Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Cancellation of Outstanding Secured Convertible Notes and Issuance of Rights to Receive a Fixed Amount of Common Stock

In September 2015, Ascent Solar Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) issued $2.0 million original principal amount of secured convertible notes to two accredited investors. These secured convertible notes had a one year maturity date, bore interest at 8% per annum, and were convertible at the option of the holder into shares of common stock at a fixed conversion price of $0.12 per share.

On April 29, 2016, the Company entered into Exchange Agreements (the “Exchange Agreements”), with these two noteholders. Under the terms of the Exchange Agreements, the secured convertible notes (approximately $2.1 million of outstanding principal and accrued interest) have been cancelled. In exchange, the Company has issued to the former noteholders rights to receive a fixed number of shares of common stock of the Company in accordance with the terms of Rights to Receive Common Stock dated April 29, 2016 (the “Rights”). The Rights obligate the Company to issue to the holders (without the payment of any additional consideration) an aggregate of approximately 42.1 million shares of common stock.

The Rights obligate the Company to issue to the holders upon request (without the payment of any additional consideration) an aggregate of approximately 42.1 million shares of common stock (the “Right Shares”). The number of Right Shares is fixed, and is only subject to customary non-price based ratable adjustments.

The Rights are immediately exercisable and expire on April 29, 2021.

The holders will not be able to exercise the Rights and receive Right Shares to the extent that after giving effect to such issuance after exercise, the holder would beneficially own in excess of 4.9% (in the case of one former noteholder) or 9.9% (in the case of the other former noteholder) of the number of shares of the Company’s common stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to the issuance of shares of the Company’s common stock issuable upon exercise of the applicable Right. Each holder may decrease their applicable ownership limitation at any time and each holder, upon not less than 61 days’ prior notice to the Company, may increase their applicable beneficial ownership limitation provided that the applicable beneficial ownership limitation may in no event exceed 9.99% of the number of shares of the Company’s common stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to the issuance of shares of the Company’s common stock upon exercise of the applicable Right.

The foregoing description of the Exchange Agreements is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the documents, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2 and are incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Rights is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the documents, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3 and Exhibit 10.4 and are incorporated herein by reference.

The Company will sell an additional 1,500 shares of Series G Preferred Stock to the investors in three subsequent closings that will occur during the month of May, which will result in additional gross proceeds to the Company of $1,500,000.
