segment in Indiana and Ohio. He held various leadership positions at National City in a career that spanned 17 years. Prior to his current responsibility, Stewart acted as Chief Credit Officer of the National City affiliate. Prior to his management of the credit function, Stewart managed a middle market calling effort across the state of Indiana. He began his career with Summit Bank in 1988.

First Merchants Chief Executive, Michael C. Rechin, stated, "Mike Stewart is an exciting addition to our First Merchants team. I have firsthand experience in working with Mike and know his talent is additive to us in many areas. His approach to driving revenue and meeting customer needs will create great chemistry with the Bank executives managing our markets."

Stewart is a graduate of Millikin University of Decatur, Illinois, with a Bachelors Degree in Finance and an MBA in Business Administration from Butler University.

As an active leader in the Indianapolis community, Stewart is Chairman of Bosma Enterprises, a non-profit organization, which employs and rehabilitates the blind and visually impaired. He also serves on the board of directors of Junior Achievement of Greater Indianapolis. He previously served as chairman of the Seton Society, a St. Vincent Hospital and Foundation Committee, and a director of Ballet Internationale.
