Risk Factors

Please see the Preliminary Offering Documents for a description of certain risks related to this investment, including, but not limited to, the following:

- If the notes are not automatically called, your investment may result in a loss; there is no guaranteed return of principal.

- Payments on the notes, including any repayment of principal, are subject to the credit risk of Deutsche Bank and any resolution measure imposed by the competent resolution authority, as well as any actual or perceived changes in Deutsche Bank's creditworthiness, are expected to affect the value of the notes. If Deutsche Bank becomes insolvent, is unable to pay its obligations or any resolution measure becomes applicable to it, you may lose your entire investment.

- Your investment return is limited to the return represented by the applicable call premium and may be less than a comparable investment directly in the stocks included in the Market Measure.

- The initial estimated value of the notes on the pricing date will be less than their public offering price.

- If you attempt to sell the notes prior to maturity, their market value may be lower than both the public offering price and the initial estimated value of the notes on the pricing date.

- You will have no rights of a holder of the securities included in the Market Measure, and you will not be entitled to receive securities or dividends or other distributions by the issuers of those securities.

- Your return on the notes and the value of the notes may be affected by exchange rate movements and factors affecting the international securities markets.

- All of the securities included in the Market Measure are concentrated in one industry. A small number of the components of the Market Measure with larger market capitalization may have a significant impact on the level of the Market Measure and the Market Measure is not necessarily representative of the gold and silver mining industry.

- There is no direct correlation between the value of the notes or the level of the Market Measure, on the one hand, and gold and silver prices, on the other hand.

Final terms will be set on the pricing date within the given range for the specified Market-Linked Investment. Please see the Preliminary Offering Documents for complete product disclosure, including related risks and tax disclosure.
