Harmony offer for Gold Fields is not unconditional

Johannesburg 18 May 2005. Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited (“Harmony”) issued a press release on 17 May 2005 stating inaccurately that its hostile offer for Gold Fields Limited (GFI: JSE and NYSE) (“Gold Fields”) is unconditional in all respects following last week’s approval by the South African Competition Tribunal approval of the proposed merger.

Harmony’s bid is not unconditional and will not be, pending an appeal against the whole of the order of the Competition Tribunal to South Africa’s highest and final competition authority, the Competition Appeal Court (“CAC”).

After announcing on 10 May 2005 its intention to appeal the Competition Tribunal ruling, Gold Fields has noted an appeal against the whole of the order of the Competition Tribunal to the CAC, inter alia on the basis that the Tribunal erred in failing to find that the proposed merger is likely to substantially prevent or lessen competition and that the proposed merger cannot be justified on substantial public interest grounds having regard to the factors set out in the Competition Act.

The Harmony offer document clearly states that the proposed merger is subject to approval by the South African Competition Authorities. The offer will therefore remain conditional pending the final determination by the CAC of the permissibility of the proposed merger.

As a result of Gold Fields' appeal:

- Harmony's subsequent offer has not become unconditional;
- Harmony may not, in terms of the provisions of the Competition Act and the terms of the Harmony offer, implement the subsequent offer; and
- The CAC's interdict of Harmony voting any of its shares in Gold Fields until final determination by the competition authorities of the merger application therefore stands, and Harmony may not vote such shares as it may have acquired in the early settlement offer or otherwise until the CAC has finally determined Gold Fields' appeal.

In addition, Harmony's announcement is deficient in that it does not make a reference to the imminent High Court judgement on the question that the offer may already have lapsed on or about 18 December 2004.

Gold Fields therefore continue to urge shareholders not to tender their shares or ADR's into the offer.
