Previous Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

On November 17, 2017, Wall Street Media Co, Inc. (the "Company") received notice from D. Brooks and Associates CPA's, P.A. ("Brooks") that Brooks intended to resign as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm after the completion of the Company's audit for the year ended September 30, 2017. On January 23, 2018, the Company received formal notice of Brooks' resignation.

Brooks' reports on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, except as set forth herein. During the fiscal years ended September 30, 2017 and 2016 and through January 23, 2018, there were (i) no disagreements with Brooks on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Brooks, would have caused Brooks to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with its audit reports on the Company's financial statements for such periods, and (ii) no reportable events as that term is described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

In accordance with Item 304(a)(3) of Regulations S-K, the Company has provided Brooks with a copy of the disclosures contained herein, prior to its filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), and requested that Brooks furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agreed with the statements herein and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree.
