Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On December 9, 2008, to address Internal Revenue Code Section 409A, the Compensation and Nominating Committee of Summit Financial Group, Inc. (Summit) approved the amendment and restatement of the following compensatory arrangements of certain officers and directors of Summit. The amendments to these agreements do not materially affect the scope or amount of benefits the officers are entitled to receive under their respective arrangements, but may affect the time and form of payment.

The amendments make definitional changes as appropriate such as adding or revising definitions of terms such as “Change in Control,” “Separation from Service” and “Disability” to conform to requirements of Internal Revenue Code Section 409A. Many of the amendments also add Internal Revenue Code Section 409A compliant provisions respecting timing of payment of expense reimbursements, in-kind benefits and in the case of the amended and restated employment agreements for H. Charles Maddy, III, Robert S. Tissue, Scott C. Jennings, Patrick N. Frye, and Ronald F. Miller, gross-up payments. The amendments to the Life Insurance Endorsement Method Split Dollar Plan Agreements were made to clarify that they are exempt from the provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 409A.

In several instances, the document or plan offered choices respecting timing or form of payment not permitted under Internal Revenue Code Section 409A and the impermissible choices are revised or removed by the amendments. Provision for a ‘six month delay’ for certain payments on ‘Separation from Service’ of a ‘Specified Employee’ has also been added in many of the amendments where applicable, to comply with the requirements of Internal Revenue Code Section 409A.

Section 409A changed the income tax treatment of nonqualified deferred compensation plans and imposed new requirements on both the terms and operations of such plans. Although Section 409A’s provisions have been in effect since 2005, and employers have been required to operate in good faith since that time, final regulations under Section 409A were not issued until 2007. Companies must amend affected nonqualified deferred compensation plans by December 31, 2008, to ensure they comply with Section 409A and the Section 409A final regulations.

The following material agreements have been amended to be exempt from, or to comply with, Section 409A:

- (1) Life Insurance Endorsement Method Split Dollar Plan Agreement between Summit Community Bank, Inc. and H. Charles Maddy, III
- (2) Executive Salary Continuation Agreement between Summit Community Bank, Inc. and H. Charles Maddy, III
