NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The information included in the accompanying interim financial statements is unaudited. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring accruals necessary for a fair presentation of the results of operations, financial position and cash flows for the interim periods presented, have been reflected herein. The results of operations for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the entire year. The statements should be read in conjunction with the accounting policies and notes to consolidated financial statements included in the Company's 2000 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

2. INVENTORIES

Inventories are summarized as follows (amounts in thousands):

	September 30, 2001	December 31, 2000

3. DEBT

In September 2001, the Company obtained a $370,000 loan to finance the previous purchase of equipment. The loan is repayable in equal monthly principal installments of approximately $6,167 over a five-year period and bears interest at the 30 day LIBOR rate. The proceeds of this loan were used to reduce simultaneously the Company's working capital debt.

4. SEAFOOD OPERATIONS

As part of a decision by the Company to terminate its seafood import business, the Company's seafood import subsidiary, Crustacea Corporation ("Crustacea"), signed an agreement in September 2001 with National Fish and Seafood, Ltd. ("NFS"). The agreement provides that NFS will assist the Company in selling its inventory to third parties. Crustacea will invoice NFS for each sale at an amount net of commissions and NFS will invoice the ultimate customer and bear the credit risk. Any inventory remaining after 90 days from the date of the agreement will be sold to NFS at a prearranged price, subject to inspection and quality verification by NFS.

During the third quarter, the Company recorded a pretax charge of $150,000 to reduce the related inventory to its estimated fair market value.

6. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company and its subsidiaries operate in two segments, as a manufacturer and supplier of core materials to various composite industries, and in the seafood business as a shrimp producer and seafood importer (see Note 4). The segments are managed and reported separately because of the difference in products they produce and markets they serve. The Company evaluates performance based on operating income (i.e. results of operations before interest, income taxes and foreign exchange gains and losses). There are no intersegment sales.

Information about the Company's operations by segment for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2001 and 2000 is as follows (amounts in thousands):

7. NEW ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

In October 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB"), issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard ("SFAS") No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets", which addresses financial accounting and reporting for long-lived assets. The Company expects to adopt this Statement during the first quarter of fiscal 2002. Management does not believe that the adoption of this standard will have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The primary sources of liquidity historically have been and are expected to continue to be cash flow generated from operations and available borrowings under short-term lines of credit. The Company increased its borrowing capacity under its domestic line of credit to $16.5 million in January 2001. The Company also continues to have lines of credit in Ecuador and Europe totaling approximately $4.7 million. Borrowing requirements increased in 2001 as a result of the Company's working capital requirements and lower cash generated from operations. In September 2001, the Company utilized a portion of its equipment line of credit to finance the previous purchase of $370,000 of equipment. Future capital expenditures are expected to be funded by a combination of cash generated from operations and outside financing, if necessary.

In September, the Company decided to exit the seafood import business. It is expected that, once the liquidation of the seafood import business' principal assets is completed, working capital requirements will be lower. Borrowing requirements are also expected to be lower compared to peak levels earlier in the year as a result of the exit from the seafood import business.

The Company's financial position remains strong. At September 30, 2001, the Company had working capital of $17.0 million compared to $16.6 million at December 31, 2000. The Company believes cash flows from operations and funds available under its existing domestic and foreign credit facilities will be adequate to meet the Company's needs during 2001.

Results of Operations for the Three and Nine Months Ended September 30, 2001 and 2000

Total sales decreased 12 % and 8 %, respectively, during the three and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2001 as compared to the same period in 2000.

Core material sales were $14,207,000 and $15,600,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and $44,434,000 and $48,045,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Domestic sales were lower in the three and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2001 compared to the same periods in 2000. This reduction was partly offset by a strong increase in sales in Europe. The reduction in domestic sales was primarily due to lower demand from the Company's largest end user group, the boating industry. It is now expected that retail sales in the domestic marine market may be down as much as 30 percent for the year. The Company therefore expects domestic sales to continue to be lower than 2000 levels for the remainder of the year. The increase in Europe sales resulted from higher shipments to manufacturers of windmill blades. On a worldwide basis, volume (measured by boardfeet shipped) of the Company's balsa products was approximately the same in 2001 compared to 2000. This was partially offset by the impact of a stronger U.S. dollar relative to certain foreign currencies, particularly the Euro.

Many of the Company's end user markets, including boating, are highly cyclical. Demand within those industries is dependent upon, among other factors, discretionary income, inflation, interest rates and consumer confidence. Fluctuating interest rates and other changes in economic conditions make it difficult to forecast short or long range trends.

Seafood sales were $5,302,000 and $6,613,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and $17,714,000 and $19,304,000 for the nine months September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Sales of seafood products from the Company's import business were lower in the third quarter of 2001 compared to the third quarter of 2000 because of lower demand at the retail and consumer level for seafood products. Sales of shrimp in the first nine months of 2001 were lower than the comparable period in 2000 and continue to be significantly below historical levels.

The overall gross margin as a percentage of sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 was approximately the same as compared to 2000. The typical margin in the seafood import business is lower than the Company's historical margins realized as a core materials producer/distributor and shrimp producer. The overall margin is therefore determined not only by the margins in each segment, but by the mix of seafood and materials. The margin for the Company's core products remained approximately the same in 2001 as compared to last year. The margins from seafood sales decreased in the nine months ended September 30, 2001 as compared to the period ended September 30, 2000 because of the continuing effects of the White Spot virus and a decline in commodity selling prices for many seafood products. The White Spot virus continued to affect the shrimp farms negatively, resulting in significantly lower production and revenues compared to historical levels. The Company is taking all possible steps to mitigate the effect of this disease on its farms, but no definitive determination can be made as to its longevity and effect on shrimp prices in the marketplace. A downturn in the entire seafood market, which began during the first quarter of 2001, negatively affected prices for many seafood products, including shrimp produced at the Company's farms and products sold by the Company's import subsidiary. This has generally resulted in lower margins all year for the seafood segment. During the third quarter, the Company also incurred a pretax charge of $150,000 to reduce the seafood import inventory to its estimated fair market value.

Selling, general and administrative expenses ("SG&A") as a percentage of sales increased in the nine months of 2001 as compared to 2000. Certain of the expenses contained in SG&A are fixed in nature, and combined with lower materials segment revenues, caused the increase in the SG&A percentage. The seafood import business has a lower percentage of SG&A expenses to revenues as compared to the Company's materials segment. The overall percentage is therefore influenced by the amount of SG&A in each segment and the relationship of each segment's revenues and SG&A to aggregate amounts.

Sales and expenses were affected in all periods by the different exchange rates applied in remeasuring the books of accounts of the Company's foreign subsidiaries.

Interest expense increased in the first nine months of 2001 as compared to 2000. The average borrowings were higher in 2001 compared to 2000. The interest rates on U.S. dollar loans in Ecuador were lower and average rates in the U.S. for the nine months ended September 30 were lower in 2001 compared to 2000. In both periods, interest rates on dollar denominated loans in Ecuador were significantly higher than rates available to the Company in the U.S. The level of borrowing in all periods is related to the Company's working capital needs and cash flows generated from operations.

The Company had a foreign exchange gain of $46,000 for the nine month period ended September 30, 2001, compared to a loss of $322,000 for the nine month period ended September 30, 2000. Translation gains and losses are mainly caused by the relationship of the U.S. dollar to the foreign currencies in the countries where the Company operates, and arise when remeasuring foreign currency balance sheets into U.S. dollars. The Company utilizes foreign exchange contracts to hedge certain inventory purchases. The Company does not enter into foreign currency transactions for speculative purposes. Management is unable to forecast the impact of translation gains or losses on future periods due to the unpredictability in the fluctuation of foreign exchange.

The provision for income taxes was at the rate of 37% and 32% of pre-tax earnings for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

New Accounting Standard

In October 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB"), issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard ("SFAS") No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets", which addresses financial accounting and reporting for long-lived assets. The Company expects to adopt this Statement during the first quarter of fiscal 2002. Management does not believe that the adoption of this standard will have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Forward Looking Statements - Cautionary Factors

The foregoing discussion and analysis contains forward-looking statements regarding the Company. Because such statements include risks and uncertainties, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include, but are not limited to, economic conditions in the United States, Europe and Ecuador that affect relative interest rates, foreign exchange rates and other costs and prices related to the Company's business.
