ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

We are filing this report on Form 8-K to disclose the following information regarding legal proceedings involving us, and to update the disclosure of our legal proceedings contained in our Registration Statement on Form S-3 (Registration No. 333-66694)

(a) Fairbanks. In May 2001, Fairbanks Capital initiated arbitration against New Century Mortgage Corporation for breach of contract, breach of implied covenant of good faith, fraud and negligent misrepresentation stemming from our decision to sell our servicing rights to Ocwen Federal Bank FSB instead of closing a sub-servicing arrangement that we had negotiated with Fairbanks. Fairbanks sought damages of approximately $3.9 million notwithstanding the fact that we paid Fairbanks a $750,000 break-up fee as specified in our agreement. The arbitration hearing took place in September. In November, the arbitrator issued his award in favor of New Century, finding that Fairbanks was not entitled to any monies other than the previously tendered break-up fee.

(b) Ngo. In November 2001, Shirley H. Ngo filed a class action complaint against New Century Mortgage Corporation in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. The complaint alleges that payments we make to mortgage brokers, referred to as yield spread premiums, violate the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act. Our response is due in January 2002. We believe that the allegations lack merit, and intend to defend ourselves vigorously.

(c) Barney. In December 2001, Sandra Barney filed a class action complaint against New Century Mortgage Corporation in the Circuit Court in Cook County, Illinois. The complaint alleges the unauthorized practice of law and violation of the Illinois Consumer Fraud Act for performing document preparation services for a fee by non-lawyers, and seeks to recover the fees charged for the document preparation, compensatory and punitive damages, attorneys' fees and costs. Our response is due in January 2002. We believe that the allegations lack merit, and intend to defend ourselves vigorously.
