EXPLANATORY NOTE

Thompson Creek Metals Company Inc. (the “Registrant” or the “Company”) is filing this Registration Statement on Form S-8 (the “Registration Statement”) to register 700,000 shares of its common stock, no par value (“Common Stock”), which may become issuable pursuant to (i) the vesting and exercise of stock options to purchase 400,000 shares of Common Stock under the Stock Option Inducement Award Agreement, dated November 21, 2013, between the Company and Jacques Perron, and (ii) the vesting of 300,000 restricted shares units under the Restricted Share Unit Inducement Award Agreement, dated November 21, 2013, between the Company and Mr. Perron (collectively, the “Inducement Awards”). The Company granted the Inducement Awards to Mr. Perron in connection with the commencement of his employment as Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

The Inducement Awards were granted outside of the Company’s 2010 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the “Plan”), but, except as set forth in the award agreements, will generally be subject to the same terms and conditions as apply to awards granted under the Plan. The Company’s Compensation and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors approved the Inducement Awards in reliance on the employment inducement exception to shareholder approval provided under Section 303A.08 of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Company's officers and directors are indemnified as provided by the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) (the "BCBCA") and the Company's Articles of Continuance ("Articles").

Under the BCBCA, a company may indemnify a current or former officer or director against any judgment, penalty or fine imposed in connection with, or amount paid in settlement of, any legal proceeding or investigative action in which such officer or director is a party by reason of such individual having been an officer or director. After the final disposition of such a proceeding, a company may pay all expenses incurred by an officer or director actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such a proceeding and must pay all expenses reasonably incurred in respect of such a proceeding for which the officer or director has not been reimbursed and if the officer or director is, at least, substantially successful on the merits in the outcome of the proceeding. Among other circumstances, a company shall not indemnify a current or former officer or director if, in relation to the subject matter of the proceeding, such individual did not act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the company or if the individual did not have reasonable grounds for believing that his or her conduct in respect of which the proceeding was brought was lawful. Further, a company cannot indemnify or cover the expenses of any officer or director in respect of any proceeding brought by or on behalf of the company. The Supreme Court of British Columbia may, on the application of a company or individual seeking indemnification, order indemnification of any liability payment of any or expense incurred by such individual.

A director is not liable under certain provisions of the BCBCA if the director relies, in good faith, on (a) financial statements of the company represented to the director by an officer of the company or in a written report of the auditor of the company to fairly reflect the financial position of the company, (b) a written report of a lawyer, accountant, engineer, appraiser or other person whose profession lends credibility to a statement made by that person, (c) a statement of fact represented to the director by an officer of the company to be correct, or (d) any record, information or representation that the court considers provides reasonable grounds for the actions of the director, whether or not (i) the record was forged, fraudulently made or inaccurate, or (ii) the information or representation was fraudulently made or inaccurate. A director is similarly not liable under certain provisions of the BCBCA if the director did not know and could not reasonably have known that the act done by the director or authorized by the resolution voted for or consented to by the director was contrary to the BCBCA.

Under the Company's Articles, and subject to the BCBCA, the Company must indemnify each eligible party and the heirs and legal personal representatives of each eligible party against all eligible penalties to which such person is or may be liable, and the Company must, after the final disposition of an eligible proceeding, pay the expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in respect of that proceeding. Each eligible party is deemed to have contracted with the Company on the terms of the indemnity contained in Section 21.2 of the Company's Articles. In addition, under the Company's Articles and subject to any restrictions in the BCBCA, the Company may agree to indemnify and may indemnify any person (including an eligible party) against eligible penalties and pay expenses incurred in connection with the performance of services by that person for the Company.

Furthermore, under the Company's Articles, the Company may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any eligible party (or the heirs or legal personal representatives of any eligible party) against any liability incurred by any eligible party. A policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance is maintained by the Company which insures directors and officers, former directors and officers, persons who act or acted at the Company's request as a director or officer of a corporation in which the Company is or was a shareholder or creditor, and their respective heirs and legal representatives, for losses as a result of claims against the directors and officers of the Company in their capacity as directors and officers. The policy also reimburses the Company for payments made pursuant to the indemnity provisions under the Company's Articles and the BCBCA.

In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors and officers. The indemnification agreements indemnify the Company's directors and officers to the extent permitted by applicable law for liabilities arising out of the indemnitees' service to the Company as directors and officers, if the indemnitees acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company and, with respect to criminal and administrative actions or proceedings, if the indemnitee had reasonable grounds for believing that his or her conduct was lawful. The indemnification agreements also provide that the Company advance defense expenses to the indemnitees.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

The exhibits listed in the accompanying Exhibit Index are filed as part of this Registration Statement and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933.

To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.

- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
