Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously reported on June 28, 2018, Cesca Therapeutics, Inc. (“the Company”) received written notice (“Notification Letter”) from the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Department (“NASDAQ”) notifying the Company that it was not in compliance with the minimum bid price requirements set forth in NASDAQ Listing Rule 5550(a)(2) for continued listing on the Capital Market, due to the bid price of the Company’s common stock closing below the minimum $1 per share for the thirty (30) consecutive business days prior to the date of the Notification Letter. In accordance with listing rules, the Company was afforded 180 days, or until December 24, 2018, to regain compliance.

The Company was unable to regain compliance with the bid price requirement by December 24, 2018. However, on December 28, 2018, the Company received a notice from NASDAQ granting the Company an additional 180 calendar days, or until June 24, 2019, to regain compliance with the minimum $1.00 bid price per share requirement for continued listing on the Capital Market. NASDAQ determined that the Company is eligible for the second compliance period due to the Company meeting the continued listing requirement for market value of publicly held shares and all other applicable requirements for initial listing on the Capital Market, with the exception of the bid price requirement, and the Company’s written notice of its intention to cure the deficiency during the second compliance period by effecting a reverse stock split, if necessary.

To regain compliance during the additional time period, the closing bid price of the Company’s security must be at least $1.00 per share for a minimum of ten (10) consecutive business days. The Company intends to monitor the closing bid price of its common stock and may, if appropriate, consider implementing available options to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement under the NASDAQ Listing Rules. If the Company fails to regain compliance during the second compliance period, the Company’s stock will be subject to delisting by NASDAQ. At that time, the Company would have the ability to appeal the determination to a Hearings Panel.
