Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 10, 2005, Slade's Ferry Trust Company (the "Bank"), the wholly-owned subsidiary of Slade's Ferry Bancorp, adopted a Company-wide severance plan, the Severance Pay Plan of Slade's Ferry Bank (the "Severance Plan"), that permits the payment of severance benefits to all eligible employees of the Bank and affiliated entities (collectively, the "Company"). Employees who have an employment contract, change of control agreement, or other agreement with the Company who are covered by other programs which provide severance benefits, or by their terms exclude such persons from participating in the Severance Plan, are not eligible to participate in the Severance Plan. The Severance Plan is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.10.

Under the Severance Plan, a participant with at least one year of service is entitled to receive severance pay if the participant's employment is terminated under circumstances constituting an "Involuntary Severance" (as defined in the Severance Plan), other than for cause, as a result of, within 12 months following or within three months prior to a Change of Control (as defined in the Severance Plan).

Under the Severance Plan, employees are eligible to receive two weeks severance pay for each completed year of service, not to exceed twenty-six weeks. No employee who is entitled to receive benefits under the Severance Plan and is not subject to the wage and hour standards imposed under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act shall receive a severance benefit equal to less than 12 weeks salary.

Employees with at least one year of service whose employment is terminated under circumstances constituting an Involuntary Severance but not related to a Change of Control may be eligible for severance as the Severance Plan administrator may determine.

The receipt of any severance pay under the Severance Plan is conditioned on a written release by the participant of all claims against the Company.
