ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

On October 27, 2016, OceanFirst Bank, the banking subsidiary of OceanFirst Financial Corp. (the Company), received regulatory approval from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency to merge with Ocean City Home Bank in connection with the Company's previously announced pending merger (the Transaction) with Ocean Shore Holding Co. (Ocean Shore), the parent of Ocean City Home Bank, pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 12, 2016, by and among the Company, Ocean Shore and Masters Merger Sub Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Transaction remains subject to the satisfaction of other customary closing conditions, including the requisite approvals of each of the Company's and Ocean Shore's stockholders. Each of the Company and Ocean Shore has called a special meeting of each such company's stockholders for November 22, 2016 to consider and vote upon the requisite stockholder approvals. If the stockholders of the Company and Ocean Shore grant such approvals, the Company anticipates the closing to occur on or about November 30, 2016.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements may include: management plans relating to the Transaction; the expected timing of the completion of the Transaction; the ability to complete the Transaction; the ability to obtain any required stockholder or other approvals; any statements of the plans and objectives of management for future operations, products or services, including the execution of integration plans; any statements of expectation or belief; and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, outlook, estimate, forecast, project and other similar words and expressions. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties, which change over time and are beyond our control. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. The Company does not assume any duty and does not undertake to update forward-looking statements. Because forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, actual results or future events could differ, possibly materially, from those that the Company anticipated in its forward-looking statements and future results could differ materially from historical performance. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those included under Item 1A Risk Factors in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, those included under Item 1A Risk Factors in Ocean Shore's Annual Report on Form 10-K, those disclosed in the Company's and Ocean Shore's respective other periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), as well as the possibility: that expected benefits may not materialize in the timeframe expected or at all, or may be more costly to achieve; that the Transaction may not be timely completed, if at all; that prior to the completion of the Transaction or thereafter, the Company's and Ocean Shore's respective businesses may not perform as expected due to transaction-related uncertainty or other factors; that the parties are unable to successfully implement integration strategies; that required stockholder or other approvals are not obtained or other customary closing conditions are not satisfied in a timely manner or at all; reputational risks and the reaction of the companies' customers, employees and other constituents to the Transaction; and diversion of management time on merger-related matters. For any forward-looking statements made in this report or in any documents, the Company claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.
