideration. Do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy form.

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed?

A: We will try to complete the merger as soon as reasonably possible. Before that happens, the merger agreement must be adopted by Delavan's shareholders and we must obtain the necessary regulatory approvals. Assuming shareholders vote to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement and we obtain the other necessary approvals and satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the closing described in the merger agreement, we expect to complete the merger in the first quarter of 2015. See "Description of the Merger Agreement" Conditions to completion of the merger on page 55.

Q: Is completion of the merger subject to any conditions besides shareholder approval?

A:

Yes. The transaction must receive the required regulatory approvals, and there are other closing conditions that must be satisfied. See Description of the Merger Agreement Conditions to completion of the merger on page 55.

Q: Are there risks I should consider in deciding to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement?

A: Yes, in evaluating the merger agreement, you should read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully, including the factors discussed in the section titled Risk Factors beginning on page 18.

Q: Who can answer my other questions?

A: If you have more questions about the merger or how to submit your proxy, or if you need additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or the enclosed proxy form, or you need more information about Delavan, you should contact Michael J. Murphy, Delavan's President and Chief Executive Officer, or Jon Martin, Delavan's Chief Financial Officer, at (866) 848-2265.

Bank, a Wisconsin state bank, which we refer to as Community Bank, with four banking locations in southeastern Wisconsin. Delavan began operations in 1996. As of September 30, 2014, Delavan had consolidated total assets of approximately $208 million, deposits of approximately $167 million and shareholders' equity of approximately $27 million. Delavan is not a public company and, accordingly, there is no established trading market for Delavan common stock, par value $1.00 per share, which we refer to as Delavan common stock.

The merger and the merger agreement (See page 48)

Wintrust's acquisition of Delavan is governed by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 13, 2014, by and among Wintrust, Merger Co. and Delavan, as amended on November 19, 2014, which we refer to as the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that, if all of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, Delavan will be merged with and into Merger Co. and will cease to exist, which we refer to as the merger. After the consummation of the merger, Merger Co. will continue as the surviving corporation and remain a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust. The merger agreement is included as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and fully, as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

What Delavan shareholders will receive (See page 48)

If the merger is completed, the shares of Delavan common stock that you own immediately before the completion of the merger will be converted into the right to receive a combination of cash and shares of Wintrust common stock (in each case subject to possible adjustment). The aggregate merger consideration paid by Wintrust to Delavan shareholders is expected to be approximately $38,000,000, subject to possible downward adjustment as described below. Assuming that the reference price as described below is between $39.50 and $49.50, 50% of the aggregate merger consideration will be paid in shares of Wintrust common stock and 50% will be paid in cash.

For each of your shares of Delavan common stock, you will receive the per share merger consideration to be calculated as set forth in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Wintrust common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock will be determined based on the average high and low sale price of Wintrust common stock as reported on NASDAQ, which we refer to as the reference price, during the 10 trading day period ending on the second trading day prior to completion of the merger, which we refer to as the reference period, subject to a minimum and maximum reference price equal to $39.50 and $49.50, respectively. Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, based on a reference price of $, which is equal to the reference price if it were calculated as of , 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that a Delavan shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as the per share merger consideration, would be $ in cash and shares of Wintrust common stock. In each case assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, if the reference price were equal to the minimum of $39.50, each share of Delavan common stock would instead be entitled to 1.286 shares of Wintrust common stock, and if the reference price were equal to the maximum of $49.50, each share of Delavan common stock would be entitled to 1.027 shares of Wintrust common stock. For a description of how the per share merger consideration will be calculated, see Description of the Merger Agreement Consideration to be received in the merger.

Delavan may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is less than $36.50 and Wintrust may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is more than $52.50, in each case if Delavan and Wintrust are in good faith unable, after five business days' notice of such termination, to reach agreement as to an amendment to the merger agreement containing terms acceptable to Wintrust and Delavan so that the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement may be consummated.

In addition, the merger consideration may be adjusted downward if the balance sheet delivered to Wintrust by Delavan as of the closing date of the merger, which we refer to as the closing date, reflects that Delavan's shareholders equity, as determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is less than $26,000,000, or to account for certain environmental conditions that may be discovered in the real property of Delavan or its subsidiaries. For a description of the possible adjustment of the merger consideration, see Description of the Merger Agreement Consideration to be received in the merger Adjustment to Merger Consideration.

Delavan shareholders will not receive fractional shares of Wintrust common stock. Instead, they will receive a cash payment for any fractional shares based on the value of Wintrust common stock.

Treatment of Delavan options (See page 51)

If the merger is completed, each outstanding and unexercised option to acquire a share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as a Delavan option, will be converted into an option to acquire shares of Wintrust common stock, which we refer to as a converted option. The number of shares of Wintrust common stock subject to each converted option will be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares of Delavan common stock subject to such Delavan option by (2) the quotient obtained by dividing the per share merger consideration by the reference price, which we refer to as the option exchange ratio. The per share exercise price for each converted option will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (1) the per share exercise price of the Delavan option by (2) the option exchange ratio. Upon exercise of each converted option, the aggregate number of shares of Wintrust common stock deliverable upon such exercise will be rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole share and the aggregate exercise price will be round up, if necessary, to the nearest cent. Except as described above, each converted option will be governed by the same terms and conditions as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Exchange of certificates (See page 51)

Once the merger is complete, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, which we refer to as the exchange agent, will mail you materials and instructions for exchanging your Delavan stock certificates for shares of Wintrust common stock to be issued by book-entry transfer. You should not send in your Delavan stock certificates with your completed proxy card. Instead, you should wait until you receive the transmittal materials and instructions from the exchange agent.

Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger (See page 41)

Your receipt of shares of Wintrust common stock as part of the merger consideration generally will be tax-free for United States federal income tax purposes. However, you generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount limited to the amount of cash you receive in the merger. Additionally, you will recognize gain or loss on any cash that you receive in lieu of fractional shares of Wintrust common stock. You are urged to consult your tax adviser for a full understanding of the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger to you.

Reasons for the merger (See page 39)

Delavan's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Delavan and its shareholders, has unanimously adopted the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that its shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

In its deliberations and in making its determination, Delavan's board of directors considered numerous factors, including the following:

information with respect to the businesses, earnings, operations, financial condition, prospects, capital levels and asset quality of Delavan and Wintrust, both individually and as a combined company;

the perceived risks and uncertainties attendant to Delavan's operation as an independent banking organization, including the risks and uncertainties related to the continuing low-interest rate environment, competition in Delavan's market area, increased regulatory costs and increased capital requirements;

based on the closing price of Wintrust common stock on October 10, 2014 and Delavan's June 30, 2014 unaudited balance sheet, the aggregate merger consideration was priced at a multiple of 1.4 times the tangible common book value and at a multiple of 1.4 times the common book value;

the opinion of Robert W. Baird & Co. Incorporated, which we refer to as Baird, subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in such fairness opinion, that the per share merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Delavan common stock;

the value to be received by Delavan's shareholders in the merger as compared to shareholder value projected for Delavan as an independent entity;

the market value of Wintrust common stock prior to the execution of the merger agreement and the prospects for future appreciation as a result of Wintrust's strategic initiatives;

Wintrust's strategy to seek profitable future expansion in Delavan's trade area, leading to continued growth in overall shareholder value;

the fact that Wintrust is publicly held and the merger would provide access to a public trading market for Delavan's shareholders whose investments currently are in a privately held company, as well as enhanced access to capital markets to finance the combined company's capital requirements; and the likelihood that the merger will be approved by the relevant bank regulatory authorities without undue burden and in a timely manner.

Wintrust's board of directors concluded that the merger is in the best interests of Wintrust and its shareholders. In deciding to approve the merger, Wintrust's board of directors considered a number of factors, including:

management's view that the acquisition provides an attractive opportunity for Wintrust to expand in the southeastern part of Wisconsin;

Delavan's community banking orientation and its compatibility with Wintrust and its subsidiaries;

a review of the demographic, economic and financial characteristics of the markets in which Delavan operates, including existing and potential competition and history of the market areas with respect to financial institutions;

management's review of Delavan's business, operations, earnings and financial condition, including capital levels and asset quality of Community Bank;

efficiencies to come from integrating certain of Delavan's operations into Wintrust's existing operations; and

Board recommendation to Delavan's shareholders (See page 39)

Delavan's board of directors believes that the merger of Delavan with Wintrust is in the best interests of Delavan and its shareholders. Delavan's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the merger.

Fairness opinion of Delavan's financial advisor (See page 30)

In deciding to approve the merger, Delavan's board of directors considered, among other things, the opinion of Baird as of October 13, 2014 that the merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Delavan common stock. You should read the full text of the fairness opinion, which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex D, to understand the assumptions made, limits of the reviews undertaken and other matters considered by Baird in rendering its opinion.

Interests of officers and directors of Delavan, Community Bank, and its subsidiaries in the merger may be different from, or in addition to, yours (See page 45)

When you consider the Delavan board of directors' recommendation to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, you should be aware that some of Delavan's, Community Bank's, or its subsidiaries' directors and officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, your interests as shareholders. Delavan's board of directors was aware of these interests and took them into account in approving the merger. For example, Community Bank entered into an employment agreement with Michael J. Murphy in connection with Delavan's entry into the merger agreement, pursuant to which he will be employed as President of Community Bank upon the consummation of the merger.

Wintrust has also agreed to pay for directors' and officers' liability insurance covering the directors and officers of Delavan and Community Bank immediately prior to the consummation of the merger, subject to limits on availability and cost, for up to six years.

As of September 30, 2014, Delavan's directors and executive officers owned, in the aggregate, 113,593 shares of Delavan's common stock, representing approximately 30% of Delavan's outstanding shares of common stock. Mr. Murphy also holds options to purchase 7,250 shares of Delavan common stock. Jon E. Martin, Delavan's Chief Financial Officer, and Michael R. Ploch, Delavan's Senior Vice President - Commercial Lending, are also entitled to stock appreciation rights in amounts equal to approximately $171,000 and $195,000, respectively, (assuming that the reference price is between $39.50 and $49.50) pursuant to the Delavan Bancshares, Inc. 2008 Stock Appreciation Right Plan. All such stock appreciation rights outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will vest and become payable at the effective time.

Delavan shareholders will have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger (See page 46)

Delavan shareholders may dissent from the merger and, upon complying with the requirements of the WBCL, receive cash in the amount of the fair value of their shares instead of the merger consideration.

A copy of the section of the WBCL pertaining to dissenters' rights is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the statute carefully and consult with your legal counsel if you intend to exercise these rights.

The merger and the performance of the combined company are subject to a number of risks (See page 18)

There are a number of risks relating to the merger and to the businesses of Wintrust, Delavan and the combined company following the merger. See the Risk Factors beginning on page 18 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of these and other risks and see also the documents that Wintrust has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which we refer to as the SEC, and which we have incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Delavan shareholder approval will be required to complete the merger and approve the other proposals set forth in the notice (See page 25)

To adopt the merger and approve the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders' Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as Alternate Shareholders' Agent, at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock

As of September 30, 2014, these shareholders and their affiliates owned 106,562 shares, constituting approximately 28% of the shares then outstanding. See "The Merger Voting agreement" on page 45.

You may also vote in person at the special meeting.

(1) Net revenue is net interest income plus non-interest income.

(2) See Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations Non-GAAP Financial Measures/Ratios of Wintrust's 2013 Form 10-K for a reconciliation of this performance measure/ratio to GAAP.

(3) The net overhead ratio is calculated by netting total non-interest expense and total non-interest income, annualizing this amount, and dividing by that period's total average assets. A lower ratio indicates a higher degree of efficiency.

(4) The efficiency ratio is calculated by dividing total non-interest expense by tax-equivalent net revenue (less securities gains or losses). A lower ratio indicates more efficient revenue generation.

(5) The allowance for credit losses includes both the allowance for loan losses and the allowance for unfunded lending-related commitments, but excludes the allowance for covered loan losses.

(6) Total shareholders' equity minus preferred stock and total intangible assets divided by total assets minus total intangible assets.

(7) Asset quality ratios exclude covered loans.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the caption "Special Notes Concerning Forward-Looking Statements" on page 22, you should consider the following risk factors carefully in deciding whether to vote for the adoption of the merger agreement. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to Wintrust and Delavan or that are not currently believed to be important to you, if they materialize, also may adversely affect the merger and Wintrust and Delavan as a combined company.

In addition, Wintrust's and Delavan's respective businesses are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including the risks and uncertainties described, in the case of Wintrust, in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, which is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks relating to the merger

Because the market price of Wintrust common stock may fluctuate, you cannot be certain of the precise value of the stock portion of the merger consideration you may receive in the merger.

At the time the merger is completed, each issued and outstanding share of Delavan common stock (other than shares held as treasury stock or otherwise owned by Delavan or Community Bank and shares of Delavan common stock in respect of which dissenters' rights have been properly exercised and perfected) will be converted into the right to receive consideration in the form of Wintrust common stock and cash, subject to adjustment. The exchange ratio for the Wintrust common stock, as calculated in accordance with the formula set forth in the merger agreement, may fluctuate depending on the market price of Wintrust common stock during the reference period.

There will be a time lapse between each of the date on which Delavan shareholders vote to approve the merger and the merger agreement at the special meeting, the date on which the exchange ratio is determined and the date on which Delavan shareholders entitled to receive shares of Wintrust common stock actually receive such shares. The market value of Wintrust common stock may fluctuate during these periods. Consequently, at the time Delavan shareholders must decide whether to approve the merger and the merger agreement, they will not know the actual market value of the shares of Wintrust common stock they will receive when the merger is completed. The actual value of the shares of Wintrust common stock received by the Delavan shareholders will depend on the market value of shares of Wintrust common stock on that date. This market value may be less than the value used to determine the exchange ratio, as that determination will be made with respect to a period occurring prior to the consummation of the merger.

Because the merger consideration is subject to downward adjustment, the value of the merger consideration you may receive in the merger may be less than you expect.

The merger consideration to be received by Delavan shareholders at the closing of the merger is subject to downward adjustment by Wintrust and Delavan if the balance sheet delivered to Wintrust by Delavan as of the closing date reflects that Delavan's shareholders' equity, as determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is less than $26,000,000, or to account for certain environmental conditions that may be discovered in the real property of Delavan or its subsidiaries. For a description of the possible adjustment of the merger consideration, see "Description of the Merger Agreement" Consideration to be received in the merger Adjustment to Merger Consideration on page 50.

Upon adoption of the merger agreement, the Shareholders' Agent will have the ability to take actions in connection with the merger and the merger agreement on behalf of the Delavan shareholders without further notice to or approval by the Delavan shareholders.

In connection with the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger by the Delavan shareholders, if approved at the special meeting by the requisite vote of the Delavan shareholders, Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto will be appointed as the Delavan shareholders' agent and attorney-in-fact, including the appointment of James Saer as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, with respect to any actions specified or contemplated by the merger agreement. The appointment of the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent will constitute the authorization by each holder of Delavan common stock, even if a Delavan shareholder did not vote to approve the merger and thereby appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent. The Shareholders Agent, and if applicable the Alternate Shareholders Agent, may take action or decline to do so as such individual may determine in his or her sole discretion without any notice to or approval by the Delavan shareholders, and will be indemnified by the Delavan shareholders in taking or declining such action.

Because there is no public market for the Delavan common stock, it is difficult to determine how the fair value of Delavan common stock compares with the merger consideration.

The outstanding shares of Delavan common stock are privately held and are not traded in any public market. This lack of a public market makes it difficult to determine the fair value of Delavan. Because the merger consideration was determined based on negotiations between the parties, it may not be indicative of the fair value of the shares of Delavan common stock.

The financial forecasts reflected in Baird's fairness opinion, which is summarized beginning on page 30, involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions made by Baird, many of which are beyond the control of Wintrust and Delavan. As a result, they may not prove to be accurate and are not necessarily indicative of current values or future performance of either Wintrust or Delavan.

The financial forecasts of Baird reflected in its fairness opinion, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex D, and which is summarized beginning on page 30, involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions made by Baird and are not a guarantee of future performance. The future financial results of Wintrust and Delavan and, if the merger is completed, the combined company, may materially differ from those expressed in the financial forecasts of Baird due to factors that are beyond Wintrust's and Delavan's ability to control or predict. Neither Wintrust nor Delavan can provide any assurance that these financial forecasts will be realized or that Wintrust's or Delavan's future financial results will not materially vary from such financial forecasts. Wintrust did not provide its own financial forecasts and the management of Wintrust did not confirm or otherwise comment with respect to any estimates used by or the financial forecasts of Baird, nor do Wintrust or Delavan undertake to update the forecasts reflected in Baird's fairness opinion. Such financial forecasts cover multiple years, and the information by its nature becomes subject to greater uncertainty with each successive year. These financial forecasts do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared.

More specifically, the financial forecasts of Baird:

necessarily make numerous assumptions by Baird, many of which are beyond the control of Wintrust or Delavan and may not prove to be accurate;

do not necessarily reflect revised prospects for Wintrust's or Delavan's businesses, changes in general business or economic conditions, or any other transaction or event that has occurred or that may occur and that was not anticipated at the time the forecasts were prepared;

are not necessarily indicative of current values or future performance, which may be significantly more favorable or less favorable than is reflected in the forecasts; and should not be regarded as a representation that the financial forecasts will be achieved.

The financial forecasts reflected in Baird's fairness opinion were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or compliance with published guidelines of the SEC or the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information or generally accepted accounting principles, which we refer to as GAAP, and do not reflect the effect of any proposed or other changes in GAAP that may be made in the future.

Wintrust may be unable to successfully integrate Delavan's and Community Bank's operations and may not realize the anticipated benefits of acquiring Delavan.

Wintrust and Delavan entered into the merger agreement with the expectation that Wintrust would be able to successfully integrate Delavan's and Community Bank's operations and that the merger would result in various benefits, including, among other things, enhanced revenues and revenue synergies, an expanded market reach and operating efficiencies. Achieving the anticipated benefits of the merger is subject to a number of uncertainties, including whether Wintrust integrates and operates Delavan and Community Bank in an efficient and effective manner, and general competitive factors in the market place. The process of integrating operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, the activities of one or more of the combined company's businesses or the loss of key personnel. The diversion of management's attention and any delays or difficulties encountered in connection with the merger and the integration of the two companies' operations could have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition, operating results and prospects of the combined company after the merger. Failure to achieve these anticipated benefits could result in increased costs, decreases in the amount of expected revenues and diversion of management's time and energy and could have an adverse effect on the combined company's business, financial condition, operating results and prospects.

Among the factors considered by the boards of directors of Wintrust and Delavan in connection with their respective approvals of the merger agreement were the benefits that could result from the merger. We cannot give any assurance that these benefits will be realized within the time periods contemplated or even that they will be realized at all.

Delavan will be subject to business uncertainties while the merger is pending, which could adversely affect its business.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Delavan, and, consequently, the combined company. Although Delavan intends to take steps to reduce any adverse effects, these uncertainties may impair Delavan's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is consummated and for a period of time thereafter, and could cause customers and others that deal with Delavan to seek to change their existing business relationships with Delavan. Employee retention at Delavan may be particularly challenging during the pendency of the merger, as employees may experience uncertainty about their roles with the combined company following the merger.

Some of the directors and executive officers of Delavan, Community Bank and its subsidiaries have interests and arrangements that could have affected their respective decision to support or approve the merger.

The interests of some of the directors and executive officers of Delavan, Community Bank and its subsidiaries in the merger are different from, and may be in addition to, those of Delavan shareholders generally and could have affected their decision to support or approve the merger. These interests include:

the entry into an employment agreement with Michael J. Murphy in connection with the merger, which provides for the payment of severance under certain circumstances;

Wintrust's agreement to provide officers and directors of Delavan with continuing indemnification rights; and Wintrust's agreement to provide directors' and officers' insurance to the officers and directors of Delavan, subject to limits on availability and cost, for up to six years following the merger.

In addition, all of the directors of Delavan who own shares of Delavan common stock have entered into a voting agreement that requires them to vote all of their shares of Delavan common stock at the special meeting in favor of the merger agreement and any other matter necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The voting agreement covers approximately 28% of Delavan's outstanding shares of common stock as of September 30, 2014.

As a result, the directors of Delavan may be more likely to recommend to Delavan's shareholders the adoption of the merger agreement than if they did not have these interests.

Risks relating to the businesses of Wintrust and the combined company

Delavan's shareholders will not control Wintrust's future operations.

Currently, Delavan's shareholders own 100% of Delavan and have the power to approve or reject any matters requiring shareholder approval under Wisconsin law and Delavan's articles of incorporation and by-laws. After the merger, Delavan shareholders are expected to become owners of approximately 1% of the outstanding shares of Wintrust common stock. Even if all former Delavan shareholders voted together on all matters presented to Wintrust's shareholders, from time to time, the former Delavan shareholders most likely would not have a significant impact on the approval or rejection of future Wintrust proposals submitted to a shareholder vote.

Date, time and place of the special meeting

The special meeting will be held at _____ on _____, 2015 at _____, local time.

Purpose of the special meeting

At the special meeting, Delavan board of directors will ask you to vote upon the following:

a proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger;

a proposal to appoint Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto as the Shareholders' Agent pursuant to the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer as the Alternate Shareholders' Agent, with respect to taking any and all actions upon the adoption of the merger agreement that are specified or contemplated by the merger agreement on behalf of all Delavan shareholders;

a proposal to approve an adjournment of the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and appoint the Shareholders' Agent and the Alternate Shareholders' Agent; and any other business that properly comes before the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Record date and voting rights for the special meeting

Delavan has set the close of business on _____, 2014, as the record date for determining the holders of its common stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only Delavan shareholders at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. As of the record date, there were _____ shares of Delavan common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Quorum

The presence in person or by proxy of at least 51% of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting is required for a quorum to be present at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will count toward the establishment of a quorum.

Vote required

Approval of the merger agreement proposal and the proposal to appoint Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders' Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders' Agent, each require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote. Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and to appoint the Shareholders' Agent and the Alternate Shareholders' Agent requires the affirmative vote of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy, if a quorum is present. In the absence of a quorum, holders of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting may adjourn the special meeting.

Table of Contents

The failure of a Delavan shareholder to vote or to instruct his or her broker, bank or nominee to vote if his or her shares are held in street name, which we refer to as a broker non-vote, will have the same effect as voting against the proposals to adopt the merger agreement, to appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent and the meeting adjournment proposal. For purposes of the shareholder vote, an abstention, which occurs when a shareholder attends a meeting, either in person or by proxy, but indicates on his or her proxy card that he or she is abstaining from voting, will have the same effect as voting against the proposals to adopt the merger agreement, appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent and to adjourn the special meeting.

Shares held by Delavan directors; voting agreement

All of Delavan's directors who own shares of Delavan common stock, whose aggregate ownership represents approximately 28% of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock as of September 30, 2014, have committed to vote their shares in favor of the merger and any other matter necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Wintrust does not own any shares of Delavan common stock. See The Merger Voting agreement on page 45 for a description of the provisions of the voting agreement.

How to vote

You may vote in person at the special meeting or by proxy. To ensure your representation at the special meeting, we recommend you vote by proxy even if you plan to attend the special meeting. You can always change your vote at the meeting.

Voting instructions are included on your proxy form, which should be returned in the enclosed prepaid envelope. If you properly complete and timely submit your proxy, your shares will be voted as you have directed. You may vote for, against, or abstain with respect to the approval of the merger and the other proposals. If you are the record holder of your shares and submit your proxy without specifying a voting instruction, your shares will be voted as the Delavan board of directors recommends and will be voted FOR adoption of the merger agreement, FOR the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, and FOR the adjournment of the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Revocability of proxies

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by:

filing with Delavan's secretary a duly executed revocation of proxy; submitting a new proxy with a later date; or voting in person at the special meeting.

Attendance at the special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute a revocation of a proxy. All written notices of revocation and other communication with respect to the revocation of proxies should be addressed to: Delavan Bancshares, Inc., 820 Geneva Street, Delavan, Wisconsin 53115, Attention: J. Edward Clair, Secretary.

Proxy solicitation

In addition to this mailing, proxies may be solicited by directors, officers or employees of Delavan in person or by telephone or electronic transmission. None of such directors, officers or employees will be directly compensated for such services. Delavan will pay the costs associated with the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting.

Other business; adjournments

Delavan is not currently aware of any other business to be acted upon at the Delavan special meeting. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, your proxies include discretionary authority on the part of the individuals appointed to vote your shares to act on those matters according to their best judgment.

Adjournments may be made for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies. Any adjournment may be made from time to time by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, without further notice other than by announcement at the special meeting.

THE MERGER

This section of the proxy statement/prospectus describes material aspects of the merger. While Wintrust and Delavan believe that the description covers the material terms of the merger and the related transactions, this summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, the attached Annexes, and the other documents to which this proxy statement/prospectus refers for a more complete understanding of the merger. The agreement and plan of merger attached hereto as Annex A, not this summary, is the legal document which governs the merger.

General

The Delavan board of directors is using this proxy statement/prospectus to solicit proxies from the holders of Delavan common stock for use at the Delavan special meeting, at which Delavan shareholders will be asked to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. When the merger is consummated, Delavan will merge with and into Merger Co. and will cease to exist. Merger Co. will survive the merger and remain a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust. At the effective time of the merger, holders of Delavan common stock will exchange their shares for cash and shares of Wintrust common stock, subject to adjustment, and holders of Delavan options will exchange such options for Wintrust options. Each share of Delavan common stock will be exchanged for the per share merger consideration, the stock component of which cannot be determined until two trading days before completion of the merger. See Description of the Merger Agreement Consideration to be received in the merger for a detailed description of the method for determining the per share merger consideration.

Only whole shares of Wintrust common stock will be issued in the merger. As a result, cash will be paid instead of any fractional shares based on the reference price of Wintrust's common stock during the reference period. Shares of Delavan common stock held by Delavan shareholders who elect to exercise their dissenters' rights will not be converted into merger consideration.

Delavan's proposals

At the Delavan special meeting, holders of shares of Delavan common stock will be asked to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. The merger will not be completed unless Delavan's shareholders adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger.

Background of the merger

Delavan's board of directors and senior management regularly review and evaluate Delavan's business, strategic direction, performance, prospects and strategic alternatives. In March 2014, Delavan's President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael J. Murphy, received an unsolicited contact from the chief executive officer of another bank holding company, which we refer to as Company A, regarding a possible strategic transaction between the two organizations. The chief executive officer of Company A requested a copy of Delavan's 2014 budget for the purpose of calculating the pro-forma financial performance of the two companies.

On March 27, 2014, at a board of directors meeting, Mr. Murphy informed Delavan's board about his discussions with Company A and about its request for the 2014 budget information. At the meeting, the board authorized Mr. Murphy to provide Company A with high level 2014 budget information with respect to Delavan and to inform Company A that the parties would need to enter into a confidentiality agreement before further information would be provided. The board and senior management also discussed in depth various strategic options generally available to Delavan, and the pros and cons of each such option: a merger of equals (with concerns raised regarding loss of control, known and hidden credit quality issues of any strategic partner, and the integration of cultures), a sale of Delavan to a larger institution, and remaining an independent organization (with concerns raised regarding increasing banking regulations, increasing cost of compliance, loan growth, the continuing low interest rate environment and decreasing margins). As part of this overall discussion, Delavan's board and senior management also considered the competition in Delavan's primary market, anticipated increases in capital requirements and trends in mergers and acquisitions in the financial services sector.

After the March 27, 2014 board meeting, Mr. Murphy met with management of Company A and was informed that Company A had engaged an investment banker and was interested in further exploring a strategic transaction with Delavan. Management of Company A provided Mr. Murphy with Company A's preliminary view of its valuation of Delavan but stressed that Company A believed that its valuation might increase after it had an opportunity to perform a due diligence review of Delavan. Management of both companies agreed that it would be appropriate and advisable for Delavan to engage its own investment banker to assist it in the process of identifying possible strategic partners and purchasers for Delavan.

Mr. Murphy contacted the members of the Delavan board to discuss the meeting with Company A. The board directed Mr. Murphy to set up a meeting with representatives of Baird. Certain members of Delavan's senior management met with Baird on April 16, 2014. At that meeting, Baird's representatives reviewed with senior management: (i) Baird and Baird's role in transactions of this type; (ii) the current banking M&A landscape and valuations; (iii) Baird's preliminary observations regarding Delavan and Community Bank; (iv) strategic considerations; and (v) a list of potential buyers.

At the board's April 17, 2014 meeting, management provided a copy of the Baird discussion materials to the directors. The board reviewed the materials carefully, and discussed whether to engage Baird. The board determined that the timing was appropriate to engage Baird to represent Delavan as its investment banker and financial advisor and seek out potential parties who might have an interest in a strategic transaction with Delavan. The board also authorized the engagement of Boardman & Clark LLP, which we refer to as Boardman, to provide legal services in connection with this process.

Between the board's April 17 and May 15, 2014 meetings, Mr. Murphy held numerous discussions with representatives of Boardman about the process to be used to identify parties interested in a possible strategic transaction. With the assistance of Boardman, management negotiated and executed the engagement agreement with Baird on April 28, 2014. Shortly after the April 17, 2014 board meeting, Baird began a more comprehensive due diligence review of Delavan and Community Bank, meeting with members of Delavan's management, and began developing confidential marketing materials concerning Delavan. Thereafter, Baird began contacting prospective bidders and distributed confidentiality agreements to those bidders expressing an interest in a possible transaction with Delavan. Baird provided copies of the confidential marketing materials to each party that had executed a confidentiality agreement and worked with potential strategic partners with the goal of receiving initial bids by June 24, 2014. At the May 15, 2014 board meeting, Mr. Murphy provided the board with an update on the current status of the process.

At the June 19, 2014 board meeting, Mr. Murphy reported to the board that Baird had contacted 14 potential merger candidates on behalf of Delavan and that seven merger candidates had executed the confidentiality agreement and received confidential marketing materials with respect to Delavan.

At a meeting of the Delavan board on June 27, 2014, a representative of Baird reviewed the results of the proposal solicitation process with Delavan's board and senior management. Of the seven parties which had executed confidentiality agreements and received copies of the marketing materials, three institutions, including Wintrust and Company A, presented Delavan with non-binding written expressions of interest for a proposed acquisition, subject to due diligence and the negotiation of a definitive agreement, and two parties provided a verbal expression of interest. Baird and the board discussed the price range of each of the proposals received, the form of consideration offered, the reputation of each party, the strategic opportunity offered by each possible transaction and the perceived ability of each party to consummate a transaction. Baird also reviewed with the board recent Midwest transactions in the last 12 months, nationwide transactions during the last six months, and information about the current banking market and valuations. The board members asked Baird questions regarding the expressions of interest and their terms. The board then discussed the advisability of proceeding with a strategic transaction and the relative advantages and disadvantages of the various expressions of interest. The board also discussed the steps required to complete a merger and employee matters. Delavan senior management recommended to the board that Delavan proceed with Wintrust, and allow Wintrust to perform due diligence. The board concluded that, given the relative merits of the proposals presented by Baird, the initial proposal from Wintrust was the most attractive proposal received, as the other expressions of interest included a lower purchase price and/or other less desirable terms. The board unanimously decided that Delavan should move forward by inviting Wintrust to conduct additional due diligence in order to obtain a final bid. Delavan's board determined not to seek additional offers at that time because of the favorable terms of Wintrust's proposal, Delavan's confidence in Wintrust's management team and Baird's prior discussions with other possible transaction partners over the past several months.

In early July 2014, management of Company A again contacted Mr. Murphy about a possible strategic transaction. Mr. Murphy informed Company A that Delavan was working with another potential acquirer because the potential acquirer's valuation of Delavan was higher than the valuation of Company A. Company A then offered to increase its bid, but Mr. Murphy informed Company A that the existing bid received by Delavan was still higher. On July 11, 2014, Baird received a letter of intent from Company A for consideration by the board.

At the July 17, 2014 board meeting, Mr. Murphy provided an update on the due diligence performed by Wintrust on July 16, 2014 and July 17, 2014 and noted that Wintrust was expected to provide the results of its due diligence within a week. In addition, the board discussed at length the letter of intent received from Company A. The board determined to reject Company A's offer because the letter of intent included less favorable terms than Wintrust's offer, and the proposed purchase price was less than Wintrust's bid.

Between July 25, 2014 through the beginning of October 2014, Delavan, Wintrust, and their respective legal advisors at Boardman and Schiff Hardin LLP, which we refer to as Schiff, engaged in extensive due diligence, negotiated the terms of the merger agreement and the voting agreement to be entered into by certain shareholders of Delavan, and exchanged comments and revised drafts of the agreements. Representatives of Baird facilitated the negotiation of the agreements.

At a meeting of the Delavan board held on October 13, 2014, a representative of Baird reviewed with the board the process leading to the proposed transaction and the course of negotiations with Wintrust. A representative of Boardman reviewed in detail with the board the terms of the current draft of the merger agreement and related voting agreement, including the scope of the representations and warranties, the nature of Delavan's operating covenants prior to closing, the proposed closing conditions and termination provisions. Baird provided a financial analysis to the board of the proposed transaction with Wintrust and reviewed in detail with the board the terms of the merger consideration. Baird also discussed with the board in detail its fairness opinion, including the analysis it undertook and its conclusions. The Delavan board engaged in a discussion with Delavan's advisors and accountants regarding the proposed draft of the merger agreement, including the final business terms of the transaction. Baird then delivered its opinion that, as of the date of such opinion and subject to the qualifications, limitations and assumptions set forth therein, the consideration to be received by the shareholders of Delavan in the proposed transaction is fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view.

After the conclusion of the presentations and discussions at the October 13, 2014 meeting, the Delavan board unanimously approved the merger agreement and resolved to recommend that Delavan shareholders approve the merger and authorized Mr. Murphy to execute the merger agreement and additional documentation on behalf of Delavan and approve such minor modifications to the merger agreement as he may deem necessary, beneficial, advantageous, proper and efficient. The board unanimously determined that the merger would be in the best interests of Delavan, its shareholders and Community Bank's employees and customers. On October 13, 2014, the merger agreement was finalized and executed by Delavan and Wintrust.

Delavan and Wintrust issued a joint press release on October 14, 2014 announcing the execution of the merger agreement.

On November 19, 2014, Delavan and Wintrust entered into the amendment to the merger agreement included in Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Fairness Opinion of Delavan's Financial Advisor

This section (ending on page 39) provides a summary of the analysis conducted by Baird, and reflects certain assumptions made by Baird based upon the financial information reviewed or obtained in connection with preparing such analysis, as further described herein.

Table of Contents

The board of directors of Delavan retained Baird in connection with the merger and to render a written opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Delavan of the Per Share Merger Consideration (as defined in the opinion) to be received by the holders of Delavan common stock pursuant to the terms of, and subject to the conditions set forth in, the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and between Delavan and Wintrust, and the respective wholly-owned subsidiary banks thereof.

On October 13, 2014, Baird rendered its oral opinion to the board of directors of Delavan to the effect that, subject to the contents of such opinion, including the various assumptions and limitations set forth therein, Baird was of the opinion that, as of such date, the Per Share Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Delavan common stock was fair from a financial point of view.

As a matter of firm policy, Baird's opinion was approved by a fairness committee, a majority of the members of which were not involved in providing financial advisory services on Baird's behalf to Delavan in connection with the merger.

The full text of Baird's written opinion, dated October 13, 2014 which sets forth the assumptions made, general procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by Baird in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex D and is incorporated herein by reference. Baird's opinion is directed only to the fairness, as of the date of the opinion and from a financial point of view, to Delavan of the Per Share Merger Consideration and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the merger. Baird expresses no opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of Delavan's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the Per Share Merger Consideration to be received by Delavan's shareholders, or otherwise. The summary of Baird's opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion attached as Annex D. Delavan shareholders are urged to read the opinion carefully in its entirety.

Baird, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In conducting its financial analyses and in arriving at its opinion, Baird reviewed such information and took into account such financial and economic factors, investment banking procedures and considerations as it deemed relevant under the circumstances. In that connection, and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth herein, Baird, among other things: (i) reviewed certain internal information, primarily financial in nature, including (A) financial forecasts concerning the business and operations of Delavan (the "Forecasts") as furnished and prepared by Delavan's management for purposes of its analysis, (B) financial statements of Delavan for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2011 through 2013, and interim financial statements of Delavan for the six months ended June 30, 2014, which Delavan's management prepared and identified as being the most current financial statements available, and (C) financial statements of Wintrust for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2011 through 2013, and interim financial statements of Wintrust for the six months ended June 30, 2014, obtained from Wintrust's publicly available annual and quarterly reports as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"); (ii) reviewed certain publicly available information, including, but not limited to, Wintrust's recent filings with the SEC and equity analyst research reports covering Wintrust prepared by various investment banking and research firms, including consensus earnings estimates for Wintrust for the years ending December 31, 2014 and 2015; (iii) reviewed the principal financial terms of the draft dated October 10, 2014 of the Agreement in the form presented to the Board as they related to Baird's analysis; (iv) considered the relative contributions of assets, liabilities, equity and earnings of Delavan and Wintrust to the resulting company; (v) compared the financial position and operating results of Delavan and Wintrust with those of certain publicly traded companies deemed relevant; (vi) compared the historical market prices, trading activity and market trading multiples of Wintrust's common stock with those of certain other publicly traded companies deemed relevant; (vii) compared the Per Share Merger Consideration with the reported financial terms of certain other recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry deemed relevant, to the extent publicly available; (ix) reviewed certificates from Delavan addressed to Baird regarding the historical financial statements and Forecasts; (x) reviewed certain potential pro forma financial effects of the merger; (xi) reviewed the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xiii) reviewed such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as considered relevant. Baird held discussions with members of Delavan's and Wintrust's respective senior managements concerning the historical and current business, financial condition, operating results and prospects, of Delavan and Wintrust, respectively. Baird also considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria deemed relevant for the preparation of the opinion.

In arriving at the opinion, Baird assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was publicly available or provided by or on behalf of Delavan and Wintrust. Baird further relied on the assurances of the management of Delavan that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Baird was not asked to and did not independently verify any publicly available information or information supplied by Delavan or Wintrust. Baird was not engaged to independently verify, did not assume any responsibility to verify, assumed no liability for, and expressed no opinion on, any such information, and has assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, that neither Delavan nor Wintrust was aware of any information that might be material to the opinion that was not provided to Baird. Baird assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, that: (i) all material assets and liabilities (contingent or otherwise, known or unknown) of Delavan and Wintrust were set forth in their respective most recent financial statements provided to Baird or publicly available, and there was no information or facts that would make any of the information reviewed by Baird incomplete or misleading; (ii) the financial statements of Delavan and Wintrust provided to Baird or publicly available presented fairly the results of operations, cash flows and financial condition of Delavan and Wintrust, respectively, for the periods, and as of the dates, indicated and were prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied; (iii) the Forecasts for Delavan were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best available estimates and good faith judgments of Delavan's senior management as to the future performance of Delavan, and Baird relied, without independent verification, upon such Forecasts in the preparation of the opinion, although Baird expressed no opinion with respect to the Forecasts or any judgments, estimates, assumptions or basis on which they were based, and assumed, without independent verification, that the Forecasts used in Baird's analysis will be realized in the amounts and on the time schedule contemplated; (iv) the merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement without any amendment or modification thereto and without waiver by any party of any of the conditions to their respective obligations thereunder; (v) the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement are true and correct and that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the Agreement; (vi) all corporate, governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals (contractual or otherwise) required to consummate the merger have been, or will be, obtained without the need for any changes to the Per Share Merger Consideration or other financial terms or conditions of the merger or that would otherwise materially affect Delavan or Wintrust or Baird's analysis; (vii) the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes; and (viii) with respect to the equity analyst research reports and consensus earnings estimates referred to above, Baird reviewed and discussed such forecasts and projections with the management of Wintrust and assumed, without independent verification, that such forecasts and projections represent reasonable estimates and judgments of the future financial results and condition of Wintrust, and Baird expressed no opinion with respect to such forecasts and projections or the assumptions on which they were based. Baird relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final form of any draft documents referred to above will not differ in any material respect from such draft documents. Baird relied, without independent verification, as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters regarding the merger on the advice of Delavan and its professional advisors, and Baird assumed that all such advice was correct. In conducting their review, Baird did not undertake or obtain an independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise, known or unknown) or solvency of Delavan or Wintrust nor did Baird make a physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Delavan or Wintrust. Baird rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Delavan or Wintrust. Baird did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Delavan or Wintrust, or the combined entity after the merger and did not review any individual credit files relating to Delavan or Wintrust. Baird assumed that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Delavan and Wintrust, together with the assumed purchase accounting adjustments made by Wintrust with respect to Delavan, are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. Baird did not consider any expenses or potential adjustments to the Per Share Merger Consideration relating to the merger as part of its analysis. Baird also assumed the value of the per share stock Consideration to be $50.80 and thus the value of the Per Share Merger Consideration to be $101.61.

Baird's opinion necessarily was based upon financial, economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available as of October 13, 2014, and Baird's opinion did not predict or take into account any changes or events which may occur, or information which may become available, after October 13, 2014. Baird was under no obligation to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw the opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring after October 13, 2014. Furthermore, Baird expressed no opinion as to the price or trading range at which any of Wintrust's securities (including Wintrust's common stock) will trade following October 13, 2014 or as to the effect of the merger on such price or trading range, or any earnings or ownership dilutive impact that may result from Wintrust's issuance of its common stock in the merger. Such price and trading range may be affected by a number of factors, including but not limited to (i) dispositions of the common stock of Wintrust by shareholders within a short period of time after, or other market effects resulting from, the announcement and/or effective date of the merger; (ii) changes in prevailing interest rates and other factors which generally influence the price of securities; (iii) adverse changes in the current capital markets; (iv) the occurrence of adverse changes in the financial condition, business, assets, results of operations or prospects of Delavan or Wintrust or in the financial services industry; (v) any actions or inactions by, or restrictions of, federal, state or other governmental agencies or regulatory authorities; and (vi) timely completion of the merger on terms and conditions that are acceptable to all parties at interest. Baird did not express any opinion on the liquidity or marketability of the Wintrust common stock or the ability of the holders of such stock, including the holders of Delavan common stock who will receive shares of Wintrust common stock in the merger, to sell shares of Wintrust common stock at any time.

Baird's opinion has been prepared at the request and for the information of and is directed to the board of directors of Delavan in connection with its consideration of the merger, and was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of October 13, 2014, of the Per Share Merger Consideration to the holders of Delavan common stock. The opinion did not address the relative merits or risks of: (i) the merger, the Agreement or any other agreements or other matters provided for, or contemplated by, the Agreement; (ii) any other transactions that may be, or might have been, available as an alternative to the merger; or (iii) the merger compared to any other potential alternative transactions or business strategies considered by the Board and, accordingly, Baird relied upon discussions with the senior management of Delavan with respect to the availability and consequences of any alternatives to the merger. The opinion did not constitute a recommendation to the Board, any security holder or any other person as to how any such person should vote or act with respect to the merger.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Baird in connection with rendering its opinion, which is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion attached as Annex D and to the other disclosures contained in this section. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Baird. The order of analyses described does not represent relative importance or weight given to the analyses performed by Baird. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in a tabular format. These tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and alone are not a complete description of Baird's financial analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information is based on market and financial data as it existed on or before October 13, 2014 is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

Implied Valuation and Transaction Multiples. Based on the cash consideration of $50.80 net per share of Delavan Common Stock (the "Per Share Equity Purchase Price"), exchange ratio of 1.16 shares of Wintrust Common Stock for each share of Delavan Common Stock (the "Exchange Ratio") and Wintrust's stock price of $43.79 as of October 10, 2014, the implied "Per Share Equity Purchase Price" is $50.80 net per share. Baird calculated the implied "equity purchase price" (defined as the Per Share Equity Purchase Price multiplied by the total number of common shares outstanding of Delavan, including gross shares issuable upon the exercise of stock options, less assumed option proceeds) to be $38 million. Baird then calculated the multiples of the Per Share Purchase Price to Wintrust's last twelve month ("LTM") June 30, 2013 earnings per share ("EPS") and book value per share and tangible book value per share at June 30, 2013, as provided by the senior management of Delavan and Wintrust. These transaction multiples are summarized in the table below.

Transaction Metric	Multiple
Price/LTM EPS	25.8x
Price/Book Value Per Share	140.5%
Price/Tangible Book Value Per Share	140.5%

Baird chose these acquisition transactions based on a review of completed and pending acquisition transactions involving target companies that possessed general business, operating and financial characteristics representative of companies in the industry in which Delavan operates. Baird noted that none of the acquisition transactions or subject target companies reviewed is identical to the merger or Delavan, respectively, and that, accordingly, the analysis of such acquisition transactions necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in the business, operating and financial characteristics of each subject target company and each acquisition transaction and other factors that affect the values implied in such acquisition transactions.

For each transaction, Baird calculated multiples of each target company's purchase price per share to its LTM EPS, book value per share and tangible book value per share. In addition, Baird calculated the core deposit premium of each transaction where core deposit premium is defined as transaction value less tangible book value divided by core deposits. Core deposits are defined as total deposits less time deposits greater than $100,000 and brokered deposits. Stock market and historical financial information for each selected transaction was based on publicly available information as of the date of each respective transaction. A summary of the implied multiples from each peer group is provided in the table below.

Delavan Discounted Dividend Analysis. Baird performed a discounted dividend analysis to estimate a range of implied equity value per share for Delavan. In this analysis, Baird assumed discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 14.0% to derive: (i) the present value of the estimated dividends that Delavan could generate over the five year period beginning December 2015 and ending December 2019, including certain expenses and synergies forecasted as a result of the merger, and assuming excess capital generated at time zero after a target tangible common equity to tangible asset ratio of 9.0% and (ii) the present value of Delavan's terminal value calculated in year five. Terminal values for Delavan were calculated based on a range of 10.0x to 18.0x estimated Delavan earnings for the twelve months ending December 31, 2019. Based on these assumptions, Baird derived a range of implied equity value per share from $73.40 to $116.31.

The discounted dividend analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent on the assumptions that must be made, including earnings growth rates, terminal values, and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Delavan.

Contribution Analysis. Baird analyzed Wintrust and Delavan's relative contribution to the combined company in terms of loans, deposits, tangible equity, tangible common stock, LTM earnings, 2013 earnings, expected 2014 earnings, pro forma 2015 earning, and pro forma diluted ownership. For this analysis, Baird assumed that Delavan shareholders would receive 100% stock in the transaction for comparative purposes; as a result Delavan shareholders would own the equivalent of 1.7% of the pro forma outstanding Wintrust common stock. Wintrust's and Delavan's relative contributions to the combined company are summarized in the table below.

Category	Wintrust	Delavan
Loans	99.1%	0.9%

Pro Forma Diluted Ownership	98.3%	1.7%

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Baird analyzed the estimated financial impact of the merger on Wintrust's 2015 and 2016 estimated diluted earnings per share. For Wintrust, Baird used Wintrust earnings projections based on consensus estimates of diluted earnings per share for 2015 and 2016. For Delavan, Baird used earnings projections based on Delavan guidance. In addition, Baird assumed that the merger will result in cost synergies to Wintrust. Based on its analysis, Baird determined that the merger would be accretive to Wintrust's common stock.

Furthermore, the analysis indicated that Wintrust's Leverage Ratio, Tier 1 Risk-Based Capital Ratio and Total Risk-Based Capital Ratio would all remain above regulatory minimums for well capitalized institutions. For all of the above analysis, the actual results achieved by Wintrust following the merger may vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Other Analyses. Baird reviewed the relative financial and market performance of Delavan and Wintrust to a variety of relevant industry peer groups and indices. Baird also reviewed earnings estimates, balance sheet composition, historical stock performance and other financial data for Delavan.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Baird or its presentations to Delavan's board of directors. The preparation of financial analyses and a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analyses or summary description. Baird believes that its analyses (and the summary set forth above) must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and factors considered by Baird, without considering all of such analyses and factors, could create an incomplete view of the processes and judgments underlying the analyses performed and conclusions reached by Baird and its opinion. Baird did not attempt to assign specific weights to particular analyses. Any estimates contained in Baird's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than as set forth therein. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily to reflect the prices at which companies may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, Baird does not assume responsibility for their accuracy.

As part of its investment banking business, Baird is engaged in the evaluation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. Pursuant to an engagement letter with Delavan dated April 29, 2014, Baird will receive a transaction fee of approximately $475,000 for its services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Pursuant to such engagement letter, Delavan has also agreed to pay Baird a fee of $100,000 payable upon delivery of its fairness opinion, regardless of the conclusions reached in such opinion (such fee to be credited against the merger described above). In addition, Delavan has agreed to indemnify Baird against certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement, including liabilities under the federal securities laws. Baird will not receive any other significant payment of compensation contingent upon the successful completion of the merger. During the last two years, neither Baird nor any of its affiliates have provided any other investment banking and/or financial advisory services to either Delavan or Wintrust, or any affiliates thereof, for which Baird received (or will receive) compensation.

Baird is a full service securities firm. As such, in the ordinary course of its business, Baird may from time to time trade the securities of Delavan or Wintrust for its own account or the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions or effect transactions in such securities. Baird may also prepare equity analyst research reports from time to time regarding Delavan or Wintrust.

Delavan's reasons for the merger and recommendation of the board of directors

Delavan's board of directors has concluded that the merger offers Delavan's shareholders an attractive opportunity to achieve the board's strategic business objectives, including increasing shareholder value, growing the size of the business and enhancing liquidity for Delavan's shareholders. In addition, Delavan's board of directors believes that the customers and communities served by Community Bank will benefit from the merger.

In deciding to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, Delavan's board of directors consulted with Delavan's management, as well as its legal counsel and financial advisor, and considered numerous factors, including the following:

the perceived risks and uncertainties attendant to Delavan's operation as an independent banking organization, including the risks and uncertainties related to the continuing low-interest rate environment, competition in Delavan's market area, increased regulatory costs and increased capital requirements;

based on the closing price of Wintrust common stock on October 10, 2014 and Delavan's June 30, 2014 unaudited balance sheet, the aggregate merger consideration was priced at a multiple of 1.4 times the tangible common book value and at a multiple of 1.4 times the common book value;

Baird's opinion, subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in such fairness opinion, that the per share merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Delavan common stock;

the value to be received by Delavan's shareholders in the merger as compared to shareholder value projected for Delavan as an independent entity;

the market value of Wintrust common stock prior to the execution of the merger agreement and the prospects for future appreciation as a result of Wintrust's strategic initiatives;

Wintrust's strategy to seek profitable future expansion in Delavan's trade area, leading to continued growth in overall shareholder value;

the fact that Wintrust is publicly held and the merger would provide access to a public trading market for Delavan's shareholders whose investments currently are in a privately held company, as well as enhanced access to capital markets to finance the combined company's capital requirements; and the likelihood that the merger will be approved by the relevant bank regulatory authorities without undue burden and in a timely manner.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by Delavan's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes a description of all material factors considered by Delavan's board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Delavan board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger, the Delavan board did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered. In considering the factors described above, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. Delavan's board of directors collectively made its determination with respect to the merger based on the conclusion reached by its members, based on the factors that each of them considered appropriate, that the merger is in the best interests of Delavan's shareholders.

Delavan's board of directors believes that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Delavan and its shareholders. Delavan's board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommends that shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

Certain directors and officers of Delavan and Community Bank have interests in the merger different from or in addition to their interests as shareholders generally, including certain cash payments that will be made as a result of the merger under various benefit plans and agreements currently in place in order to terminate such agreements and to be made under the agreement entered into between Michael J. Murphy and Community Bank in connection with the merger. You may wish to consider these interests in evaluating Delavan's board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of the merger. See "The Merger" Interests of certain persons in the merger. All of Delavan's directors who own shares of Delavan common stock have agreed to vote their shares at the special meeting in favor of the merger and any other matter necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Wintrust's reasons for the merger

Wintrust's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Wintrust and its shareholders. In deciding to approve the merger, Wintrust's board of directors considered a number of factors, including:

management's view that the acquisition provides an attractive opportunity for Wintrust to expand in southeastern Wisconsin;

Delavan's community banking orientation and its compatibility with Wintrust and its subsidiaries;

a review of the demographic, economic and financial characteristics of the markets in which Delavan operates, including existing and potential competition and history of the market areas with respect to financial institutions;

management's review of Delavan's business, operations, earnings and financial condition, including capital levels and asset quality of Community Bank;

efficiencies to come from integrating certain of Delavan's operations into Wintrust's existing operations; and

the likelihood that the merger will be approved by the relevant bank regulatory authorities without undue burden and in a timely manner.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by Wintrust's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes a description of all material factors considered by Wintrust's board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Wintrust board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger, the Wintrust board did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered. In considering the factors described above, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. Wintrust's board of directors collectively made its determination with respect to the merger based on the conclusion reached by its members, based on the factors that each of them considered appropriate, that the merger is in the best interests of Wintrust's shareholders.

Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger

The following summary describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Delavan common stock. The summary is based upon the Code, applicable Treasury Regulations, judicial decisions and administrative rulings and practice, all as in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary does not address any tax consequences of the merger under state, local or foreign laws, or any federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner that is: an individual citizen or resident of the United States; a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions; a trust that (1) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more U.S. persons or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income taxation on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion addresses only those holders of Delavan common stock that hold their Delavan common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders of Delavan common stock in light of their individual circumstances or to holders of Delavan common stock that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

Table of Contents

investors in pass-through entities;

persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities or currencies;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting;

persons that hold Delavan common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States; and holders who acquired their shares of Delavan common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

If a partnership (or other entity that is taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes) holds Delavan common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in that partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in partnerships should consult their own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

The parties intend for the merger to be treated as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is a condition to Delavan's obligation to complete the merger that Delavan receive an opinion from WIPFLI, LLP, accountants for Delavan, dated the closing date, to the effect that (1) the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, (2) Delavan and Wintrust will each be a party to such reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and (3) except to the extent of any cash consideration received in the merger and except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional share interests in Wintrust common stock, no gain or loss will be recognized by any of the holders of Delavan common stock in the merger. This opinion is and will be based upon fact certifications or affidavits provided by Wintrust and Delavan and upon customary factual assumptions. Neither Wintrust nor Delavan has sought, and neither of them will seek, any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the merger, and the opinion described above will not be binding on the IRS or any court. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth in the opinion. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which the opinion is based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

The actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend upon your specific situation and upon factors that are not within the control of Wintrust or Delavan. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in light of your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws.

The following expresses the opinion of WIPFLI, LLP, accountants to Delavan, insofar as it relates to matters of U.S. federal income tax law and legal conclusions with respect to those matters:

Table of Contents

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally. The material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger will be as follows:

no gain or loss will be recognized by Wintrust or Delavan as a result of the merger;

gain (but not loss) will be recognized by U.S. holders of Delavan common stock who receive shares of Wintrust common stock and cash in exchange for shares of Delavan common stock pursuant to the merger in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the Wintrust common stock and cash received by a U.S. holder of Delavan common stock exceeds such U.S. holder's basis in its Delavan common stock and (2) the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder of Delavan common stock;

the aggregate basis of the Wintrust common stock received by a U.S. holder of Delavan common stock in the merger (including fractional shares of Wintrust common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will be the same as the aggregate basis of the Delavan common stock for which it is exchanged, decreased by the amount of cash received in the merger (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share in Wintrust common stock), and increased by the amount of gain recognized on the exchange, other than with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share in Wintrust common stock (regardless of whether such gain is classified as capital gain or as dividend income, as discussed below under Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend); and the holding period of Wintrust common stock received in exchange for shares of Delavan common stock (including fractional shares of Wintrust common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will include the holding period of the Delavan common stock for which it is exchanged.

If a U.S. holder of Delavan common stock acquired different blocks of Delavan common stock at different times or at different prices, any gain or loss will be determined separately with respect to each block of Delavan common stock, and the cash and shares of Wintrust common stock received will be allocated pro rata to each such block of stock. U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of Wintrust common stock received in the merger.

Taxation of Capital Gain. Except as described under Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend below, gain that U.S. holders of Delavan common stock recognize in connection with the merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such U.S. holders have held (or are treated as having held) their Delavan common stock for more than one year as of the date of the merger. For non-corporate U.S. holders of Delavan common stock, the maximum U.S. federal income tax rate on long-term capital gains is, absent legislative action, 20%.

Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend. All or part of the gain that a particular U.S. holder of Delavan common stock recognizes could be treated as dividend income rather than capital gain if (1) such U.S. holder is a significant shareholder of Wintrust or (2) such U.S. holder's percentage ownership, taking into account constructive ownership rules, in Wintrust after the merger is not meaningfully reduced from what its percentage ownership would have been if it had received solely shares of Wintrust common stock rather than a combination of cash and shares of Wintrust common stock in the merger. This could happen, for example, because of ownership of additional shares of Wintrust common stock by such holder, ownership of shares of Wintrust common stock by a person related to such holder or a share repurchase by Wintrust from other holders of Wintrust common stock. The IRS has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a minority shareholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gain as opposed to dividend treatment. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon the particular circumstances of a holder of Delavan common stock, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, holders of Delavan common stock should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential tax consequences of the merger to them.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of Wintrust Common Stock. A U.S. holder of Delavan common stock who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Wintrust common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash in a redemption by Wintrust. As a result, such U.S. holder of Delavan common stock will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her fractional share interest as set forth above. The gain or loss recognized by the U.S. holders described in this paragraph will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the U.S. holder's holding period for the relevant shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Medicare Tax on Unearned Income. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2012, a U.S. holder that is an individual is subject to a 3.8% tax on the lesser of (i) his or her net investment income for the relevant taxable year or (ii) the excess of his or her modified gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (between $125,000 and $250,000 depending on the individual's U.S. federal income tax filing status). A similar regime applies to estates and trusts. Net investment income generally would include any capital gain incurred in connection with the merger (including any gain treated as a dividend).

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of cash to a U.S. holder of Delavan common stock pursuant to the merger may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or, in the case of backup withholding, furnishes its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

A U.S. holder of Delavan common stock who receives Wintrust common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. Each U.S. holder of Delavan common stock who is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and who is a significant holder that receives Wintrust common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-3 setting forth such holder's basis in the Delavan common stock surrendered and the fair market value of the Wintrust common stock and cash received in the merger. A significant holder is a holder of Delavan common stock who, immediately before the merger, owned at least 5% of the outstanding stock of Delavan or securities of Delavan with a basis for federal income taxes of at least $1 million.

This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent upon, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences to you of the merger.

Regulatory approvals

The merger cannot proceed without obtaining all requisite regulatory approvals. Wintrust and Delavan have agreed to take all appropriate actions necessary to obtain the required approvals.

The merger of Wintrust and Delavan is subject to prior approval of each of the Federal Reserve and the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions. Wintrust submitted an application with each of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago and the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions on October 20, 2014 seeking the necessary approvals.

The merger may not be consummated until 15 days after receipt of Federal Reserve approval, during which time the United States Department of Justice may challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Reserve's approval, unless a court specifically orders otherwise.

Interests of certain persons in the merger

General. Members of the board of directors and executive officers of Delavan, Community Bank and its subsidiaries may have interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of Delavan shareholders generally. The Delavan board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and determining to recommend to Delavan shareholders to vote for adoption of the merger agreement. As of September 30, 2014, Delavan's directors and executive officers owned, in the aggregate, 113,593 shares of Delavan's common stock, representing approximately 30% of Delavan's outstanding shares of common stock. Mr. Murphy also holds options to purchase 7,250 shares of Delavan common stock.

Jon E. Martin, Delavan's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and Michael R. Ploch, Delavan's Senior Vice President - Commercial Lending, are also entitled to stock appreciation rights in amounts equal to approximately $171,000 and $195,000, respectively, (assuming that the reference price is between $39.50 and $49.50) pursuant to the Delavan Bancshares, Inc. 2008 Stock Appreciation Right Plan. All such stock appreciation rights outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will vest and become payable at the effective time.

Employment Agreement. The merger agreement required Michael J. Murphy to enter into an employment agreement with Community Bank. Under such agreement, Mr. Murphy will serve as President of Community Bank upon the effective time of the merger and will be entitled to receive a base salary substantially similar to his current base salary. Such agreement has an initial term of one year, which begins on the closing date, with automatic one-year renewal terms unless either party gives notice of non-renewal. In the event of a change in control of Wintrust or Community Bank, the term of the agreement will automatically extend for one year.

Under his employment agreement, if Mr. Murphy's employment is terminated by Community Bank without cause or if Mr. Murphy terminates his employment due to a constructive termination, Mr. Murphy will be entitled to severance pay up to one times annual base salary plus target annual bonus plus $250,000, payable ratably over a 12-month period beginning on the first payroll period following such termination (or in a lump sum if the termination occurs within 12 months following a change in control of Wintrust or Community Bank), as well as continued health insurance for up to the maximum period under COBRA. The agreement also provides that, if necessary, severance pay will be reduced to an amount that is one dollar less than the maximum amount payable without loss of a deduction under Section 280G of the Code. In consideration of the termination of Mr. Murphy's existing employment agreement with Community Bank and his entry into such new employment agreement, Mr. Murphy is also entitled to receive an amount equal to $200,000 following the consummation of the merger, or such lesser amount as he may have otherwise been owed pursuant to his existing agreement.

Continued Director and Officer Liability Coverage. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Wintrust has agreed to provide to each person who serves as a director or officer of Delavan or its subsidiaries after the effective time substantially the same insurance coverage against personal liability for actions taken after the effective time as is provided to other directors and officers of Wintrust's subsidiary banks. In addition, Wintrust agreed to pay for insurance coverage for up to six years following the closing date under a policy of directors' and officers' liability and other professional insurance for actions taken on or prior to the effective time of the merger, so long as the premium or premiums of such policy are acceptable to Wintrust in its sole discretion. If a six-year term of insurance coverage is not available, the term for the insurance will be such other maximum period of coverage that is available at a cost consistent with the cost incurred by Delavan's or Community Bank's current directors' and officers' liability and other professional insurance policies in effect as of the effective time.

Voting agreement

On October 13, 2014, all directors of Delavan who own shares of Delavan common stock entered into a voting agreement with Wintrust. Under this agreement, these shareholders have each agreed to vote their respective shares of Delavan common stock:

in favor of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; against any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would result in a breach of any term or obligation of Delavan under the merger agreement; against any action or agreement that would impede, interfere with, prevent or attempt to discourage the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; against any other proposed transaction or series of transactions involving or affecting Delavan or Community Bank (or the securities or assets of either) that, if effected, would constitute an acquisition of control of either Delavan or Community Bank, which we refer to as an acquisition proposal; and in favor of any other matter necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Furthermore, each of these shareholders has also agreed not to transfer or otherwise dispose of any shares of Delavan common stock that they own (other than under certain circumstances up to 2% of such shareholders' shares of Delavan common stock to a family member of such shareholder), grant any proxies, deposit any shares of Delavan common stock into a voting trust or enter into any other voting agreement with respect to any shares of Delavan common stock that they own or, without the prior approval of Wintrust, directly or indirectly solicit, initiate, encourage or facilitate any acquisition proposal, or initiate or participate in any negotiations or discussions concerning any acquisition proposal. The shares subject to the voting agreement represent approximately 28% of Delavan's outstanding shares of common stock as of September 30, 2014. The voting agreement will terminate upon the earlier of the consummation of the merger or termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

Restrictions on resale of Wintrust common stock

The shares of Wintrust common stock to be issued in connection with the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which we refer to as the Securities Act, and will be freely transferable, except for shares issued to any shareholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Wintrust for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Wintrust include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, Wintrust and may include the executive officers, directors and significant shareholders of Wintrust.

Delavan shareholder dissenters' rights

In connection with the merger, record holders of Delavan common stock who comply with the requirements of Subchapter XIII of the WBCL, which is summarized below, will be entitled to dissenters' rights if the merger is completed. Under Subchapter XIII of the WBCL, a shareholder of a corporation is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares in the event of, the consummation of a merger to which the corporation is a party if shareholder approval is required for the merger by Section 180.1103 of the WBCL or, by the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

The following is a brief summary of Subchapter XIII, which sets forth the procedures relating to the exercise of dissenters' rights. This summary is not a complete statement of the law pertaining to dissenters' rights under the WBCL and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Subchapter XIII, the text of which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B.

Any shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must deliver a written notice of his or her intent to exercise such right to Delavan Bancshares, Inc., 820 Geneva Street, Delavan, Wisconsin 53115, Attention: Michael J. Murphy, President and CEO, before the vote on the merger agreement is taken at the special meeting. A PROXY OR VOTE AGAINST THE MERGER AGREEMENT WILL NOT, BY ITSELF, BE REGARDED AS A WRITTEN NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND PAYMENT FOR PURPOSES OF ASSERTING DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.

A record holder of Delavan common stock may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all shares registered in that shareholder's name only if the holder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies Delavan in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts such dissenters' rights.

A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the shareholder's behalf only if, in addition to meeting the other requirements to dissent, the beneficial shareholder (i) submits to Delavan the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights and (ii) asserts dissenters' rights with respect to all shares of which the shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which the beneficial shareholder has power to direct the vote.

If the merger agreement is approved by the requisite vote of holders of Delavan common stock, Delavan is required to send a notice to all dissenting shareholders containing payment demand and stock certificate surrender information within ten days after such approval. The return date specified by Delavan for receiving the payment demand from dissenting shareholders may not be less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date on which the dissenters' notice was first sent. Upon receipt of the dissenters' notice, each dissenting shareholder must return his or her payment demand and certificate no later than the payment demand date as provided in the dissenters' notice and certify whether he or she acquired beneficial ownership of the shares prior to the first public announcement of the terms of the merger on October 14, 2014. A payment demand may not be withdrawn without Delavan's consent.

Upon effecting the merger, within 60 days after the payment demand date, Delavan will pay each dissenting shareholder who properly complied with the statutory requirements of Subchapter XIII of the WBCL, the amount that Delavan estimates to be the fair value of such dissenting shareholder's shares, plus accrued interest from the effective time; provided that, with respect to shares acquired after the first public announcement of the merger, Delavan may elect to withhold payment until either such shareholder accepts Delavan's offer of fair value or a court determines the fair value of such shares.

If the merger is not effected within 60 days of the payment demand date, Delavan will return all deposited certificates to dissenting shareholders. If the merger is thereafter effected, Delavan will send a new dissenters' notice within ten days of effecting the merger and repeat the payment demand procedure described above.

If any dissenting shareholder is dissatisfied with Delavan's determination of fair value, such dissenting shareholder may notify Delavan in writing of his or her own estimate of the fair value of his or her shares and the amount of interest due. A dissenting shareholder must assert this right within 30 days after Delavan makes or offers payment for his or her shares or the right is waived. Delavan may either accept such dissenting shareholder's estimate of fair value or commence a proceeding in the Wisconsin Circuit Court of Walworth County to determine the fair value of the shares of all dissenting shareholders whose own estimates of fair value are not accepted by Delavan.

In the event any holder of shares of Delavan common stock fails to perfect his or her rights to dissent by failing to comply strictly with the applicable statutory requirements of Subchapter XIII of the WBCL, he or she will be bound by the terms of the merger agreement and will not be entitled to payment for his or her shares under Subchapter XIII of the WBCL. ANY HOLDER OF SHARES OF DELAVAN COMMON STOCK WHO WISHES TO OBJECT TO THE TRANSACTION AND DEMAND PAYMENT IN CASH FOR HIS OR HER SHARES SHOULD CONSIDER CONSULTING HIS OR HER OWN LEGAL ADVISOR.

Because an executed proxy relating to Delavan common stock on which no voting direction is made will be voted at the special meeting in favor of the merger, a dissenting shareholder who wishes to have his or her shares of Delavan common stock represented by proxy at the special meeting but preserve his or her dissenters' rights must mark his or her proxy either to vote against the merger or to abstain from voting thereon, in addition to the foregoing requirements.

The foregoing is a brief summary of Subchapter XIII that sets forth the procedures for demanding statutory dissenters rights. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Subchapter XIII, the text of which is attached hereto as Annex B. Failure to comply with all the procedures set forth in Subchapter XIII will result in the loss of a shareholder's statutory dissenters rights. Consequently, if you desire to exercise your dissenters rights you are urged to consult a legal advisor before attempting to exercise these rights.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the merger agreement. This summary does not purport to describe all the terms of the merger agreement and is qualified by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the merger agreement completely and carefully as it, rather than this description, is the legal document that governs the merger.

The text of the merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The terms of the merger agreement (such as the representations and warranties) are intended to govern the contractual rights and relationships, and allocate risks, between the parties in relation to the merger. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties Wintrust and Delavan made to each other as of specific dates. The representations and warranties were negotiated between the parties with the principal purpose of setting forth their respective rights with respect to their obligations to complete the merger. The statements embodied in those representations and warranties may be subject to important limitations and qualifications as set forth therein, including a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable under federal securities laws.

General

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Delavan with and into Merger Co., with Merger Co. continuing as the surviving corporation. After the consummation of the merger, Merger Co. will continue to be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust.

Closing and effective time

Closing. The closing of the merger will take place on the fifth business day following the satisfaction of the conditions to closing set forth in the merger agreement, or at another time that both parties mutually agree upon. See Conditions to completion of the merger below for a more complete description of the conditions that must be satisfied prior to closing. The completion of the merger sometimes is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the closing date.

Completion of the Merger. The merger will become effective on the date when the articles of merger are duly filed with the WDFI, or at such later date and time specified in such filing as the parties mutually agree upon. The time at which the merger becomes effective is sometimes referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the effective time.

Consideration to be received in the merger

Delavan Common Stock. If the merger is completed, the shares of Delavan common stock which you own immediately before the completion of the merger will be converted into a right to receive cash and shares of Wintrust common stock, subject in each case to the adjustment procedures described below under Adjustment to Merger Consideration. The aggregate merger consideration paid by Wintrust to Delavan shareholders is expected to be approximately $38,000,000, subject to possible downward adjustment as described below. Assuming that the reference price as described below is between $39.50 and $49.50, 50% of the aggregate merger consideration will be paid in shares of Wintrust common stock and 50% will be paid in cash.

Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, based on a reference price of $, which is equal to the reference price if it were calculated as of , 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that a Delavan shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as the per share merger consideration, would be $ in cash and shares of Wintrust common stock. In each case assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, if the reference price were equal to the minimum of $39.50, each share of Delavan common stock would instead be entitled to 1.286 shares of Wintrust common stock, and if the reference price were equal to the maximum of $49.50, each share of Delavan common stock would be entitled to 1.027 shares of Wintrust common stock.

Cash Consideration. Subject to possible downward adjustment, for each share of Delavan common stock, you will be entitled to receive cash equal to (i) the product obtained by multiplying (a) $38,000,000 by (b) 0.5, with the resultant amount divided by (ii) the number of shares of Delavan common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, rounded to the nearest $0.01, which we refer to as the per share cash consideration.

Stock Consideration. Subject to possible downward adjustment, for each share of Delavan common stock, you will be entitled to receive a number of shares of Wintrust common stock equal to (i) the quotient obtained by dividing (a) the aggregate share amount (as defined below) by (b) the number of shares of Delavan common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, rounded to the nearest thousandth of a share (0.001), multiplied by (ii) 0.5, such product rounded to the nearest thousandth of a share (0.001), which we refer to as the per share stock consideration.

The merger agreement provides that the aggregate share amount will be determined as follows:

If the reference price is at least $39.50 and no more than $49.50, the aggregate share amount will be the number of shares of Wintrust common stock equal to the quotient (rounded up to the nearest whole share) obtained by dividing (i) $38,000,000 by (ii) the reference price;

if the reference price is less than $39.50, the aggregate share amount will be 962,025 shares of Wintrust common stock (the number of shares determined by dividing $38,000,000 by $39.50); and if the reference price is greater than $49.50, the aggregate share amount will be 767,676 shares of Wintrust common stock (the number of shares determined by dividing $38,000,000 by $49.50).

Delavan may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is less than $36.50 and Wintrust may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is more than $52.50, in each case if Delavan and Wintrust are in good faith unable, after five business days' notice of such termination, to reach agreement as to an amendment to the merger agreement containing terms acceptable to Wintrust and Delavan so that the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement may be consummated.

The following table illustrates the per share value of merger consideration that Delavan's shareholders will receive in the merger based on a range of reference prices, assuming the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The table is for illustrative purposes only. The actual prices at which Wintrust common stock trades during the reference period will establish the actual reference price and therefore the actual aggregate share amount and merger consideration. The table assumes the closing price of Wintrust's common stock on the date of the merger is the same as the reference price during the reference period. The actual trading price of Wintrust common stock is subject to market fluctuations, and Delavan shareholders will not be entitled to receive additional shares in the merger if the trading price of Wintrust's common stock on the closing date is less than the average price during the reference period nor will they receive fewer shares in the merger if the trading price of Wintrust's common stock on the closing date is greater than the average price during the reference period.

- (1) The numbers in this column represent the value of the shares of Wintrust common stock which you will receive for each share of Delavan common stock that you own, subject to the assumption that the closing price of Wintrust's common stock on the date of the merger is the same as the reference price during the reference period.

Adjustment to Merger Consideration. Five business days prior to the effective time of the merger, Delavan will deliver to Wintrust balance sheets, which we refer to as the closing balance sheets, for Delavan and each of its subsidiaries as of the closing date reflecting Delavan's good faith estimate of the accounts of Delavan and its subsidiaries. The closing balance sheets will be prepared in conformity with past practices and policies of Delavan and its subsidiaries and in accordance with GAAP, subject to adjustment to reflect that (i) the outstanding indebtedness of Delavan does not exceed $3,600,000, which indebtedness will be assumed by Wintrust, (ii) Community Bank's reserve for loan losses at not less than 1.50% of its net loans, and (iii) any environmental adjustments described below. If the closing balance sheets reflect that Delavan's shareholders' equity, as determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is less than $26,000,000, then, subject to Delavan's termination right described below under Termination, the merger consideration will be reduced dollar-for-dollar by an amount equal to such shortfall. Any such reduction will be allocated equally to the cash and stock portions of the merger consideration. For purposes of determining the shareholders' equity in Delavan reflected in the closing balance sheets, all accruals and expenses for contributions and other payments made or to be made to any benefit plan will be net of any income tax benefit derived from such accrued contribution or other payments by Delavan or Community Bank.

The merger consideration may also be adjusted downward to reflect certain environmental conditions related to real property of Delavan or its subsidiaries. If any environmental survey confirms, in Wintrust's sole discretion, the presence of certain environmental conditions on any such properties, Wintrust may (i) accept such property in its current condition subject to a reduction in the merger consideration equal to an amount to be mutually agreed upon in good faith by Wintrust and Delavan, or (ii) terminate the merger agreement. If the estimated cost of remediation is less than $200,000, at Wintrust's election, instead of terminating the merger agreement Wintrust may accept the real property in its current condition and reduce the shareholders' equity for purposes of the closing balance sheets by the amount of the estimated cost of remediation.

Fractional shares

No fractional shares of Wintrust common stock will be issued in the merger. Instead, Wintrust will pay to each holder of Delavan common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Wintrust common stock an amount in cash (without interest) rounded to the nearest whole cent, determined by multiplying the reference price by such fraction of a share of Wintrust common stock to which such Delavan shareholder would otherwise be entitled.

Treatment of Delavan options

If the merger is completed, each outstanding and unexercised option to acquire a share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as a Delavan option, will be converted into an option to acquire shares of Wintrust common stock, which we refer to as a converted option. The number of shares of Wintrust common stock subject to each converted option will be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares of Delavan common stock subject to such Delavan option by (2) the quotient obtained by dividing the per share merger consideration by the reference price, which we refer to as the option exchange ratio. The per share exercise price for each converted option will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (1) the per share exercise price of the Delavan option by (2) the option exchange ratio. Upon exercise of each converted option, the aggregate number of shares of Wintrust common stock deliverable upon such exercise will be rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole share and the aggregate exercise price will be round up, if necessary, to the nearest cent. Except as described above, each converted option will be governed by the same terms and conditions as in effect immediately prior to the effective time.

Appointment of Shareholders Agent

Upon the approval of the Delavan shareholders as described in this proxy statement/prospectus, Michael J. Murphy will be constituted and appointed as the shareholders agent and attorney-in-fact with respect to taking any and all actions upon the adoption of the merger agreement specified or contemplated by the merger agreement. If Mr. Murphy is unable or unwilling to perform his duties, James Saer, the Alternate Shareholders Agent, will instead serve as the Shareholders Agent. The actions of the Shareholders Agent pursuant to the merger agreement will bind each Delavan shareholder, and no notice to or approval by the Delavan shareholders of such action will be required. Wintrust will be entitled to rely on any action taken by the Shareholders Agent as may be contemplated by the merger agreement in his or her capacity as agent for the Delavan shareholders, for the benefit of all Delavan shareholders, and Wintrust will have no duty to inquire into the circumstances in which any such action is taken. The Shareholders Agent will be fully protected, held harmless and indemnified by Delavan's shareholders in exercising, or in declining to exercise, a power provided for or contemplated by the merger agreement for the benefit of all Delavan shareholders, as he or she determines, whether upon consultation with the Delavan shareholders or in his or her sole discretion, to be in the interests of all Delavan shareholders.

In the event that both Mr. Murphy and Mr. Saer should become unable or unwilling to perform such person's duties, and unable or unwilling to appoint a subsequent successor, then Wintrust will appoint any reasonable successor Shareholders Agent from among the Delavan shareholders or former officers of Delavan. Any successor Shareholders Agent so appointed will be vested with the same power and authority as the initial Shareholders Agent.

Exchange of certificates

Wintrust has engaged American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC to act as its exchange agent to handle the exchange of Delavan common stock for the merger consideration and the payment of cash for any fractional share interest. Within three business days after the closing date, the exchange agent will send to each Delavan shareholder a letter of transmittal for use in the exchange with instructions explaining how to surrender Delavan common stock certificates to the exchange agent. Delavan shareholders that surrender their certificates to the exchange agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, will receive the merger consideration. Delavan shareholders that do not exchange their Delavan common stock will not be entitled to receive the merger consideration or any dividends or other distributions by Wintrust until their certificates are surrendered. After surrender of the certificates representing Delavan shares, any unpaid dividends or distributions with respect to the Wintrust common stock represented by the certificates will be paid without interest.

Conduct of business pending the merger and certain covenants

Under the merger agreement, Delavan has agreed to certain restrictions on its activities and the activities of its subsidiaries until the merger is completed or the merger agreement is terminated. In general, Delavan and its subsidiaries are required to conduct their business in the ordinary course of business, consistent with sound banking practice.

The following is a summary of the more significant restrictions imposed upon Delavan, subject to the exceptions set forth in the merger agreement. Delavan will not, and will cause its subsidiaries to not, without Wintrust's prior written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned:

make changes to the charter, articles of incorporation or by-laws of Delavan and its subsidiaries;

except with respect to the exercise of any outstanding Delavan option, effect any change in the capitalization of Delavan or its subsidiaries or the number of issued and outstanding shares of Delavan;

subject to certain exceptions, increase the compensation of the officers or key employees of Delavan or any of its subsidiaries or pay any bonuses, except in the ordinary course of business;

make, renew or restructure any loan in the amount of $500,000 or more, except as provided for in the merger agreement;

pay or declare any dividends or other distributions; fail to use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain present insurance coverage in respect of their properties and businesses;

make significant changes in the general nature of the business conducted by Delavan or its subsidiaries;

except as otherwise set forth in the merger agreement, enter into employment, consulting, or similar agreements that cannot be terminated with 30 days or fewer notice without penalty, or terminate the employment of any officer of Delavan or its subsidiaries without prior notice to Wintrust;

terminate, partially terminate, curtail or discontinue any of its benefit plans; fail to file any tax returns in a timely manner, apply for or consent to an extension of time for filing or change accounting methods for income tax purposes;

make any expenditure for fixed assets in excess of $100,000 for any single item, or $250,000 in the aggregate, or enter into any lease for any fixed assets having an annual rental in excess of $100,000;

make or become party to a contract, agreement, commitment, disbursement or transaction, acquire or dispose of any property or asset, or incur any liabilities or obligations, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with sound banking practice and Delavan's and its subsidiaries' current policies;

do or fail to do anything that will cause a breach or default under any material contract; engage in any covered transaction within the meaning of Sections 23A or 23B of the Federal Reserve Act or any affiliate transaction, unless Community Bank has complied with Sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act;

buy or invest in government securities that have maturities of more than ten years and a rating agency rating below A ;

accept or renew any brokered deposits or incur additional Federal Home Loan Bank advances or other types of ordinary course wholesale, in each case except as set forth in the merger agreement; or change in any material respect any accounting or recordkeeping procedures, methods, policies or practices. Wintrust has agreed to file all other applications and notices to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Delavan and Community Bank have agreed to use all reasonable and diligent efforts and to assist in obtaining such regulatory approvals. Both parties agree:

to use reasonable and diligent good faith efforts to satisfy the conditions required to close the merger and to consummate the merger as soon as practicable;

that neither will intentionally act in a manner that would cause a breach of the merger agreement or that would cause a representation made in the merger agreement to become untrue; and to coordinate publicity of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to the media. Delavan has agreed to use reasonable and diligent efforts to preserve the reputation and relationship of Delavan and its subsidiaries with suppliers, clients, customers, employees and others having business relations with Delavan, and to provide Wintrust with certain documents before the closing date, including:

reasonable notice, minutes and materials of any meetings of the boards and committees of Delavan or its subsidiaries, except as set forth in the merger agreement;

certain information regarding the loans in Community Bank's loan portfolio;

surveys, title commitments, title policies and/or endorsements with respect to parcels of real property of Delavan and its subsidiaries;

interim financial statements; and prompt notice of any written assertions of dissenters' rights.

Delavan has also agreed to the following:

to cause Community Bank, prior to closing, to write off all loans that are required to be written off as loan losses; and to write down potential loan losses in conformity with past practices and policies of Community Bank and general accepted accounting principles.

The merger agreement also contains certain covenants relating to employee benefits and other matters pertaining to officers and directors. See Employee benefit matters and The Merger Interests of certain persons in the merger.

No solicitation of or discussions relating to an acquisition proposal

The merger agreement contains provisions prohibiting Delavan from seeking or discussing an alternative proposal to the merger. Delavan has agreed that it will not, and will cause Community Bank not to, directly or indirectly solicit, encourage or facilitate any proposal or any inquiry or proposal or enter into any negotiations or discussions with any person or entity concerning any proposed acquisition of Delavan or Community Bank, or furnish any information to any person or entity proposing or seeking such an acquisition. However, the merger agreement provides that Delavan may furnish such information pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement and engage in such negotiations or discussions in response to an acquisition proposal that was not solicited by Delavan in violation of the merger agreement, if the board of directors determines in good faith and after consultation with outside counsel that it must do so in order to act in a manner consistent with the board's fiduciary duties.

Notwithstanding the restrictions described above, the merger agreement provides that Delavan may provide information to and engage in discussions with third parties from whom Delavan has received an acquisition proposal that was not solicited in violation of the merger agreement, so long as the board of directors of Delavan, after consultation with outside legal counsel, determines in good faith that such proposal constitutes a superior proposal. If the board of directors of Delavan determines that it is necessary to pursue a superior proposal in order to act in a manner consistent with its fiduciary duties, the board may withdraw, modify or otherwise change the board's recommendation with respect to the merger and the merger agreement, and/or terminate the merger agreement. However, the Delavan board of directors may not terminate the merger agreement for a superior proposal unless it has first notified Wintrust and otherwise negotiated with Wintrust so that the merger may be consummated. A superior proposal means any acquisition proposal containing terms that the Delavan board of directors determines in good faith (based on the advice of an independent financial advisor) to be more favorable to Delavan shareholders than the merger and for which financing, if required, is committed or, in the good faith judgment of the Delavan board of directors, reasonably capable of being obtained, but excludes any acquisition proposal known to the Delavan board of directors prior to the date of the merger agreement.

If Wintrust terminates the merger agreement because Delavan breaches its covenant not to solicit an acquisition proposal from a third party, Delavan will pay to Wintrust a termination fee equal to $1,250,000 plus up to $250,000 in out-of-pocket expenses and costs. See Termination fee below.

Termination

Wintrust and Delavan may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger at any time. Subject to conditions and circumstances described in the merger agreement, either Wintrust or Delavan may terminate the merger agreement as follows:

the merger is not completed (other than through the failure of any party seeking to terminate the agreement to comply fully with its material obligations under the merger agreement) by January 31, 2015 or such later date agreed to by the parties; provided, that the termination date will be extended to March 31, 2015 if the sole impediments to closing are due to delay in receiving regulatory approval from the Federal Reserve or the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions;

the other party has not satisfied a condition under the merger agreement required to be met by it prior to the closing date, or if it becomes impossible for the other party to satisfy a condition and its inability to satisfy the condition was not caused by the non-breaching party's failure to meet any of its obligations under the merger agreement and such non-breaching party has not waived such condition; or Delavan receives and accepts a superior proposal, as defined above in No solicitation of or discussions relating to an acquisition proposal.

In addition, Delavan may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is less than $36.50 and Wintrust may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is more than $52.50, in each case if Delavan and Wintrust are in good faith unable, after five business days notice of such termination, to reach agreement as to an amendment to the merger agreement containing terms acceptable to Wintrust and Delavan so that the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement may be consummated.

Wintrust may also terminate if Delavan has breached any representation, warranty, covenant, obligation or other agreement in the merger agreement that would result in the failure of any condition under the merger agreement to be satisfied, cannot be cured within a specified period of time and Wintrust has not waived such condition, or in certain circumstances upon the identification or confirmation of the presence of certain environmental conditions related to certain real property, as described above in Consideration to be received in the merger Adjustment to Merger Consideration.

Any termination of the merger agreement will not affect any rights accrued prior to such termination.

Termination fee

Termination Fees Payable by Delavan. Delavan has agreed to pay Wintrust a termination fee of $1,250,000 plus up to $250,000 in out-of-pocket expenses and costs if the merger agreement is terminated under the following circumstances:

Wintrust terminates the merger agreement because Delavan breaches its covenant not to solicit an acquisition proposal from a third party;

Delavan terminates the merger agreement upon the entry into, consummation of or the Delavan board's determination to accept an unsolicited superior proposal; or the merger agreement is terminated (a) by either Wintrust or Delavan because the closing has not occurred by January 31, 2015 or such later date agreed to by the parties (or March 31, 2015, if the sole impediment to closing is due to delay in receiving regulatory approval from the Federal Reserve or the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions) or (b) by Wintrust because Delavan has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants, obligations or other agreements in the merger agreement such that a condition to Wintrust's obligations becomes impossible for Delavan to satisfy and Wintrust has not waived such condition, and in each such case, within six months after termination of the merger agreement, Delavan or Community Bank consummates or enters into a definitive agreement relating to an acquisition proposal which was made known to any member of Delavan's or Community Bank's board of directors and not disclosed to Wintrust prior to the date of such termination.

Delavan has agreed to pay to Wintrust a termination fee of $750,000 plus up to $250,000 in out-of-pocket expenses and costs if the merger agreement is terminated by Wintrust because Delavan committed a material breach of its material obligations under the merger agreement and such breach is not the result of Wintrust's failure to comply or perform in all material respects with any of its material obligations under the merger agreement.

Termination Fees Payable by Wintrust. Wintrust has agreed to pay to Delavan a termination fee of $750,000 plus up to $250,000 in out-of-pocket expenses and costs if the merger agreement is terminated under the following circumstances by Delavan because Wintrust committed a material breach of its material obligations under the merger agreement and such breach is not the result of Delavan or Community Bank's failure to comply or perform in all material respects with any of its material obligations under the merger agreement.

After the merger, the Wintrust board of directors will remain the same and the Merger Co. board of directors will continue to serve as the directors of the surviving corporation.

To the extent such employees participate in any Wintrust benefit plans, such employees will be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding Delavan or Community Bank benefit plan during the plan year in which the closing of the merger occurs for purposes of applying deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Wintrust benefit plan for the plan year in which the closing of the merger occurs. Table of ContentsCOMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF WINTRUST SHAREHOLDERS AND DELAVAN SHAREHOLDERS*General

As a shareholder of Delavan, your rights are governed by Delavan's articles of incorporation and its by-laws, each as currently in effect. Upon completion of the merger, the rights of Delavan shareholders who receive shares of Wintrust common stock in exchange for their shares of Delavan common stock and become shareholders of Wintrust will be governed by Wintrust's amended and restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated by-laws, as well as the rules and regulations applying to public companies. Wintrust is incorporated in Illinois and is subject to the Illinois Business Corporation Act, as amended, which we refer to as the IBCA. Delavan is incorporated in Wisconsin and is subject to the WBCL.

The following discussion summarizes material similarities and differences between the rights of Delavan shareholders and Wintrust shareholders and is not a complete description of all of the differences. This discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the IBCA and WBCL and Wintrust's and Delavan's respective articles of incorporation and by-laws.

Delavan's by-laws provide that a special meeting of the board of directors may be called by or at the request of the chairperson of the board, if any, or by the president, secretary, or any three directors.

Under the WBCL, a director is not liable to Delavan, its shareholders, or any person asserting rights on behalf of Delavan or its shareholders, for damages, settlements, fees, fines, penalties or other monetary liabilities arising from a breach of, or failure to perform, any duty resulting solely from his or her status as a director, unless the person asserting liability proves that the breach or failure to perform constitutes any of the following:

a willful failure to deal fairly with Delavan or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which the director has a material conflict of interest;

a violation of criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful;

a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal profit; or willful misconduct.

Indemnification: Wintrust's articles of incorporation and by-laws provide that the corporation has the power to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents to the fullest extent authorized by the IBCA.

Delavan's articles of incorporation and by-laws provide for indemnification of its officers and directors to the fullest extent authorized by the WBCL.

The by-laws provide that, to the extent a present or former director, officer or employee of the corporation (or of any subsidiary, as Wintrust has entered into individual indemnification agreements with each of its non-employee directors and certain of its executive officers, which we refer to as the indemnification agreements, which implement with more specificity the indemnification provisions provided by Wintrust's by-laws and provide, among other things, that to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Wintrust will indemnify such director or officer against any and all losses, expenses and liabilities arising out of such director's or officer's service as a director or officer of Wintrust, as the case may be. The indemnification agreements also contain detailed provisions concerning expense advancement and reimbursement. The indemnification agreements are in addition to any other rights each non-employee director or officer may be entitled to under Wintrust's articles of incorporation, by-laws and applicable law.

Call of Special Meetings of Shareholders:	Wintrust's by-laws provide that a special meeting of the shareholders may be called by the board of directors, the president or the holders of not less than one-fifth of all the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the matter for which the meeting is called, for the purpose or purposes stated in the call of the meeting.	Delavan's by-laws provide that a special meeting of the shareholders may be called by the president, by the board of directors or such other officer(s) as the board of directors may authorize, or by the president or secretary at the written request of the holders of at least 10% of all outstanding capital stock entitled to vote.

Delavan's by-laws provide that any action required to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all of the shareholders who would have been entitled to vote upon the action if a meeting were held.

Amendment to Charter and By laws:	An amendment to the articles of incorporation that relates to certain provisions, including, the prohibition of cumulative voting, shareholder purchase rights, the prohibition of shareholder action by written consent, the number and classification of the board of directors, director liability, indemnification and insurance, number, tenure and qualification of directors or the amendment process, must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of eighty-five percent (85%) or more of the voting power of the then-outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.	As provided by the WBCL, Delavan's articles of incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the proposal after the board of directors has passed a resolution by majority vote setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a shareholders meeting.
		The by-laws may also be altered, amended or repealed and new by-laws may be adopted by the shareholders or the board of directors.

Otherwise, as provided by the IBCA, the articles of incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote on the proposal after the board of directors has passed a resolution by majority vote setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a shareholders meeting.

The power to make, alter, amend or repeal the by-laws of the corporation is vested in the shareholders or the board of directors by a resolution adopted by a majority of the board of directors.

Certain anti-takeover effects of Wintrust's articles and by-laws and Illinois law and federal law

Certain provisions of Wintrust's articles of incorporation, by-laws, Illinois law and certain applicable banking regulations may have the effect of impeding the acquisition of control of Wintrust by means of a tender offer, a proxy fight, open-market purchases or otherwise in a transaction not approved by our board of directors.

These provisions may have the effect of discouraging a future takeover attempt which is not approved by Wintrust's board of directors but which individual Wintrust shareholders may deem to be in their best interests or in which Wintrust shareholders may receive a substantial premium for their shares over then-current market prices. As a result, shareholders who might desire to participate in such a transaction may not have an opportunity to do so. Such provisions will also render the removal of Wintrust's current board of directors or management more difficult.

These provisions of Wintrust's articles of incorporation and by-laws include the following:

Wintrust's board of directors may issue additional authorized shares of Wintrust's capital stock to deter future attempts to gain control of Wintrust, including the authority to determine the terms of any one or more series of preferred stock, such as voting rights, conversion rates and liquidation preferences. As a result of the ability to fix voting rights for a series of preferred stock, Wintrust's board has the power, to the extent consistent with its fiduciary duty, to issue a series of preferred stock to persons friendly to management in order to attempt to block a merger or other transaction by which a third party seeks control, and thereby assist the incumbent board of directors and management to retain their respective positions;

Wintrust's articles of incorporation do not provide for cumulative voting for any purpose, and Wintrust's articles of incorporation and by-laws also provide that any action required or permitted to be taken by shareholders may be taken only at an annual or special meeting and prohibit shareholder action by written consent in lieu of a meeting;

Wintrust's articles of incorporation expressly elect to be governed by the provisions of Section 7.85 of the IBCA. Section 7.85 prohibits a publicly held Illinois corporation from engaging in a business combination unless, in addition to any affirmative vote required by law or the articles of incorporation of the company, the proposed business combination:

receives the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the combined voting power of the then outstanding shares of all classes and series of the corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors voting together as a single class (the voting shares), and the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting shares held by disinterested shareholders; is approved by at least two-thirds of the disinterested directors; or provides for consideration offered to shareholders that meets certain fair price standards and satisfies certain procedural requirements.

Such fair price standards require that the fair market value per share of the consideration offered be equal to or greater than the higher of:

the highest per share price paid by the interested shareholder during the two-year period immediately prior to the first public announcement of the proposed business combination or in the transaction by which the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder; and the fair market value per share of common stock on the first trading date after the first public announcement of the proposed business combination or on the first trading date after the date of the first public announcement that the interested shareholder has become an interested shareholder.

For purposes of Section 7.85, disinterested director means any member of the board of directors of the corporation who:

is neither the interested shareholder nor an affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder; was a member of the board of directors prior to the time that the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder or was a director of the corporation before January 1, 1997, or was recommended to succeed a disinterested director by a majority of the disinterested directors then in office; and was not nominated for election as a director by the interested shareholder or any affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder.

the amendment of Wintrust's articles of incorporation must be approved by a majority vote of the board of directors and also by a two-thirds vote of the outstanding shares of Wintrust's common stock, provided, however, that an affirmative vote of at least 85% of the outstanding voting stock entitled to vote is required to amend or repeal certain provisions of the articles of incorporation, including provisions (a) prohibiting cumulative voting rights, (b) relating to certain business combinations, (c) limiting the shareholders' ability to act by written consent, (d) regarding the minimum number of directors, (e) regarding indemnification of directors and officers by Wintrust and limitation of liability for directors and (f) regarding amendment of the foregoing supermajority provisions of Wintrust's articles of incorporation. Wintrust's by-laws may be amended only by its board of directors.

The provisions described above are intended to reduce Wintrust's vulnerability to takeover attempts and certain other transactions which have not been negotiated with and approved by members of Wintrust's board of directors.

The ability of a third party to acquire Wintrust is also limited under applicable banking regulations. The Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, or the Bank Holding Company Act, requires any bank holding company (as defined in that Act) to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve prior to acquiring more than 5% of Wintrust's outstanding common stock. Any person other than a bank holding company is required to obtain prior approval of the Federal Reserve to acquire 10% or more of Wintrust's outstanding common stock under the Change in Bank Control Act of 1978. Any holder of 25% or more of Wintrust's outstanding common stock, other than an individual, is subject to regulation as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act. For purposes of calculating ownership thresholds under these banking regulations, bank regulators would likely at least take the position that the minimum number of shares, and could take the position that the maximum number of shares, of Wintrust common stock that a holder is entitled to receive pursuant to securities convertible into or settled in Wintrust common stock, including pursuant to Wintrust's warrants to purchase Wintrust common stock held by such holder, must be taken into account in calculating a shareholder's aggregate holdings of Wintrust common stock.

Certain anti-takeover effects of Delavan's articles and by-laws and Wisconsin law and federal law

Certain provisions of Delavan's articles of incorporation, by-laws, Wisconsin law and certain applicable banking regulations may have the effect of impeding the acquisition of control of Delavan by means of a tender offer, a proxy fight, open-market purchases or otherwise in a transaction not approved by our board of directors.

These provisions may have the effect of discouraging a future takeover attempt which is not approved by Delavan's board of directors but which individual Delavan shareholders may deem to be in their best interests or in which Delavan shareholders may receive a substantial premium for their shares over then-current market prices. As a result, shareholders who might desire to participate in such a transaction may not have an opportunity to do so. Such provisions will also render the removal of Delavan's current board of directors or management more difficult.

These provisions of Delavan's articles of incorporation and by-laws include the following:

Delavan's board of directors may issue additional authorized shares of Delavan's capital stock to deter future attempts to gain control of Delavan.

Delavan's articles of incorporation do not provide for cumulative voting for any purpose, and Delavan's articles of incorporation and by-laws also provide that any action required or permitted to be taken by shareholders may be taken only at an annual or special meeting.

Delavan's by-laws provide that the board of directors consists of three classes of directors, each serving for a three-year term ending in a successive year. This provision may make it more difficult to effect a takeover of Delavan because an acquiring party would generally need two annual meetings of shareholders to elect a majority of the board of directors. As a result, a classified board of directors may discourage proxy contests for the election of directors or purchasers of a substantial block of stock by preventing such a shareholder or purchaser from obtaining control of the board of directors in a relatively short period of time.

Delavan's articles of incorporation provide that no person or group acting in concert may directly or indirectly acquire the beneficial ownership of more than 20% of any class of equity security of Delavan. The articles of incorporation also contain the further limitation that shares exceeding the 20% limit will not be entitled to vote or be counted as voting shares. This limitation does not apply to:

any purchase of shares by underwriters retained by Delavan in connection with a public offering of the stock; or any acquisition approved in advance by a majority of disinterested directors, as long as the approval is obtained at a meeting where a quorum of disinterested directors is present.

Delavan's common stock is subject to the restrictions on transfer contained in the by-laws known as a right of first refusal. If a shareholder wishes to transfer (which includes give, sell, assign, pledge) any of his or her shares of Delavan common stock then Delavan and other individual members of the Board of Directors have a right of first refusal with respect to those shares. The right of first refusal generally works as follows:

The right generally does not apply to a transfer between a shareholder and his or her spouse, children, parents, or siblings, or a trust created for the benefit of such persons as long as the person receiving the shares is subject to the restrictions on transfer.

A pledge of shares is permitted as security for a loan only if (i) the title to the shares is not transferred; (ii) voting rights to the shares are not transferred; (iii) Delavan has given its prior written consent; and (iv) there is no other sale or transfer of the shares except in accordance with the by-laws.

If a shareholder wishes to transfer any shares of stock to a person or entity other than those listed above, Delavan will have the first right, and its current directors the second right, to purchase all or some of the shares to be transferred. Delavan is not obligated to make any purchases of Delavan common stock, but may do so at the discretion of its board of directors. The shareholder must give notice and follow the procedures described in the by-laws.

If the shares are to be transferred by a proposed sale to a third party, the purchase price under the right of first refusal will be the third party offer price as disclosed in the written notice to Delavan based on a bona fide written offer to purchase, signed by the third party buyer.

If the shares are to be transferred other than by a sale, the purchase price will be the redemption value of the shares. Redemption value is defined in the by-laws as the excess of the amount, if any, of Delavan's total assets over its total liabilities, divided by the number of issued and outstanding shares.

Any shares not purchased by Delavan or its directors may be transferred to the transferee identified in the written notice to Delavan, at the same consideration and on the same terms and conditions set forth in the notice.

Delavan's articles of incorporation expressly elect to be governed by the provisions of §§180.1130-.1134 and 180.1150 of the WCBL, whether or not Delavan would otherwise be subject to those statutory provisions:

§§180.1130 through 180.1133 provide that business combinations involving a significant shareholder are subject to a two-thirds supermajority vote of shareholders, in addition to any approval otherwise required.

A business combination includes a merger or share exchange, or a sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets equal to at least 5% of the market value of the stock or assets of the corporation or 10% of its earning power, or the issuance of stock or rights to purchase stock with a market value equal to at least 5% of the outstanding stock, the adoption of a plan of liquidation or dissolution and certain other transactions involving an interested stockholder (i.e. a person who beneficially owns 10% of the voting power of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation or who is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and beneficially owned 10% of the voting power of the then outstanding voting stock within the last three years).

A significant shareholder is a person who beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the voting stock of the corporation, or an affiliate of the corporation which beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the voting stock of the corporation within the last two years.

§180.1131 and §180.1132 require business combinations between Delavan and a significant shareholder to be approved by 80% of the voting power of Delavan's stock and at least two-thirds of the voting power of Delavan's stock not beneficially held by the significant shareholder who is party to the relevant transaction or any of its affiliates or associates, in each case voting together as a single group, unless the following fair price standards have been met:

the aggregate value of the per share consideration is equal to the higher of:

the highest price paid for any common stock of Delavan by the significant shareholder in the transaction in which it became a significant shareholder or within two years before the date of the Business combination, the market value of Delavan's shares on the date of commencement of any tender offer by the significant shareholder, the date on which the person became a significant shareholder or the date of the first public announcement of the proposed Business combination, whichever is highest, or the highest liquidation or dissolution distribution to which holders of the shares would be entitled, and either cash, or the form of consideration used by the significant shareholder to acquire the largest number of shares, is offered.

§180.1150 provides that, in the election of directors, the voting power of shares held by any person (or persons acting as a group) in excess of 20% of the voting power is limited to 10% of the full voting power of those shares. This voting restriction does not apply to shares acquired directly from Delavan or in certain specified transactions or shares for which full voting power has been restored pursuant to a vote of shareholders.

§180.1134 provides that, in addition to the vote otherwise required by law or Delavan's articles of incorporation, the approval of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote is required before Delavan can take certain actions while a takeover offer is being made or after a takeover offer has been publicly announced and before it is concluded. Under §180.1134, shareholder approval is required for Delavan to:

acquire more than 5% of the outstanding voting shares at a price above the market price from any individual who or organization which owns more than 3% of the outstanding voting shares and has held such shares for less than two years, unless a similar offer is made to acquire all voting shares (which have the effect of deterring a shareholder from acquiring shares of common stock of Delavan with the goal of seeking to have Delavan repurchase such shares at a premium over the market price), or sell or option assets of the corporation which amount to at least 10% of the market value of the corporation, unless the corporation has at least three independent directors (directors who are not officers or employees) and a majority of the independent directors vote not to have this provision apply to the corporation.

The provisions described above are intended to reduce Delavan's vulnerability to takeover attempts and certain other transactions which have not been negotiated with and approved by members of Delavan's board of directors.

As with Wintrust, the ability of a third party to acquire Delavan is also limited under the same banking regulations described in the last paragraph of "No solicitation of or discussions relating to an acquisition proposal" above.

Wintrust series A preferred stock

Series A Preferred Stock Outstanding. As of September 30, 2014, no shares of Series A preferred were outstanding. If any shares of Series A preferred are issued in the future, the following terms would apply to such shares:

Dividends. Non-cumulative dividends on any outstanding shares of series A preferred are payable quarterly in arrears if, when and as declared by Wintrust's board of directors, at a rate of 8.00% per year on the liquidation preference of $1,000 per share. With certain limited exceptions, if Wintrust does not pay full cash dividends on the series A preferred for the most recently completed dividend period, Wintrust may not pay dividends on, or repurchase, redeem or make a liquidation payment with respect to, Wintrust common stock or other stock ranking equally with or junior to the series A preferred, including the series C preferred. The series A preferred is not redeemable by the holders thereof or by Wintrust.

Conversion. Holders of the series A preferred may convert their shares into common stock at any time. Wintrust may convert all of the series A preferred into common stock upon the consummation of certain Fundamental Transactions (as defined in the Series A Certificate of Designations), provided that Wintrust has declared and paid in full dividends on the series A preferred for the four most recently completed quarterly dividend periods. Wintrust may convert any or all of the series A preferred into common stock if, for 20 trading days during any period of 30 consecutive trading days, the closing price of Wintrust common stock exceeds $35.59 and Wintrust has declared and paid in full dividends on the series A preferred for the four most recently completed quarterly dividend periods. The conversion price of the series A preferred is subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments.

Reorganization Events and Fundamental Transactions. If Wintrust consummates a Reorganization Event (as defined in the Series A Certificate of Designations), each share of the series A preferred will, without the consent of the holders, become convertible into the kind of securities, cash and other property receivable in such Reorganization Event by a holder of the shares of common stock.

Voting Rights. Holders of the series A preferred generally do not have any voting rights, except as required by law. However, Wintrust may not amend its articles of incorporation or by-laws in a manner adverse to the rights of the series A preferred, issue capital stock ranking senior to the series A preferred or take certain other actions without the approval of the holders of the series A preferred. In addition, holders of the series A preferred, together with the holders of other parity securities having similar voting rights, may elect two directors if Wintrust has not paid dividends on the series A preferred for four or more quarterly dividend periods, whether or not consecutive.

Wintrust series C preferred stock

Dividends. Non-cumulative dividends on the series C preferred are payable quarterly in arrears if, when and as declared by Wintrust's board of directors, at a rate of 5.00% per year on the liquidation preference of $1,000 per share. With certain limited exceptions, if Wintrust does not pay full cash dividends on the series C preferred for the most recently completed dividend period, Wintrust may not pay dividends on, or repurchase, redeem or make a liquidation payment with respect to, Wintrust common stock or other stock ranking equally with or junior to the series C preferred. Reorganization Events and Fundamental Transactions. If Wintrust consummates a Reorganization Event (as defined in the Series C Certificate of Designations), each share of the series C preferred will, without the consent of the holders, become convertible into the kind of securities, cash and other property receivable in such Reorganization Event by a holder of the shares of common stock.
