Exhibit 99.1

Dear Fellow HomeStreet Shareholder:

HomeStreet, Inc. has released its proxy materials for its 2018 annual meeting of shareholders, which is scheduled for May 24, 2018. Blue Lion Capital is one of HomeStreet's largest investors, owning approximately 6% of the stock.

We intend to solicit proxies to vote AGAINST two of HomeStreet's director nominees, Scott Boggs and Douglas Smith. We believe there are critical failures of accountability and governance that you should factor into your vote. As a result, we urge you NOT to vote on the company's proxy card until you receive our definitive proxy materials, which we intend to mail within the next ten days.

HomeStreet re-nominated Scott Boggs and Douglas Smith despite both having served on the Company's audit committee while the Company violated accounting rules, violated securities laws and impeded an SEC investigation into its accounting practices. The Company was fined $500,000 for its actions by the SEC in 2017. In last year's proxy, the Company attempted to justify the re-nomination of another member of this same audit committee by stating "the agreed upon SEC penalty of $500,000 was immaterial to the Company based on our 2016 operating results". Further, HomeStreet pled with shareholders not to be "unfair and scapegoat" the director. A breakdown in oversight and corporate governance is anything but "unfair or scapegoating". We believe Mr. Boggs and Mr. Smith should be held accountable for these failures, and others that we will described in more detail.

Our materials will be in your mailbox shortly. In the meantime, if you have any questions, I would be pleased to answer them. You can reach me at the number and email address below.

Sincerely,

Justin Hughes

IT'S IMPORTANT FOR YOU TO VOTE "AGAINST" BOTH NOMINEES. A "WITHHOLD" vote or an "ABSTAIN" vote cast on the Company's proxy card does not have the same effect as casting an "AGAINST" vote. Shareholders wishing to express their disappointment with longstanding and ineffective board members, Scott Boggs and Douglas Smith, must be sure to vote "AGAINST" these two nominees.
