AMCON DISTRIBUTING COMPANY REPORTS FULLY DILUTED EARNINGS OF $11.99 PER SHARE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2010.

NEWS RELEASE

Omaha, NE, November 8, 2010 - AMCON Distributing Company ("AMCON") (AMEX:DIT), a consumer products company is pleased to announce fully diluted earnings per share of $11.99 on net income available to common stockholders of $8.7 million for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2010.

"We are proud to have surpassed the $1 billion mark in sales for the first time in the history of the Company. This achievement is a testament to the high degree of collaboration between our management team, our loyal customer base, and the major branded consumer products companies whose products we distribute. Our organization is committed to enhancing our customers' profitability. We believe this customer centric philosophy ultimately drives our bottom line," said Christopher H. Atayan, AMCON's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "Our acquisition in Northwest Arkansas is fully integrated into our operations and has been both a financial and operating success. Further, our new retail health food store in Tulsa has performed according to expectations," noted Mr. Atayan.

Each of AMCON's business segments reported excellent years. The wholesale distribution segment reported revenues of $973.8 million and operating income before depreciation and amortization of $18.6 million for all of fiscal 2010 and revenues and operating income before depreciation and amortization of $260.0 million and $5.2 million, respectively, for the fourth fiscal quarter of fiscal 2010. The retail health food segment reported revenues of $36.8 million and operating income before depreciation and amortization of $4.1 million for fiscal 2010 and revenue of $9.1 million and operating income before depreciation and amortization of $0.9 million for the fourth fiscal quarter of 2010.

"We will continue to focus on expanding our foodservice offerings in the coming year. Foodservice products offer attractive gross profits for our customers. In these difficult economic times our emphasis on premium service continues to differentiate us from the competition," said Kathleen Evans, President of AMCON's wholesale distribution segment.

"We continue to maintain a disciplined approach to new store openings," said Eric Hinkefent President of AMCON's retail health food segment. "We are looking for the right locations with proper demographics that will optimize our business model. Our stores stand for quality, service and a wide variety of products at attractive prices. We continue to upgrade and enhance our existing locations to deliver a first class retail experience," added Mr. Hinkefent.

"From a financial perspective we continue to focus on maintaining balance sheet liquidity. We believe this strategy enables AMCON to take advantage of opportunities in the market place that will improve our customers' profitability. Ultimately, this translates into profits for our shareholders. We ended the fiscal year with total stockholders equity of $32.8 million and we further reduced consolidated debt to $24.9 million," said Andrew Plummer, AMCON's Chief Financial Officer. "We are carefully evaluating various capital projects in information technology and foodservice equipment that will enhance our ability to compete in the market place," added Mr. Plummer.

AMCON is a leading wholesale distributor of consumer products, including beverages, candy, tobacco, groceries, foodservice, frozen and chilled foods, and health and beauty care products with locations in Arkansas, Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota. AMCON also operates fourteen (14) health and natural product retail stores in the Midwest and Florida. The retail stores operate under the names Akin's Natural Foods Market www.akins.com and Chamberlin's Market & Cafe www.chamberlins.com.

This news release contains forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties and which reflect management's current beliefs and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, Company performance and financial results. A number of factors could affect the future results of the Company and could cause those results to differ materially from those expressed in the Company's forward-looking statements including, without limitation, availability of sufficient cash resources to conduct its business and meet its capital expenditures needs. Moreover, past financial performance should not be considered a reliable indicator of future performance. Accordingly, the Company claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to all such forward-looking statements.
