(4) Date Filed:

Because of a typographical error, all references in the proxy statement of InvenSense, Inc. (InvenSense) dated March 27, 2017 (the Proxy Statement) to the number of shares outstanding on the Record Date (as defined in the Proxy Statement) shall be read to mean 95,594,793, the actual number of shares of common stock outstanding on the Record Date, and the number of shares that must vote in the affirmative in order to approve the Merger Proposal (as defined in the Proxy Statement) is 47,797,397.

A number of stockholder lawsuits have been filed challenging aspects of the transaction, including a lawsuit in which a motion for a preliminary injunction seeking to enjoin the proposed transaction was filed. Based upon the information currently available, InvenSense does not believe that the lawsuits will likely have an adverse effect on the consummation of the merger.

In addition, on April 18, 2017, InvenSense issued the following press release:

InvenSense Receives Regulatory Clearances

Announces Date of Special Stockholders Meeting in Connection with Acquisition by TDK

San Jose, California, April, 18, 2017 InvenSense, Inc. (NYSE: INVN), a leading provider of MEMS sensor platforms, today announced that all necessary regulatory clearances have been received for the acquisition by TDK Corporation of InvenSense, including from the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) and all other necessary regulatory authorities, and the required waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 has expired.

InvenSense will hold a special meeting of its stockholders on May 17, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. local time at the Company's corporate headquarters at which stockholders will be asked to approve, among other items, the previously announced transaction. The companies expect to close the transaction shortly thereafter, for a total purchase price of approximately $1.3 billion in cash or $13.00 per common share. The closing is subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions.

InvenSense recently mailed the proxy statement and related proxy materials to stockholders holding shares as of the March 23, 2017 record date. The proxy statement and related proxy materials provide information for stockholders of InvenSense regarding the transaction and related proposals to be voted upon at the special meeting, as well as instructions for voting online, by telephone, by mail and in person.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed transaction, InvenSense has filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) a proxy statement on Schedule 14A, and has mailed the definitive proxy statement and a proxy card to each stockholder entitled to vote at the InvenSense special meeting relating to the proposed transaction.
INVESTORS AND

SECURITY HOLDERS OF INVENSENSE ARE URGED TO CAREFULLY READ THESE MATERIALS IN THEIR ENTIRETY (INCLUDING ANY AMENDMENTS OR SUPPLEMENTS THERETO) AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS THAT INVENSENSE FILES WITH THE SEC WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION. Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this press release that are not historical are forward-looking statements as the term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are generally written in the future tense and/or preceded by words such as will, expects, anticipates, plan, or other words that imply or predict a future state. Forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements regarding the Company's expectations with respect to closing the transaction and the effect of litigation on the consummation of the transaction. Investors are cautioned that all forward-looking statements in this press release involve risks and uncertainty that can cause actual results to differ materially from those currently anticipated due to a number of factors including, without limitation, the parties' ability to satisfy the conditions precedent to the consummation of the proposed transaction, including, without limitation, the receipt of stockholder approval; the occurrence of any event that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement; unanticipated difficulties or expenditures relating to the proposed transaction; legal proceedings against TDK or InvenSense and others related to the proposed transaction; disruptions of current plans and operations caused by the announcement or pendency of the proposed transaction; and satisfaction of the conditions remaining to the completion of the proposed merger, as well as the risk factors discussed in InvenSense's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 3, 2016 and other documents filed by us with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) from time to time. Copies of InvenSense's SEC filings are posted on the company's website and are available from the company without charge. Forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this release, and, except as required by law, the company does not undertake an obligation to update its forward-looking statements to reflect future events or circumstances.
