2.3 Business Review

During the first quarter of 2009, confronted with the tough economic situation at home and abroad, the Chinese government has implemented positive financial policy, properly loosed monetary policy, and carried out a series of measures of expanding domestic demand and facilitating economic growth, especially on reforms in the price of finished oil products as well as tax and fee to the extent that domestic oil refining operation; with the advantages in scale and cost in the refining segment of Sinopec Corp., and the advantages in integration and management of Sinopec Corp. fully exerted, it has reversed the tide of years' loss and become an important backbone of corporate profit. In the face of such challenges as the slowing demand growth for oil and petrochemical products and the intensifying market competition, Sinopec Corp. took a number of measures to develop the market, optimized product structure, tried to enlarge the gross volume and focused on production safety as well as energy-saving and effluent reduction so as to obtain favorable production and operation achievements.

Exploration & Production: Consolidated cost control and endeavored to promote stable growth of crude oil production. In respect of oil exploration, Sinopec Corp. strengthened geological comprehensive research, optimized exploration deployment and increased input in exploration, especially in geophysical exploration. As for development, Sinopec Corp. strived to enhance recovery rate and well yield, and controlled development and operation cost as well. Besides, Sinopec Corp. actively advanced construction of Sichuan-to-East China Gas Project, intensified development of natural gas market and pipeline construction and coped with linkage of production, transportation and marketing. The crude oil yield of Sinopec Corp. for the first quarter has increased by 0.61% compared to the same period of the previous year.

Refining: Optimized production scheme in accordance with the variation of oil product market and demand for chemical raw materials. Sinopec Corp. maintained concerted operation between production and marketing in the upstream and downstream business; vigorously reduced cost and increased benefit, and tried utmost to improve profit level. Moreover, Sinopec Corp. reinforced management of crude oil procurement, improved efficiency of pipeline operation and reduced the transportation cost of imported crude oil transport; adjusted product structure in time and increased output of gasoline and products with high extra value; energetically broadened markets of petroleum products such as liquefied petroleum gas, lubricating oil and asphalt. During the first quarter, the volume of processed crude oil by Sinopec Corp. decreased by 3.27% compared to the corresponding period of last year and increased by 1.21% compared with the three months ended 31 December 2008, while the output of gasoline increased by 15.32% compared with the corresponding period of last year and increased by 3.25% compared with the three months ended 31 December 2008.

Marketing and Distribution: Focused on exploiting the market to adapt for its variation. Sinopec Corp. exalted service level and customers' loyalty, as well as consolidated and widened the retailing market. It kept pace with market change and strived to enlarge direct marketing. Sinopec Corp. also strengthened the internal management and cut down the marketing cost in every aspect. Moreover, Sinopec Corp. advanced business of non-fuel products zealously and improved service function of gas stations. Over the first quarter, the domestic sales volume of finished oil products reduced by 12.42% compared to the corresponding period of the previous year, and decreased by 6.18% compared with the three months ended 31 December 2008. Meanwhile, the total number of gas stations increased by 0.71%.

Chemicals: Enhanced awareness of competition and service, and boosted the technology partner alliance with key industries and users. Sinopec Corp. made full use of geographical advantages and the advantages in centralised sales scale, and flexibly applied the strategy of individual products marketing to expand the market to the utmost. Sinopec Corp. also consolidated the integration of production, marketing and research, and optimized the production plan and the product mix promptly in accordance with market demand. Moreover, Sinopec Corp. promoted the development of new products and increased the production of products meeting well market demand and the ones with high added value. In the first quarter, the yield of ethylene and synthetic resin in Sinopec Corp. reduced by 12.22% and 3.30% respectively compared to the corresponding period of last year, and increased by 3.41% and 4.52% respectively compared with the three months period ended 31 December 2008.
