Item 8.01                    Other Events.

On September 16, 2011, The Middleby Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a written trading plan under Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Plan”) with a broker to facilitate the purchase of its common stock. Adopting a trading plan in accordance with the guidelines of Rule 10b5-1 allows a company to repurchase its shares at times when it might otherwise be prevented from doing so due to self-imposed blackout periods or pursuant to insider trading laws.

The shares to be repurchased under the Plan would be part of the Company’s previously announced share repurchase program. The timing and extent of the repurchases are subject to SEC regulations as well as certain price, market volume and timing constraints specified in the Plan. The Company may terminate the Plan and may enter into similar arrangements in the future. The Plan does not require that any shares be purchased, and there can be no assurance that any shares will be purchased under the Plan.
