Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this communication regarding the proposed merger between Renaissance and First Communications and the future results of First Communications and Renaissance (including certain projections and business trends, and statements which may be identified by the use of the words may, intend, expect and like words) are forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. A number of important factors could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements, including the parties ability to consummate the merger; the conditions to the completion of the merger; the receipt of stockholder approval; the regulatory approvals and effectiveness of the registration statement required for the completion of the merger may not be obtained on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; the parties ability to meet expectations regarding the timing, completion and accounting and tax treatments of the merger; the completion of the merger may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; and operating costs, customer loss and business disruption may be greater than expected following the announcement of the merger. Renaissance and First Communications caution readers not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. Renaissance and First Communications do not undertake or accept any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statement to reflect any change in their expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstance on which any such statement is based, except as required by law.
