Fluctuation analysis of the consolidated balance sheet items

- (1) Cash as at the end of period increased by 40.22% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to the net profit earned in this period.
- (2) Advances to suppliers as at the end of the period increased by 37.44% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to increase in prepayments for fuel purchases.
- (3) Derivative financial assets (non-current portion) as at the end of the period increased by 84.26% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to increase in the fair value of hedging instruments of fuel swap contracts held by the subsidiary, SinoSing Power Pte. Ltd.
- (4) Fixed assets pending for disposal as at the end of period increased by 39.72% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to more fixed assets held by subsidiaries pending for disposal.

- (5) Short-term loans as at the end of period decreased by 33.54% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to issuance of short-term bonds in the period and sufficient cash.
 - (6) Derivative financial liabilities (current portion) as at the end of period increased by 174.28% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to decrease in the fair value of hedging instruments of foreign currency exchange forward contracts held by the subsidiary, SinoSing Power Pte. Ltd..
 - (7) Notes payable as at the end of the period increased by 1,955.82% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to the increase of fuel purchases settled with notes.
 - (8) Advances from customers as at the end of period decreased by 84.19% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly because the advances received for steam and heating was recognised as revenue in the period.
 - (9) Debit balance of tax payables as at the end of the period decreased by 87.09% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to utilization of valued-added tax recoverable.
 - (10) Interest payables as at the end of period increased by 61.88% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to increase in the interests for long-term bonds.
 - (11) Current portion of non-current liabilities as at the end of period decreased by 44.34% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to repayments of bank loans by the Company and its subsidiaries.
 - (12) Other current liabilities as at the end of the period increased by 141.03% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to the issuance of short-term and super-short-term bonds.
 - (13) Derivative financial liabilities (non-current portion) as at the end of the period increased by 38.36% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to decrease in the fair value of hedging instrument of interest rate swap contracts held by the subsidiary, SinoSing Power Pte. Ltd..
 - (14) Currency translation differences as at the end of the period increased by 107.59% compared with the beginning of the period, mainly due to depreciation of RMB against Singapore dollar.

Fluctuation analysis of consolidated income statement items

- (1) Tax and levies on operations increased by 42.00% compared with the same period of last year, mainly due to increase of turnover taxes which serve as the base of tax and levies on operations.
- (2) Asset impairment loss increased by 144.67% compared with the same period of last year, mainly due to loss from closing certain generators.
- (3) Non-operating income decreased by 36.00% compared with the same period of last year, mainly due to the decrease in government subsidies.
- (4) Non-operating expense increased by 188.34% compared with the same period of last year, mainly due to loss from fixed assets disposal and provision of pending litigation.
- (5) Income tax expense increased by 186.09% compared with the same period of last year, mainly due to increase in profit.
- (6) Net profit attributable to shareholders of the Company increased by 197.40% compared with the same period of last year, mainly due to: (a) increase of on-grid tariff in the end of 2011, (b) decrease of coal market prices.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

On 23 October 2012, the Board of the Company resolved to, among other things, propose to seek the approval from the Shareholders at the General Meeting to amend the Articles of Association.

The proposed amendments to the Articles of Association is to further enhance the provisions regarding the Company's profit distribution which are in the best interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

The above proposal is subject to approval of the Shareholders at the General Meeting and the approval and registration by the relevant government and regulatory authorities in the PRC.

On 23 October 2012 , the Board of the Company resolved to, among other things, propose to seek the approval from the Shareholders at the General Meeting to amend the Articles of Association.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

The proposed amendments to the Articles of Association is to further enhance the provisions regarding the Company's profit distribution which are in the best interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

The proposed amendments to the Articles of Association shall come into effect upon (i) the passing of a special resolution at the General Meeting to approve the amendments; and (ii) obtaining the approval and registration by the relevant government and regulatory authorities in the PRC.

Details of the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association are as follows:

(a) The original Article 72 which provides that:

“The following matters shall be resolved by way of special resolutions at the general meeting of shareholders:

(1) the increase or reduction in share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;

(2) the issue of debentures of the Company;

(3) the division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change in corporate form of the Company;

(4) the amendment of the Articles of Association;

(5) the purchase or sale of major assets or the provision of guarantee by the Company in the past year and the amount of which has exceeded 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company; and is hereby amended as follows:

(6) any other matters prescribed by law and administrative regulations, and those considered by the general meeting of shareholders and resolved by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by special resolution.”

“The following matters shall be resolved by way of special resolutions at the general meeting of shareholders:

(1) the increase or reduction in share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;

- (2) the issue of debentures of the Company;
- (3) the division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change in corporate form of the Company;
- (4) the amendment of the Articles of Association;
- (5) the purchase or sale of major assets or the provision of guarantee by the Company in the past year and the amount of which has exceeded 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (6) the adjustment to profit distribution policy of the Company; and
- (7) any other matters prescribed by law and administrative regulations, and those considered by the general meeting of shareholders and resolved by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by special resolution.”

(b) The original Article 156 which provides that:

“The Company may distribute dividends in the form of:

- (1) cash; and
- (2) shares.

The Company shall implement positive profit allocation approaches (including but not limited to giving priority to the allocation of profit in the form of cash dividends) on the principle of placing emphasis on the importance of reasonable return for investors while taking into account the reasonable capital demand of the Company. The Company may distribute interim cash dividends when it deems appropriate.”

is hereby amended as follows:

“The Company shall establish and maintain a consistent and stable profit distribution policy, where positive distribution methods (including without limitation giving preference to payment of cash dividends) shall be used to ensure reasonable returns of investment for the shareholders while taking into account the long-term interests of the Company, the interests of all the shareholders as a whole and the reasonable funding requirements and sustainable development of the Company. The Company may pay dividends in cash, stock or a combination of both. The Company may distribute interim cash dividends when it deems appropriate.”

(c) To include an additional Article 157

“The Company may pay cash dividends in any year when its earnings and accumulated undistributed profits are positive and its cash flows are sufficient for the normal conduct of business and sustainable development of the Company, provided that the profits to be distributed by the Company in cash shall, in principle, not be less than 50% of the distributable profits realized in that year as indicated in the consolidated accounts.

Where the Company operates well and the Board believes that the Company’s share price does not match with its equity scale and that the distribution of cash dividends will be conducive to the interest of the Company and its shareholders as a whole, then subject to satisfying the condition for cash dividends as mentioned above, the Company may propose to profit distribution policy for cash dividends.

The profit distribution plan of the Company shall be prepared by the management and submitted to the Board and the Board of Supervisors for approval. The Board shall fully discuss the reasonableness of the plan and submit its decision to the general meeting for approval. Where the Company decides not to pay cash dividends under special circumstances, the Board shall explain the reasons for not paying cash dividends and clarify the purpose of use of the Company’s retained earnings, its anticipated investment income, etc.. Such clarification and explanation, along with the comments on them from the independent directors, shall be submitted to the general meeting for approval and to make disclosure.

With respect to any adjustment to the Company’s profit distribution policy, the Board shall conduct a special discussion to demonstrate the reasons for such adjustment and form a report to be reviewed by the independent directors, which shall then be submitted to the general meeting for approval by way of special resolution.

Where the Board does not propose distribution of cash dividends despite the profitability of the Company or where the Company adjusts its cash dividend policy, online voting shall be made accessible to the shareholders in determining such proposal(s).

After the resolution in respect of the profit distribution plan is approved at the general meeting, the Board shall complete the distribution of dividends (or bonus shares) within two months after the meeting.

The Company shall establish various channels of communication to grant the minority shareholders an opportunity to give their opinions on the Company's profit distributions and the changes in the Company's profit distribution policy."

(d) Corresponding changes to the numbering of the original provision of the Articles of Association.

GENERAL INFORMATION

A circular containing, among other things, further details of the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association will be dispatched to the Shareholders as soon as practicable.
