retire effective June 1, 2004. Raytech also announced that its Board of Directors has named Larry W. Singleton as interim President and Chief Executive Officer, effective June 1, 2004. Raytech's Board of Directors has formed a committee to undertake a search for a permanent president and chief executive officer.

Mr. Singleton is a principal in AlixPartners, LLC, an internationally recognized leader in providing operational and financial consulting services. "We look forward to having a professional with Larry's experience and expertise join Raytech at this important time," said Stanley J. Levy, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Raytech.

Mr. Canosa has been an employee of Raytech for 24 years. He became President and CEO of Raytech in 1998 and served as the Company's Chief Financial Officer from 1986 to 1998. Mr. Levy stated, "The Board of Directors thanks Mr. Canosa for his dedication and service to Raytech over many years. Those of us who have had the pleasure of working with Al wish him the very best." Mr. Canosa will remain on Raytech's Board of Directors for the remainder of his term, which expires at the Company's June 24, 2004 annual meeting.

Raytech Corporation is a recognized world leader in the production of wet and dry clutch, power transmission and brake systems, as well as specialty engineered polymer matrix composite products and related services for vehicular applications, including automotive OEM, heavy duty on-and-off highway vehicles and aftermarket vehicular power transmission systems.
