Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 29, 2004, the World Wide Fund for Nature (the "Fund") filed a claim for damages in the English High Court with respect to its suit initiated in April 2000 against us originally seeking injunctive relief and unspecified damages for alleged breaches of a 1994 agreement between the Fund and us regarding the use of the initials "wwf." The Fund in its recent filing seeks actual damages for legal and other costs of approximately $575,000 and further asserts substantial monetary claims in an amount calculated as a royalty based on percentages of certain of our revenue streams.

Edgar Filing: WORLD WRESTLING ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 8-K

We strongly dispute that the Fund has suffered any damages. We believe that we have strong defenses to the Fund's unwarranted monetary claims and will vigorously defend against them. The potential impact of an unfavorable outcome of the Fund's monetary claims on our financial condition, results of operations or liquidity cannot be determined at this time. However, if the Fund's legal basis for its monetary claims were to be accepted and approved by the Court, the impact could be material. A hearing has been scheduled on the Fund's claims for January 11, 2005.

Since November 2002 we have complied with an injunction entered in that suit barring us from using our former "wwf" website addresses and our former scratch logo. For additional information regarding the World Wide Fund for Nature legal proceedings, reference is made in the disclosure in Note 10 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2004.
