PROXY STATEMENT OF ATS INC.
WOODSIDE FINANCE LIMITED AND WOODSIDE PETROLEUM LTD.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES IN OPPOSITION TO THE PROPOSED MERGER OF ENERGY PARTNERS, LTD. AND STONE ENERGY CORPORATION

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed [COLOR] proxy card are furnished by ATS Inc., a Delaware corporation (ATS) and an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Woodside Petroleum Ltd., a company incorporated under the laws of Victoria, Australia (Woodside), Woodside Finance Limited, a company formed under the laws of Victoria, Australia, and a wholly owned subsidiary of Woodside (Woodside Finance), and Woodside (for convenience purposes, throughout this Proxy Statement, we sometimes refer to ATS as the party soliciting proxies in connection herewith), in connection with ATS 's solicitation of proxies to be used at a special meeting (the Special Meeting) of stockholders of Energy Partners, Ltd., a Delaware corporation (the Company), to be held on October [], 2006, at Hotel InterContinental New Orleans, 444 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana 70130, at 9:00 a.m. Central Time, and at any adjournments, postponements or reschedulings thereof. Pursuant to this Proxy Statement, ATS is soliciting proxies from holders of shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock), of the Company, and the associated preferred stock purchase rights (the Rights and, together with the Common Stock, the Shares), to vote AGAINST : (i) the proposal to approve the issuance of Shares to stockholders of Stone Energy Corporation (Stone) in connection with the proposed merger of Stone with and into EPL Acquisition Corp. LLC (the Proposed Stone Merger), as a result of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated June 22, 2006, by and among the Company, EPL Acquisition Corp. LLC and Stone (the Stone Merger Agreement), (ii) the proposed amendment to the Company 's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 100,000,000 to 150,000,000 if the Proposed Stone Merger occurs and (iii) the proposal to adopt the Company 's Amended and Restated 2006 Long Term Stock Incentive Plan. The Company has set August 28, 2006 as the record date for determining those stockholders who will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting (the Record Date). The principal executive offices of the Company are located at 201 St. Charles Avenue, Suite 3400, New Orleans, Louisiana 70170.

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed [COLOR] proxy card are first being mailed to the Company 's stockholders on or about September [], 2006.

On August 31, 2006, ATS commenced a tender offer to purchase all of the outstanding Shares, at a price of $23.00 net per Share in cash (less any applicable withholding taxes and without interest), subject to possible increase by $0.50 or $1.00 per Share to a total of $23.50 or $24.00 net per Share in cash depending on the resolution of certain litigation described herein. The terms and conditions of the tender offer are set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated August 31, 2006 (the Offer to Purchase), and the accompanying Letter of Transmittal (the Letter of Transmittal) and the instructions thereto (the offer reflected by such terms and conditions, as they may be amended or supplemented from time to time, constitutes the Offer), which were included as exhibits to the

Table of Contents

Schedule TO filed by ATS, Woodside Finance and Woodside with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) on August 31, 2006, as amended.

IF YOU WANT TO PRESERVE YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO ACCEPT THE SIGNIFICANT PREMIUM FOR YOUR SHARES OFFERED BY ATS OVER THE TRADING PRICE OF SHARES AS OF AUGUST 25, 2006 (I.E., PRIOR TO THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE OFFER) OR OTHERWISE DO NOT WANT THE COMPANY TO COMPLETE THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER, VOTE AGAINST THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER, AND VOTE AGAINST THE OTHER PROPOSALS IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, BY SIGNING, DATING AND RETURNING THE ENCLOSED [COLOR] PROXY CARD TODAY.

REJECTION OF THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER BY THE COMPANY S STOCKHOLDERS WILL SATISFY A CONDITION OF THE OFFER AND IS AN IMPORTANT STEP IN SECURING THE SUCCESS OF THE OFFER. YOUR VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER DOES NOT OBLIGATE YOU TO TENDER YOUR SHARES PURSUANT TO THE OFFER.

EVEN IF THE COMPANY S STOCKHOLDERS APPROVE THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES TO STONE IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER, IT MAY STILL BE POSSIBLE THAT THE CONDITION TO OUR OFFER THAT THE STONE MERGER AGREEMENT BE TERMINATED ON TERMS REASONABLY SATISFACTORY TO ATS WILL BE SATISFIED. ADDITIONALLY, THE STONE MERGER AGREEMENT CONTAINS A NUMBER OF CONDITIONS, THE FAILURE OF ANY OF WHICH MAY RESULT IN THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER NOT BEING CONSUMMATED AND THE STONE MERGER AGREEMENT BEING TERMINATED BY THE PARTIES THERETO. HOWEVER, IF SUCH PROPOSAL IS APPROVED AND THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER IS CONSUMMATED, THEN IT WILL BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR ONE OF THE CONDITIONS TO THE OFFER TO BE SATISFIED. ATS DOES NOT CURRENTLY INTEND TO WAIVE THIS CONDITION.

EVEN IF YOU HAVE ALREADY SENT A PROXY CARD TO THE COMPANY, YOU HAVE EVERY RIGHT TO CHANGE YOUR VOTE. ONLY YOUR LATEST-DATED PROXY COUNTS. VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER BY SIGNING, DATING AND RETURNING THE ENCLOSED [COLOR] PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED. NO POSTAGE IS NECESSARY IF YOUR PROXY CARD IS MAILED IN THE UNITED STATES. IF YOU SUBMIT THE COMPANY S [COLOR] CARD, EVEN IF YOU VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER, THE COMPANY CAN USE YOUR SHARES TO ESTABLISH A QUORUM AND THEREBY USE THE [COMPANY COLOR] PROXY CARD TO ASSIST THEM IN OBTAINING THE NECESSARY APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER. THEREFORE, WE URGE YOU TO SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THE ENCLOSED [COLOR] PROXY CARD TO US.

OUR GOAL IS TO DEFEAT THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER. THERE ARE TWO WAYS TO DO SO. IF WE OBTAIN A SUFFICIENT NUMBER OF VOTES AGAINST THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES TO STONE STOCKHOLDERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER TO CLEARLY DEFEAT THE PROPOSAL, WE WILL VOTE YOUR SHARES. HOWEVER, THERE ARE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH IT MAY BE POSSIBLE TO DEFEAT THE PROPOSAL BY WITHHOLDING PROXIES AND DENYING THE COMPANY A QUORUM (FOR THE REASONS DISCUSSED HEREIN). ATS WOULD LIKE, IS REQUESTING, AND BY SIGNING THE [COLOR] PROXY CARD, A STOCKHOLDER WILL BE GRANTING TO ATS, THE FLEXIBILITY TO EXERCISE THIS OPTION TO WITHHOLD YOUR PROXY IN THE EVENT THAT ATS DETERMINES IN GOOD FAITH THAT DOING SO MAY BE THE MOST EFFECTIVE MEANS TO DEFEAT THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION REGARDING THIS CONDITION TO YOUR PROXY, SEE VOTING PROCEDURES BELOW.

THIS PROXY STATEMENT RELATES TO THE SOLICITATION OF PROXIES IN OPPOSITION TO THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES AS WELL AS THE OTHER PROPOSALS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER AND IS NOT A REQUEST FOR THE TENDER OF SHARES OF THE COMPANY'S COMMON STOCK NOR AN OFFER WITH RESPECT THERETO. THE OFFER IS BEING MADE ONLY BY MEANS OF THE OFFER TO PURCHASE AND THE RELATED LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL, WHICH HAVE BEEN SEPARATELY MAILED TO YOU. BEFORE MAKING ANY DECISION REGARDING THE OFFER,

Table of Contents

YOU SHOULD READ THE OFFER TO PURCHASE, WHICH SETS FORTH IN DETAIL THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER. TO UNDERSTAND THE OFFER FULLY AND FOR A MORE COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF THE TERMS OF THE OFFER, YOU SHOULD READ CAREFULLY THE ENTIRE OFFER TO PURCHASE AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL. COPIES OF EACH SUCH DOCUMENT MAY BE OBTAINED FOR FREE FROM ATS BY DIRECTING SUCH REQUESTS TO INNISFREE M&A INCORPORATED, 501 MADISON AVENUE, 20TH FLOOR, NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10022, SHAREHOLDERS CALL TOLL-FREE AT (877) 456-3427 (BANKS AND BROKERS CALL COLLECT AT (212) 750-5833).

REASONS TO VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER

ATS is soliciting proxies from the Company's stockholders in opposition to the Proposed Stone Merger and specifically AGAINST the proposals related thereto. ATS urges all of the Company's stockholders to vote AGAINST the proposed issuance of Shares in connection with the Proposed Stone Merger for the following reasons:

A vote AGAINST the proposals concerning the Proposed Stone Merger allows you the opportunity to receive significantly greater value for your Shares in the event that each of the conditions to the Offer is satisfied or waived and the Offer is consummated.

ATS believes that the Offer is far superior to the Proposed Stone Merger because it provides the Company's stockholders an opportunity to realize an immediate premium for their Shares (as demonstrated below) rather than paying a premium to Stone stockholders in the Proposed Stone Merger.

ATS's offer price of $23.00 net per Share represents a premium above the $18.40 closing price of the Company's common stock as of August 25, 2006 as follows:

|-------------------------|-----|
| 1 day | 25% |
| 30 calendar day average | 28% |
| 60 calendar day average | 27% |
| 90 calendar day average | 24% |

If one of the $0.50 increases to the offer price is made and the offer price is increased to $23.50 net per Share, this increased offer would represent a premium above the $18.40 closing price of the Company's common stock as of August 25, 2006 as follows:

|-------------------------|-----|
| 1 day | 28% |
| 30 calendar day average | 31% |
| 60 calendar day average | 30% |
| 90 calendar day average | 27% |

If both $0.50 increases to the offer price are made and the offer price is increased to $24.00 net per Share, this increased offer would represent a premium above the $18.40 closing price of the Company's common stock as of August 25, 2006 as follows:

|-------------------------|-----|
| 1 day | 30% |
| 30 calendar day average | 33% |
| 60 calendar day average | 33% |
| 90 calendar day average | 30% |

Information with respect to the range of closing sale prices for the Shares for certain dates and periods is set forth in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus on Form S-4 filed by the Company with the Commission on July 21, 2006, as amended (the "Company Form S-4"), and in lesser detail in the Offer to Purchase.

ATS urges stockholders to obtain a current market quotation for the Shares.

Table of Contents

A vote AGAINST the proposals concerning the Proposed Stone Merger is a vote against the creation of a highly leveraged company.

If the Proposed Stone Merger is completed, the Company Form S-4 discloses that the combined company will be significantly more leveraged and such leverage will decrease its financial and operating flexibility. The Company Form S-4 states on page 21 that anticipated benefits of the merger, such as administrative and operating synergies and related cost savings, may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected. There is no guarantee that the Proposed Stone Merger will increase shareholder value.

A vote AGAINST the proposals concerning the Proposed Stone Merger sends a strong message to the Board of Directors of the Company (the Company's Board) that you want to preserve your opportunity to accept the Offer, which has significantly greater financial value than the Proposed Stone Merger.

The Offer is subject to a number of other conditions (which are described in Annex A hereto and some of which are summarized in CONDITIONS TO THE OFFER below). Certain of these conditions require action by the Company's Board. By voting against the issuance of Shares to Stone's stockholders as a result of the Proposed Stone Merger, the Company's stockholders can demonstrate their support for the Offer and send a message to the Company's Board that it should take all actions necessary to permit the Offer to proceed.

A vote AGAINST the proposals concerning the Proposed Stone Merger will help satisfy one of the conditions of the Offer.

One condition of the Offer is that the Stone Merger Agreement has been validly terminated on terms reasonably satisfactory to ATS and ATS shall reasonably believe that the Company could not have any liability, and Stone shall not have asserted any claim of liability or breach against the Company, in connection with such merger agreement other than with respect to the possible payment by the Company of the termination fee required thereby. Accordingly, the stockholders should reject the proposals concerning the Proposed Stone Merger, including the proposal to approve the issuance of shares to Stone's stockholders as a result of the Proposed Stone Merger. A vote AGAINST these proposals makes it more likely that the Stone Merger Agreement will be terminated by the parties thereto and moves all of the Company's stockholders closer to being able to benefit from the Offer.

Failure to vote AGAINST the issuance of Shares to Stone's stockholders in connection with the Proposed Stone Merger will not prevent you from tendering your Shares in the Offer nor will voting AGAINST obligate you to tender your Shares in the Offer. However, as described above, a vote AGAINST the proposal described above will help you preserve your opportunity to have your Shares purchased in the Offer.

RETURN YOUR [COLOR] PROXY CARD AND VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER AGREEMENT TODAY.

DO NOT RETURN ANY PROXY CARD YOU RECEIVE FROM THE COMPANY. EVEN IF YOU PREVIOUSLY HAVE SUBMITTED A PROXY CARD FURNISHED BY THE COMPANY, IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO CHANGE YOUR VOTE BY SIMPLY SIGNING, DATING AND RETURNING THE ENCLOSED [COLOR] PROXY CARD TODAY. IF YOU SUBMIT THE COMPANY'S [COLOR] CARD, EVEN IF YOU VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER, THE COMPANY CAN USE YOUR SHARES TO ESTABLISH A QUORUM AND THEREBY USE THE [COLOR] CARD TO ASSIST THEM IN OBTAINING THE NECESSARY APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER.

OUR GOAL IS TO DEFEAT THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER. THERE ARE TWO WAYS TO DO SO. IF WE OBTAIN A SUFFICIENT NUMBER OF VOTES AGAINST THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES TO STONE STOCKHOLDERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER TO CLEARLY DEFEAT THE PROPOSAL, WE WILL VOTE YOUR SHARES. HOWEVER, THERE ARE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH IT MAY BE POSSIBLE TO DEFEAT THE PROPOSAL BY WITHHOLDING PROXIES AND DENYING THE COMPANY A QUORUM (FOR THE REASONS DISCUSSED HEREIN). ATS WOULD LIKE, IS REQUESTING, AND BY SIGNING THE [COLOR] PROXY CARD THE STOCKHOLDERS WILL BE GRANTING TO ATS, THE FLEXIBILITY TO EXERCISE THAT OPTION IN THE EVENT THAT ATS DETERMINES IN GOOD FAITH THAT DOING SO MAY BE THE MOST EFFECTIVE MEANS TO DEFEAT THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION REGARDING THIS CONDITION TO YOUR PROXY, SEE VOTING PROCEDURES BELOW.

Table of Contents

WE URGE YOU TO SEND THE COMPANY'S DIRECTORS A CLEAR MESSAGE THAT THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER IS NOT IN YOUR BEST INTERESTS AND THAT THEY SHOULD TAKE ALL NECESSARY STEPS TO REMOVE ALL OBSTACLES TO THE OFFER.

BACKGROUND OF THE SOLICITATION

The Company Form S-4 provides a summary of the events leading to the Company entering into the Stone Merger Agreement.

On August 28, 2006, Don Voelte, the chief executive officer of Woodside placed a telephone call to Richard A. Bachmann, the chief executive officer of the Company. During this call, Mr. Voelte indicated that ATS intended to make an offer for the Company at a price of $23.00 per Share in cash, subject to the Company's stockholders voting against the announced merger with Stone. Mr. Voelte stated that he also believed that under the terms of the Stone Merger Agreement, the Company would not be able to deal with ATS while this agreement was in force. Mr. Bachmann confirmed that Mr. Voelte was correct in his belief. Mr. Voelte also indicated that ATS would file litigation seeking to invalidate both the $25.6 million termination fee and the $43.5 million payment previously made by the Company on behalf of Stone, and that if both these amounts were invalidated and/or repaid ATS intended to increase its offer to $24.00 per Share in cash. Mr. Bachmann did not make any further inquiry of Mr. Voelte. At the end of the discussion, Mr. Voelte gave Mr. Bachmann his contact information.

Immediately following this telephone call, ATS filed the claims described below under CERTAIN LITIGATION against the Company and Stone in the Chancery Court of Delaware and issued a press release announcing its proposal and stating its intention to commence an all-cash tender offer at a price of $23.00 per Share subject to increase under certain circumstances depending on the resolution of the Delaware litigation.

On the afternoon of August 28, 2006, the Company issued a press release requesting that stockholders of the Company take no action with respect to ATS's proposal at such time. The release stated that the Company's Board would meet to review and discuss ATS's proposal and would advise stockholders of the Company's position in due course. On August 29, 2006, the Company amended the Company Form S-4 (the S-4 Amendment) to include disclosure regarding the Offer. The S-4 Amendment also revised the Company's disclosure regarding the ability of its stockholders to act by written consent by deleting reference to a provision in its bylaws that purportedly requires approval of 85% of the Shares outstanding in order for stockholders to act by written consent. Also on August 29, 2006, the Company sent a letter to its employees advising them of the current status of the Offer.

On August 31, 2006, ATS commenced its Offer by filing a Schedule TO with the Commission including the Offer to Purchase and the accompanying Letter of Transmittal as exhibits. Also on August 31, 2006, ATS issued a press release announcing the commencement of the Offer and placed a summary advertisement relating to the Offer in the Wall Street Journal.

In our Offer to Purchase, we stated our concern that the terms of the Stone Merger Agreement could be interpreted to prohibit the Company from negotiating a transaction with, or providing confidential information to us. On September 7, 2006, the Company filed an action against Stone in the Delaware Court of Chancery seeking a declaratory judgment to clarify that the Stone Merger Agreement does not prohibit the Company from taking certain actions such as negotiating a transaction with, or providing confidential information to, a third party. In its complaint, the Company indicated that Stone believed that the Stone Merger Agreement prohibits the Company from taking such actions.

On September 8, 2006, ATS filed a preliminary proxy statement with the Commission to solicit proxies, to be used at a Special Meeting with respect to the Stone Merger Agreement, from the Company's stockholders to vote AGAINST

(i) the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of the Company's common stock to stockholders of Stone in connection with the Stone Merger Agreement, (ii) the proposed amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 100,000,000 to 150,000,000 if the Proposed Stone Merger occurs and (iii) the proposal to adopt the Company's Amended and Restated Long Term Incentive Plan.

Table of Contents

On September 11, 2006, ATS filed its Premerger Notification statement under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act) with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice.

According to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Commission on September 14, 2006:

On September 13, 2006, the Company entered into indemnity agreements (collectively, the Indemnity Agreements) with each of its directors, executive officers and one other employee. The Indemnity Agreements provide such individuals with, among other things, certain indemnification and advancement rights in third-party proceedings, proceedings by or in the right of the corporation, proceedings in which the indemnitee is wholly or partly successful, and for an indemnitee's expenses incurred as a witness in a proceeding by reason of his or her corporate status.

On September 13, 2006, the Company entered into amendments to the Company's change of control severance agreements with Richard Bachmann, Phillip Gobe, John Peper and Timothy Woodall (collectively, the Severance Agreements) and amendments to the change of control severance plan (the Severance Plan) for 13 officers and key employees, including two of the Company's executive officers, Messrs. Dykes and Ottosan. The amendments to the Severance Agreements and the Severance Plan (collectively, the Severance Program) include: (i) in the case of a participant who becomes entitled to severance benefits, if the participant has not, by the time of his or her termination of employment, received a bonus for the calendar year before the calendar year of termination of employment, the participant will receive a bonus for that year in an amount equal to his or her target bonus opportunity for that year, (ii) in determining a participant's average annual bonus for purposes of the bonus component of the severance benefit, the bonus for a partial year of employment is disregarded, (iii) the multiple applied in determining the severance payment may not be changed on or after a change of control and (iv) provisions to comply with new federal income tax rules relating to nonqualified deferred compensation. In the case of the Severance Plan (but not the Severance Agreements), the Board also approved an amendment making it a good reason basis for termination of employment if the participant is required to relocate to an office which is more than 35 miles in driving distance from the office at which the participant is employed immediately before the change of control.

On September 13, 2006, the Company adopted changes to Sections 2.5 and 2.9 of its bylaws. The revised Section 2.5 grants authority to the presiding officer of a stockholder meeting to adjourn the stockholder meeting and allows for the adjournment of a stockholder meeting with or without a quorum. The revised Section 2.9 eliminated the 85% super-majority voting requirement for stockholder action by written consent and sets forth (i) the process by which the record date should be established for an action by written consent, (ii) the requirements for valid consents, and (iii) the process for independent inspectors to certify the validity of any action by written consent.

On September 13, 2006, the Company adopted a new severance plan, called the Energy Partners, Ltd. Employee Change of Control Severance Plan (the New Severance Plan), covering full-time employees of the Company not covered by the existing Severance Program. The New Severance Plan provides that, in the event of certain terminations of employment by the Company without cause or by the participant for good reason within two years after a change of control (which would include the consummation of the Offer), the participant would be entitled to receive (i) a lump sum severance benefit equal to 3 weeks of base pay for each year of service or fraction thereof as a full-time employee of the Company or Hall-Houston Oil Company (which was acquired by the Company in 2002) and 3 weeks of base pay for each $10,000 or fraction thereof of annual base salary and scheduled overtime pay (subject to a maximum of 52 weeks of base pay and a minimum of 16 weeks of base pay), (ii) a pro rata bonus for the calendar year of termination of employment equal to the pro rata portion of the greater of the participant's average annual bonus for the prior three full calendar years of employment (or lesser number of prior full calendar years of employment) and the participant's target bonus opportunity for the calendar year of termination of employment, (iii) if the participant has not yet received a bonus for the calendar year before the calendar year of termination of employment, a bonus for such year equal to target bonus opportunity for such year, (iv) continuation of medical, dental and life insurance benefits for 12 months provided the participant pays the same portion of the required premium, and provided, further, that such coverage would cease if the participant obtains new employment providing benefits of the same type, and (v) reasonable outplacement services.

On September 14, 2006, the Company entered into the Rights Agreement.

On September 14, 2006, the Company announced that its Board had rejected the Offer as inadequate and recommended that its stockholders not tender their shares into the Offer (as described below).

On September 14, 2006, the Company filed a Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 with the Commission (the Schedule 14D-9). According to the Schedule 14D-9, the Board, after a review of the Offer with its financial and legal advisors, unanimously determined (with Mr. Hiltz abstaining) that the Offer is inadequate and not in the best interests of the Company's stockholders (other than Woodside and its affiliates), and accordingly the Board recommended that the Company's stockholders reject the Offer and not tender their Shares pursuant to the Offer.

On September 18, 2006, ATS issued a press release expressing, among other things, its disappointment with the Board's recommendation against the Offer.

On September 27, 2006, ATS delivered a letter to the Company, in accordance with the Company's amended bylaws, requesting that the Company set a record duly to determine the stockholders entitled to consent in connection with this consent solicitation.

On September 28, 2006, ATS announced that it had extended the expiration date of the Offer to 11:59 p.m., New York City time on Friday, October 20, 2006, unless further extended and that the waiting period under the HSR Act with respect to the Offer and the Second-Step Merger had expired.

For additional information on the status of the Delaware litigation, see CERTAIN LITIGATION below.

THE OFFER

The purpose of the Offer is to acquire control of, and ultimately the entire equity interest in, the Company. If pursuant to the Offer, ATS accepts for payment and pays for at least the number of Shares that, when added to Shares already owned by ATS (and/or Woodside or any of its other subsidiaries), shall constitute a majority of the then outstanding Shares on a fully diluted basis, ATS (or another direct or indirect subsidiary of Woodside) will seek to merge with and into the Company (the Second-Step Merger). If the Second-Step Merger occurs, the Company will become an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Woodside and each issued and then outstanding Share (other than any Shares held in the treasury of the Company, or owned by Woodside, ATS or any of Woodside's other subsidiaries and any Shares held by the Company's stockholders properly seeking appraisal for their Shares) shall be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive $23.00 per Share, in cash (or any greater amount per Share paid pursuant to the Offer (including any right to receive, if applicable, any Contractual Right (as defined herein) to receive an additional amount per Share in connection with the Delaware litigation described herein)). If a stockholder decides not to tender Shares in the Offer and the Second-Step Merger does not occur, and ATS purchases Shares which have been tendered, there may be so few remaining stockholders and publicly held Shares that the Shares will no longer be eligible to be traded through the New York Stock Exchange or any other securities market, there may not be a public trading market for the Shares, and the Company may cease making filings with the Commission or otherwise cease being required to comply with Commission rules relating to publicly held companies. If ATS purchases Shares in the Offer, it is ATS's current intention to cause the Second-Step Merger to occur; however, ATS cannot guaranty this result. Additionally, following the Offer, it is possible that the Shares might no longer constitute margin securities for purposes of the margin regulations of the Federal Reserve Board, in which case Shares may no longer be used as collateral for loans made by brokers. Additionally, if the structure of the Second-Step Merger changes, the terms of such transaction will be disclosed in a separate document which will be provided to stockholders.

On August 28, 2006, ATS commenced litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery to invalidate and/or require the repayment of, as applicable, the excessive termination fees paid and payable under the Stone Merger Agreement. Upon the terms described in our Offer to Purchase, if we are successful in our litigation and succeed in obtaining a final and nonappealable court order (i) providing for the repayment of the $43.5 million fee (the Initial Termination Fee) paid by the Company when it entered into the Stone Merger Agreement in respect of the break-up fee Stone owed to Plains Exploration & Production Company (Plains) or (ii) invalidating the $25.6 million fee (the Additional Termination Fee) which the Company obligated itself to pay to Stone upon termination of the Stone Merger Agreement, we will increase our offer price per Share from $23.00 to $23.50. If we are successful in our litigation with respect to both fees, upon the terms described in the Offer to Purchase, we will increase our offer price per Share from $23.00 to $24.00. For a more detailed discussion of the Delaware litigation, see our Offer to Purchase and see CERTAIN LITIGATION below.

Table of Contents

CONDITIONS TO THE OFFER

A detailed discussion of the conditions to consummation of the Offer is provided in Section 14 of the Offer to Purchase. Before making any decision regarding the Offer, the Company's stockholders should read the Offer to Purchase, which sets forth in detail the terms and conditions of the Offer.

THE OFFER IS NOT CONDITIONED ON OUR OBTAINING FINANCING.

The Offer is conditioned upon, among others, the following: (i) there having been validly tendered and not properly withdrawn prior to the expiration of the Offer at least that number of Shares that, when added to the Shares then owned by ATS (and/or Woodside or any of Woodside's other subsidiaries), shall constitute a majority of the then outstanding Shares on a fully diluted basis (including, without limitation, all Shares issuable upon the exercise of any options or warrants), (ii) the Stone Merger Agreement having been terminated on terms reasonably satisfactory to ATS, and ATS reasonably believing that the Company could not have any liability, and Stone not having asserted any claim of liability or breach against the Company, in connection with the Stone Merger Agreement other than with respect to the possible payment by the Company of the $25.6 million termination fee required thereby, (iii) the Company's Board having approved the Offer and the Second-Step Merger or any other business combination satisfactory to ATS between the Company and ATS (and/or any of Woodside's other subsidiaries) pursuant to the requirements of Section 203 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or ATS being satisfied that Section 203 does not apply to or otherwise restrict the Offer, the Second-Step Merger or such other business combination, (iv) (a) the Company entering into a definitive merger agreement with ATS (and/or any of Woodside's other subsidiaries) with respect to a merger of ATS (and/or any of Woodside's other subsidiaries) and the Company, (b) nominees of ATS constituting a majority of the Company's Board or (c) there having been validly tendered and not properly withdrawn prior to the expiration of the Offer that number of Shares that, when added to the Shares then owned by Woodside or any of its subsidiaries, shall constitute at least 90% of the then outstanding Shares on a fully diluted basis (including, without limitation, all Shares issuable upon the exercise of any options or warrants) and (v) any applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), having expired or been terminated prior to the expiration of the Offer. Annex A contains a complete description of the conditions to the Offer.

There can be no assurance as to the timing or satisfaction of the conditions to the Offer. While certain of such conditions are within the control of the Company's Board, certain of the conditions are outside of the control of the Company's Board, such as the termination or expiration of any applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act. The invalidation of the Additional Termination Fee and the Initial Termination Fee is also outside of the control of the Company's Board. However, ATS intends to pursue its claims regarding the Additional Termination Fee and the Initial Termination Fee as expeditiously as possible and to attempt to ensure that further steps toward consummation of the Proposed Stone Merger are not taken. See CERTAIN LITIGATION below. By voting AGAINST the issuance of Shares in connection with the Proposed Stone Merger, the Company's stockholders can demonstrate their support for the Offer. A vote AGAINST the Proposed Stone Merger moves all of the Company's stockholders closer to being able to benefit from the Offer.

CERTAIN LITIGATION

Pursuant to the Stone Merger Agreement, the Company agreed to advance the $43.5 million Initial Termination Fee to Stone, and subsequently paid the Initial Termination Fee to Plains on the date it entered into the Stone Merger Agreement. Under the Stone Merger Agreement, Stone has committed to repay the Initial Termination Fee to the Company in only a few very limited circumstances e.g., if Stone is in material breach of the Stone Merger

Table of Contents

Agreement, or in certain situations in which Stone's board of directors or stockholders take action resulting in the termination of the Stone Merger Agreement. Thus, the Company will forfeit any recovery of the $43.5 million Initial Termination Fee if the Company's Board changes its recommendation about the Stone Merger Agreement, or if the Company's stockholders fail to approve the Stone Merger Agreement, thereby enabling the Company to pursue a more favorable third-party proposal. The Company's payment of the $43.5 million Initial Termination Fee therefore is equivalent to a termination fee of $43.5 million.

In addition, the Company agreed to pay Stone the $25.6 million Additional Termination Fee if the Company's Board withdraws or changes its recommendation in favor of the Stone Merger Agreement, or if the Company's stockholders do not approve the Proposed Stone Merger (i.e., do not approve the issuance of Shares to Stone stockholders in connection with that merger) in response to a third-party proposal and the Company within twelve months thereafter enters into such a transaction.

Combined, the provisions in the Stone Merger Agreement concerning the Initial Termination Fee and the Additional Termination Fee amount to $69.1 million. The termination fee is thus worth approximately 10% of the Company's market capitalization, which was approximately $690,950,987 as of the close of trading on the New York Stock Exchange on June 22, 2006, the date the Company and Stone entered into the Stone Merger Agreement.

On August 28, 2006, ATS commenced litigation in the Chancery Court of Delaware concerning, among other things, the validity of the Initial Termination Fee and the Additional Termination Fee. In the event that we obtain a judgment on the merits resulting in a court order either (i) invalidating the Additional Termination Fee in full (an ATF Favorable Judgment), and such judgment shall have become final and nonappealable (an ATF Final Favorable Judgment), or (ii) requiring the repayment by Stone to the Company of the Initial Termination Fee in full (an ITF Favorable Judgment), and such judgment shall have become final and nonappealable (an ITF Final Favorable Judgment), then we will increase our offer price by $0.50 per Share to $23.50 per Share. If we receive both an ATF Final Favorable Judgment and an ITF Final Favorable Judgment, then we will increase our offer price by $1.00 per Share to $24.00 per Share.

If, prior to the expiration of the Offer either, or both, of an ATF Favorable Judgment and an ITF Favorable Judgment shall have been obtained, but shall not yet have become an ATF Final Favorable Judgment and/or an ITF Final Favorable Judgment, as the case may be, then stockholders of the Company whose Shares have been accepted for payment in connection with the Offer shall receive $23.00 net per Share and a contractual right to receive an additional $0.50 per Share (each a Contractual Right) with respect to each of such ATF Final Favorable Judgment and/or such ITF Final Favorable Judgment, as the case may be, to be paid following the date on which an ATF Final Favorable Judgment or an ITF Final Favorable Judgment, as the case may be, has been obtained.

Contractual Rights will not be assignable or transferable except by operation of law (including the laws of descent and distribution) or by intestacy without the prior written approval of ATS, and will not be evidenced by any certificate or other instrument. Upon any payment of the amount due under a Contractual Right to the person identified in the appropriate portion of a Letter of Transmittal, ATS's obligations with respect thereto will be fully discharged. Each Contractual Right will represent only the contingent right to receive $0.50 per Share as described in the Offer to Purchase. Neither ATS nor Woodside will have any fiduciary, contractual or other duty to pursue any action with respect to the Delaware litigation described above and in the Offer to Purchase, and all decisions with respect to such litigation at anytime will be made at ATS's discretion.

ATS's litigation in the Chancery Court of Delaware also included a claim to invalidate a provision of the Company's bylaws which purports to impose an 85% vote requirement for consent solicitations. On September 7, 2006, ATS filed a motion for summary judgment on this claim, seeking a judgment as a matter of law that Section 2.9 of the Company's bylaws, which purported to impose a supermajority requirement on stockholder action taken by written consent, was invalid under Section 228 of the DGCL and Delaware case law.

On September 11, 2006, ATS amended its complaint. ATS added a claim challenging Section 6.2(e) of the Stone Merger Agreement. ATS claimed that, as interpreted by Stone, this non-impairment provision was unlawful and invalid under Delaware law because it would prevent the Board from exercising its fiduciary duties under Delaware law by, among other things, informing itself about third-party superior proposals, such as the Offer.

Table of Contents

On September 11, 2006, ATS also filed a motion to consolidate its action with an action brought by the Company against Stone in the Delaware Chancery Court on September 7, 2006, which also challenged Stone's construction of Section 6.2(e) of the Stone Merger Agreement. The Delaware Chancery Court scheduled a hearing on these claims for September 22, 2006. With respect to ATS's other claims, the Delaware Chancery Court ordered defendants to respond to ATS's discovery requests on an expedited basis by September 27, 2006.

On September 12, the Company's public stockholders filed an action in the Delaware Court of Chancery. The claims in the shareholder action overlap to a large extent with the claims brought by ATS in its Amended Complaint, and on September 18, 2006, the court ordered consolidation of the two actions.

On September 14, 2006, the Company stated in the Schedule 14D-9 that the Board had amended its bylaws to delete the provision that purported to require an 85% supermajority vote for any action to be taken by written consent by the Company's stockholders. The Company also disclosed its belief that such action moots [ATS's] claim relating to the [unlawful bylaw] and did not submit a brief in opposition to ATS's motion for summary judgment in accordance with the Court's briefing schedule. Therefore, it appears that ATS's claim for summary judgment on Section 2.9 of the Company's bylaws has been mooted, and the briefing schedule and hearing ordered by the Delaware Chancery Court are no longer necessary.

On September 22, 2006, the Delaware Chancery Court held a hearing on the merits regarding the consolidated claims by ATS and the Company challenging the legality of Section 6.2(e) of the Stone Merger Agreement as construed by Stone.

On September 26, 2006, the Company moved to dismiss ATS's claims concerning the legality of the Initial Termination Fee and the Additional Termination Fee provisions in the Stone Merger Agreement. The Company also requested that the court block ATS from taking discovery. In a separate submission, the Company requested that the court deny ATS's motion for an expedited trial, or, to the extent that ATS's request is (or has been already) granted, to schedule a preliminary injunction hearing rather than a trial. On September 27, 2006, the Delaware Court of Chancery set a hearing on the Company's motion to dismiss on October 5, 2006. The court also stated that it will not revisit its past rulings concerning discovery, and declined to grant a stay on discovery.

On September 27, 2006, the Delaware Court of Chancery issued an oral ruling on the consolidated claims concerning the construction and validity of Section 6.2(e) of the Stone Merger Agreement. The court found that there was a ripe and justiciable dispute concerning the Company's ability to explore unsolicited third-party acquisition proposals (as the term "third-party acquisition proposal" is defined in the Stone Merger Agreement), including the Offer. The court granted the declaratory relief requested by ATS in part, holding that Section 6.2(e) of the Stone Merger Agreement does not restrict the Company's ability to explore, in good faith, unsolicited third-party acquisition proposals, including the Offer, and does not prohibit the Company from communicating or exchanging non-public information with such bidders, including ATS, or from disclosing information concerning unsolicited third-party acquisition proposals, including the Offer, to its shareholders. The court found that the plain language of Section 6.2(e) does not impose any such restrictions on the Company. The court further held that the right to explore unsolicited third-party acquisition proposals is implied in the Board's right to change or withdraw its recommendation to stockholders regarding approval of Shares in connection with the Stone Merger Agreement in relation to a third-party acquisition proposal, as contemplated in Section 10.1(i) of the Stone Merger Agreement. The court also found support for its construction in the negotiation history between the parties, in particular the lack of any discussion between the Company and Stone concerning the meaning of Section 6.2(e). The court held that in light of its ruling that Section 6.2(e) does not restrict the Company's ability to explore unsolicited third party acquisition proposals, it did not need to decide whether Section 6.2(e) was per se invalid. The court dismissed, without prejudice, the Company's claims insofar as the relief sought would go beyond its ability to explore unsolicited third-party acquisition proposals on the basis that no ripe and justiciable dispute existed concerning these claims.

On October 2, 2006, the Company wrote to the Delaware Court of Chancery, requesting clarification with respect to Section 6.2(e) of the Stone Merger Agreement. In particular, the Company asked for a ruling that (i) the Company is permitted to negotiate with offerors of third-party acquisition proposals, including ATS; and (ii) the Company is permitted to solicit potential third-party acquisition proposals.

Table of Contents

Also on October 2, Stone filed a motion to dismiss ATS's claims against it for aiding and abetting in the Company's directors' breaches of fiduciary duty.

On October 5, 2005, the Delaware Court of Chancery held a hearing on the Company's motion to dismiss ATS's remaining claims and its request to hear the in a preliminary injunction hearing rather than a trial. The court reserved judgment as to whether ATS has standing to bring the claims that are still in the litigation. The court also addressed EPL's request for clarification concerning its earlier oral ruling on Section 6.2(e) of the Stone Merger Agreement. The court indicated that it understood that Stone had no objections against the Company negotiating with offerors of third-party acquisition proposals. The court further stated that it believed that no ripe dispute existed as to whether the Company has the ability to solicit other third-party acquisition proposals.

CONSENT SOLICITATION

We have filed a preliminary consent statement with the Commission for use in connection with the solicitation of written consents from at least a majority of stockholders of the Company to (i) remove each current member of the Company's Board and (ii) elect five of our nominees to serve as directors of the Company. Following such election, we expect that our nominees would reduce the size of the Company's Board to five members. ATS reserves the right, however, at any time to determine not to commence a consent solicitation (or to terminate any solicitation which has previously been commenced) if we determine it to be in our best interests to do so or if we determine that the consent solicitation is unnecessary, including, if we so determine, if the Company's Board has (i) recommended against the issuance of Shares in connection with Proposed Stone Merger, (ii) recommended that the Company's stockholders accept our Offer and (iii) redeemed the Rights or otherwise rendered its shareholder rights plan inapplicable to the Offer and the Second-Step Merger. Details regarding such consent solicitation, if and when commenced, will be set forth in a definitive consent solicitation statement filed with the Commission in compliance with the requirements of Section 14(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules promulgated thereunder (the Exchange Act).

THIS PROXY STATEMENT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A SOLICITATION OF CONSENTS WITH RESPECT TO ANY ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT BY THE COMPANY'S STOCKHOLDERS. ANY CONSENT SOLICITATION (INCLUDING A CONSENT SOLICITATION TO REMOVE OR APPOINT DIRECTORS) WILL BE MADE ONLY PURSUANT TO SEPARATE CONSENT SOLICITATION MATERIALS COMPLYING WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 14(A) OF THE EXCHANGE ACT.

CERTAIN INFORMATION CONCERNING THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER

At the Special Meeting, the Company's stockholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date will be voting on, among other things, whether to approve the issuance of Shares to effectuate the Proposed Stone Merger. According to the Company Form S-4, under the terms of the Stone Merger Agreement, Stone common stock will be acquired for total consideration estimated at $2.2 billion, including the refinancing of approximately $800 million of debt. Each outstanding share of Stone common stock will be converted into the right to receive at the election of the holder (subject to the limitations described below): (i) $51.00 in cash, or (ii) Shares equivalent to the ratio determined by dividing $51.00 by the market price of the Shares (based on a 20-day trading average prior to the third trading day preceding the closing), provided that the exchange ratio will not be greater than 2.525 or less than 2.066 Shares per Stone share. The election of cash or stock will be subject to a limit on total cash consideration of approximately $723 million (which includes approximately $15.1 million attributable to stock options) and a limit on the total number of Shares issued of approximately 35 million. As a result, according to the Company Form S-4, Stone stockholders will end up holding as much as approximately 46% of the combined company, assuming the maximum number of Shares is issued to Stone's stockholders.

Concurrently with its execution of the Stone Merger Agreement, the Company paid to Plains, on behalf of Stone, the $43.5 million Initial Termination Fee that was payable by Stone upon the termination of Stone's merger agreement with Plains. The full amount of such termination fee shall be reimbursed by Stone to the Company upon termination of the Stone Merger Agreement in a limited set of circumstances as set forth in the Company Form S-4. IF THE STONE MERGER AGREEMENT IS TERMINATED FOR ANY OTHER REASON, INCLUDING IF THE COMPANY'S BOARD RECOMMENDS AGAINST THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES CONTEMPLATED

BY THE STONE MERGER AGREEMENT OR THE COMPANY'S STOCKHOLDERS DO NOT APPROVE SUCH ISSUANCE OF SHARES, THEN THE $43.5 MILLION INITIAL TERMINATION FEE SHALL NOT BE REPAYED IN WHOLE OR IN PART TO THE COMPANY BY STONE.

The Stone Merger Agreement also provides for the payment by the Company to Stone of the $26.5 Additional Termination Fee if the Stone Merger Agreement is terminated in the following circumstances: (i) by Stone if the Company's Board withdraws, modifies or changes its recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger in a manner adverse to Stone in reference to a third party acquisition proposal or (ii) by the Company or Stone if the Company's stockholder approval for the Proposed Stone Merger is not obtained and a third party acquisition proposal has been made or otherwise becomes publicly known or any person has publicly announced an intention to make a third party acquisition proposal and, within 12 months after termination of the Stone Merger Agreement, the Company or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a third party acquisition proposal.

The information contained in this Proxy Statement concerning the Offer is a summary which highlights selected information from the Offer to Purchase and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. To understand the Offer fully and for a more complete description of the terms of the Offer, you should read carefully the entire Offer to Purchase and Letter of Transmittal. Stockholders may obtain a free copy of the Offer To Purchase and other relevant documents filed by ATS at the Commission's web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. Copies of each such document may also be obtained for free from ATS by directing such requests to Innisfree M&A Incorporated, 501 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, New York 10022, shareholders call toll-free at (877) 456-3427 (banks and brokers call collect at (212) 750-5833).

The purpose of the solicitation made by this Proxy Statement is to enable the Company's stockholders to satisfy one of the conditions of the Offer and make an informed decision about the future of the Company. If the solicitation made by this Proxy Statement is successful, it will permit the stockholders to choose between remaining shareholders in a company that has not engaged in the Proposed Stone Merger or tendering Shares into the Offer, which currently has a number of unsatisfied conditions. ATS believes that many stockholders will favor an outcome which results in termination of the Stone Merger Agreement and the consummation (if a majority of stockholders tender into the Offer) of the Offer.

WE URGE YOU TO VOTE AGAINST THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES TO STONE STOCKHOLDERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPOSED STONE MERGER ON THE [COLOR] PROXY CARD ACCOMPANYING THIS PROXY STATEMENT. THIS WILL GIVE YOU AN OPPORTUNITY TO DECIDE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER THE OFFER OF $23.00 PER SHARE, OR IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES $23.50 OR $24.00 PER SHARE, IN CASH IS IN YOUR BEST INTERESTS.

Rejection of the Proposed Stone Merger by the Company's stockholders will satisfy a condition of the Offer and is an important step in securing the success of the Offer. Your vote AGAINST the Proposed Stone Merger does not obligate you to tender your Shares pursuant to the Offer. Even if the Company's stockholders approve the proposal to approve the issuance of Shares to Stone in connection with the Proposed Stone Merger, it may still be possible that the condition to our Offer that the Stone Merger Agreement be terminated on terms reasonably satisfactory to ATS will be satisfied. The Stone Merger Agreement contains a number of conditions, the failure of any of which may result in the Proposed Stone Merger not being consummated and the Stone Merger Agreement being terminated by the parties thereto. However, if such proposal is approved and the Proposed Stone Merger is consummated, then it will be impossible for one of the conditions to the Offer to be satisfied. ATS does not currently intend to waive this condition.

CERTAIN INFORMATION CONCERNING ATS, WOODSIDE FINANCE AND WOODSIDE

ATS is a recently incorporated Delaware corporation organized in connection with the Offer and the Second-Step Merger and has not carried on any activities other than in connection with the Offer and the Second-Step Merger, except that ATS acquired 1,719,000 Shares in the open market from August 15, 2006 to August 23, 2006. As of the date of the filing of this Proxy Statement with the Commission, ATS owned of record, and Woodside and ATS share beneficial ownership (as defined for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of, 1,719,000 Shares, or approximately 4.5% of the outstanding Shares. Because ATS is recently formed and has minimal assets and capitalization, no meaningful financial information regarding ATS is available.

Grand Bank will cease to exist after the merger occurs. The existing locations of Grand Bank will become banking centers of Independent Bank. Independent expects to complete the merger in the fourth quarter of 2015, although delays could occur. The merger will be accounted for as an acquisition of Grand Bank by Independent and Independent Bank under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Financial Accounting Standard Board's Accounting Standard Codification Topic 805, Business Combinations.

Terms of the Merger (page 40)

Aggregate Merger Consideration. Under the terms of the reorganization agreement, if the reorganization agreement is approved and the merger is completed, all outstanding shares of Grand Bank common stock will be converted into an aggregate of $24.1 million in cash and 1,279,532 shares of Independent common stock, subject in each case to adjustment under certain circumstances as set forth in the reorganization agreement and described in this proxy statement/prospectus. Based upon the closing price of Independent common stock on September 22, 2015, of $39.49, and assuming that the tangible book value of Grand Bank is at least $40.0 million on the calculation date, the aggregate amount of the total merger consideration to be paid by Independent is valued at $72.8 million.

Per Share Merger Consideration. Based upon 1,824,304 shares anticipated to be outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, which includes 1,726,810 shares outstanding on September 18, 2015 and 97,494 shares to be issued upon the exercise of options to purchase shares of Grand Bank common stock held by Grand Bank option holders who have irrevocably agreed to exercise such options prior to the effective time of the merger and based upon the payment of a total of approximately $1.8 million to Grand Bank option holders who have irrevocably elected to receive a net cash payment for the surrender and cancellation of their options, which amount was calculated using the closing price of Independent common stock on September 22, 2015 of $39.49, holders of Grand Bank common stock will receive 0.7014 of a share of Independent common stock and $12.22 in cash, subject in each case to adjustment under certain circumstances as set forth in the reorganization agreement and described in this proxy statement/prospectus, for each share of Grand Bank common stock they own at the effective time of the merger.

Adjustment to Cash Consideration. The amount of aggregate cash consideration paid by Independent would be reduced if Grand Bank's tangible book value, as calculated pursuant to the reorganization agreement, is less than $40.0 million but more than $39.0 million on the calculation date. Under those circumstances, the aggregate cash consideration would be reduced by the difference between $40.0 million and the amount of Grand Bank's tangible book value on that date. In the event of such a reduction, the per share cash consideration would be reduced by an amount equal to the quotient of (i) the amount of the reduction in aggregate cash consideration, divided by (ii) 1,824,304, the number of shares of Grand Bank common stock expected to be outstanding on the closing date. If the tangible book value of Grand Bank is less than $39.0 million on the closing date, Independent would not be obligated to consummate the transaction.

As noted above, pursuant to the terms of the reorganization agreement, the amount of aggregate cash consideration paid by Independent to shareholders of Grand Bank will also be reduced by the aggregate amount of cash paid by Independent to the holders of options to purchase shares of Grand Bank common stock who have irrevocably agreed to surrender their options in exchange for a cash payment equal to the difference between the aggregate value of the shares subject to their options (as determined pursuant to the reorganization agreement) and the aggregate exercise price for such options. The reorganization agreement provides that the value of the shares subject to the options to be surrendered for a cash payment will be based upon the value of the per share stock consideration. This value will be calculated using the average of the daily volume weighted average sale price per share of Independent common stock on The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. Global Select Market System for the ten consecutive trading days ending on and including the third trading day preceding the closing date reported by Bloomberg, or the average sales price. The holders of options to purchase an aggregate of 127,156 shares of Grand Bank common stock have elected to receive such cash payment. Based upon this election and the closing price of Independent common stock on September 22, 2015 of $39.49, Independent would pay an aggregate of approximately $1.8 million in cash to such option holders. In that event, the aggregate amount of cash consideration to be paid by Independent to the Grand Bank shareholders would be reduced by approximately $1.8 million. The $12.22 per share cash consideration to be paid to Grand Bank shareholders set forth above reflects this adjustment. The average sales price will fluctuate prior to the closing date and the option payment amount will not be determined until the third trading day prior to the closing date. For this reason, the amount of adjustment to the cash portion of the merger consideration resulting from the option payment may be more or less than the amount set forth above.

Adjustment to Stock Consideration. The amount of aggregate stock consideration paid by Independent will be adjusted if the average sales price of Independent common stock is 10% more or 10% less than $43.7660.

If the average sales price is less than 90% of $43.7660, or $39.3894, the per share stock consideration would be adjusted to a fraction of a share of Independent common stock (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) equal to the quotient of (x) $27.6270; divided by (y) the average sales price. If the average sales price is more than 110% of $43.7660, or $48.1426, the per share stock consideration would be adjusted to a fraction of a share of Independent common stock (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) equal to the quotient of (x) $33.7663; divided by (y) the average sales price. Therefore, the maximum aggregate value of Independent common stock to be issued to Grand Bank shareholders is $61.6 million and the minimum aggregate value of Independent common stock to be issued to Grand Bank shareholders is $50.4 million. As of September 22, 2015, the closing sales price of Independent common stock was $39.49 per share.

Other Financial Aspects. If Grand Bank's tangible book value is greater than $40.0 million on the calculation date, then on the day prior to the closing date, Grand Bank may distribute to its shareholders an amount equal to the difference between the actual amount of tangible book value on the calculation date minus $40.0 million.

Grand Bank's tangible book value as calculated pursuant to the reorganization agreement was approximately $41.5 million as of June 30, 2015. Tangible book value will increase or decrease by the amount of net income or net loss, respectively, of Grand Bank through the closing date. Tangible book value will also increase by the amount of additional paid in capital resulting from the exercise of stock options. However, all costs and expenses of Grand Bank related to the merger will be included as a deduction in the calculation of tangible book value. For more detail about how Grand Bank's tangible book value will be calculated pursuant to the reorganization agreement, see the section titled "Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Terms of the Merger" beginning on page 40.

Fractional shares of Independent common stock will be paid in cash, without interest. The market price of Independent common stock will fluctuate from the date of this proxy statement/prospectus through the third trading date prior to the effective date of the merger, which is the date on which the per share stock consideration is determined for the merger. Because of the possibility of the tangible book value adjustment to the amount of the per share cash consideration and the fluctuation of the market price of Independent common stock that will comprise the per share stock consideration, you will not know the exact amount of cash or the exact number of shares of Independent common stock you will receive in connection with the merger when you vote on the reorganization agreement.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 74)

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or the Code, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the closing is conditioned upon the receipt by Independent of an opinion from Andrews Kurth LLP, special counsel to Independent, to the effect that the merger so qualifies. This summary of U.S. federal income tax consequences assumes that the merger will be consummated as described in the reorganization agreement and this proxy statement/prospectus and that Independent will not waive the opinion condition described in "Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Tax Opinion." If the merger qualifies as such a reorganization, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of Grand Bank common stock will be as follows: holders of Grand Bank common stock generally will recognize gain (but not loss) with respect to their Grand Bank common stock. The gain a U.S. holder of Grand Bank common stock recognizes generally will be equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash consideration received in the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Independent common stock), or (ii) the amount by which the cash consideration received in the merger for the Grand Bank common stock plus the stock consideration received in the merger (based upon the fair market value of the Independent common stock at the effective time of the merger) exceeds the adjusted tax basis in the Grand Bank common stock exchanged in the merger.

For further information, please refer to Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger. The U.S. federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of Grand Bank common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Fairness Opinion of Grand Bank's Financial Advisor (page 47)

Hovde Group, LLC, or Hovde Group, has delivered a written opinion to the board of directors of Grand Bank that, as of the date of the reorganization agreement, based upon and subject to certain matters stated in the opinion, the merger consideration is fair to the shareholders of Grand Bank from a financial point of view. This opinion is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix B. The opinion of Hovde Group is not a recommendation to any Grand Bank shareholder as to how to vote on the proposal to approve the reorganization agreement. You should read this opinion completely to understand the procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the reviews undertaken by Hovde Group in providing its opinion.

Independent Plans to Continue Payment of Quarterly Dividends (page 88)

Independent has paid cash dividends on its common stock since the third quarter of 2013, and, subject to applicable statutory and regulatory restrictions, intends to continue to pay quarterly cash dividends on its common stock following the merger. See Dividends.

Ownership of Independent Common Stock After the Merger (page 78)

Based on the closing price of Independent common stock on September 22, 2015, of $39.49 per share, Independent would issue 1,279,532 shares of its common stock to Grand Bank shareholders in connection with the merger. The number of shares of Independent common stock issued in connection with the merger is subject to change if the average sales price of the Independent common stock is less than $39.3894 or more than $48.1426. See Summary Terms of the Merger.

Based on 17,111,394 shares of Independent common stock outstanding and the closing price of $39.49 on September 22, 2015, immediately after the merger, the former Grand Bank shareholders would own approximately 6.96% of the outstanding shares of Independent common stock assuming 1,279,532 shares of Independent common stock are issued in the merger. That ownership percentage would be reduced by any future issuances of shares of Independent common stock.

a proposal to approve the reorganization agreement, which provides for Independent to acquire Grand Bank through the merger; and a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if the board of directors of Grand Bank determines such adjournment is necessary to permit further solicitation of additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to constitute a quorum or to approve the reorganization agreement.

Record Date Set at September 18, 2015; Two-Thirds Shareholder Vote Required to Approve the Reorganization Agreement (pages 36 and 37)

You may vote at the special meeting of Grand Bank shareholders if you owned Grand Bank common stock of record as of 5:00 p.m. on September 18, 2015. You can cast one vote for each share of Grand Bank common stock you owned of record at that time. As of the record date, there were 1,726,810 shares of Grand Bank common stock outstanding.

Approval of the reorganization agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Grand Bank common stock outstanding and entitled to vote as of 5:00 p.m. on the record date. If you fail to vote, it will have the effect of a vote against the reorganization agreement. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Grand Bank common stock cast at the special meeting is required to approve the adjournment of the special meeting.

You may vote your shares of Grand Bank common stock by attending the special meeting and voting in person or by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card. If you are the record holder of your shares, you can revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the special meeting by sending a written notice revoking the proxy or submitting a later-dated proxy to the Secretary of Grand Bank, which must be received no later than immediately prior to the vote at the special meeting, or by voting in person at the special meeting. See The Special Meeting beginning on page 35.

Based on the reasons discussed elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the fairness opinion of Hovde Group, the board of directors of Grand Bank believes that the merger is fair to you and in your best interests, and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the reorganization agreement and the merger. For a discussion of the circumstances surrounding the merger and the factors considered by Grand Bank's board of directors in approving the reorganization agreement, see page 46.

The directors of Grand Bank have entered into an agreement to vote the shares of Grand Bank common stock that they control in favor of approval of the reorganization agreement. Effective Time of the Merger (page 59)

The merger of Grand Bank with and into Independent Bank will become effective at the date and time specified in the certificate of merger to be filed with the Texas Department of Banking, or the TDB. If Grand Bank shareholders approve the reorganization agreement at the special meeting, and if all necessary regulatory approvals are obtained and the other conditions to the parties' respective obligations to effect the merger are satisfied or are waived by the party entitled to do so, Independent anticipates that the merger will be completed in the late fourth quarter of 2015, although delays could occur.

Grand Bank and Independent cannot assure you that the necessary shareholder and regulatory approvals will be obtained or that the other conditions to completion of the merger can or will be satisfied. See "Risk Factors" "The merger may not be completed" on page 28.

Approximately twenty days prior to closing, you will receive a letter and instructions from Wells Fargo Shareowner Services, acting in its role as Independent's exchange agent and stock transfer agent, or the exchange agent, describing the procedures for surrendering your stock certificates representing shares of Grand Bank common stock in exchange for shares of Independent common stock and cash. If you surrender your certificate representing shares of Grand Bank common stock and properly completed transmittal materials at least two days prior to closing, then Independent will use its best efforts to cause the exchange agent to mail the merger consideration to you within five business days following the effective time of the merger. If you surrender your certificates and transmittal materials after two business days prior to closing, Independent will use its best efforts to cause the exchange agent to deliver the merger consideration to you promptly, with the intent that the exchange agent will mail the merger consideration to you within ten business days following receipt of the surrendered certificates and transmittal materials. You must carefully review and complete these transmittal materials and return them as instructed along with your stock certificates for Grand Bank common stock. Please do not send Grand Bank or Independent any stock certificates for your shares of Grand Bank common stock until you receive these instructions. Share certificates delivered to the exchange agent without a properly completed letter of transmittal will be rejected and returned for corrective action.

The shares of Independent common stock issuable in exchange for the shares of Grand Bank common stock will be issued solely in uncertificated book-entry form and a holder's shares of Independent common stock will be reflected in the shareholder's account established in the Direct Registration System of the Depository Trust Company, or DTC, by Independent's stock transfer agent. You will receive a statement to this effect from the transfer agent as part of the delivery of the merger consideration. You may then contact your broker and arrange for the transfer of shares to your brokerage account should you desire to do so.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 64)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied. These include, among others:

approval of the reorganization agreement and the merger by the shareholders of Grand Bank by the requisite vote; accuracy of each party's representations and warranties contained in the reorganization agreement as of the closing date of the merger; receipt of all required governmental approvals of the merger in a manner that does not impose any material adverse requirement upon Independent or its subsidiaries, including any requirement to sell or dispose of any significant amount of assets, which is reasonably unacceptable to Independent; receipt of all required consents, approvals, waivers and other assurances from nongovernmental third parties; absence of certain litigation regarding either party; absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities, reserves, business or results of operations of either party; performance or compliance in all material respects by each party with its respective covenants and obligations required by the reorganization agreement;

registration with the SEC of the shares of Independent common stock to be issued to shareholders of Grand Bank; authorization for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market of the shares of Independent common stock to be issued to shareholders of Grand Bank;

Grand Bank's tangible book value, as of the closing date, being at least $39.0 million;

Grand Bank's allowance for loan losses, as of the closing date, being equal to at least $2.5 million;

the daily volume weighted average of the sales price per share of Independent common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market over a ten consecutive trading day period ending on and including the third trading day prior to the closing date being at least $35.0128 and not more than $52.5192;

termination of all Grand Bank employee benefit plans; delivery of the merger consideration by Independent to the exchange agent;

the receipt by Independent of an opinion from Andrews Kurth LLP to the effect that for federal income tax purposes the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and (ii) each of Independent, Independent Bank and Grand Bank will be a party to such reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code; and the exercise of statutory dissenters' rights by the holders of no more than five percent of the shares of Grand Bank common stock.

Additionally, the completion of the merger depends on the execution of the following agreements, but those agreements will not become effective until the effective time of the merger:

execution of releases from each of the directors and certain officers of Grand Bank, releasing Grand Bank and its successors from any and all claims of such directors and officers, subject to certain limited exceptions; execution of resignations from each of the directors of Grand Bank, resigning from the board of directors of Grand Bank; and execution of amendments to the executive medical agreements between Grand Bank and Roy Gene Evans and D. Michael Redden releasing Grand Bank from further liability under the executive medical agreements in exchange for a lump-sum payment from Grand Bank.

Any condition to the completion of the merger, other than the required shareholder and regulatory approvals and the absence of an order prohibiting the merger, may be waived in writing by the party to the reorganization agreement entitled to the benefit of such condition. A party to the reorganization agreement could choose to complete the merger even though a condition has not been satisfied, as long as permitted by law. Independent cannot be certain when or if the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 79)

The acquisition of Grand Bank by Independent requires the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or the Federal Reserve. In addition, the merger requires the approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or the FDIC, and the TDB. On August 27, 2015, Independent, Independent Bank and Grand Bank filed applications with the Federal Reserve, the FDIC and the TDB to obtain approval of the transaction. Independent expects to obtain all necessary regulatory approvals, although Independent cannot be certain if or when Independent will obtain them.

Amendments or Waiver of the Reorganization Agreement (page 71)

Independent and Grand Bank may amend the reorganization agreement and each party may waive its right to require the other party to adhere to any term or satisfy any condition of the reorganization agreement. However, the merger consideration to be received by the shareholders of Grand Bank pursuant to the terms of the reorganization agreement may not be decreased after the approval of the reorganization agreement without the further approval of the Grand Bank shareholders.

No Solicitation (page 63)

Pursuant to the reorganization agreement, Grand Bank has agreed that it will not, and that it will cause its employees, directors, officers, financial advisors or agents not to, solicit, knowingly encourage, initiate or participate in any negotiations or discussions with any third party regarding an acquisition proposal, disclose to any third party any information concerning its business, properties, books or records in connection with any acquisition proposal, or cooperate with any third party to make any acquisition proposal. Grand Bank has also agreed that, promptly upon receipt of any unsolicited offer, it will communicate to Independent the terms of any proposal or request for information and the identity of the parties involved.

Provided that Grand Bank has complied with the foregoing restrictions, if prior to obtaining shareholder approval of the merger, Grand Bank receives a bona fide, unsolicited written acquisition proposal, it may engage in negotiations and discussions with, and furnish any information and other access to, any person making such acquisition proposal if, and only if, Grand Bank's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal and financial advisors, that such acquisition proposal is or is reasonably capable of becoming a superior offer to the merger with Independent Bank and the failure of Grand Bank's board of directors to furnish such information or access or enter into such discussions or negotiations would reasonably be expected to be a violation of its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Grand Bank; provided further that Grand Bank obtains an appropriately executed confidentiality agreement from the person making the acquisition proposal before furnishing any material nonpublic information to that person.

Termination of the Reorganization Agreement (page 71)

Independent and Grand Bank can mutually agree at any time to terminate the reorganization agreement without completing the merger. In addition, either Independent or Grand Bank may decide, without the consent of the other, to terminate the reorganization agreement if:

the conditions to such party's obligations to close have not been satisfied on or before December 31, 2015; subject to a unilateral 30-day extension by either party for the receipt of regulatory approvals and provided that the terminating party is not in breach of the reorganization agreement;

any of the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement or by any other agreement contemplated by the reorganization agreement are disapproved by any regulatory agency whose approval is required to consummate those transactions; or if the reorganization agreement and merger are not approved by the shareholders of Grand Bank at the special meeting.

Grand Bank may terminate the reorganization agreement, without the consent of Independent, if:

Independent breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the reorganization agreement or any other agreement contemplated by the reorganization agreement, and such failure has not been cured within a period of 30 calendar days after written notice from Grand Bank;

at any time prior to the special meeting in order to enter into, concurrently with such termination, an acquisition agreement or similar agreement with respect to a superior proposal that has been received and considered by Grand Bank and the Grand Bank board in accordance with all of the requirements of the reorganization agreement; or there has been any material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities, reserves, business or results of operations of Independent since March 31, 2015.

In addition, Independent may terminate the reorganization agreement, without the consent of Grand Bank, if:

Grand Bank breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the reorganization agreement or any other agreement contemplated by the reorganization agreement, and such failure has not been cured within a period of 30 calendar days after written notice from Independent;

the Grand Bank board has (i) recommended to the holders of Grand Bank common stock that they tender their shares in a tender or exchange offer commenced by an unaffiliated third party for more than 15% of the outstanding Grand Bank common stock, (ii) effected a change in the board's recommendation with respect to the merger or recommended to the Grand Bank shareholders acceptance or approval of any alternative acquisition proposal, (iii) notified Independent in writing that Grand Bank is prepared to accept a superior proposal, or (iv) resolved to do any of the foregoing;

any of the following have occurred with respect to environmental matters regarding Grand Bank: (i) the factual substance of any of the environmental representations and warranties of Grand Bank in the reorganization agreement is not materially true and accurate, (ii) the results of any environmental inspection or other environmental survey are disapproved by Independent because such inspection or survey identifies a material or potential material violation of applicable environmental laws, (iii) Grand Bank refuses to allow such an inspection or survey in a manner that Independent reasonably considers necessary, (iv) such an inspection or survey identifies an event, condition or circumstance that would or potentially could reasonably be expected to require a material remedial or cleanup action or result in a material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities, reserves, business or results of operations of Grand Bank since March 31, 2015, (v) such an inspection or survey reveals the presence of any underground or above ground storage tank in, on or under any real property owned or leased by Grand Bank that is not shown to be in material compliance with all applicable environmental laws, or that has had a release of petroleum or some other hazardous material that has not been cleaned up to the satisfaction of the relevant governmental authority or any other party with a right to compel such cleanup, or (vi) such an inspection or survey identifies the presence of any asbestos-containing material in, on or under any real property owned or leased by Grand Bank, the removal of which could reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities, reserves, business or results of operations of Grand Bank since March 31, 2015, subject, in the case of each of the foregoing, to notice to and the right of Grand Bank to correct any such matter to Independent's reasonable satisfaction within 30 days of receipt of notice;

Independent determines, in good faith after consulting with counsel, there is a substantial likelihood that any necessary regulatory approval will not be obtained or will be obtained only upon one or more conditions that make it inadvisable to proceed with the transactions; or

there has been any material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities, reserves, business or results of operations of Grand Bank since March 31, 2015.

Termination Fee (page 72)

To compensate Independent for entering into the reorganization agreement, taking actions to consummate the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement and incurring the related costs and expenses and other losses and expense, including foregoing the pursuit of other opportunities, Grand Bank has agreed to pay Independent a $2.8 million termination fee, provided that Independent is not in material breach of any covenant or obligation under the reorganization agreement, if the reorganization agreement is terminated:

by Grand Bank at any time prior to the special meeting in order to enter into, concurrently with such termination, an acquisition agreement or similar agreement with respect to a superior proposal that has been received and considered by Grand Bank and the Grand Bank board in accordance with all of the requirements of the reorganization agreement;

by either Independent or Grand Bank if the reorganization agreement and the merger are not approved by the shareholders of Grand Bank at the special meeting and at the time of such failure to approve, there exists an acquisition proposal with respect to Grand Bank other than that of Independent that has not been withdrawn prior to the special meeting; or by Independent if the Grand Bank board has (i) recommended to the holders of Grand Bank common stock that such holders tender their shares in a tender or exchange offer commenced by an unaffiliated third party for more than 15% of the outstanding Grand Bank common stock, (ii) effected a change in the board's recommendation regarding the merger or recommended to the Grand Bank shareholders acceptance or approval of any alternative acquisition proposal, (iii) notified Independent in writing that Grand Bank is prepared to accept a superior proposal, or (iv) resolved to do any of the foregoing.

Some of the directors and executive officers of Grand Bank have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as shareholders of Grand Bank. These interests include:

as a condition to the merger, Independent has required that executive officers Lee Dinkel and Mark Wells enter into employment agreements, effective upon completion of the merger, that include noncompetition and nonsolicitation obligations to Independent Bank and pursuant to which each executive officer is entitled to receive a completion bonus, salary, annual bonus and certain additional incentives from Independent Bank;

Grand Bank plans to pay retention bonuses in the aggregate amount of approximately $2.2 million to executive officers of Grand Bank, all of which are directors, in connection with the completion of the merger. These payments will reduce the tangible book value of Grand Bank for the purpose of calculating the merger consideration payable to shareholders of Grand Bank;

as a condition to the merger, Independent has required that each of Roy Gene Evans and D. Michael Redden, who are directors and executive officers of Grand Bank, enter into a consulting agreement, effective upon completion of the merger, that includes noncompetition and nonsolicitation obligations to Independent Bank and pursuant to which each of Mr. Evans and Mr. Redden is entitled to receive a monthly consulting fee from Independent Bank and is eligible to receive an incentive bonus from Independent Bank; as a condition to the merger, Independent has required that each outside director of Grand Bank (Tyler Cooper, Jack W. Evans, Jr., Al Goode, Pete Schenkel and James W. Williford) enter into a Director Support Agreement that includes noncompetition, nonsolicitation, and business relationship obligations in consideration of an aggregate $250,000 of payments made to these individuals by Independent; each of Roy Gene Evans and D. Michael Redden is a party to an executive medical agreement with Grand Bank, which were entered into in 2003, that provides for Grand Bank to provide lifetime medical insurance coverage to Mr. Evans, Mr. Redden and their spouses, or pay the costs for the provision of lifetime medical insurance coverage under individual health insurance policies. As a condition to the merger, Independent has required that each of Mr. Evans and Mr. Redden execute amendments to the executive medical agreements releasing Grand Bank from further liability under the executive medical agreements, effective at the closing of the merger, in exchange for lump-sum payments from Grand Bank. The aggregate amount of the lump sum payments to be made by Grand Bank is $1,240,242, of which $244,939 has been previously accrued. Grand Bank will make the lump sum payments to these directors and executive officers in connection with the completion of the merger. These payments will reduce the tangible book value of Grand Bank for the purpose of calculating the merger consideration payable to shareholders of Grand Bank; and the directors and executive officers of Grand Bank will receive indemnification from Independent for a period of four years after completion of the merger to the same extent and subject to the conditions set forth in the articles of association and bylaws of Grand Bank and continued director and officer liability coverage for a period of four years after completion of the merger. Any amounts paid by Grand Bank to purchase continued director and officer liability coverage will reduce the tangible book value of Grand Bank for the purpose of calculating the merger consideration payable to shareholders of Grand Bank.

Grand Bank is a Texas banking association, and the rights of shareholders of Grand Bank are governed by Texas law and Grand Bank's articles of association and bylaws. Independent is a Texas corporation that is a registered bank holding company, and the rights of Independent's shareholders are governed by Texas law and Independent's certificate of formation and bylaws. Upon completion of the merger, shareholders of Grand Bank will become shareholders of Independent and their rights as shareholders of Independent will be governed by Independent's certificate of formation and bylaws, in addition to Texas law. Independent's certificate of formation and bylaws will not be amended in the merger, but could be later restated, amended or, as regards the bylaws, repealed.

Dissenters' Rights of Grand Bank Shareholders (page 79)

As a holder of Grand Bank common stock, you have the right under Texas law to dissent from the merger and have the appraised fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock as of the date immediately preceding the effective date of the merger paid to you in cash. The appraised fair value may be more or less than the value of the shares of Independent common stock and cash shareholders of Grand Bank will receive for their Grand Bank shares in the merger.

In order to dissent, you must carefully follow the requirements of the TBOC, including providing Grand Bank, prior to the special meeting, with a written objection to the merger that states that you will exercise your right to dissent if the Grand Bank shareholders approve the reorganization agreement and the merger is completed. These steps for perfecting your right of dissent are summarized under the caption Dissenters' Rights of Grand Bank Shareholders on page 79. The provisions of the TBOC pertaining to dissenters' rights are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C and the summaries of those provisions in this proxy statement/prospectus should be read in conjunction with, and are qualified by, those provisions of the TBOC.

If you intend to exercise dissenters' rights, you should read the provisions of the TBOC governing dissenters' rights carefully and consult with your own legal counsel. You should also remember that if you return a signed proxy card, but fail to provide instructions as to how your shares of Grand Bank common stock are to be voted, you will be considered to have voted in favor of the reorganization agreement. In that event, you will not be able to assert dissenters' rights.

If the Grand Bank shareholders approve the reorganization agreement, a holder of Grand Bank common stock who delivers to the president and the secretary of Grand Bank a written objection to the merger prior to the special meeting that states that such holder will exercise his or her right to dissent if the reorganization agreement is approved and the merger is completed and includes an address for notice of the effectiveness of the merger, who votes his or her shares of Grand Bank common stock against approval of the reorganization agreement at the special meeting, who, not later than the 20th day after Independent sends such holder notice that the merger was completed, delivers to the president and secretary of Independent a written demand for payment of the fair value of his or her shares of Grand Bank common stock that states the number and class of shares of Grand Bank common stock such holder owns, his or her estimate of the fair value of such stock and an address to which a notice relating to the dissent and appraisal procedures may be sent, and who, not later than the 20th day after he or she makes that demand for payment, submits to Independent the certificates representing his or her shares of Grand Bank common stock will be entitled under the TBOC to receive the appraised fair value of his or her shares of Grand Bank common stock, as of the date immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, in cash under the TBOC.

(1) Prior to April 1, 2013, Independent elected to be taxed for federal income tax purposes as an S corporation under the provisions of Sections 1361 through 1379 of the Code, as amended, and, as a result, Independent did not pay

U.S. federal income taxes and has not been required to make any provision or recognize any liability for federal income tax in its consolidated financial statements for any period ending on or before March 31, 2013. As of April 1, 2013, Independent terminated its S corporation election and commenced being subject to federal income taxation as a C corporation. Independent has calculated its pro forma net income, pro forma earnings per share on a basic and diluted basis, pro forma return on average assets and pro forma return on average equity for each period presented by calculating a pro forma provision for federal income taxes using an assumed annual effective federal income tax rate of 33.9%, 30.1%, 31.7% and 33.1% for the years ended December 31, 2013, 2012, 2011 and 2010, respectively, and adjusting its historical net income for each period presented to give effect to the pro forma provision for federal income taxes for such period.

- (2) The per share amounts and the weighted-average shares outstanding for each of the periods shown have been adjusted to give effect to the 3.2-for-one split of the shares of Independent's common stock that was effective as of February 22, 2013.
- (3) Independent calculates its diluted earnings per share for each period shown as its net income divided by the weighted-average number of its common shares outstanding during the relevant period adjusted for the dilutive effect of its outstanding warrants to purchase shares of common stock. The increase in the shares outstanding in 2013 largely relates to the Company's initial public offering and the increase in 2014 and the six months ended June 30, 2015, largely relates to shares issued in three acquisitions completed in 2014. Earnings per share on a basic and diluted basis and pro forma earnings per share on a basic and diluted basis were calculated using the following outstanding share amounts:

| | As of June 30, | | As of December 31, | | | | |
|---|----------------|------------|--------------------|------------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| | 2015 | 2014 | 2014 | 2013 | 2012 | 2011 | 2010 |
| Weighted average shares outstanding basic | 16,740,881 | 13,951,830 | 15,208,544 | 10,921,777 | 7,626,205 | 6,668,534 | 6,518,224 |
| Weighted average shares outstanding diluted | 16,823,733 | 14,053,343 | 15,306,998 | 10,990,245 | 7,649,366 | 6,675,078 | 6,518,224 |

- (4) Dividends declared include quarterly cash distributions paid to Independent's shareholders in the relevant period to provide them with funds to pay their federal income tax liabilities incurred as a result of the pass-through of Independent's net taxable income for the first three months of the year ended December 31, 2013, and for each other such period shown to its shareholders as holders of shares in an S corporation for federal income tax purposes. The aggregate amounts of such cash distributions relating to the payment of tax liabilities were $0.00 per share, $0.52 per share, $0.85 per share, $0.63 per share, and $0.36 per share for the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011 and 2010, respectively.
- (5) Book value per share equals Independent's total stockholders' equity (excluding preferred stock) as of the date presented divided by the number of shares of its common stock outstanding as of the date presented. The number of shares of its common stock outstanding as of June 30, 2015 and 2014, was 17,108,394 and 16,370,707, respectively, and as of December 31, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011 and 2010 was 17,032,669 shares, 12,330,158 shares, 8,269,707 shares, 6,850,288 shares and 6,832,323 shares, respectively.

- (6) Independent calculates tangible book value per share as of the end of a period as total stockholders' equity (excluding preferred stock) less goodwill and other intangible assets at the end of the relevant period divided by the outstanding number of shares of its common stock at the end of that period. Tangible book value is a non-GAAP financial measure, and, as Independent calculates tangible book value, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure is total stockholders' equity. Independent believes that the presentation of tangible book value per share provides useful information to investors regarding Independent's financial condition because, as do Independent's management, banking regulators, many financial analysts and other investors, you can use the tangible book value in conjunction with more traditional bank capital ratios to assess Independent's capital adequacy without the effect of Independent's goodwill and other intangible assets and compare Independent's capital adequacy with the capital adequacy of other banking organizations with significant amounts of goodwill and/or other intangible assets, which typically stem from the use of the purchase accounting method of accounting for mergers and acquisitions. A reconciliation of tangible book value to total stockholders' equity is presented below.
- (7) Each of five wholly owned, but nonconsolidated, subsidiaries of Independent holds a series of Independent's junior subordinated debentures purchased by the subsidiary in connection with, and paid for with the proceeds of, the issuance of trust issued preferred securities by that subsidiary. Independent has guaranteed the payment of the amounts payable under each of those issues of trust preferred securities.
- (8) The values for the selected performance metrics presented for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, other than the dividend payout ratio, are annualized.
- (9) Independent has calculated its return on average assets and return on average equity for a period by dividing net income available to common shareholders for that period by its average assets and average equity, as the case may be, for that period. Independent has calculated its pro forma return on average assets and pro forma return on average equity for a period by calculating its pro forma net income for that period as described in note 1 above and dividing that by its average assets and average equity, as the case be, for that period. Independent calculates its average assets and average equity for a period by dividing the sum of its total asset balance or total stockholders' equity balance, as the case may be, as of the close of business on each day in the relevant period and dividing by the number of days in the period. Independent calculates its return on average common equity by excluding the preferred stock dividends to derive at net income available to common shareholders and excluding the average balance of its Series A preferred stock from the total average equity to derive at common average equity.
- (10) Net interest margin for a period represents net interest income for that period divided by average interest-earning assets for that period.
- (11) Efficiency ratio for a period represents noninterest expenses for that period divided by the sum of net interest income and noninterest income for that period, excluding bargain purchase gains recognized in connection with certain of Independent's acquisitions and realized gains or losses from sales of investment securities for that period.
- (12) Independent calculates its dividend payout ratio for each period presented as the dividends paid per share for such period (excluding cash distributions made to shareholders in connection with tax liabilities as described in note 4 above) divided by its basic earnings per share for such period.
- (13) Nonperforming loans include nonaccrual loans, loans past due 90 days or more and still accruing interest, and accruing loans modified under troubled debt restructurings.
- (14) For December 31, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011 and 2010, and June 30, 2014, Independent calculated its risk-weighted assets using the standardized method of the Basel II Framework, as implemented by the Federal Reserve and the FDIC. Effective January 1, 2015, Independent became subject to the Basel III Capital Rules. These rules revise the regulatory capital elements, add a new common equity Tier 1 capital ratio, increase the minimum Tier 1 capital ratio requirements and implement a new capital conservation buffer. The ratios as of June 30, 2015, were calculated under the new Basel III Framework.
- (15) Independent calculates common equity as of the end of the period as total stockholders' equity less the preferred stock at period end. Independent calculates tangible common equity as of the end of a period as total stockholders' equity (excluding preferred stock) less goodwill and other intangible assets as of the end of the period and calculates tangible assets as of the end of a period as total assets less goodwill and other intangible assets as of the end of the period. Tangible common equity to tangible assets is a non-GAAP financial measure, and as Independent calculates tangible common equity to tangible assets, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure is total stockholders' equity to total assets.

Independent believes that the presentation of tangible common equity to tangible assets provides useful information to investors regarding Independent's financial condition because, as do Independent's management, banking regulators, many financial analysts and other investors, you can use the tangible common equity in conjunction with more traditional bank capital ratios to assess Independent's capital adequacy without the effect of Independent's goodwill and core deposit intangibles and compare Independent's capital adequacy with the capital adequacy of other banking organizations with significant amounts of goodwill and/or core deposit intangibles. A reconciliation of the ratios of tangible common equity to tangible assets to the ratios of total stockholders' equity to total assets is presented below.

(1) Grand Bank has elected to be taxed for federal income tax purposes as a Subchapter S corporation under the provisions of Sections 1361 through 1379 of the Code, as amended, for all periods presented in the table appearing immediately above, and, as a result, Grand Bank did not pay U.S. federal income taxes and has not been required to make any provision or recognize any liability for federal income tax in its financial statements. Grand Bank has calculated its pro forma net income, pro forma earnings per share, pro forma return on average assets and pro forma return on average equity for each period presented in the table above by calculating a pro forma provision for federal income taxes applying an assumed annual federal income tax rate of 34% to net taxable income (which excludes Grand Bank's significant amounts of nontaxable interest income that is derived from municipal securities), resulting in a net effective federal income tax rate of between 33% and 34% for each period, and adjusting its historical net income for each period to give effect to the pro forma provision for federal income taxes for such period.

Grand Bank calculates its earnings per share for each period shown as its net income divided by the weighted-average number of its common shares outstanding during the relevant period. Earnings per share and pro forma earnings per share were calculated using the following outstanding share amounts:

| | As of June 30, | | As of December 31, | | | | |
|-------------------------------------|----------------|-----------|--------------------|-----------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| | 2015 | 2014 | 2014 | 2013 | 2012 | 2011 | 2010 |

- (3) Book value per share equals Grand Bank's total shareholders' equity as of the date presented divided by the number of Grand Bank common shares outstanding as of the date presented. The number of Grand Bank common shares outstanding as of June 30, 2015 and 2014, was 1,725,550 shares and 1,725,350 shares, respectively, and as of December 31, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011 and 2010, was 1,725,350 shares, 1,725,350 shares, 1,725,350 shares, 1,705,560 shares and 1,705,460 shares, respectively.
- (4) Grand Bank calculates tangible book value per share as of the end of any period as total stockholders' equity less goodwill and other intangible assets at the end of that period divided by the outstanding number of shares of its common stock at the end of that period. Tangible book value is a non-GAAP financial measure, and, as Grand Bank calculates tangible book value, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure is total stockholders' equity.

Grand Bank's management believes that presenting tangible book value per share provides useful information to investors regarding Grand Bank's financial condition because, as do Grand Bank's management, banking regulators, many financial analysts and other investors, you can use tangible book value in conjunction with more traditional bank capital ratios to assess Grand Bank's capital adequacy without the effect of goodwill and other intangible assets, and to compare Grand Bank's capital adequacy with that of other banking organizations with significant amounts of goodwill and/or other intangible assets, which typically result from the use of the purchase method of accounting for mergers and acquisitions.

Table of Contents

The following table presents, as of the dates set forth below, Grand Bank's total assets, tangible assets, total stockholders' equity and tangible common equity and presents reconciliations of Grand Bank's tangible book value per common share to its book value per common share and of its ratio of tangible common equity to tangible assets to its ratio of total stockholders' equity to total assets:

- (5) The values for the selected performance metrics presented for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, are annualized.
- (6) Grand Bank has calculated its return on average assets and return on average equity for a period by dividing net income for that period by its average assets or average equity, respectively, for that period. Grand Bank has calculated its pro forma return on average assets and pro forma return on average equity for a period by calculating its pro forma net income for that period as described in note 1 above and dividing that by its average assets or average equity, respectively, for that period. Grand Bank calculates its average assets and average equity for a period by dividing the sum of its total asset balance or total shareholder's equity balance, respectively, as of the close of business on each day in the relevant period and dividing by the number of days in the period.
- (7) Net interest margin for a period represents net interest income for that period divided by average interest-earning assets for that period.
- (8) Efficiency ratio for a period represents noninterest expenses for that period divided by the sum of net interest income and noninterest income for that period, excluding realized gains or losses from sales of investment securities for that period.
- (9) Nonperforming loans include nonaccrual loans, loans past due 90 days or more and still accruing interest and accruing loans modified under troubled debt restructurings. Nonperforming assets includes nonperforming loans plus other real estate owned.
- (10) Grand Bank calculates its risk-weighted assets using the standardized method of the Basel II Framework, as implemented by the FDIC. Effective January 1, 2015, Grand Bank became subject to the Basel III Capital Rules. These rules revise the regulatory capital elements, add a new common equity Tier 1 capital ratio, increase the minimum Tier 1 capital ratio requirements and implement a new capital conservation buffer. The ratios as of June 30, 2015, were calculated under the new Basel III Framework.
- (11) Grand Bank calculates tangible common equity as of the end of a period as total stockholders' equity less goodwill and other intangible assets as of the end of the period and calculates tangible assets as of the end of a period as total assets less goodwill and other intangible assets as of the end of the period. Tangible common equity to tangible assets is a non-GAAP financial measure, and as Grand Bank calculates tangible common equity to tangible assets, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure is total stockholders' equity to total assets. Grand Bank believes that the presentation of tangible common equity to tangible assets provides useful information to investors regarding Grand Bank's financial condition because, as do Grand Bank's management, banking regulators, many financial analysts and other investors, you can use the tangible common equity in conjunction with more traditional bank capital ratios to assess Grand Bank's capital adequacy without the effect of Grand Bank's goodwill and core deposit intangibles and compare Grand Bank's capital adequacy with the capital adequacy of other banking organizations with significant amounts of goodwill and/or core deposit intangibles.

Table of ContentsComparative Stock Prices

The following table shows (1) the market value of Independent common stock at the close of business on July 22, 2015, the business day prior to the announcement of the proposed merger, and as of the most recent practicable date preceding the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and (2) the equivalent pro forma value of a share of Grand Bank common stock at such dates based on the value of the consideration to be received in the merger with respect to each share. Historical market value information regarding Grand Bank common stock is not provided because there is no active market for Grand Bank common stock.

| September 22, 2015 | $ 39.49 | $ 39.92 |

- (1) Represents the closing price of Independent common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on the date indicated.
- (2) Equivalent pro forma market value per share of Grand Bank common stock represents the historical market value per share of Independent common stock multiplied by the assumed exchange ratio of 0.7014 of a share of Independent common stock for each share of Grand Bank common stock and adding the assumed per-share cash consideration of $12.22, and assumes an adjusted tangible book value of Grand Bank of at least $40.0 million. Such assumed ratio was calculated based on the assumption that 1,824,304 shares of Grand Bank common stock were outstanding on the date indicated, which is the expected number of shares to be outstanding at the effective time of the merger.

For an explanation of how the Grand Bank tangible book value will be calculated, the effect on the purchase price if tangible book value is less than $40.0 million on the effective date and other estimates, please refer to Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Terms of the Merger, beginning on page 40 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Dividends*Dividend Payments*

As approved by Independent's board of directors, Independent declared and paid a cash dividend to holders of Independent common stock in each quarter since the third quarter of 2013. Independent intends to continue to pay regular quarterly cash dividends on its common stock following the merger, when, as and if declared by the Company's board of directors out of funds legally available for that purpose and subject to regulatory restrictions. No dividends payable in the future have been declared by Independent's board of directors.

Independent's dividend policy may change with respect to the payment of dividends as a return on investment, and Independent's board of directors may change or eliminate the payment of future dividends at its discretion, without notice to Independent's shareholders. There can be no assurance that Independent will continue to pay dividends in the future. Future dividends on Independent common stock will depend upon its earnings and financial condition, liquidity and capital requirements, the general economic and regulatory climate, its ability to service any equity or debt obligations senior to the common stock (including Independent's preferred stock discussed below) and other factors deemed relevant by the board of directors of Independent.

Dividend Restrictions; Source of Strength

Under the terms of its junior subordinated debentures issued in connection with the issuance of trust preferred securities by subsidiaries of Independent, Independent is not permitted to pay any dividends on its common stock if it is in default on any payments required to be made on the junior subordinated debentures.

Independent is regarded as a legal entity separate and distinct from Independent Bank. The principal source of Independent's revenues is dividends received from Independent Bank. Texas state law places limitations on the amount that state banks may pay in dividends, which Independent Bank must adhere to when paying dividends to Independent. The Federal Reserve has issued a policy statement that provides that a bank holding company should not pay dividends unless (a) its net income over the last four quarters (net of dividends paid) has been sufficient to fully fund the dividends, (b) the prospective rate of earnings retention appears to be consistent with the capital needs, asset quality and overall financial condition of the bank holding company and its subsidiaries and (c) the bank holding company will continue to meet minimum required capital adequacy ratios. Accordingly, Independent should not pay cash dividends that exceed its net income in any year or that can only be funded in ways that weaken its financial strength, including by borrowing money to pay dividends. Regulatory authorities could impose administratively stricter limitations on the ability of Independent Bank to pay dividends to Independent if such limits were deemed appropriate to preserve certain capital adequacy requirements.

Under Federal Reserve policy, bank holding companies have historically been required to act as a source of financial and managerial strength to each of its banking subsidiaries, and the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act codified this policy as a statutory requirement. Under this requirement, Independent is expected to commit resources to support Independent Bank, including at times when Independent may not be in a financial position to provide such resources. Any capital loans by a bank holding company to any of its subsidiary banks are subordinate in right of payment to deposits and to certain other indebtedness of such subsidiary banks. A bank holding company, in certain circumstances, could be required to guarantee the capital restoration plan of an undercapitalized banking subsidiary.

Dividends paid by Independent Bank have provided a substantial part of Independent's operating funds, and for the foreseeable future, it is anticipated that dividends paid by Independent Bank to Independent will continue to be Independent's principal source of operating funds. However, capital adequacy requirements serve to limit the amount of dividends that may be paid by Independent Bank. Under federal law, Independent Bank cannot pay a dividend if, after paying the dividend, it would be undercapitalized. The FDIC may declare a dividend payment to be unsafe and unsound even though Independent Bank would continue to meet its capital requirements after payment of the dividend.

Additionally, under the credit agreement between Independent and U.S. Bank National Association and Frost Bank, or the lenders, Independent cannot make any dividend payments without the prior written consent of Independent's lenders; provided, however, that, so long as no default under the credit agreement has occurred and is continuing, or will occur as a result of any such dividend, Independent may pay dividends and distributions to its shareholders as permitted by applicable governmental laws and regulations, including dividends with respect to the Independent Series A preferred stock.

So long as any share of Independent Series A preferred stock remains outstanding, Independent may declare and pay dividends on its common stock only if, after giving effect to such dividend, Independent satisfies certain formula requirements under the Independent Series A preferred stock and full dividends on all outstanding shares of Independent Series A preferred stock for the most recently completed dividend period have been or are contemporaneously declared and paid. If a dividend is not declared and paid in full on the Independent Series A preferred stock in respect of any dividend period, then from the last day of such dividend period until the last day of the third dividend period immediately following it, no dividend or distribution shall be declared or paid on the common stock (other than dividends payable solely in shares of common stock).

Payment of Dividends on Independent Preferred Stock

Holders of Independent's Series A preferred stock, which ranks senior to Independent's common stock, are entitled to receive at the end of each quarter a dividend equal to the quarterly dividend rate (which rate is approximately 1%) multiplied by the liquidation amount per each share of Series A preferred stock, which liquidation amount is currently equal to $1,000 per share, or approximately $60,000 per quarter. In January 2016, the dividend on the Series A preferred stock increases from 1% to 9% annually, and, at that time, it is anticipated that Independent will redeem all of the Series A preferred stock.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in Independent common stock in connection with the merger involves risks. Independent describes below the material risks and uncertainties that it believes affect its business and an investment in Independent common stock. You should carefully read and consider all of these risks and all other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus in deciding whether to vote for approval of the reorganization agreement. If any of the risks described in this proxy statement/prospectus occur, Independent's financial condition, results of operations and cash flows could be materially and adversely affected. If this were to happen, the value of Independent common stock could decline significantly, and you could lose all or part of your investment.

Fluctuations in the market price of Independent common stock will affect the number and value of shares of Independent common stock and the amount of cash that Grand Bank shareholders receive for their shares of Grand Bank common stock. Grand Bank shareholders bear the risk of price fluctuations in Independent common stock after the exchange ratio is established.

The price of Independent common stock will fluctuate prior to the closing of the merger. The value of the per share stock consideration and the number of shares comprising the per share stock consideration will be subject to adjustment if the average of the daily volume weighted average sale price of Independent common stock over a ten consecutive trading day period ending on and including the third trading day prior to the closing date, or the average sales price, is less than $39.3894 or more than $48.1426. In addition, the per share cash consideration will be adjusted based upon the amount of the payment to Grand Bank option holders who elected to surrender their options for a cash payment. The option payment will be calculated using the average sales price of Independent common stock, which will be determined on the third trading day prior to the closing date. Accordingly, at the time Grand Bank's shareholders vote with respect to the reorganization agreement, they will not know the exact value and number of shares of Independent common stock or the exact amount of cash that they will actually receive in the merger. Further, shareholders of Grand Bank bear the risk that the value of the shares of Independent common stock they will receive in the merger will decline from the value of those shares after the date the per share stock consideration is fixed three trading days prior to the closing date and until their shares of Independent common stock are credited to their account in the Direct Registration System. See Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Terms of the Merger.

The merger may not be completed.

Completion of the merger is subject to regulatory approval. Independent cannot assure you that it will be successful in obtaining required the regulatory approvals. If Independent is not successful in obtaining the required regulatory approvals, the merger will not be completed. If such regulatory approvals are received, there can be no assurance to the timing of those approvals or whether any conditions will be imposed that would result in certain closing conditions of the merger not being satisfied.

Shareholders should bear in mind that regulatory approval reflects only the view that the merger does not contravene applicable competitive standards imposed by law, and that the merger is consistent with regulatory policies relating to safety and soundness. Further, regulatory approval is not an opinion that the proposed merger is favorable to the shareholders of either party to the merger from a financial point of view or that the regulatory authority has considered the adequacy of the terms of the merger. Regulatory approval is not an endorsement or recommendation of the merger.

The consummation of the merger is also subject to other conditions precedent described in the reorganization agreement, including Grand Bank maintaining minimum capital and allowance for loan loss levels, there being no material adverse change in the condition of Grand Bank or Independent and the average sales price of Independent common stock being at least $35.0128 per share and not more than $52.5192 per share. If a condition of either party is not satisfied, that party may be able to terminate the reorganization agreement and, in such case, the transaction would not be consummated. The parties cannot assure you that all of the conditions precedent in the reorganization agreement will be satisfied or that the merger will be completed.

The tangible book value of Grand Bank at closing could be an amount that results in the reduction of the amount of cash consideration that Grand Bank shareholders receive for their shares of Grand Bank common stock or in Independent's election to terminate the merger.

The amount of aggregate cash consideration to be received by Grand Bank shareholders in the merger will be reduced if Grand Bank's tangible book value is less than $40.0 million but greater than $39.0 million on the calculation date. Accordingly, at the time Grand Bank's shareholders vote with respect to the reorganization agreement, they will not know the exact value of the cash consideration they will receive in the merger. Neither Independent nor Grand Bank can assure Grand Bank's shareholders of the exact amount of cash consideration that they will receive in the merger.

In the event that Grand Bank does not have a tangible book value equal to or greater than $39.0 million as of the date of the closing, Independent has the right to elect either to terminate the transaction without completing the merger, or completing the merger regardless of the tangible book value. If the Grand Bank tangible book value is materially less than $39.0 million and if Independent desires to waive the condition and proceed with the transaction, Independent and Grand Bank anticipate that they would renegotiate the amount of cash consideration to be paid pursuant to the merger and amend the reorganization agreement. Grand Bank would resolicit proxies and hold an additional meeting of shareholders to consider and act upon any such amendment.

Grand Bank does not have the right to terminate the merger in the event its tangible book value, which was $41.5 million at June 30, 2015, calculated in accordance with the reorganization agreement, is below $39.0 million on the closing date under the terms of the reorganization agreement.

You may pay U.S. federal income tax as a result of the merger.

The amount of the cash consideration that you receive in the merger in exchange for your common stock of Grand Bank is anticipated to be taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes. See "Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement" Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger on page 74.

Grand Bank will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Grand Bank and consequently on Independent. These uncertainties may impair Grand Bank's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Grand Bank to seek to change existing business relationships with Grand Bank. In addition, the reorganization agreement restricts Grand Bank from taking other specified actions until the merger occurs without the consent of Independent. These restrictions may prevent Grand Bank from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. See "Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement" Conduct of Business Pending Effective Time beginning on page 60 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a description of the restrictive covenants to which Grand Bank is subject.

Integrating Grand Bank into Independent Bank's operations may be more difficult, costly or time-consuming than Independent expects.

Independent Bank and Grand Bank have operated and, until the merger is completed, will continue to operate, independently. Accordingly, it is possible that the process of integrating Grand Bank's operations into Independent

Bank's operations could result in the disruption of operations, the loss of Grand Bank customers and employees and make it more difficult to achieve the intended benefits of the merger. Specifically, inconsistencies between the standards, controls, procedures and policies of Independent Bank and those of Grand Bank could adversely affect Independent Bank's ability to maintain relationships with current customers and employees of Grand Bank if and when the merger is completed. Further, as with any merger of banking institutions, business disruptions may occur that may cause Independent Bank to lose customers or may cause customers to withdraw their deposits from Grand Bank prior to the merger's consummation and from Independent Bank thereafter. The realization of the anticipated benefits of the merger may depend in large part on Independent's ability to integrate Grand Bank's operations into Independent Bank's operations, and to address differences in business models and cultures. If Independent is not able to integrate the operations of Grand Bank into Independent Bank's operations successfully and on a timely basis, some or all of the expected benefits of the acquisition may not be realized.

Some of the directors and executive officers of Grand Bank may have interests and arrangements that may have influenced their decisions to support or recommend that you approve the reorganization agreement.

The interests of some of the directors and executive officers of Grand Bank may be different from those of Grand Bank shareholders. The directors and executive officers of Grand Bank are or will be participants in arrangements relating to or that are affected by the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of Grand Bank shareholders. These interests are described in more detail in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Financial Interests of Directors and Officers of Grand Bank in the Merger" beginning on page 73.

Independent may fail to realize the cost savings anticipated from the merger.

Although Independent anticipates that it will realize certain cost savings as to the Grand Bank operations and otherwise from the merger if and when the Grand Bank operations are fully integrated into Independent Bank's operations, it is possible that Independent may not realize all of the cost savings that Independent has estimated it can realize. For example, unanticipated growth in Independent's business may require Independent to continue to operate or maintain some facilities or support functions that are currently expected to be combined or reduced as a result of the merger. Independent's realization of the estimated cost savings also will depend on Independent's ability to combine the operations of Independent Bank and Grand Bank in a manner that permits those cost savings to be realized. If Independent is not able to integrate Grand Bank's operations into Independent Bank's operations successfully, the anticipated cost savings may not be fully realized, if at all, or may take longer to realize than expected.

Grand Bank shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Grand Bank shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Grand Bank and on other matters affecting Grand Bank. The merger will transfer control of Grand Bank to Independent and to the shareholders of Independent. When the merger occurs, each Grand Bank shareholder will become a shareholder of Independent with a percentage ownership of Independent much smaller than such shareholder's percentage ownership of Grand Bank. Because of this, Grand Bank shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Independent than they now have on the management and policies of Grand Bank.

The dissenters' rights appraisal process is uncertain.

Grand Bank shareholders may or may not be entitled to receive more than the amount provided for in the reorganization agreement for their shares of Grand Bank common stock if they elect to exercise their right to dissent from the proposed merger, depending on the appraisal of the fair value of the Grand Bank common stock pursuant to the dissenting shareholder procedures under the TBOC. See "Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement - Dissenters' Rights of Grand Bank Shareholders" on page 79 and Appendix C. For this reason, the amount of cash that you might be entitled to receive should you elect to exercise your right to dissent to the merger may be more or less than the value of the merger consideration to be paid pursuant to the reorganization agreement. In addition, it is a condition in the reorganization agreement that the holders of not more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Grand Bank common stock shall have exercised their statutory dissenters' rights under the TBOC. The number of shares of Grand Bank common stock that will exercise dissenters' rights under the TBOC is not known and therefore there is no assurance of this closing condition being satisfied.

The fairness opinion obtained by Grand Bank from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the fairness opinion.

Hovde Group, Grand Bank's financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger, has delivered to the board of directors of Grand Bank its opinion dated as of July 22, 2015. The opinion of Hovde Group stated that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the merger consideration was fair to the Grand Bank shareholders from a financial point of view. The opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, regulatory and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Hovde Group as of July 22, 2015. Events occurring after the date of the opinion could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing the opinion and its resulting conclusion. Any such changes, or changes in other factors on which the opinion is based, may materially alter or affect the relative values of Independent and Grand Bank.

The shares of Independent common stock to be received by Grand Bank shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights than the shares of Grand Bank common stock and in some cases may be less favorable.

The rights associated with Grand Bank common stock are different from the rights associated with Independent common stock and in some cases may be less favorable. See "Comparison of Rights of Shareholders of Grand Bank and Independent" on page 97 for a more detailed description of the shareholder rights of each of Independent and Grand Bank.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This document constitutes a proxy statement of Grand Bank and is being furnished to all record holders as of September 18, 2015 of Grand Bank common stock in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Grand Bank to be used at the special meeting of shareholders of Grand Bank to be held on October 27, 2015. The purpose of the special meeting is to consider and vote to approve the reorganization agreement, which provides for, among other things, the merger of Grand Bank with and into Independent Bank, with Independent Bank being the surviving bank. This document also constitutes a prospectus relating to offer and sale of the Independent common stock to be issued to holders of Grand Bank common stock upon completion of the merger.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Place and Time of the Special Meeting

The special meeting of Grand Bank shareholders will be held at 1:30 p.m., Central Time, on October 27, 2015, at the main office of Grand Bank, 16660 Dallas Parkway, Suite 1700, Dallas, Texas 75248.

Matters to be Considered

The purpose of the special meeting is to consider and vote on the following:

Proposal One: to approve the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated as of July 23, 2015, by and between Independent and Grand Bank and the related Agreement and Plan of Merger, which is attached to the reorganization agreement as Exhibit A, pursuant to which Grand Bank will merge with and into Independent Bank, all on the terms and subject to conditions contained therein; and Proposal Two: to approve the adjournment of the special meeting to a later date or dates if the board of directors of Grand Bank determines such an adjournment is necessary to permit further solicitation of additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to constitute a quorum or to approve the reorganization agreement.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, shareholder approval of the reorganization agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement. No other business may be conducted at the special meeting.

Recommendation of the Grand Bank Board of Directors

On July 22, 2015, the Grand Bank board of directors unanimously approved the reorganization agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Based on Grand Bank's reasons for the merger described in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the fairness opinion of Hovde Group, the board of directors of Grand Bank believes that the merger is in the best interests of Grand Bank's shareholders.

Accordingly, the Grand Bank board of directors unanimously recommends that Grand Bank shareholders vote as follows:

FOR approval of the reorganization agreement and the merger; and

FOR any proposal to adjourn the special meeting that the Grand Bank board of directors determines is necessary, including to permit further solicitation of additional proxies on the proposal to approve the reorganization agreement.

Table of Contents

See Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Recommendation of Grand Bank's Board and Its Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 46.

Holders of Grand Bank common stock should carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus, including any documents incorporated by reference, and the Appendices in their entirety for more detailed information concerning the merger and the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement.

Grand Bank Record Date; Shareholders Entitled to Vote

The record date for the special meeting is September 18, 2015, or the record date. Only record holders of shares of Grand Bank common stock at 5:00 p.m. Central Time, or the close of business, on the record date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting or any adjournment(s) thereof. At the close of business on the record date, the only outstanding class of securities of Grand Bank with a right to vote on the proposals was Grand Bank common stock, with 1,726,810 shares of Grand Bank common stock issued and outstanding. Each share of Grand Bank common stock outstanding on the record date is entitled to one vote on each proposal. Holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Grand Bank common stock must vote in favor of the reorganization agreement in order to permit consummation of the merger.

Voting by Grand Bank's Directors and Executive Officers Subject to the Voting Agreement

All of the directors and executive officers of Grand Bank have entered into an agreement to vote the shares of Grand Bank common stock they control in favor of approval of the reorganization agreement and the merger and in the manner most favorable to the consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement; provided, however, that the Grand Bank shareholders who entered into the voting agreement would be permitted to vote to accept a superior proposal, if any, under the terms of the reorganization agreement. As of the record date, 509,223 shares of Grand Bank common stock, or approximately 29% of the outstanding shares of such common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, are bound by the voting agreement.

Quorum and Adjournment

No business may be transacted at the special meeting unless a quorum is present. Shareholders who hold shares representing at least a majority of each class of the shares entitled to vote at the special meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum, but the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Grand Bank common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must be present, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting in order for the necessary vote to be able to take action on the merger proposal. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding Grand Bank common stock is required to approve the reorganization agreement. As a result, if shares representing at two-thirds of the shares of Grand Bank common stock outstanding on the close of business on the record date are not present at the special meeting, the presence of a quorum will still not permit the merger to be approved at the special meeting.

If a quorum is not present, or if fewer shares than are required are voted in favor of the proposal to approve the reorganization agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement, then the special meeting may be adjourned to allow for the solicitation of additional proxies, if the approval of a majority of the votes cast at the special meeting on such proposal is obtained.

No notice of an adjourned special meeting need be given unless after the adjournment, a new record date is fixed for the adjourned special meeting, in which case a notice of the adjourned special meeting shall be given to each Grand Bank shareholder of record entitled to vote at the special meeting. At any adjourned special meeting, all proxies will be voted in the same manner as they would have been voted at the original convening of the special meeting, except for any proxies that have been effectively revoked or withdrawn prior to the adjourned special meeting.

Table of Contents

All shares of Grand Bank common stock represented at the special meeting, including shares that are represented but that vote to abstain, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum.

Required Vote

The required votes to approve the Grand Bank proposals are as follows:

Proposal One: approving the reorganization agreement and the merger requires the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of Grand Bank common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Failures to vote and abstentions will have the same effect as votes against this proposal.

Proposal Two: approving the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to allow for the solicitation of additional proxies requires the approval of a majority of the votes cast by holders of Grand Bank common stock at the special meeting, regardless of whether there is a quorum. Failures to vote and abstentions will have no effect on the vote for the proposal.

Voting of Proxies by Holders of Record

If you were a record holder of Grand Bank common stock at the close of business on the record date, a proxy card is enclosed for your use. Grand Bank requests that you vote your shares as promptly as possible by submitting your Grand Bank proxy card by mail using the enclosed return envelope. When the accompanying proxy card is returned properly executed, the shares of Grand Bank common stock represented by it will be voted at the special meeting or any adjournment(s) thereof in accordance with the instructions contained in the proxy card.

If a proxy card is returned without an indication as to how the shares of Grand Bank common stock represented by it are to be voted with regard to a particular proposal, the shares of Grand Bank common stock represented by the proxy will be voted in accordance with the recommendation of the Grand Bank board of directors and, therefore, such shares will be voted:

FOR Proposal One approving the reorganization agreement and the merger; and

FOR Proposal Two approving the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary to permit solicitation of additional proxies.

At the date hereof, the Grand Bank board of directors has no knowledge of any business that will be presented for consideration at the special meeting and that would be required to be set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus or the related proxy card other than the matters set forth in Grand Bank's Notice of Special Meeting of Shareholders.

No other matter can be brought up or voted upon at the special meeting.

Your vote is important. Accordingly, if you were a record holder of Grand Bank common stock on the record date of the special meeting, please sign and return the enclosed proxy card whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting in person.

Attending the Meeting; Voting in Person

Only record holders of Grand Bank common stock on the record date, their duly appointed proxies, and invited guests may attend the special meeting. All attendees must present government-issued photo identification (such as a driver's license or passport) for admittance. The additional items, if any, that attendees must bring to gain admittance to the special meeting depend on whether they are shareholders of record or proxy holders. A Grand Bank shareholder who holds shares of Grand Bank common stock directly registered in such shareholder's name who desires to attend the special meeting in person should bring government-issued photo identification.

Table of Contents

A person who holds a validly executed proxy entitling such person to vote on behalf of a record owner of Grand Bank common stock who desires to attend the special meeting in person must bring the validly executed proxy naming such person as the proxy holder, signed by the Grand Bank shareholder of record, and proof of the signing shareholder's record ownership as of the record date.

No cameras, recording equipment or other electronic devices will be allowed in the meeting room. Failure to provide the requested documents at the door or failure to comply with the procedures for the special meeting may prevent Grand Bank shareholders from being admitted to the special meeting.

Revocation of Proxies

A Grand Bank shareholder entitled to vote at the special meeting may revoke a proxy at any time before such time that the proxy card for any such holders of Grand Bank common stock must be received at the special meeting by taking any of the following three actions:

delivering written notice of revocation to Lisa Murray, Corporate Secretary, Grand Bank, 16660 Dallas Parkway, Suite 1700, Dallas, Texas 75248; delivering a proxy card bearing a later date than the proxy that such shareholder desires to revoke; or attending the special meeting and voting in person.

Merely attending the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy; a Grand Bank shareholder must cast a subsequent vote at the special meeting using forms provided for that purpose. The last valid vote that we receive before or at the special meeting is the vote that will be counted.

Tabulation of Votes

Grand Bank has appointed Lisa Murray to serve as the Inspector of Election for the special meeting. The Inspector of Election will independently tabulate affirmative votes, negative votes and abstentions.

Solicitation of Proxies

The Grand Bank board of directors is soliciting proxies for the special meeting from holders of Grand Bank common stock entitled to vote at such special meeting. In accordance with the reorganization agreement, Grand Bank will pay its own cost of soliciting proxies from its shareholders, including the cost of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, proxies may be solicited by Grand Bank's officers, directors and regular employees, without additional remuneration, by personal interview, telephone or other means of communication.

Abstentions are included in determining whether a quorum exists at the special meeting, but such shares will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the reorganization agreement. Abstentions will have no effect on the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary.

Adjournments

Any adjournment of the special meeting may be made from time to time if the approval of the holders of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares of Grand Bank common stock at the special meeting is obtained, whether or not a quorum exists, without further notice other than by an announcement made at the special meeting (unless a new record date is fixed). If a quorum is not present at the special meeting, or if a quorum is present at the special meeting but there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the proposals, then Grand Bank shareholders may be asked to vote on a proposal to adjourn the special meeting so as to permit solicitation of additional proxies.

PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE REORGANIZATION AGREEMENT

(Proposal One)

The following information describes the material aspects of the merger. A copy of the reorganization agreement is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to read the reorganization agreement in its entirety.

Terms of the Merger

The reorganization agreement provides for the acquisition of Grand Bank by Independent through a merger transaction. Specifically, the reorganization agreement provides for the merger of Grand Bank with and into Independent Bank, with Independent Bank being the surviving bank. If the shareholders of Grand Bank approve the reorganization agreement at the special meeting, and if the required regulatory approvals are obtained and the other conditions to the parties' obligations to effect the merger are satisfied or are waived by the party entitled to do so, the parties anticipate that the merger will be completed in the fourth quarter of 2015, although delays could occur.

Independent is currently the sole shareholder of Independent Bank, a Texas state banking association, and Independent Bank will remain a wholly owned subsidiary of Independent.

Aggregate Merger Consideration. Under the terms of the reorganization agreement, if the reorganization agreement is approved and the merger is completed, all outstanding shares of Grand Bank common stock will be converted into an aggregate of $24.1 million in cash and 1,279,532 shares of Independent common stock, subject in each case to adjustment under certain circumstances as set forth in the reorganization agreement and as described in this proxy statement/prospectus. Based upon the closing price of Independent common stock on September 22, 2015, of $39.49, and assuming that Grand Bank's tangible book value is at least $40.0 million on the calculation date, the aggregate amount of the total merger consideration to be paid by Independent is valued at $72.8 million.

Per Share Merger Consideration. Based upon 1,824,304 shares anticipated to be outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, which includes 1,726,810 shares outstanding on September 18, 2015 and 97,494 shares to be issued upon the exercise of options to purchase shares of Grand Bank common stock held by Grand Bank option holders who have irrevocably agreed to exercise such options prior to the effective time of the merger, and based upon the payment of a total of approximately $1.8 million to Grand Bank option holders who have irrevocably elected to receive a net cash payment for the surrender and cancellation of their options, which amount was calculated using the closing price of Independent common stock on September 22, 2015 of $39.49, holders of Grand Bank common stock will receive 0.7014 of a share of Independent common stock and $12.22 in cash, subject in each case to adjustment under certain circumstances as set forth in the reorganization agreement and as described in this proxy statement/prospectus, for each share of Grand Bank common stock they own at the effective time of the merger.

Adjustment to Cash Consideration. The amount of aggregate cash consideration paid by Independent would be reduced if Grand Bank's tangible book value, as calculated pursuant to the reorganization agreement, is less than $40.0 million, but more than $39.0 million on the calculation date. Under those circumstances, the aggregate cash consideration would be reduced by the difference between $40.0 million and the amount of Grand Bank's tangible book value on that date. For example, if tangible book value was $39.1 million on the calculation date, there would be a reduction in the aggregate cash merger consideration of $900,000, and the aggregate cash merger consideration distributed among the holders of Grand Bank common stock would be $23.2 million rather than $24.1 million. In the event of a reduction in the aggregate cash consideration, the per share cash consideration would be reduced by an amount equal to the quotient of (i) the amount of the reduction in aggregate cash consideration, divided by

(ii) 1,824,304, the number of shares of Grand Bank common stock outstanding on the closing date.

Table of Contents

As noted above, pursuant to the terms of the reorganization agreement, the amount of aggregate cash consideration paid by Independent to the shareholders of Grand Bank will also be reduced by the aggregate amount of cash paid by Independent to the holders of options to purchase shares of Grand Bank common stock who have irrevocably agreed to surrender their options in exchange for a cash payment equal to the difference between the aggregate value of the shares subject to their options (as determined pursuant to the reorganization agreement) and the aggregate exercise price for such options. The reorganization agreement provides that the value of the shares subject to the options to be surrendered for a cash payment will be based upon the value of the per share stock consideration. This value will be calculated using the average of the daily volume weighted average sale price per share of Independent common stock on The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. Global Select Market System for the ten consecutive trading days ending on and including the third trading day preceding the closing date reported by Bloomberg, or the average sales price. The holders of options to purchase an aggregate of 127,156 shares of Grand Bank common stock have elected to receive such cash payment. Based upon this election and the closing price of Independent common stock on September 22, 2015 of $39.49, Independent would pay an aggregate of approximately $1.8 million in cash to such option holders. In that event, the aggregate amount of cash consideration to be paid by Independent to the Grand Bank shareholders would be reduced by approximately $1.8 million. The $12.22 per share cash consideration to be paid to Grand Bank shareholders set forth above reflects this adjustment. The average sales price will fluctuate prior to the closing date and the option payment amount will not be determined until the third trading day prior to the closing date. For this reason, the amount of adjustment to the cash portion of the merger consideration resulting from the option payment may be more or less than the amount set forth above.

Adjustment to Stock Consideration. The amount of stock consideration paid by Independent will be adjusted if the average sales price of Independent common stock is 10% more or 10% less than $43.7660.

If the average sales price is less than 90% of $43.7660, or $39.3894, the per share stock consideration would be adjusted to a fraction of a share of Independent common stock (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) equal to the quotient of (x) $27.6270; divided by (y) the average sales price. For example, if the average sale price was $39.00, then per share stock consideration would increase from 0.7014 to 0.7084.

If the average sales price is more than 110% of $43.7660, or $48.1426, the per share stock consideration would be adjusted to a fraction of a share of Independent common stock (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) equal to the quotient of (x) $33.7663; divided by (y) the average sales price. For example, if the average sale price was $48.25, then per share stock consideration would decrease from 0.7014 to 0.6998.

Therefore, the maximum aggregate value of Independent common stock to be issued to Grand Bank shareholders is $61.6 million and the minimum aggregate value of Independent common stock to be issued to Grand Bank shareholders is $50.4 million. As of September 22, 2015, the closing sales price of Independent common stock was $39.49 per share.

Other Financial Aspects. If Grand Bank's tangible book value is greater than $40.0 million on the calculation date, then on the day prior to the closing date, Grand Bank may distribute to its shareholders an amount equal to the difference between the actual amount of tangible book value on the calculation date minus $40.0 million.

Pursuant to the terms of the reorganization agreement, the tangible book value of Grand Bank will be determined from Grand Bank's financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP, consistently applied, adjusted as provided below. Any unrealized gains or losses in investment securities are excluded from the calculation of tangible book value.

Grand Bank's tangible book value as calculated pursuant to the reorganization agreement was approximately $41.5 million as of June 30, 2015. Tangible book value will increase or decrease by the amount of net income or net loss, respectively, of Grand Bank through the calculation date. Management of Grand Bank estimates that net income will be approximately $1.7 million from July 1, 2015, through October 31, 2015.

Table of Contents

Tangible book value will also increase by the amount of additional paid in capital resulting from the exercise of stock options. Management of Grand Bank estimates that additional paid in capital resulting from the exercise of stock options will be approximately $2.4 million. The calculation of tangible book value will include a reduction for the following costs and expenses of Grand Bank, currently estimated to be, in the aggregate, approximately $5.6 million:

any and all transaction-related costs contemplated or required by the reorganization agreement, which would include any:

professional fees, including investment banking fees, legal fees and accounting fees; director, officer or employee bonuses or payments and any change in control payments or other payments due under employment arrangements or anticipated stay or retention bonuses paid or to be paid to Grand Bank employees; and payments made by Grand Bank in connection with the amendment of the executive medical agreements;

any costs or fees (including forfeited prepaid expenses) associated with the termination and deconversion of Grand Bank's material contracts, including its data processing and other IT contracts;

the printing and mailing costs related to sending this joint proxy statement/prospectus to Grand Bank's shareholders;

the premium for director and officer insurance tail coverage; and all costs and expenses resulting from the repayment of outstanding principal and interest due and owing on all Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas advances owed by Grand Bank, including prepayment fees and penalties.

The table set forth below shows the estimate for the amounts that would affect the calculation of Grand Bank's tangible book value, assuming the closing of the merger on October 31, 2015:

| | Estimate |
|--|-----------------|
| Tangible shareholders' equity as of June 30, 2015 (excludes unrealized gains/losses on securities) | $ 41,488,692 |
| Plus: Projected net income through October 31, 2015 | 1,677,649 |
| Plus: Additional paid in capital from stock option exercise | 2,415,650 |
| Projected tangible shareholders' equity | $ 45,581,991 |

|---|------------------|
| Estimated deductions to projected tangible shareholders' equity: | |
| Professional fees (investment banking, legal and accounting fees) | $ 226,500 |
| Retention bonuses | 3,194,992 |
| Payments to modify executive medical agreements adopted in 2003 (net of amount previously accrued) | 995,303 |
| Costs associated with the termination and deconversion of material contracts and forfeited prepaid expenses | 415,776 |
| Printing and mailing costs | 5,000 |
| Premium for director and officer insurance tail coverage | 53,058 |
| Repayment of FHLB advances | 691,362 |
| Estimated total deductions | 5,581,991 |
| Estimated tangible book value as of October 31, 2015 | $ 40,000,000 |

These amounts are only estimates and are based upon several assumptions, many of which are beyond the control of Grand Bank. Accordingly, the actual amount of Grand Bank's tangible book value may vary from these estimated amounts.

Grand Bank will provide Independent with a preliminary calculation of tangible book value at least three business days before the closing date. If Independent disagrees with such calculation of tangible book value, Grand Bank and Independent will meet to resolve any such disagreement. If the parties cannot resolve any such disagreement, then an independent accounting firm mutually agreed to by Grand Bank and Independent will resolve any such disagreement, which resolution will be final and binding upon both parties.

Independent's obligation to consummate the merger is conditioned upon Grand Bank having a tangible book value of at least $39.0 million on the closing date. Should Grand Bank's tangible book value be less than $39.0 million on the closing date, then Independent may, in its sole discretion refuse to close the transactions and consummate the merger, or Independent may elect to proceed with the transactions and consummate the merger. If Grand Bank's tangible book value is below $39.0 million on the closing date, Independent's board of directors intends to exercise its independent judgment in determining whether to complete the merger or to terminate the reorganization agreement. In making this determination, the Independent board of directors will exercise its fiduciary duties, including fulfilling its duty to review the reasons why Grand Bank's tangible book value was lower than $39.0 million and whether that lower valuation negatively impacts the benefits that Independent hoped to achieve as a result of the merger, and the Independent board of directors will consult with its legal and financial advisors in evaluating whether it would be in the best interests of the Independent shareholders to complete the merger in light of all the relevant facts and circumstances surrounding the lower tangible book value of Grand Bank.

If the Grand Bank tangible book value is materially less than $39.0 million and if Independent desires to waive the condition and proceed with the transaction, Independent Bank and Grand Bank anticipate that they would renegotiate the cash portion of the merger consideration and amend the reorganization agreement. In that event, Grand Bank will resolicit proxies from its shareholders. Please refer to the Risk Factor, The tangible book value of Grand Bank at closing could be an amount that results in the reduction of the amount of cash consideration that Grand Bank shareholders receive for their shares of Grand Bank common stock or in Independent's election to terminate the merger on page 29.

If Grand Bank achieves the estimates set forth above and the tangible book value of Grand Bank on the closing date is at least $40.0 million, there would be no downward adjustment.

Treatment of Shares of Grand Bank Common Stock

As a result of the merger, holders of Grand Bank common stock will be entitled to receive whole shares of Independent common stock and cash, with cash paid in lieu of a fractional share, and will no longer be owners of Grand Bank common stock. As a result of the merger, certificates of Grand Bank common stock will represent only the right to receive the merger consideration pursuant to the reorganization agreement. Grand Bank will cease to exist following the completion of the merger.

Fractional shares of Independent common stock will be paid in cash, without interest. The market price of Independent common stock will fluctuate from the date of this proxy statement/prospectus through the third trading date prior to the effective date of the merger, which is the date on which the per share stock consideration is determined for the merger. Because of the possibility of the tangible book value adjustment to the amount of the per share cash consideration and the fluctuation in the market price of Independent common stock that will comprise the per share stock consideration, you will not know the exact amount of cash or the exact number of shares of Independent common stock you will receive in connection with the merger when you vote on the reorganization agreement. See Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Terms of the Merger beginning on page 40.

Background of the Merger

From time to time in recent years, the board of directors and management of Grand Bank have received inquiries about the possibility of a sale of Grand Bank or Grand Bank entering into some form of strategic alliance with another bank. Those inquiries triggered some informal discussions at Grand Bank about the advisability, feasibility and benefits of continuing the operation of Grand Bank as an independent bank compared to the advisability, feasibility and benefits of the alternatives of a sale or strategic alliance with another bank.

In early 2014, management of Grand Bank received an unsolicited specific oral proposal from Bank A to purchase Grand Bank. That oral proposal was followed up with a written proposal in February 2014 for Bank A to acquire Grand Bank for a cash price of $71 million contingent upon Grand Bank having a tangible common equity of $37 million at the time the transaction would be consummated.

The specific proposal prompted management of Grand Bank to seek independent third party professional advice regarding the value of Grand Bank, available opportunities for sale of Grand Bank or partnering with another bank, and the benefits of Grand Bank continuing in its then current status as a stand-alone bank. Accordingly, the Grand Bank board of directors engaged the Hovde Group to advise and assist the board of directors and Grand Bank. Hovde Group came to the attention of Grand Bank when a representative of Hovde Group advised Grand Bank management that Bank A was seeking an acquisition in the Dallas area. Hovde Group is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions relating to banks. Hovde Group is continually engaged in the valuation of banks and their securities in connection with, among other things, mergers and acquisitions. Hovde Group was engaged by Grand Bank on March 4, 2014.

Hovde Group representatives both advised Grand Bank about alternatives available to it and engaged in conversation with representatives of Bank A about its proposal. Other potential alternative oral proposals were conveyed to both the Hovde Group representatives and to Grand Bank board members regarding the purchase of or merger with Grand Bank, but no other written proposals were received at that time.

On February 27, 2014, Grand Bank received an unsolicited written offer by Bank B to purchase all of the capital stock of Grand Bank for a purchase price of $47 million. After discussion with the board of directors, management advised Bank B that the price was not acceptable, and no additional proposal was ever received from Bank B.

In early March 2014, Bank A orally advised Hovde Group that it was willing to modify its offer to provide for a purchase price of $73 million conditioned upon Grand Bank having a minimum capital at closing of $37.5 million. Subsequently, by letter dated March 27, 2014, Bank A modified its proposal to provide for acquisition of all of the capital stock of Grand Bank for a cash price of $75 million, provided that Grand Bank had a tangible common equity of $38 million at the time the transaction was completed. The proposed purchase price would be reduced dollar for dollar for any amount of shortfall in the minimum tangible common equity of Grand Bank.

On March 26, 2014, Grand Bank received an unsolicited written letter proposal from Bank C to acquire all of the capital stock of Grand Bank for an aggregate consideration of an amount equal to 1.6 times Grand Bank's book value. After discussion, the Grand Bank board of directors concluded that the proposal was not acceptable, and that decision was conveyed to Bank C. Then on April 2, 2014, Grand Bank received an additional unsolicited written letter proposal from Bank C to acquire all of the capital stock of Grand Bank for an aggregate consideration of an amount equal to 1.90 times Grand Bank's total equity capital at the time the transaction would be completed. Bank C stated that it was open to discussion of whether the purchase price would be in cash or shares of capital stock of Bank C or some combination thereof. The Grand Bank board of directors reviewed the proposal by Bank C and concluded that it was not acceptable, and management of Grand Bank advised representatives of Bank C of that conclusion.

After a detailed review and analysis by Hovde Group and extensive discussion by the Grand Bank directors, the Grand Bank board of directors agreed to enter into the nonbinding letter of intent with Bank A for the cash purchase price of $75 million conditioned upon Grand Bank having a tangible common equity of $38 million. The letter of intent with Bank A was executed by management of Grand Bank on March 27, 2014.

Counsel for Bank A prepared a definitive agreement proposed to be entered into between Bank A and Grand Bank setting forth the details of the proposed transaction. That definitive agreement was reviewed by counsel for Grand Bank who made repeated contacts with counsel for Bank A to negotiate multiple changes in provisions of the definitive agreement.

While Grand Bank was negotiating with Bank A for a definitive agreement, Bank A received an unsolicited letter of intent from another bank offering to purchase Bank A. That event made pursuit of any agreement between Bank A and Grand Bank impractical. Therefore, in June 2014, Bank A and Grand Bank mutually agreed to terminate any further discussions regarding transaction between the two banks.

With the termination of discussion and negotiation with Bank A, Grand Bank effectively concluded its formal relationship with Hovde Group. But Hovde Group informally continued to advise Grand Bank and present potential proposals to Grand Bank.

In July 2014, Hovde Group introduced representatives of Bank D to certain individuals in the management of Grand Bank. The representatives of Bank D expressed an interest in a possible future transaction with Grand Bank. No specific terms were proposed at that time.

The representatives of Bank D renewed their contact with certain individuals in the management of Grand Bank in May 2015 and pursued multiple discussions by telephone and by meetings during June 2015. Bank D ultimately submitted a letter of intent proposing to acquire Grand Bank for $74.43 million.

In October 2014, management of Grand Bank was contacted by Bank E about a potential transaction. An initial meeting with representatives of Bank E was held on October 16, 2014, and subsequent meetings were held on April 30, 2015, and June 11, 2015. By letter dated June 26, 2015, Bank E proposed to acquire Grand Bank for a price range of 150% to 175% of Grand Bank's tangible book value with the final multiple to be determined after Bank E completed due diligence. Management of Grand Bank advised Bank E that the proposal was not acceptable, and all discussions ended with Bank E.

Independent first made contact with management of Grand Bank in May 2015, and an initial meeting between the principals of the two parties was held on June 7, 2015. Following the initial discussions, Independent submitted a nonbinding expression of interest, dated June 8, 2015, to acquire all of the capital stock of Grand Bank through a merger of Grand Bank with its wholly owned subsidiary Independent Bank for a payment to Grand Bank shareholders of total consideration of $70 million.

After Grand Bank management conducted informal discussions with the Grand Bank board of directors, Independent was advised that its proposal was not acceptable. Discussions continued throughout the month of June. Independent eventually asked what price might be acceptable to the Grand Bank board of directors. The Grand Bank board of directors met on June 29, 2015, and discussed at length (a) the value of Grand Bank, (b) what is in the best interest of Grand Bank's shareholders, and (c) alternatives available to Grand Bank. The board of directors of Grand Bank concluded that any proposal to acquire all of the capital stock of Grand Bank would only be acceptable if the proposal was for a minimum of $80 million. That fact was conveyed both to Bank D and Independent. Bank D increased its bid to $80 million and when given the opportunity to change its bid in any way, declined to change its bid.

On July 3, 2015, Independent submitted a revised nonbinding expression of interest for the current proposal to acquire all of the capital stock of Grand Bank through a merger of Grand Bank with Independent Bank with the shareholders of Grand Bank receiving an aggregate consideration of $80.1 million, provided that Grand Bank had a tangible equity at closing of at least $40.0 million. The expression of interest proposed that $24.1 million (approximately 30%) of the aggregate purchase price would be paid in cash and $56 million (approximately 70%) would be paid in registered shares of Independent common stock. After review with the Grand Bank board of directors, Grand Bank management advised Independent that the proposal was acceptable. Grand Bank signed a binding standstill agreement and agreed to negotiate exclusively with Independent on a definitive agreement to document and implement the transaction.

Grand Bank directors and management deemed it advisable to obtain independent third party evaluation of the proposal including the provisions to be negotiated within the definitive agreement. So Hovde Group was again engaged by Grand Bank to advise and assist in the negotiation of the provisions of the definitive agreement and to provide a fairness opinion based on its review of the transaction in the context of bank values in the marketplace and other similar transactions.

Thereafter, Grand Bank legal counsel, Mr. Larry Temple, discussed and negotiated provisions of the reorganization agreement with counsel for Independent. At a meeting of the board of directors of Grand Bank held on July 22, 2015, a thorough review of the proposed agreement and the ancillary legal documents related to it was provided by Grand Bank's counsel. Representatives of Hovde Group discussed the financial aspects of the transaction and stated that the overall proposal was fair to the shareholders of Grand Bank from a financial standpoint. Hovde Group's oral opinion was subsequently confirmed by the delivery of a written opinion dated July 22, 2015 to the Grand Bank board of directors. On July 23, 2015, Grand Bank executed the proposed reorganization agreement, and Independent announced the transaction that day.

Recommendation of Grand Bank's Board and Its Reasons for the Merger

Grand Bank's board of directors has unanimously approved the reorganization agreement and unanimously recommends that the Grand Bank shareholders vote FOR approval of the reorganization agreement.

The terms of the reorganization agreement, including the consideration to be paid to Grand Bank shareholders, were the result of arm's length negotiations between representatives of Grand Bank and representatives of Independent. Grand Bank's board of directors has determined that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Grand Bank's shareholders. In approving the reorganization agreement, Grand Bank's board of directors consulted with (a) Hovde Group with respect to financial aspects and fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to the Grand Bank shareholders and (b) its outside legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the reorganization agreement. In arriving at its determination, Grand Bank's board also considered a number of factors, including:

Grand Bank's board of directors' familiarity with and review of information concerning the business, results of operations, financial condition, competitive position and future prospects of Grand Bank;

Grand Bank's board of directors' knowledge and analysis of the current and prospective industry and economic conditions facing the financial services generally, including continued consolidation in the industry, increasing competition, and the increasing importance of operational scale and financial resources in maintaining efficiency, remaining competitive and capitalizing on technological developments;

The increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions and the associated costs of regulatory compliance;

The terms of the reorganization agreement;

The opinion provided to the Grand Bank board of directors by Hovde Group that the consideration to be received in the transaction is fair to the shareholders of Grand Bank from a financial point of view;

The future prospects of Grand Bank compared with the future prospects of Independent considering that by receiving Independent common stock in the transaction, Grand Bank shareholders would be investing in a larger, more diversified banking organization operating in a broader geographic area;

The shareholders of Grand Bank would receive part of the merger consideration in shares of Independent common stock, which is publicly traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, thereby representing a more liquid and flexible investment than does Grand Bank common stock;

The ability of Independent to pay the cash portion of the aggregate merger consideration;

That the number of shares to be issued to Grand Bank shareholders will be determined based on the daily volume weighted average sale price of Independent's common stock on the NASDAQ Global

Select Market for the ten (10) consecutive trading days ending on and including the third trading day preceding the closing date;

The results that Grand Bank could expect to obtain if it continued to operate independently, and the likely benefit to shareholders of that course of action, as compared with the value of the merger consideration offered by Independent;

The noneconomic terms of the transaction, including the impact on existing customers and employees;

That a merger with a large bank could provide the opportunity to realize the economies of scale, increased efficiencies of operations, and enhance the development of new products and services that would benefit customers;

The ability of Independent as an experienced acquirer of financial institutions to integrate the operations of Grand Bank; and

The likelihood that the transaction would receive approval from the appropriate regulatory authorities in a timely manner.

The reasons set out above for the merger are not intended to be exhaustive but do include all material factors considered by Grand Bank's board of directors in approving the reorganization agreement and the merger. In reaching its determination, the Grand Bank board of directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to different factors, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. Based on the reasons stated, the Grand Bank board believed that the merger was in the best interest of Grand Bank's shareholders, and therefore the board of directors of Grand Bank unanimously approved the reorganization agreement and the merger. In addition, all members of the Grand Bank board of directors have entered into voting agreements requiring them to vote the shares of Grand Bank common stock over which they have voting authority in favor of the reorganization agreement.

GRAND BANK'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT HOLDERS OF GRAND BANK COMMON STOCK VOTE FOR THE REORGANIZATION AGREEMENT.

Fairness Opinion of Grand Bank's Financial Advisor

The fairness opinion of Grand Bank's financial advisor, Hovde Group, is described below. The description contains projections, estimates and other forward-looking statements about the future earnings or other measures of the future performance of Grand Bank. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections. You should not rely on any of these statements as having been made or adopted by Grand Bank or Independent. You should review the copy of the Fairness Opinion, which is attached as Appendix B.

Hovde Group has acted as Grand Bank's financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger. Hovde Group is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with Grand Bank and its operations. As part of its investment banking business, Hovde Group is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with, among other things, mergers and acquisitions.

Hovde Group reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger with Grand Bank's board of directors and, on July 22, 2015, rendered a written opinion to Grand Bank's board of directors that the aggregate merger consideration to be paid in connection with the merger was fair to the shareholders of Grand Bank from a financial point of view.

The full text of Hovde Group's written opinion is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix B and is incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Hovde Group. The summary of the opinion of Hovde Group set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

Hovde Group's opinion is directed to Grand Bank's board of directors and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the aggregate merger consideration to Grand Bank's shareholders. It does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any of the shareholders as to how such shareholder should vote at the special meeting on the merger or any related matter.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Hovde Group reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of Grand Bank and Independent and material prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

reviewed a draft of the reorganization agreement, as provided to Hovde Group by Grand Bank; reviewed certain unaudited financial statements of Grand Bank and Independent for the six month period ended June 30, 2015;

reviewed certain historical annual reports of each of Grand Bank and Independent, including audited annual reports for Grand Bank and Independent for the year ended December 31, 2014;

reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning each of Grand Bank and Independent;

reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Grand Bank, including, without limitation, internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by management of Grand Bank, and held discussions with senior management of Grand Bank and Independent regarding recent developments and regulatory matters;

analyzed financial projections prepared by the certain members of senior management of Grand Bank;

reviewed the terms of recent merger, acquisition and control investment transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving financial institutions and financial institution holding companies that Hovde Group considered relevant;

assessed the general economic, market and financial conditions; analyzed the pro forma impact of the merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios;

reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes of Independent's common stock; and reviewed and analyzed certain publicly available financial and stock market data relating to selected public companies that Hovde Group deemed relevant to its analysis.

Additionally, Hovde Group held discussions with members of senior management of Grand Bank and Independent for purposes of reviewing the business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects of Grand Bank and Independent, as well as the history and past and current operations of Grand Bank and Independent, and Grand Bank's historical financial performance, outlook and future prospects. In addition, Hovde Group held discussions with senior management of Grand Bank and Independent regarding recent business developments and regulatory matters. Hovde Group also discussed with management of Grand Bank and Independent their assessment of the rationale for the merger. Hovde Group also performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as Hovde Group deemed appropriate and took into account its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the banking and financial services industry and its general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering its opinion, Hovde Group assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to it by Grand Bank, and in the discussions it had with the management of Grand Bank. Hovde Group relied upon the reasonableness and achievability of the financial forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therein) provided to Hovde Group by Grand Bank and assumed that the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the projections regarding under-performing and nonperforming assets and net charge-offs were reasonably prepared by Grand Bank on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates by Grand Bank, and that such forecasts will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. Hovde Group did not assume any responsibility to verify such information or assumptions independently.

Hovde Group is not an expert in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for loan losses with respect thereto. Hovde Group assumed that such allowances for Grand Bank and Independent are, in the aggregate, adequate to cover such losses, and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. Hovde Group was not requested to make, and did not conduct, an independent evaluation, physical inspection or appraisal of the assets, properties, facilities or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Grand Bank or Independent, the collateral securing any such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, and Hovde Group was not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals, nor did Hovde Group review any loan or credit files of Grand Bank or Independent.

Hovde Group assumed that the merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the reorganization agreement, without any waiver of material terms or conditions by Grand Bank or any other party to the reorganization agreement and that the final reorganization agreement will not differ materially from the draft Hovde Group reviewed. Hovde Group assumed that the merger is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to Grand Bank, Independent and their respective affiliates. Hovde Group further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and government approvals, no restriction will be imposed on Grand Bank or Independent that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the merger. Hovde Group also assumed that no changes in applicable law or regulation will occur that will cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of the institutions after the merger.

In performing its analyses, Hovde Group made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Hovde Group, Grand Bank and Independent. Hovde Group's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market, and other conditions and circumstances as they existed on, and on the information made available to Hovde Group as of, the date of its opinion. Hovde Group has no obligation to update or reaffirm its opinion at any time. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Hovde Group are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities may be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at any time in the future. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. Hovde Group's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which Grand Bank might engage. In addition, Hovde Group's fairness opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by Grand Bank's board of directors in making its determination to approve the reorganization agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as solely determinative of the decision of Grand Bank's board of directors or Grand Bank's management with respect to the fairness of the aggregate merger consideration.

The following is a summary of the material analyses prepared by Hovde Group and presented to Grand Bank's board of directors on July 22, 2015 in connection with the fairness opinion. This summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the fairness opinion or the presentation prepared by Hovde Group, but it summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde Group did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include the information presented in tabular format. The analyses and the summary of the analyses must be considered as a whole and selecting portions of the analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses and opinion of Hovde Group. The tables alone are not a complete description of the financial analyses.

All net income information for Grand Bank and other Subchapter S banks incorporated in these analyses are represented on an after-tax basis utilizing an approximate 34% tax rate after taking into consideration any tax-free income, to the extent tax-free income information was readily available. For Grand Bank, all tangible equity calculations are based upon the minimum tangible equity required of Grand Bank at closing of $40.0 million.

Throughout the following analyses, Hovde Group references an estimated transaction value of $80.1 million. This is based upon the cash consideration of $24.1 million plus an estimated stock consideration value of $56.0 million of Independent common stock.

the multiple of the purchase consideration to the acquired company's tangible common (TC) book value, as adjusted (the Price-to-TC Book Value Multiple);

No company or transaction used as comparison in the above transaction analyses is identical to Grand Bank or Independent, and no transaction was consummated on terms identical to the terms of the reorganization agreement. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not strictly mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Taking into account various factors including, but not limited to, Grand Bank's recent performance, the current banking environment and the local economy in which Grand Bank operates, Hovde Group determined earnings estimates for a forward looking five-year period with the assistance of information and guidance provided by the management of Grand Bank. These estimates were based on asset growth of 6% annually through 2020. The after-tax return on average assets ranged between 0.5% and 1.0% per year. It was assumed that distributions of 40% of pre-tax earnings would be paid each year, the estimated tax obligation would be approximately 34% of pretax earnings and the remainder would serve as discretionary cash flow to shareholders. A range of discount rates between 12% and 15% were employed in determining the present value of the cash flows plus the terminal value. Hovde Group utilized three different discounted cash flow methodologies to arrive at implied values for Grand Bank.

For the first discounted cash flow analysis (DCF Perpetuity), an aggregate value to Grand Bank shareholders was calculated based on the present value of future free cash flows after tax. Hovde Group utilized a range of terminal values to capitalized Grand Bank's after-tax free cash flow at the end of 2020 based on Grand Bank's after-tax free cash flow increasing perpetually thereafter at an annual rate of 3.0% to 5.0%. Present values were calculated based the after-tax free cash flows plus the terminal value and the range of discount rates. The resulting values of the DCF Perpetuity ranged between $48.3 million and $80.0 million with a midpoint of $60.0 million.

In the second discounted cash flow analysis (DCF PE Multiple), the same earnings estimates were used; however, in arriving at the terminal value of Grand Bank's earnings at the end of 2020, Hovde Group applied the median price-to-earnings multiple of 17.7x from precedent transactions in the Precedent Transaction Analysis (Texas Group). Present values were calculated based the free cash flows plus the terminal value and the range of discount rates. The resulting values of the DCF PE Multiple ranged between $60.2 million and $86.7 million with a midpoint of $72.7 million.

In the third and final discounted cash flow analysis (DCF PTBV Multiple), the same earnings estimates were used as in the DCF PE Multiple analysis; however, in arriving at the terminal value at the end of 2020, Hovde Group applied the median price-to-tangible book value multiple of 1.88x from precedent transactions in the Precedent Transaction Analysis (Texas Group). Present values were calculated based the free cash flows plus the terminal value and the range of discount rates. The resulting values of the DCF PTBV Multiple ranged between $56.1 million and $79.7 million with a midpoint of $67.2 million.

These analyses and their underlying assumptions yielded a range of values for Grand Bank, and the median values is outlined in the table below:

| Implied Value to Grand Bank Based On: | Implied Transaction Value (Millions) | Price to LTM Net Income Multiple | Price to TC Book Value Multiple | Price to 8% Core Equity Multiple | Premium to Core Deposits Multiple |
|--|---|---|--|---|--|
| Reorganization Agreement | $ 80.1 | 32.2x | 192% | 179% | 7.7% |
| DCF Perpetuity (midpoint) | $ 60.0 | 24.1x | 144% | 137% | 3.7% |
| DCF PE Multiple (midpoint) | $ 72.7 | 29.2x | 174% | 163% | 6.2% |
| DCF PTBV Analysis (midpoint) | $ 67.2 | 27.0x | 161% | 152% | 5.1% |

Notes: LTM = last twelve months; and TC = total common.

Hovde Group noted that while the discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, it relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, distribution payout rates, terminal values and discount rates. Hovde Group's analysis does not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Grand Bank's common stock.

Other Factors and Analyses. Hovde Group took into consideration various other factors and analyses, including, but not limited to: current market environment; merger and acquisition environment; movements in the common stock valuations of selected publicly traded banking companies; and movements in the S&P 500 Index.

Conclusion. Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, Hovde Group determined that the aggregate merger consideration to be paid in connection with the merger is fair from a financial point of view to Grand Bank's shareholders. Each shareholder is encouraged to read Hovde Group's fairness opinion in its entirety. The full text of this fairness opinion is included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Hovde Group's Compensation and Other Relationships with Grand Bank

Grand Bank engaged Hovde Group to provide Grand Bank with financial advisory services. Pursuant to the terms of the engagement, Hovde Group will receive certain consideration from Grand Bank for services provided, including a $25,000 fee for the delivery of its fairness opinion and a completion fee related to Hovde Group's advisory services. The completion fee is contingent upon the completion of the merger. Pursuant to the engagement agreement, in addition to its fees and regardless of whether the merger is consummated, Grand Bank has agreed to reimburse Hovde Group for certain reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in performing its services and to indemnify Hovde Group against certain claims, losses and expenses arising out of the merger or Hovde Group's engagement. Hovde Group has not received any other fees from Grand Bank for investment banking or other services. Hovde Group has consented to the inclusion of its opinion in the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part.

Hovde Group's Relationship with Independent

In the prior two years, Independent engaged Hovde Group to evaluate a potential acquisition of a financial institution, but Independent is not currently pursuing this acquisition. Because the acquisition was not completed, Hovde Group did not receive any payment from Independent, other than reimbursement for certain reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in performing its services. Hovde Group has not received any other fees from Independent for investment banking or other services.

Hovde Group may also actively trade the debt and/or equity securities of Independent for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time and from time to time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Exchange of Grand Bank Stock Certificates

Approximately twenty days prior to closing, you will receive a letter and instructions from Wells Fargo Shareowner Services acting in its role as Independent's exchange agent and stock transfer agent, and describing the procedures for surrendering your stock certificate representing shares of Grand Bank common stock in exchange for the shares of Independent common stock and cash. If you surrender your certificate and transmittal materials at least two business days prior to closing, Independent will use its best efforts to cause the exchange agent to mail the merger consideration to you within five business days of the effective time. If you surrender your certificates and transmittal materials after two business days prior to closing, Independent will use its best efforts to cause the exchange agent to deliver the merger consideration to you promptly, with the intent that the exchange agent will mail the merger consideration to you within ten business days following receipt of the surrendered certificates and transmittal materials. You must carefully review and complete these transmittal materials and return them as instructed along with your stock certificates for Grand Bank common stock. Please do not send Grand Bank or Independent any stock certificates for your shares of Grand Bank common stock until you receive these instructions. Share certificates delivered to the exchange agent without a properly completed letter of transmittal will be rejected and returned for corrective action.

The shares of Independent common stock issuable in exchange for the shares of Grand Bank common stock will be issued solely in uncertificated book-entry form and a holder's shares of Independent common stock will be reflected in the shareholder's account established in the Direct Registration System of the DTC by Independent's stock transfer agent. You will receive a statement to this effect from the transfer agent as part of the delivery of the merger consideration. You may then contact your broker and arrange for the transfer of shares to your brokerage account should you desire to do so.

You should not send in your certificates until you receive the letter of transmittal and instructions.

At the effective time of the merger, and until surrendered as described above, other than shares of Grand Bank common stock subject to the exercise of dissenters' rights, each outstanding Grand Bank stock certificate will be deemed for all purposes to represent only the right to receive the merger consideration to be paid pursuant to the reorganization agreement without interest thereon. With respect to any Grand Bank stock certificate that has been lost, stolen or destroyed, Independent will pay the merger consideration attributable to such stock certificate upon receipt of a surety bond or other adequate indemnity, as required in accordance with Independent's standard policy, and evidence reasonably satisfactory to Independent of ownership of the shares in question. After the effective time of the merger, Grand Bank's transfer books will be closed and no transfer of the shares of Grand Bank common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be permitted on Independent's stock transfer books.

To the extent permitted by law, you will be entitled to vote after the effective time of the merger at any special meeting of Independent's shareholders the number of whole shares of Independent common stock into which your shares of Grand Bank are converted, regardless of whether you have surrendered your Grand Bank stock certificates to the exchange agent. Whenever Independent declares a dividend or other distribution on Independent common stock which has a record date after the effective time of the merger, the declaration will include dividends or other distributions on all shares of Independent common stock issued pursuant to the reorganization agreement. However, no dividend or other distribution payable to the holders of record of Independent common stock will be delivered to you until you surrender your Grand Bank stock certificates.

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will become effective at the date and time specified in the certificate of merger to be filed with the TDB regarding the merger of Grand Bank with and into Independent Bank.

If the shareholders of Grand Bank approve the reorganization agreement at the special meeting, and if all required regulatory approvals are obtained and the other conditions to the parties' obligations to effect the merger are satisfied or waived by the party entitled to do so, Independent anticipates that the merger will be completed in the fourth quarter of 2015, although delays could occur.

Independent cannot assure you that the necessary shareholder and regulatory approvals will be obtained or that the other conditions to completion of the merger can or will be satisfied.

make any, or acquiesce with any, change in accounting methods, principles or material practices, except as required by GAAP, or regulatory accounting principles, including, without limitation, making any reverse provision for loan losses or other similar entry or accounting method that would reduce the allowance for loan and lease losses of Grand Bank, provided, however, that the reversal of previously accrued amounts (not to exceed $200,000) for expenses that Grand Bank would have incurred if the reorganization agreement had not been entered into and if it were to continue operations independently in 2016, such as 2016 audit fees, year-end advertising, and similar expenses, do not require the prior written consent of Independent; sell (provided, however, that payment at maturity or prepayment is not deemed a sale) investment securities or purchase investment securities, other than U.S. Treasuries with a maturity of two years or less; or redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire, directly or indirectly, any of its capital stock.

For a complete description of such restrictions on the conduct of the business of Grand Bank, Independent refers you to the reorganization agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

From the date of the reorganization agreement through the effective time of the merger, Independent has agreed to:

maintain its corporate existence in good standing; maintain the general character of its business and conduct its business in its ordinary and usual manner;

extend credit only in accordance with existing lending policies and practices; use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve its business organization intact; retain the services of its present employees, officers, directors and agents; retain its present customers, depositors, suppliers and correspondent banks; and preserve its goodwill and the goodwill of its suppliers, customers and others having business relationships with it;

timely file all reports required to be filed with governmental authorities and observe and conform, in all material respects, to all applicable laws, rules, regulations, ordinances, codes, orders, licenses and permits, except those being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings; and comply in all material respects with all laws, regulations, ordinances, codes, orders, licenses and permits applicable to its assets, properties and operations, where such noncompliance could be reasonably expected to cause a material adverse change to its financial condition, assets, properties, reserves, liabilities, business or results of operations.

No Solicitation

Grand Bank has agreed that it will not, and that it will cause its employees, directors, officers, financial advisors and agents not to:

solicit, knowingly encourage, initiate or participate in any negotiations or discussions with any third party regarding an acquisition proposal, whether by acquisition, business combination, purchase of securities or assets or otherwise;

disclose to any third party any information concerning the business, properties, books or records of Grand Bank in connection with any acquisition proposal, other than as provided in the reorganization agreement or as required by applicable law; or cooperate with any third party to make any acquisition proposal, other than a sale of assets of Grand Bank in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices.

Promptly upon receipt of any unsolicited offer, Grand Bank is required to communicate to Independent the terms of any proposal or request for information and the identity of the parties involved.

Provided that Grand Bank has complied with the restrictions set forth above, if, after the date of the reorganization agreement and before obtaining approval of the merger by its shareholders, Grand Bank receives a bona fide, unsolicited written acquisition proposal, it may engage in negotiations and discussions with, and furnish any information and other access to, any person making such acquisition proposal if, and only if, the board of directors of Grand Bank determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal and financial advisors, that (i) such acquisition proposal is or is reasonably capable of becoming a superior proposal and (ii) the failure of the Grand Bank board of directors to furnish such information or access or enter into such discussions or negotiations would reasonably be expected to be a violation of its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Grand Bank; but before furnishing any material nonpublic information, Grand Bank must receive from the person making such acquisition proposal an executed confidentiality agreement with terms at least as restrictive in all material respects on such person as the confidentiality agreement entered into with Independent. In such case, Grand Bank is required to:

promptly notify Independent of the receipt of such acquisition proposal or any request for nonpublic information relating to Grand Bank or for access to its properties, books or records by any person that has made, or may be considering making, an acquisition proposal; communicate the material terms of such acquisition proposal to Independent, including as they may change upon any modification or amendment to the terms thereof; and keep Independent reasonably apprised of the status of and other matters relating to any such acquisition proposal on a timely basis.

An acquisition proposal means a written offer or proposal from a party other than Independent that contains a fixed price per share or a mathematically ascertainable formula for calculating a price per share for the Grand Bank common stock regarding any of the following involving Grand Bank: (i) any merger, reorganization, consolidation, share exchange, recapitalization, business combination, liquidation, dissolution or other similar transaction involving any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets or equity securities or deposits of Grand Bank, in a single transaction or series of related transactions, which could reasonably be expected to impede, interfere with, prevent or materially delay the completion of the merger; (ii) any tender offer or exchange offer for 50% or more of the outstanding shares of Grand Bank common stock or the filing of a registration statement in connection therewith; or (iii) any public announcement of a proposal, plan or intention to do, or any agreement to engage in, any of the foregoing. A superior proposal means a bona fide acquisition proposal made by a party other than Independent that the board of directors of Grand Bank determines in its good faith judgment to be more favorable to Grand Bank's shareholders than the merger and for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or which, in the good faith judgment of the board of directors of Grand Bank is reasonably capable of being obtained by such third person.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The reorganization agreement contains a number of conditions to the obligations of Independent and Grand Bank to complete the merger that must be satisfied as of the closing date, including, but not limited to, the following:

Representations and Warranties of Grand Bank and Independent

In the reorganization agreement, Grand Bank has made representations and warranties to Independent, and Independent has made representations and warranties to Grand Bank. The more significant of these relate to (among other things):

corporate organization and existence; authority and power to execute the reorganization agreement and the bank merger agreement and to complete the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement and the bank merger agreement;

Independent has also made additional representations and warranties to Grand Bank with respect to (among other things) its compliance with its SEC reporting obligations and with NASDAQ listing and corporate governance rules.

For detailed information concerning these representations and warranties, reference is made to Articles III and IV of the reorganization agreement included as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

The reorganization agreement contains representations and warranties that Grand Bank and Independent made to and solely for the benefit of each other. These representations and warranties are subject to materiality standards, which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors and shareholders, and, in certain cases, were used for the purpose of allocating risk among the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties also are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the reorganization agreement. Although neither Grand Bank nor Independent believes that the disclosure schedules contain information that the federal securities laws require to be publicly disclosed, the disclosure schedules do contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the attached reorganization agreement.

Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they were only made as of the date of the reorganization agreement and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the reorganization agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Independent's public disclosures in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Amendment or Waiver of the Reorganization Agreement

No termination, cancellation, modification, amendment, deletion, addition or other change in the reorganization agreement, or any provision thereof, or waiver of any right or remedy therein provided, is effective for any purpose unless specifically set forth in a writing signed by the party or parties to be bound thereby. The waiver of any right or remedy in respect to any occurrence or event on one occasion is not deemed a waiver of such right or remedy in respect to such occurrence or event on any other occasion. The merger consideration to be received by the shareholders of Grand Bank pursuant to the terms of the reorganization agreement may not be decreased after the approval of the reorganization agreement without the further approval of the Grand Bank shareholders.

Termination of the Reorganization Agreement

Independent and Grand Bank can mutually agree at any time to terminate the reorganization agreement without completing the merger. In addition, either Independent or Grand Bank may decide, without the consent of the other, to terminate the reorganization agreement if:

the conditions to such party's obligations to close have not been satisfied on or before December 31, 2015; subject to a unilateral 30-day extension by either party for the receipt of regulatory approvals and provided that the terminating party is not in breach of the reorganization agreement;

any of the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement or by any other agreement contemplated by the reorganization agreement are disapproved by any regulatory agency whose approval is required to consummate those transactions; or if the reorganization agreement and merger are not approved by the shareholders of Grand Bank at the special meeting.

Grand Bank may terminate the reorganization agreement, without the consent of Independent, if:

Independent breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the reorganization agreement or any other agreement contemplated by the reorganization agreement, and such failure has not been cured within a period of 30 calendar days after written notice from Grand Bank;

at any time prior to the special meeting in order to enter into, concurrently with such termination, an acquisition agreement or similar agreement with respect to a superior proposal, that has been received and considered by Grand Bank and the Grand Bank board in accordance with all of the requirements of the reorganization agreement; or there has been any material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities, reserves, business or results of operations of Independent since March 31, 2015.

In addition, Independent may terminate the reorganization agreement, without the consent of Grand Bank, if:

Grand Bank breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the reorganization agreement or any other agreement contemplated by the reorganization agreement, and such failure has not been cured within a period of 30 calendar days after written notice from Independent;

the Grand Bank board has (i) recommended to the holders of Grand Bank common stock that they tender their shares in a tender or exchange offer commenced by an unaffiliated third party for more than 15% of the outstanding Grand Bank common stock, (ii) effected a change in the board's recommendation with respect to the merger or recommended to the Grand Bank shareholders acceptance or approval of any alternative acquisition proposal, (iii) notified Independent in writing that Grand Bank is prepared to accept a superior proposal or (iv) resolved to do any of the foregoing;

any of the following have occurred with respect to environmental matters regarding Grand Bank: (i) the factual substance of any environmental representations and warranties of Grand Bank in the reorganization agreement is not materially true and accurate, (ii) the results of any environmental inspection or other environmental survey are disapproved by Independent because such inspection or survey identifies a material or potential material violation of applicable environmental laws, (iii) Grand Bank refuses to allow such an inspection or survey in a manner that Independent reasonably considers necessary, (iv) such an inspection or survey identifies an event, condition or circumstance that would or potentially could reasonably be expected to require a material remedial or cleanup action or result in a material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities, reserves, business or results of operations of Grand Bank since March 31, 2015, (v) such an inspection or survey reveals the presence of any underground or above ground storage tank in, on or under any real property owned or leased by Grand Bank that is not shown to be in material compliance with all applicable environmental laws, or that has had a release of petroleum or some other hazardous material that has not been cleaned up to the satisfaction of the relevant governmental authority or any other party with a right to compel such cleanup, or (vi) such an inspection or survey identifies the presence of any asbestos-containing material in, on or under any real property owned or leased by Grand Bank, the removal of which could reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities, reserves, business or results of operations of Grand Bank since March 31, 2015, subject, in the case of each of the foregoing, to notice to and the right of Grand Bank to correct any such matter to Independent's reasonable satisfaction within 30 days of receipt of notice;

Independent determines, in good faith after consulting with counsel, there is a substantial likelihood that any necessary regulatory approval will not be obtained or will be obtained only upon one or more conditions that make it inadvisable to proceed with the transactions; or there has been any material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities, reserves, business or results of operations of Grand Bank since March 31, 2015.

Termination Fee

To compensate Independent for entering into the reorganization agreement, taking actions to consummate the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement and incurring the related costs and expenses and other losses and expense, including foregoing the pursuit of other opportunities, Grand Bank has agreed to pay Independent a $2.8 million termination fee, provided that Independent is not in material breach of any covenant or obligation under the reorganization agreement, if the reorganization agreement is terminated:

by Grand Bank at any time prior to the special meeting in order to enter into, concurrently with such termination, an acquisition agreement or similar agreement with respect to a superior proposal that has been received and considered by Grand Bank and the Grand Bank board in accordance with all of the requirements of the reorganization agreement;

by either Independent or Grand Bank if the reorganization agreement and the merger are not approved by the shareholders of Grand Bank at the special meeting and at the time of such failure to approve, there exists an acquisition proposal with respect to Grand Bank other than that of Independent that has not been withdrawn prior to the special meeting; or by Independent if the Grand Bank board has (i) recommended to the holders of Grand Bank common stock that they tender their shares in a tender or exchange offer commenced by an unaffiliated third party for more than 15% of the outstanding Grand Bank common stock, (ii) effected a change in the board's recommendation regarding the merger or recommended to the Grand Bank shareholders acceptance or approval of any alternative acquisition proposal, (iii) notified Independent in writing that Grand Bank is prepared to accept a superior proposal, or (iv) resolved to do any of the foregoing.

Except with respect to termination fees and expenses, as discussed above, in the event of the termination of the reorganization agreement without breach by any party, the reorganization agreement will be void and have no effect, without liability on the part of any party or the directors, officers or shareholders of any party, except as specifically contemplated in the reorganization agreement.

Financial Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of Grand Bank in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of Grand Bank to vote for the proposal to approve the reorganization agreement, you should be aware that certain directors and executive officers of Grand Bank have interests in the merger that are in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of Grand Bank. The board of Grand Bank was aware of these interests and considered them in approving the reorganization agreement. These interests include:

Employment Agreements with Independent Bank. Independent and Independent Bank have entered into employment agreements with Lee Dinkel and Mark Wells, two executive officers of Grand Bank, to be effective, if at all, upon completion of the merger, that include noncompetition and nonsolicitation obligations to Independent Bank. Pursuant to these agreements, the executive officer is entitled to receive a salary, a one-time bonus upon completion of the merger, annual bonus, restricted shares of Independent common stock and certain additional incentives from Independent and Independent Bank. The following persons have such employment agreements and the parenthetical amounts represent the aggregate financial interest that each person is expected to receive from Independent upon completion of the merger, excluding amounts for salary and incentive bonus payments to be earned by such individuals for service to be rendered to Independent Bank and excluding the value of any Independent restricted stock awards that vest over time and are dependent upon continued employment with Independent: Lee Dinkel ($100,000) and Mark Wells ($75,000).

Retention Payments. Grand Bank plans to pay retention bonuses to executive officers of Grand Bank, all of which are directors, in the aggregate amount of approximately $2.2 million, which includes anticipated payments to Lee Dinkel ($468,205), Roy Gene Evans ($802,483), D. Michael Redden ($342,493) and Mark Wells ($362,483). These payments will reduce the tangible book value of Grand Bank at closing and could reduce the amount of merger consideration payable to the shareholders of Grand Bank.

Support Agreements. As a condition to the merger, Independent has required that each outside director (Tyler Cooper, Jack W. Evans, Jr., Al Goode, Pete Schenkel and James W. Williford) enter into a Director Support Agreement that includes noncompetition, nonsolicitation, and business relationship obligations in consideration of payments to these individuals by Independent in the amount of $50,000 to each such outside director, payable $25,000 at closing and $25,000 at the one year anniversary of closing.

Consulting Agreements. As a condition to the merger, Independent has required that each of Roy Gene Evans and D. Michael Redden, directors and executive officers of Grand Bank enter into a consulting agreement, effective upon completion of the merger, that includes noncompetition and nonsolicitation obligations to Independent Bank and pursuant to which each of Mr. Evans and Mr. Redden is entitled to receive a monthly consulting fee from Independent Bank for services to be rendered to Independent Bank for a two year period, and each of Ms. Evans and Mr. Redden is eligible to receive an incentive bonus from Independent Bank at the end of the two year term.

Executive Medical Agreements. Each of Roy Gene Evans and D. Michael Redden, who are directors and executive officers of Grand Bank, is a party to an executive medical agreement with Grand Bank, which were entered into in 2003, that provides for Grand Bank to provide lifetime medical insurance coverage to Mr. Evans, Mr. Redden and their spouses, or pay the costs for the provision of lifetime medical insurance coverage under individual health insurance policies. As a condition to the merger, Independent has required that each of Mr. Evans and Mr. Redden execute amendments to the executive medical agreements releasing Grand Bank from further liability under the executive medical agreements, effective at the closing of the merger, in exchange for lump-sum payments from Grand Bank. The aggregate amount of the lump sum payments to be made by Grand Bank is $1,240,242, of which $244,939 had been previously accrued through September 2015. Grand Bank will make the lump sum payments to these officers in connection with the completion of the merger. These payments will reduce the tangible book value of Grand Bank for the purpose of calculating the merger consideration payable to shareholders of Grand Bank.

Indemnification. The directors and executive officers of Grand Bank will receive indemnification from Independent for a period of four years after completion of the merger to the same extent and subject to the conditions set forth in the respective articles of incorporation or articles of association and bylaws of Grand Bank and continued director and officer liability coverage for a period of four years after completion of the merger. Any amounts paid by Grand Bank to purchase continued director and officer liability coverage will reduce Grand Bank's closing tangible book value for purposes of calculating the merger consideration payable to Grand Bank shareholders.

Voting Agreement

Certain shareholders of Grand Bank have entered into an agreement to vote, referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the voting agreement, the shares of Grand Bank common stock that they control in favor of approval of the reorganization agreement and the related agreement and plan of merger and otherwise in the manner most favorable to the consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreements; provided, however, that the Grand Bank shareholders who have entered into the voting agreement are permitted to vote to accept a superior proposal, if any, under the terms of the reorganization agreement. As of the record date, 509,223 shares of Grand Bank common stock, or approximately 29% of the outstanding shares of the Grand Bank common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, were bound by the voting agreement. A copy of the form of Voting Agreement is included as Exhibit B to the reorganization agreement included in Appendix A.

NASDAQ Global Select Market Listing

Independent has agreed to file all documents required to be filed to have the shares of Independent common stock to be issued pursuant to the reorganization agreement approved for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and to use its reasonable best efforts to effect such listing. The obligations of the parties to complete the merger are subject to such shares having been authorized for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following discussion addresses the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Grand Bank common stock. The discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, referred to as the Code, Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial decisions, all as currently in effect and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) and to differing interpretations, and is the opinion of Andrews Kurth LLP. The opinion of counsel is included as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part.

This discussion applies only to U.S. holders (as defined below) that hold their Grand Bank common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code, each of which we refer to in this document as a holder. Further, this discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal taxation that may be relevant to a particular stockholder in light of its personal circumstances or to stockholders subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws, including:

banks or trusts,

tax-exempt organizations,

insurance companies,

dealers in securities or foreign currency, traders in securities who elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, pass-through entities and investors in such entities, foreign persons,

U.S. expatriates,

regulated investment companies and real estate investment trusts,

broker-dealers,

holders liable for the alternative minimum tax, holders that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, holders who received their Grand Bank common stock through the exercise of employee stock options, through a tax-qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation, and holders who hold Grand Bank common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other integrated investment.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of Grand Bank common stock who is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes: (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States; (ii) a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions; (iii) an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source; or (iv) a trust (A) if a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (B) that was in existence on August 29, 1996, and has made a valid election to be treated as a United States person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

This discussion does not address the tax treatment of partnerships (or entities or arrangements that are treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes) or persons that hold their Grand Bank common stock through partnerships or other pass-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If a partnership, including any entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, holds shares of Grand Bank common stock, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in such partnership will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. We urge such partners and partnerships to consult their own tax advisors regarding the particular tax consequences of the merger to them.

We urge each holder of Grand Bank common stock to consult its tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequences of the merger to such holder.

Additional Tax Opinion to be Delivered on the Closing Date of the Merger

The obligations of the parties to complete the merger are conditioned on, among other things, the receipt by Independent and Grand Bank of an opinion from Andrews Kurth LLP, dated the closing date of the merger, that for U.S. federal income tax purposes the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The conditions relating to receipt of the opinion may be waived by both Independent and Grand Bank. Neither Independent nor Grand Bank currently intends to waive the conditions related to the receipt of the opinion. However, if these conditions were waived, Grand Bank would resolicit the approval of its shareholders prior to completing the merger. In addition, the obligation of Andrews Kurth LLP to deliver such opinion is conditioned on the merger's satisfying the continuity of proprietary interest requirement. That requirement generally will be satisfied if the aggregate value of the Independent common stock constitutes at least 42% of the aggregate value of the aggregate merger consideration at the time the merger becomes effective. The opinion will be based on certain facts, representations, covenants and assumptions, including representations of Independent and Grand Bank.

If any of the representations or assumptions upon which such opinion is based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected. These opinions are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and neither Independent nor Grand Bank intends to request a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Therefore, while the merger is conditioned upon the delivery by tax counsel to Independent of its opinion that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, no assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of those set forth below.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The following discussion regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger assumes that the merger will be consummated as described in the reorganization agreement and this proxy statement/prospectus and Independent and Grand Bank will not waive the opinion condition described above in Tax Opinion. The merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization qualifying under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Code and as a consequence, the merger will have the following U.S. federal income tax consequences.

If, pursuant to the merger, a holder exchanges all of the shares of Grand Bank common stock actually owned by it for a combination of Independent common stock and cash, the holder will recognize gain (but not loss) equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash consideration received in the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Independent common stock), or (ii) the amount by which the cash consideration received in the merger for the Grand Bank common stock plus the stock consideration received in the merger for the Grand Bank common stock (based upon the fair market value of the Independent common stock at the effective time of the merger) exceeds the adjusted tax basis in the Grand Bank common stock exchanged in the merger. For this purpose, gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares surrendered in the exchange, and a loss realized on one block of shares may not be used to offset a gain realized on another block of shares. We urge holders to consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which cash and Independent common stock should be allocated among different blocks of Grand Bank common stock. Any recognized gain generally will be long-term capital gain if the holder's holding period with respect to the Grand Bank common stock surrendered is more than one year at the effective time of the merger. If, however, the cash consideration received has the effect of the distribution of a dividend, the gain will be treated as a dividend to the extent of the holder's ratable share of accumulated earnings and profits of Grand Bank as calculated for U.S. federal income tax purposes. See Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend below.

The aggregate adjusted tax basis of Independent common stock received (including fractional shares deemed received and redeemed as described below) by a holder that exchanges its shares of Grand Bank common stock for a combination of Independent common stock and cash pursuant to the merger will be equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Grand Bank common stock surrendered for Independent common stock and cash, reduced by the amount of cash received by the holder pursuant to the merger (excluding any cash received instead of a fractional share of Independent common stock) and increased by the amount of gain (including any portion of the gain that is treated as a dividend as described below but excluding any gain or loss resulting from the deemed receipt and redemption of fractional shares described below), if any, recognized by the holder on the exchange. The holding period of the Independent common stock (including fractional shares deemed received and redeemed as described below) will include the holding period of the shares of Grand Bank common stock surrendered.

Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend

Any gain recognized by a holder may be treated as a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent of the holder's ratable share of Grand Bank's accumulated earnings and profits. In general, the determination of whether the gain recognized in the exchange will be treated as capital gain or has the effect of a distribution of a dividend depends upon whether and to what extent the exchange reduces the holder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Independent. For purposes of this determination, the holder is treated as if it first exchanged all of its shares of Grand Bank common stock solely for Independent common stock and then Independent immediately redeemed, which we refer to as the deemed redemption, a portion of the Independent common stock in exchange for the cash the holder actually received. The gain recognized in the deemed redemption will be treated as capital gain if the deemed redemption is (1) substantially disproportionate with respect to the holder or (2) not essentially equivalent to a dividend.

The deemed redemption will generally be substantially disproportionate with respect to a holder if the percentage described in (2) below is less than 80% of the percentage described in (1) below. Whether the deemed redemption is not essentially equivalent to a dividend with respect to a holder will depend upon the holder's particular circumstances. At a minimum, however, in order for the deemed redemption to be not essentially equivalent to a dividend, the deemed redemption must result in a meaningful reduction in the holder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Independent. That determination requires a comparison of (1) the percentage of the outstanding stock of Independent that the holder is deemed actually and constructively to have owned immediately before the deemed redemption and (2) the percentage of the outstanding stock of Independent that is actually and constructively owned by the holder immediately after the deemed redemption. In applying the above tests, a holder may, under the constructive ownership rules, be deemed to own stock that is owned by other persons or stock underlying a holder's option to purchase in addition to the stock actually owned by the holder.

The Internal Revenue Service has ruled that a stockholder in a publicly held corporation whose relative stock interest is minimal (e.g., less than 1%) and who exercises no control with respect to corporate affairs is generally considered to have a meaningful reduction if that stockholder has a relatively minor (e.g., approximately 3%) reduction in its percentage stock ownership under the above analysis. Accordingly, the gain recognized in the exchange by such a stockholder would be treated as capital gain.

These rules are complex and dependent upon the specific factual circumstances particular to each holder. Consequently, we urge each holder that may be subject to these rules to consult its tax advisor as to the application of these rules to the particular facts relevant to such holder.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share.

A holder who receives cash instead of a fractional share of Independent common stock will be treated as having received such fractional share and then as having received such cash in redemption of the fractional share. Gain or loss generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received instead of the fractional share and the portion of the holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Grand Bank common stock surrendered which is allocable to the fractional share. Such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for such shares of Grand Bank common stock is more than one year at the effective time of the merger. Long-term capital gains of noncorporate taxpayers are subject to reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Dissenters

Upon the proper exercise of dissenters' rights, a holder will exchange all of the shares of Grand Bank common stock actually owned by that holder solely for cash and that holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and its adjusted tax basis in the shares of Grand Bank common stock surrendered, which gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder's holding period with respect to the Grand Bank common stock surrendered is more than one year. Long-term capital gains of noncorporate taxpayers are subject to reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Although the law is unclear, if the holder constructively owns shares of Grand Bank common stock that are exchanged for shares of Independent common stock in the merger or otherwise owns shares of Independent common stock actually or constructively after the merger, the consequences to that holder may be similar to the consequences described above under the heading U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally, except that the amount of consideration, if any, treated as a dividend may not be limited to the amount of that holder's gain.

Certain Tax Reporting Rules

Under applicable Treasury regulations, significant holders of Grand Bank stock will be required to comply with certain reporting requirements. A Grand Bank shareholder should be viewed as a significant holder if, immediately before the merger, such holder held 5% or more, by vote or value, of the total outstanding Grand Bank common stock. Significant holders generally will be required to file a statement with the holder's U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year that includes the consummation of the merger. That statement must set forth the holder's adjusted tax basis in, and the fair market value of, the shares of Grand Bank common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger (both as determined immediately before the surrender of shares), the date of the merger, and the name and employer identification number of Independent and Grand Bank, and the holder will be required to retain permanent records of these facts. We urge each holder of Grand Bank common stock to consult its tax advisor as to whether such holder may be treated as a significant holder.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Payments of cash pursuant to the merger may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless the recipient provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against such holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

This discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences is for general information only and is not tax advice. We urge holders of Grand Bank common stock to consult their tax advisors with respect to the application of U.S. federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this method, Grand Bank's assets and liabilities as of the date of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values. Any difference between the purchase price for Grand Bank and the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired (including core deposit intangibles) will be recorded as goodwill. In accordance with ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations, issued in July 2001, the goodwill resulting from the merger will not be amortized to expense, but instead will be reviewed for impairment at least annually and to the extent goodwill is impaired, its carrying value will be written down to its implied fair value and a charge will be made to earnings. Core deposit and other intangibles with definite useful lives recorded by Independent in connection with the merger will be amortized to expense in accordance with such rules. The consolidated financial statements of Independent issued after the merger will reflect the results attributable to the acquired operations of Grand Bank beginning on the date of completion of the merger.

Ownership of Independent Common Stock After the Merger

Based on the closing price of Independent common stock on September 22, 2015, of $39.49 per share, Independent would issue 1,279,532 shares of its common stock to Grand Bank shareholders in connection with the merger. The number of shares of Independent common stock issued in connection with the merger is subject to change if the average sales price of the Independent common stock is less than $39.3894 or more than $48.1426. See Summary Terms of the Merger.

Based on 17,111,394 shares of Independent common stock outstanding and the closing price of $39.49 on September 22, 2015, immediately after the merger, the former Grand Bank shareholders would own approximately 6.96% of the outstanding shares of Independent common stock assuming 1,279,532 shares of Independent common stock are issued in the merger. That ownership percentage would be reduced by any future issuances of shares of Independent common stock.

Restrictions on Resales of Independent Common Stock Received in the Merger

The shares of Independent common stock issued in the merger will not be subject to any restrictions on transfer arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except for shares of Independent common stock issued to any Grand Bank shareholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Independent after completion of the merger.

Affiliates generally are defined as persons or entities who control, are controlled by or are under common control with Independent at or after the effective time of the merger and generally include executive officers, directors and beneficial owners of 10% or more of the common stock of Independent. Former Grand Bank shareholders who are not affiliates of Independent after the completion of the merger may sell their shares of Independent common stock received in the merger at any time.

Former Grand Bank shareholders who become affiliates of Independent after completion of the merger will be subject to the volume and sale limitations of Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, until they are no longer affiliates of Independent. This proxy statement/prospectus does not cover resales of Independent common stock received by any person upon completion of the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of or rely on this proxy statement/prospectus in connection with or to effect any resale of Independent shares.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

The acquisition of Grand Bank by Independent requires the approval of the Federal Reserve. The merger requires the approval of the FDIC and the TDB. Independent filed an application with the Federal Reserve, and Independent Bank and Grand Bank filed applications with the FDIC and TDB for applicable regulatory approval on August 27, 2015.

Independent expects to receive all necessary regulatory approvals. You should note that the approval of any notice or application merely implies satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, and does not include review of the merger from the standpoint of the adequacy of the consideration to be received by, or fairness to, shareholders. Regulatory approval does not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the proposed merger.

Independent cannot assure you as to whether or when the requisite regulatory approvals will be obtained, and, if obtained, Independent cannot assure you as to the date of receipt of any of these approvals, the terms thereof or the absence of any litigation challenging them. Independent and Grand Bank are not aware of any other material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the parties' completion of the merger.

Dissenters' Rights of Grand Bank Shareholders

General. If you hold one or more shares of Grand Bank common stock, you are entitled to dissenters' rights under Texas law and have the right to dissent from the merger and have the appraised fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock as of the date immediately prior to the effective date of the merger paid to you in cash. The appraised fair value may be more or less than the value of the shares of Independent common stock and cash being paid in the merger in exchange for shares of Grand Bank common stock. If you are contemplating exercising your right to dissent, we urge you to read carefully the provisions of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the Texas Business Organizations Code, or TBOC, which are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C and which qualify in all respects the following discussion of those provisions, and consult with your legal counsel before electing or attempting to exercise these rights. The following discussion describes the steps you must take if you want to exercise your right to dissent. You should read this summary and the full text of the law carefully. In this description of the dissenters' rights of the Grand Bank shareholders, references to the merger are to the merger of Grand Bank and Independent Bank.

How to Exercise and Perfect Your Right to Dissent. To be eligible to exercise your right to dissent to the merger:

you must, prior to the special meeting of the Grand Bank shareholders, provide Grand Bank with a written objection to the merger that states that your right to dissent will be exercised if the reorganization agreement are approved and the merger is completed and that provides an address to which a notice of effectiveness of the merger should be delivered or mailed to you if the merger is completed;

you must vote your shares of Grand Bank common stock against approval of the reorganization agreement at the special meeting in person or by proxy;

you must, not later than the 20th day after Independent (which will be the ultimate the successor to Grand Bank) sends you notice that the merger was completed, deliver to Independent a written demand for payment of the fair value of the shares of Grand Bank common stock you own that states the number and class of shares of Grand Bank common stock you own, your estimate of the fair value of such stock and an address to which a notice relating to the dissent and appraisal procedures may be sent; and you must, not later than the 20th day after you make your demand for payment to Independent as described above, submit your certificates representing Grand Bank common stock to Independent.

If you intend to exercise your right to dissent from the merger, prior to the special meeting you must send the notice of objection to Grand Bank, addressed to:

Grand Bank

16660 Dallas Parkway, Suite 1700

Dallas, Texas 75248

Attention: Chairman of the Board and Secretary

If you fail to send the written objection to the merger in the proper form and prior to the special meeting, to vote your shares of Grand Bank common stock at the special meeting against the approval of the merger and the reorganization agreement or to submit your demand for payment in the proper form and on a timely basis, you will lose your right to dissent from the merger. If you fail to submit to Independent on a timely basis the certificates representing the shares of Grand Bank common stock after you have submitted the demand for payment as described above, Independent will have the option to terminate your right of dissent as to your shares of Grand Bank common stock. In any instance of a termination or loss of a your right of dissent, you will instead receive the merger consideration. If you comply with the first two items above and the merger is completed, Independent will send you a written notice advising you that the merger has been completed. Independent Bank must deliver this notice to you within ten days after the merger is completed.

Your Demand for Payment. If the merger is completed, you have provided your written objection to the merger to Grand Bank in a timely manner and in proper form and you have voted against the reorganization agreement at the special meeting as described above and you desire to receive the fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock in cash, you must, within 20 days of the date on which Independent sends to you the notice of the effectiveness of the merger, give Independent a written demand for payment of the fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock. The fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock will be the value of the shares on the day immediately preceding the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger. After the merger is completed, your written demand and any notice sent to Independent must be addressed to:

Independent Bank Group, Inc.
1600 Redbud Boulevard, Suite 400
McKinney, Texas 75069-3257
Attention: President and Secretary

Your written demand must include a demand for payment for your shares for which rights of dissent and appraisal are sought and must state the number of shares and class of Grand Bank common stock you own and your estimate of the fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock and an address to which a notice relating to the dissent and appraisal procedures may be sent. This written demand must be delivered to Independent within 20 days of the date on which Independent sends to you the notice of the effectiveness of the merger. If your written demand for payment in proper form is not received by Independent within that 20 day period, you will be bound by the merger and you will not be entitled to receive a cash payment representing the fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock. Instead, you will receive shares of Independent common stock and cash as the merger consideration set forth in the reorganization agreement.

Delivery of Stock Certificates. If you have satisfied the requirements for the exercise of your right to dissent described above, including the delivery of the written demand for payment to Independent as described above, you must, not later than the 20th day after you make your written demand for payment to Independent, submit to Independent your certificate or certificates representing the shares of Grand Bank common stock you own. You may submit those certificates with your demand for payment if you prefer. In accordance with the provisions of the TBOC, Independent will note on each such certificate that you have demanded payment of the fair value of the shares of Grand Bank common stock that were represented by such certificate under the provisions of the TBOC relating to the rights of dissenting owners. After making those notations on those certificates, Independent will return each such certificate to you at your request. If you fail to submit all of the certificates representing the shares of Grand Bank common stock for which you have exercised the right of dissent in a timely fashion, Independent will have the right to terminate your rights of dissent and appraisal with respect to all of your shares of Grand Bank common stock unless a court, for good cause shown, directs Independent not to terminate those rights.

Independent's Actions Upon Receipt of Your Demand for Payment. Within 20 days after Independent receives your written demand for payment and your estimate of the fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock submitted as described above, Independent must send you written notice stating whether or not it accepts your estimate of the fair value of your shares.

If Independent accepts your estimate, Independent will notify you that it will pay the amount of your estimated fair value within 90 days after the effective date of the merger. Independent will make this payment to you only if you have surrendered the share certificates representing your shares of Grand Bank common stock, duly endorsed for transfer, to Independent.

If Independent does not accept your estimate, Independent will notify you of this fact and will make an offer of an alternative estimate of the fair value of your shares that it is willing to pay you within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, which you may accept within 90 days after the effective date of the merger or decline.

Payment of the Fair Value of Your Shares of Grand Bank Common Stock Upon Agreement of an Estimate. If you and Independent have reached an agreement on the fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock within 90 days after the effective date of the merger, Independent must pay you the agreed amount within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, provided that you have surrendered the share certificates representing your shares of Grand Bank common stock, duly endorsed for transfer, to Independent.

Commencement of Legal Proceedings if a Demand for Payment Remains Unsettled. If you and Independent have not reached an agreement as to the fair market value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock within 90 days after the effective date of the merger, you or Independent may, within 60 days after the expiration of the 90 day period, commence proceedings in Collin County, Texas, asking the court to determine the fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock. The court will determine if you have complied with the provisions of the TBOC regarding their right of dissent and if you have become entitled to receive payment for your shares of Grand Bank common stock. The court will appoint one or more qualified persons to act as appraisers to determine the fair value of your shares in the manner prescribed by the TBOC. The appraisers will determine the fair value of your shares and will report this value to the court. Once the appraisers' report is filed with the court, you will receive a notice from the court indicating that the report has been filed. You will be responsible for obtaining a copy of the report from the court. If you or Independent objects to the report or any part of it, the court will hold a hearing to determine the fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock. Both you and Independent may address the court about the report. The court will determine the fair value of your shares and direct Independent to pay that amount, plus interest, which will begin to accrue 91 days after the merger is completed. The court may require you to share in the court costs relating to the matter to the extent the court deems it fair and equitable that you do so.

Rights as a Shareholder. If you have made a written demand on Independent for payment of the fair value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock, you will not thereafter be entitled to vote or exercise any other rights as a shareholder of Independent, but will only have the right to receive payment for your shares as described herein and the right to maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the ground that the merger would be or was fraudulent. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, your right under the dissent provisions described herein is the exclusive remedy for the recovery of the value of your shares of Grand Bank common stock or money damages with respect to the merger.

Withdrawal of Demand. If you have made a written demand on Independent for payment of the fair value of your Grand Bank common stock, you may withdraw such demand at any time before payment for your shares has been made or before a petition has been filed with a court for determination of the fair value of your shares. If you withdraw your demand or are otherwise unsuccessful in asserting your dissenters' rights, you will be bound by the merger and you will have the same rights to receive of the merger consideration with respect to your shares of Grand Bank common stock as you would have had if you had not made a demand for payment as to those shares, as well as to participate to the appropriate extent in any dividends or distributions on the shares of Independent common stock that may have been paid to Independent shareholders after the effective date of the merger. Such rights will, however, be subject to any change in or adjustment to those shares made because of an action taken after the date your demand for payment.

Beneficial Owners. Persons who beneficially own shares of Grand Bank common stock that are held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker, bank, trustee or other nominee, and who desire to have the right of dissent exercised as to those shares must act promptly to cause the record holder of those shares to take the actions required under Texas law to exercise the dissenters' rights with respect to those shares. Only the persons in whose names shares of Grand Bank common stock are registered on the share transfer records of Grand Bank may exercise the right of dissent and appraisal discussed above.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences. See Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger on page 74 for a discussion on how the federal income tax consequences of your action will change if you elect to dissent from the merger.

You should remember that if you return a signed proxy card, but fail to provide instructions as to how your shares of Grand Bank common stock are to be voted, you will be considered to have voted in favor of the reorganization agreement and you will not be able to assert dissenters' rights. You should also remember that if you otherwise vote at the special meeting in favor of the reorganization agreement, you will not be able to assert dissenters' rights.

PROPOSAL TO ADJOURN THE SPECIAL MEETING

(Proposal Two)

If there are not sufficient votes to constitute a quorum or to approve the reorganization agreement at the time of the special meeting, the special meeting may be adjourned to a later date or dates in order to permit further solicitation of additional proxies. Pursuant to the TBOC, the Grand Bank board of directors is not required to fix a new record date to determine the Grand Bank shareholders entitled to vote at the adjourned special meeting. At the adjourned special meeting, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the special meeting. If the Grand Bank board of directors does not fix a new record date, it is not necessary to give any notice of the time and place of the adjourned special meeting other than an announcement at the special meeting at which the adjournment is taken, unless the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days. If a new record date is fixed, notice of the adjourned special meeting shall be given as in the case of an original special meeting.

In order to allow proxies that have been received at the time of the special meeting to be voted for an adjournment, if necessary, this proposal regarding the question of adjournment is being submitted to the Grand Bank shareholders as a separate matter for their consideration. If approved, the adjournment proposal will authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Grand Bank board of directors to vote in favor of adjourning the special meeting and any later adjournments. If the Grand Bank shareholders approve this adjournment proposal, Grand Bank could adjourn the special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies to gain a quorum for the special meeting or approve the reorganization agreement, including the solicitation of proxies from Grand Bank shareholders who previously have voted against the reorganization agreement. Among other things, approval of the adjournment proposal could mean that, even if proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against the reorganization agreement have been received, Grand Bank could adjourn the special meeting without a vote on the proposal to approve the reorganization agreement and seek to convince the holders of those shares to change their votes to votes in favor of the proposal to approve the reorganization agreement.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of holders of the majority of the shares for which votes are cast at the special meeting is needed to approve this proposal. Abstentions will not be counted as votes cast and, therefore, will not affect this proposal. Further, the failure to vote, either by proxy or in person, will not have an effect on this proposal. Unless instructions to the contrary are specified in a proxy properly voted and returned through available channels, the proxies will be voted FOR this proposal.

Certain directors and shareholders of Grand Bank entered into a voting agreement with Independent, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote FOR the this proposal to adjourn the special meeting. For more information regarding the voting agreement, please see the section entitled Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Voting Agreement beginning on page 74.

Grand Bank shareholders are advised to obtain the current stock quotation for Independent common stock. The market price of Independent common stock will fluctuate from the date of this proxy statement/prospectus through the third trading date prior to the effective date of the merger, which is the date on which the per share stock consideration is determined for the merger. Because of the possibility of an adjustment to each of the number of shares constituting the per share stock consideration and the per share cash consideration, you will not know the exact number of shares of Independent common stock or the exact amount of cash that you will receive in connection with the merger when you vote on the reorganization agreement. See Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Terms of the Merger beginning on page 40.

Prior to April 3, 2013, there was no established public trading market for Independent common stock, and Independent is not aware of any trading in its common stock during the period from January 1, 2013, through April 3, 2013.

After the merger, Independent currently expects to continue to pay (when, as and if declared by Independent's board of directors out of funds legally available for that purpose and subject to regulatory restrictions) regular quarterly cash dividends. There is no assurance that Independent will continue to pay dividends in the future. Future dividends on Independent common stock will depend upon its earnings and financial condition, liquidity and capital requirements, the general economic and regulatory climate, its ability to service any equity or debt obligations senior to the common stock and other factors deemed relevant by the board of directors of Independent.

As a holding company, Independent is ultimately dependent upon its subsidiaries particularly Independent Bank, to provide funding for its operating expenses, debt service and dividends. Various banking laws applicable to Independent Bank limit the payment of dividends and other distributions by Independent Bank to Independent, and may therefore limit Independent's ability to pay dividends on its common stock. If required payments on Independent's outstanding junior subordinated debentures held by its unconsolidated subsidiary trusts are not made or are suspended, Independent will be prohibited from paying dividends on its common stock. Regulatory authorities could impose administratively stricter limitations on the ability of Independent Bank to pay dividends to Independent if such limits were deemed appropriate to preserve certain capital adequacy requirements. See Summary Dividends.

Grand Bank

There is no established public trading market for the shares of Grand Bank common stock, and no market for Grand Bank common stock is expected to develop if the merger does not occur. No registered broker/dealer makes a market in Grand Bank's common stock, and Grand Bank's common stock is not listed for trading or quoted on any stock exchange or automated quotation system. Grand Bank acts as the transfer agent and registrar for its own shares. As of the record date, there were approximately 93 holders of record of Grand Bank's common stock.

Grand Bank becomes aware of trades of shares as transfer agent of its common stock and sometimes is advised of the prices at which these trades are made. In that regard, during the period from January 1, 2013, through September 18, 2015, there were six trades of Grand Bank's common stock.

The following table sets forth the high and low sales prices known to management of Grand Bank for trades of its common stock for the periods shown:

Table of Contents

For the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, Grand Bank paid annual distributions (in arrears), which were intended to cover the tax liabilities incurred by the shareholders as a result of Grand Bank's operations and election as an S corporation, as follows:

| Date Paid | Amount of Distributions Per Share | Total Distribution Amount |
|------------------|--|----------------------------------|
| January 14, 2015 | $ 0.60 | $ 1,035,210 |
| January 29, 2014 | $ 0.56 | $ 966,196 |

Grand Bank has not paid any distributions in 2015 and will not pay any distributions in 2015 other than the distribution to Grand Bank shareholders permitted by the reorganization agreement if Grand Bank's tangible book value on the calculation date exceeds $40.0 million. See "Proposal to Approve the Reorganization Agreement Terms of the Merger Other Financial Aspects" on page 41.

Grand Bank's shareholders are entitled to receive distributions out of legally available funds as and when declared by Grand Bank's board of directors, in its sole discretion. As a Texas state chartered bank, Grand Bank is subject to certain restrictions on distributions under the Texas Finance Code. Generally, a Texas state bank may pay distributions to its shareholder out of its retained earnings or undivided surplus account unless distribution would result in the bank falling below its minimum capital requirement or the bank is in a condition resulting in regulatory limitation on dividends.

As a state chartered bank, Grand Bank's ability to pay distributions is restricted by certain laws and regulations. Federal law prohibits Grand Bank from paying distributions that would be greater than the bank's undivided profits after deducting statutory bad debt in excess of the bank's allowance for loan and lease losses.

Under the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act, Grand Bank may not pay any distribution if the payment of the distribution would cause Grand Bank to become undercapitalized or if Grand Bank is undercapitalized. The FDIC may further restrict the payment of distributions by requiring that Grand Bank maintain a higher level of capital than would otherwise be required to be adequately capitalized for regulatory purposes. If, in the opinion of the FDIC, Grand Bank is engaged in an unsound practice (which could include the payment of distributions), the FDIC may require, generally after notice and hearing, that Grand Bank cease such practice. The FDIC has indicated that paying distributions that deplete a depository institution's capital base to an inadequate level would be an unsafe banking practice. The FDIC also has issued policy statements providing that insured depository institutions generally should pay distributions only out of current operating earnings.

Under regulatory capital guidelines as phased in for 2015, Grand Bank must maintain a Minimum Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio plus Capital Conservation Buffer of at least 4.5%, a Tier 1 Capital Ratio of at least 6.0%, and a Total Capital Ratio of at least 8.0%. As of June 30, 2015, Grand Bank had a Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio 13.87%, a Tier 1 Capital ratio of 13.87% and a Total Capital Ratio of 14.75%. In addition, Grand Bank has a Tier I Leverage Capital to Total Asset Ratio of 7.12% as of June 30, 2015.

DESCRIPTION OF INDEPENDENT CAPITAL STOCK

General

The following summarizes some of the important rights of Independent shareholders. This discussion does not purport to be a complete description of these rights. These rights can be determined in full only by reference to federal and state banking laws and regulations, the TBOC and Independent's certificate of formation and bylaws.

Independent's authorized capital stock consists of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of September 18, 2015, Independent had 17,111,394 outstanding shares of its common stock and 23,938.35 shares of its Series A preferred stock were outstanding. All of Independent's shares outstanding at that date were fully paid and nonassessable. As of September 18, 2015, Independent had 361 holders of record of common stock.

Independent Common Stock

Voting Rights. Subject to any special voting rights that may be given to any series of preferred stock that Independent may issue in the future, holders of Independent's common stock are entitled to one vote per share in the election of directors and on all other matters submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. No shareholder has the right of cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors.

With respect to any matter other than the election of directors or a matter for which the affirmative vote of the holders of a specified portion of the shares entitled to vote is required by Texas law or Independent's certificate of formation, the act of the shareholders will be the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on, and voted for or against, the matter at a meeting of shareholders at which a quorum is present. For purposes of such a vote, however, all abstentions and broker nonvotes are not counted as voted either for or against such matter.

In elections of directors in which the number of nominees for election as director does not exceed the number of directors to be elected (generally referred to as an uncontested election), the directors will be elected by a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares entitled to vote in the election of directors at a meeting of shareholders at which a quorum is present. If the number of nominees for election exceeds the number of directors to be elected at a meeting of shareholders (generally referred to as a contested election), directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast. For purposes of determining whether a director is elected in an uncontested election, a majority of the votes cast means that the number of votes cast for a director must exceed the number of votes cast against that director, and abstentions and broker nonvotes shall not be counted as votes cast either for or against any nominee for director. For purposes of determining whether a director is elected in a contested election, the nominees equal in number to the number of directors to be elected who receive the highest number of votes among all nominees will be elected as directors.

Dividend Rights. Holders of Independent's common stock are entitled to dividends when, as and if declared by Independent's board of directors out of funds legally available therefor.

Liquidation Rights. In the event of Independent's liquidation, the holders of Independent common stock will be entitled to share ratably in any assets remaining after payment of all debts and other liabilities.

Other. Independent's common stock has no preemptive or conversion rights and is not entitled to the benefits of any redemption or sinking fund provision.

Transfer Agent and Registrar. The transfer agent and registrar for Independent's common stock is Wells Fargo Shareowner Services, at 1110 Centre Point Curve, Suite 101, Mendota Heights, Minnesota 55120-4101.

Listing. Independent's common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol IBTX.

Independent Preferred Stock

Upon authorization of Independent's board of directors, Independent may issue shares of one or more series of its preferred stock from time to time. Independent's board of directors may, without any action by holders of common stock (and except as may be otherwise provided in the terms of any series of preferred stock of which there are shares outstanding holders of preferred stock) adopt resolutions to designate and establish a new series of preferred stock. Upon establishing such a series of preferred stock, the board will determine the number of shares of preferred stock of that series that may be issued and the rights and preferences of that series of preferred stock. Independent's board of directors has not designated or established any series of preferred stock. The rights of any series of preferred stock may include, among others:

general or special voting rights;

preferential liquidation or preemptive rights;

preferential cumulative or noncumulative dividend rights;

redemption or put rights; and conversion or exchange rights.

Independent may issue shares of, or rights to purchase shares of, one or more series of Independent's preferred stock that have been designated from time to time, the terms of which might:

adversely affect voting or other rights evidenced by, or amounts otherwise payable with respect to, the common stock or other series of preferred stock;

discourage an unsolicited proposal to acquire Independent; or facilitate a particular business combination involving Independent.

Any of these actions could have an anti-takeover effect and discourage a transaction that some or a majority of Independent's shareholders might believe to be in their best interests or in which Independent's shareholders might receive a premium for their stock over Independent's then market price.

Holders of the Series A preferred stock do not have any preemptive rights.

Liquidation Rights

The holders of Series A preferred stock have a liquidation preference equal to the liquidation amount per share plus any accrued and unpaid dividends on each such share. Redemption Rights

The Company has the option to redeem, in whole or in part, any or all of the shares of the Series A preferred stock, subject to any required regulatory approval, for a price per share equal to the sum of the liquidation amount per share plus any unpaid dividends for the then current quarterly dividend period up to the day before the redemption date.

Restriction on Redemption and Repurchases of Company Securities

Under the terms of the Series A preferred stock, we may not repurchase or redeem any shares of our capital stock, including any equity securities or trust preferred securities issued by us or any of our affiliates, unless after giving effect to such repurchase or redemption, our Tier 1 capital would be at least equal to $79,376,715 and all dividends have been paid on the Series A preferred stock for the most recently completed quarterly dividend period (or sufficient funds have been reserved).

otherwise acquiring any shares of its capital stock at any time, subject to certain enumerated exceptions.

Business Combinations under Texas Law

A number of provisions of Texas law, Independent's certificate of formation and bylaws could have an anti-takeover effect and make more difficult the acquisition of Independent by means of a tender offer, a proxy contest or otherwise and the removal of incumbent directors. These provisions are intended to discourage coercive takeover practices and inadequate takeover bids and to encourage persons seeking to acquire control of Independent to negotiate first with Independent's board of directors.

Independent is subject to the provisions of Title 2, Chapter 21, Subchapter M of the TBOC, or the Texas Business Combination Law, which provides that a Texas corporation may not engage in specified types of business combinations, including mergers, consolidations and asset sales, with a person, or an affiliate or associate of that person, who is an affiliated shareholder. For purposes of this law, an affiliated shareholder is generally defined as the holder of 20% or more of the corporation's voting shares, for a period of three years from the date that person became an affiliated shareholder. The law's prohibitions do not apply if:

the business combination or the acquisition of shares by the affiliated shareholder was approved by the board of directors of the corporation before the affiliated shareholder became an affiliated shareholder; or the business combination was approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation not beneficially owned by the affiliated shareholder, at a meeting of shareholders called for that purpose, not less than six months after the affiliated shareholder became an affiliated shareholder.

Independent has more than 100 shareholders and is considered to be an issuing public corporation for purposes of this law. The Texas Business Combination Law does not apply to the following:

the business combination of an issuing public corporation: where the corporation's original certificate of formation or bylaws contain a provision expressly electing not to be governed by the Texas Business Combination Law; or that adopts an amendment to its certificate of formation or bylaws, by the affirmative vote of the holders, other than affiliated shareholders, of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation, expressly electing not to be governed by the Texas Business Combination Law and so long as the amendment does not take effect for 18 months following the date of the vote and does not apply to a business combination with an affiliated shareholder who became affiliated on or before the effective date of the amendment;

a business combination of an issuing public corporation with an affiliated shareholder that became an affiliated shareholder inadvertently, if the affiliated shareholder divests itself, as soon as possible, of enough shares to no longer be an affiliated shareholder and would not at any time within the three- year period preceding the announcement of the business combination have been an affiliated shareholder but for the inadvertent acquisition;

a business combination with an affiliated shareholder who became an affiliated shareholder through a transfer of shares by will or intestacy and continuously was an affiliated shareholder until the announcement date of the business combination; and a business combination of a corporation with its wholly owned Texas subsidiary if the subsidiary is not an affiliate or associate of the affiliated shareholder other than by reason of the affiliated shareholder's beneficial ownership of voting shares of the corporation.

Neither Independent's certificate of formation nor Independent's bylaws contain any provision expressly providing that Independent will not be subject to the Texas Business Combination Law. The Texas Business Combination Law may have the effect of inhibiting a nonnegotiated merger or other business combination involving Independent, even if that event would be beneficial to Independent's shareholders.

Certain Certificate of Formation and Bylaw Provisions Potentially Having an Anti-takeover Effect

Independent's certificate of formation and bylaws contain certain provisions that could have an anti-takeover effect and thus discourage potential takeover attempts and make it more difficult for Independent's shareholders to change management or receive a premium for their shares. These provisions include:

authorization for Independent's board of directors to issue shares of one or more series of preferred stock without shareholder approval;

the establishment of a classified board of directors, with directors of each class serving a three-year term;

a requirement that directors only be removed from office for cause and only upon a majority shareholder vote;

a provision that vacancies on Independent's board of directors, including newly created directorships, may be filled only by a majority vote of directors then in office;

a prohibition of shareholder action by written consent, requiring all actions to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders;

the requirement that shareholders representing two-thirds of the outstanding shares of common stock approve all amendments to Independent's certificate of formation or bylaws and approve mergers and similar transactions;

the requirement that any shareholders that desire to bring business before Independent's annual meeting of shareholders or nominate candidates for election as directors at Independent's annual meeting of shareholders must provide timely notice of their intent in writing; the prohibition of cumulative voting in the election of directors; and a limitation on the ability of shareholders to call special meetings to those shareholders or groups of shareholders owning at least 20% of Independent's outstanding shares of common stock.

Limitation of Liability and Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Independent's certificate of formation provides that its directors are not liable to Independent or its shareholders for monetary damages for an act or omission in their capacity as a director. A director may, however, be found liable for:

any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Independent or its shareholders; acts or omissions not in good faith that constitute a breach of the director's duty to Independent;

acts or omissions not in good faith that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

any transaction from which the director receives an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's duties;

acts or omissions for which the liability of the director is expressly provided by an applicable statute; and acts related to an unlawful stock repurchase or payment of a dividend.

Independent's certificate of formation also provides that Independent will indemnify its directors and officers, and may indemnify its employees and agents, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Texas law from any expenses, liabilities or other matters.

The bylaws provide that any director may be removed with or without cause at a meeting of the shareholders called expressly for that purpose by the affirmative vote of a majority of the number of shares of the shareholders entitled to vote for the election of such director.

The bylaws also provide that any vacancy on the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors then in office or by a shareholder election at any annual or special meeting called for such purpose.

The bylaws provide that whenever the authorized number of directors is increased, the shareholders may authorize by resolution that a majority of the directors in office shall have the power to fill up to two such directorships.

INDEPENDENT

The certificate of formation provides for three classes of directors and which are intended to consist as nearly as possible to one third of the total number of directors serving on the board. Except for the initial term of two classes of such directors, the directors shall be elected to a three year term. The elections of the directors shall be staggered such that one class of directors will be elected in each year.

Any individual that receives the plurality of the votes cast, up to the number of directors to be elected in such election, shall be elected to the board. No cumulative voting is permitted for the election of directors pursuant to the certificate of formation.

Independent's certificate of formation provides that subject to the right of holders of a class of stock having the right to elect a director solely by the holders of that class, any director may be removed only (i) for cause and (ii) by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the combined voting power of the outstanding stock entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

The bylaws provide that unless otherwise required by law, special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose may be called by (i) the president, (ii) the board of directors, or (iii) the holders of not less than 10% of all of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF REORGANIZATION (Agreement) is made and entered into as of July 23, 2015, by and between INDEPENDENT BANK GROUP, INC., a Texas corporation and registered bank holding company with its principal offices in McKinney, Texas (IBG), and GRAND BANK, a Texas state banking association with its principal office in Dallas, Texas (Grand Bank).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, IBG desires to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of Grand Bank common stock (the Grand Bank Stock), through the merger of Grand Bank with and into Independent Bank, a Texas state banking association and wholly owned subsidiary of IBG (Independent Bank), with Independent Bank continuing as the surviving bank (the Merger), pursuant to which holders of the Grand Bank Stock will be entitled to receive cash and shares of common stock of IBG (the IBG Stock) as provided for herein;

WHEREAS, the parties intend that the Merger qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of § 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder;

WHEREAS, to induce IBG to enter into this Agreement, certain shareholders of Grand Bank have agreed to execute and deliver to IBG a Voting Agreement, in the form attached as Exhibit B, pursuant to which these shareholders agree to vote their shares of Grand Bank Stock in favor of the Merger;

WHEREAS, IBG and Grand Bank desire to set forth certain representations, warranties and covenants made by each to the other as an inducement to the execution and delivery of this Agreement and certain additional agreements related to the transactions contemplated hereby; and

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing and of the mutual representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be bound hereby, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Agreement and Plan of Merger to be entered into between Grand Bank and Independent Bank in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the Merger Agreement), Grand Bank will merge with and into Independent Bank pursuant to the provisions of Section 32.301 of the Texas Finance Code (the TFC) and Chapter 10 of the Texas Business Organizations Code (the TBOC).

Section 1.02. Effects of the Merger. Independent Bank shall continue as the entity resulting from the Merger (the Resulting Entity), and the Merger shall otherwise have the effects set forth in Section 32.301 of the TFC, Section 10.008 of the TBOC, and as set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Section 1.03. Certificate of Formation. The Certificate of Formation and Bylaws of the Resulting Entity shall be as set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Section 1.04. Directors and Officers. The directors and officers of the Resulting Entity shall be as set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Section 1.05. Merger Consideration. At the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.11), by virtue of this Agreement and without any further action on the part of IBG, Grand Bank or any holder of Grand Bank Stock, all of the shares of Grand Bank Stock outstanding at the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive an aggregate $24,100,000, subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 1.05(E) and Section 1.06(D), in cash (the Aggregate Cash Consideration), and an aggregate number of shares of IBG Stock as calculated pursuant to Section 1.05(B)(2) with the intent that such shares of IBG Stock have an aggregate value of approximately $56,000,000 (collectively, the Aggregate Merger Consideration).

A. Any shares of Grand Bank Stock that are owned by Grand Bank (other than as a fiduciary) shall automatically be canceled and retired and all rights with respect thereto shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

B. Each share of Grand Bank Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding shares of Grand Bank Stock cancelled pursuant to Section 1.05(A)) shall be converted into, and shall be canceled in exchange for, the right to receive:

1. A cash amount equal to the quotient of (i) the Aggregate Cash Consideration, divided by (ii) the number of shares of Grand Bank Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Per Share Cash Consideration), subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 1.05(E) and Section 1.06(D); and

2. A fraction of a share of IBG Stock (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) equal to the quotient of (i) the quotient of (x) $56,000,000, divided by (y) the number of shares of Grand Bank Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (this quotient is referred to as the Per Share Stock Value), divided by (ii) $43.7660 (the Per Share Stock Consideration).

3. In the event the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock (as defined below) is less than $39.3894, the Per Share Stock Consideration shall be adjusted to be a fraction (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) determined by dividing (i) the product of (x) the Per Share Stock Value, multiplied by (y) 90%, by (ii) the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock.

4. In the event the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock is greater than $48.1426, the Per Share Stock Consideration shall be adjusted to be a fraction (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) determined by dividing (i) the product of (x) the Per Share Stock Value, multiplied by (y) 110%, by (ii) the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock.

5. The Average Closing Price shall be the average of the daily volume weighted average sale price per share of IBG Stock on The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. Global Select Market System (NASDAQ) for the ten (10) consecutive trading days ending on and including the third trading day preceding the Closing Date, as reported by Bloomberg;

6. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, IBG will not issue any certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of IBG Stock otherwise issuable pursuant to the Merger. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional shares, IBG shall pay to each former holder of Grand Bank Stock otherwise entitled to receive such fractional share an amount of cash determined by multiplying (i) the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock by (ii) the fraction of a share of IBG Stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 1.05.

C. Subject only to dissenter's rights under Subchapter H of Chapter 10 of the TBOC, all shares of Grand Bank Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall be cancelled and retired and all rights with respect thereto shall cease to exist, and each holder of Grand Bank Stock shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the consideration provided for in this Section 1.05.

D. If the Tangible Book Value (as defined below) on the fifth business day preceding the Closing Date (as defined in Section 2.01) (the Calculation Date) is greater than $40,000,000, then on the day prior to the Closing Date, Grand Bank may distribute to its shareholders an amount equal to the difference between (i) the actual amount of Tangible Book Value as of the Calculation Date, less (ii) $40,000,000. Any such distribution is referred to as the Section 1.05(D) Distribution.

E. If the Tangible Book Value on the Calculation Date is less than $40,000,000, but more than $39,000,000, then the Aggregate Cash Consideration shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between (i) $40,000,000, minus (ii) the Tangible Book Value on the Calculation Date.

F. For purposes of this Agreement, Tangible Book Value means the tangible shareholders' equity of Grand Bank as determined from Grand Bank's financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied. The following items shall have been paid or properly accrued for in the calculation of Tangible Book Value:

1. All professional fees incurred by Grand Bank in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including investment banking fees, legal fees, accounting fees, and similar costs and expenses;
2. Costs and fees associated with the termination and deconversion of Grand Bank's material contracts, including its data processing and other IT contracts;
3. All payments owed under employment and change in control agreements, all payments made to directors, officers and employees as closing bonuses, retention payments or similar compensation related to closing, and the costs described in Schedule 1.05(F)(3);
4. The effect on Tangible Book Value of the repayment of outstanding principal and interest due and owing on all FHLB advances owed by Grand Bank, including without limitation the payment of prepayment fees or penalties and other costs and expenses resulting from the repayment of such advances; and
5. The premium for D&O insurance tail coverage.

Unrealized gains and losses on Grand Bank's investment securities shall be excluded from the calculation of Tangible Book Value.

Grand Bank shall, at least three business days before the Closing Date, provide IBG with a preliminary calculation of Tangible Book Value. If IBG disagrees with such calculation of Tangible Book Value, Grand Bank and IBG shall meet to resolve any such disagreement. If Grand Bank and IBG cannot resolve any such disagreement, then an independent accounting firm mutually agreed to by IBG and Grand Bank shall resolve any such disagreement which resolution shall be final and binding upon Grand Bank and IBG. For clarity, IBG and Grand Bank agree that the tangible shareholders' equity of Grand Bank as of June 30, 2015 was $41,488,692. The calculation of Tangible Book Value will be prepared and presented in the form set forth in Schedule 1.05(F).

Section 1.06. Treatment of Grand Bank Stock Options. As represented by Grand Bank in Section 3.02(A), Grand Bank has granted options to purchase shares of Grand Bank Stock which are unexercised and outstanding (the Options). A list of the outstanding Options is set forth in Schedule 3.02(A).

A-3

Table of Contents

A. Grand Bank shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts to enter into a written agreement (the Option Holder Agreement) with the holders of the Options listed on Schedule 3.02(A) (the Option Holders). Within ten calendar days of the date of this Agreement, Grand Bank shall send written notice to the Option Holders, together with the Option Holder Agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to IBG, of the following:

1. Each Option Holder may irrevocably elect to exercise his or her outstanding vested Options by submitting a notice of exercise to Grand Bank, in a form to be attached to the Option Holder Agreement, and tendering the exercise price for such Options in cash to Grand Bank in exchange for the number of shares of Grand Bank Stock subject to the Option. The shares of Grand Bank Stock issued upon the exercise of the Options shall subsequently be converted into the right to receive the consideration set forth in Section 1.05 at the Effective Time; or

2. Each Option Holder may irrevocably elect, by so indicating and executing the Option Holder Agreement, to surrender and terminate the Option in exchange for a cash payment by IBG to the Option Holder in an amount equal to the product of (a) the difference between (i) the sum of (x) the Per Share Cash Consideration, plus (y) the value of Per Share Stock Consideration, minus (ii) the exercise price of the Options, multiplied by (b) the number of shares of Grand Bank Stock subject to the Options that remain unexercised as of the date of the Option Holder Agreement (the Option Cash Payment).

B. The Option Holder Agreement shall provide that each Option that is not otherwise immediately exercisable will be deemed to be fully exercisable on the business day immediately preceding the Closing Date. The Option Holder Agreement shall provide that following the surrender or exercise of the Options on the Specified Date, the Options shall terminate and the Option Holders shall have no further rights to acquire shares of Grand Bank Stock pursuant to any such terminated Option.

C. The Options of any Option Holder who has not elected to exercise his or her Options under Section 1.06(A)(1) or who has not signed and delivered to Grand Bank an Option Holder Agreement within thirty calendar days of the date of this Agreement shall be surrendered and terminated in exchange for the Option Cash Payment pursuant to the terms of Section 1.11 of the Grand Bank 2007 Equity Incentive Plan.

D. The Aggregate Cash Consideration shall be reduced by the aggregate amount of cash paid by IBG to the Option Holders who elect to surrender their Options in exchange for the Option Cash Payment.

E. Solely for purposes of determining the Option Cash Payment, the amount of Per Share Cash Consideration and the value of the Per Share Stock Consideration shall be calculated as if the Options being surrendered in exchange for the Option Cash Payment had been exercised in exchange for shares of Grand Bank Stock.

Section 1.07. Treatment of Independent Bank Stock. Each share of Independent Bank Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, on and after the Effective Time, remain issued and outstanding as one share of common stock of Independent Bank as the bank surviving the Merger.

Section 1.08. Dissenting Shareholders. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of Grand Bank Stock that are held by shareholders of Grand Bank who have complied with the terms and provisions of Subchapter H of Chapter 10 of the TBOC (each a Dissenting Shareholder) shall be entitled to those rights and remedies set forth in Subchapter H of Chapter 10 of the TBOC; provided, however, in the event that a shareholder of Grand Bank fails to perfect, withdraws or otherwise loses any such right or remedy granted by the Subchapter H of Chapter 10 of the TBOC, each share of Grand Bank Stock held by such shareholder shall be converted into and represent only the right to receive the consideration as specified in Section 1.05.

Section 1.09. SEC Filing and Shareholder Approval.

A. IBG shall prepare a registration statement on Form S-4 or other applicable form (the Registration Statement) to be filed by IBG with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in connection with the issuance of the shares of IBG Stock to the Grand Bank stockholders pursuant to Section 1.05 (including the Proxy Statement for the Shareholder Meeting (as defined below) and prospectus and other proxy solicitation materials of Grand Bank constituting a part thereof (together, the Proxy Statement) and all related documents). Grand Bank shall prepare and furnish to IBG such information relating to Grand Bank and its directors, officers and stockholders as may be reasonably required to comply with SEC rules and regulations in connection with the Registration Statement. IBG shall provide Grand Bank, and its legal, financial and accounting advisors, the right to review and provide comments upon (i) the Registration Statement in advance of such Registration Statement being filed with the SEC and (ii) on all amendments and supplements to the Registration Statement and all responses to requests for additional information and replies to comments relating to the Registration Statement prior to filing or submission to the SEC. IBG shall consider in good faith all comments from Grand Bank and its legal, financial and accounting advisors to the Registration Statement, all amendments and supplements thereto and all responses to requests for additional information. Grand Bank agrees to cooperate with IBG and IBG's counsel and accountants in requesting and obtaining appropriate opinions, consents and letters from its financial advisor and independent auditor and in taking such other actions in connection with the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement. Provided that Grand Bank has cooperated and promptly provided all information reasonably requested as described above, IBG shall file, or cause to be filed, the Registration Statement with the SEC on or before September 7, 2015. IBG shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts to cause the Registration Statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after the filing thereof. IBG also agrees to use its commercially reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or Blue Sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

B. The Grand Bank Board shall duly call, give notice of, and cause to be held, a meeting of its shareholders (the Shareholder Meeting) and will direct that this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby be submitted to a vote at the Shareholder Meeting. Specifically, the Grand Bank Board will present for the consideration of Grand Bank shareholders a proposal to approve and adopt this Agreement, the Merger, the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The Grand Bank Board will (i) cause proper notice of the Shareholder Meeting to be given to the Grand Bank shareholders in compliance with applicable law and regulations, (ii) distribute to the Grand Bank shareholders the Proxy Statement, (iii) recommend by the affirmative vote of the Grand Bank Board a vote in favor of approval of the proposals set forth in this Section 1.09(B), subject to Section 1.09(C) hereof, and (iv) perform such other acts as may reasonably be requested by IBG to ensure that shareholder approval of the proposals set forth in this Section 1.09(B) are obtained. Grand Bank shall print and commence the mailing (at its expense) of the Proxy Statement to its shareholders on or before the fifth business day following the date that the Registration Statement is declared effective and a final prospectus (relating to the Registration Statement) and Proxy Statement is on file with the SEC prior to or as of such mailing.

C. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Grand Bank and the Board of Directors of Grand Bank (the Grand Bank Board) shall be permitted to effect a change in its recommendation as contemplated by Section 1.09(B)(iii) (Change in Recommendation) if and only to the extent that:

1. Grand Bank and the Grand Bank Representatives (as defined in Section 5.10) have complied in all material respects with Section 5.10;
2. the Grand Bank Board, after consultation with its outside counsel, shall have determined in good faith that failure to make a Change in Recommendation would reasonably be expected to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law; and

3. if the Grand Bank Board intends to effect a Change in Recommendation after Grand Bank has received an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in Section 5.10(D)), (a) the Grand Bank Board shall have concluded in good faith, after giving effect to all of the adjustments which may be offered by IBG pursuant to subclause (c) below, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined in Section 5.10(E)), (b) Grand Bank shall notify IBG, at least five (5) business days in advance, of its intention to effect a Change in Recommendation in response to such Superior Proposal (including the identity of the party making such Acquisition Proposal) and furnish to IBG a written description of the material terms of the Superior Proposal and copies of such other material documents that Grand Bank is not required to keep confidential, and (c) prior to effecting such a Change in Recommendation, Grand Bank shall, and shall cause its financial and legal advisors to, during the period following Grand Bank's delivery of the notice referred to in subclause (b) above, negotiate with IBG in good faith for a period of up to five (5) business days (to the extent IBG desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal.

Section 1.10. Exchange Procedures.

A. On the business day prior to the Closing Date, IBG shall deposit or cause to be deposited in trust with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the Exchange Agent) (i) certificates for shares or evidence of shares in book entry form representing the aggregate number of shares of IBG Stock which the holders of Grand Bank Stock are entitled to receive pursuant to Section 1.05, and (ii) an amount of cash equal to the aggregate amount of cash which the holders of Grand Bank Stock are entitled to receive pursuant to Section 1.05 (collectively, the Aggregate Merger Consideration).

B. At least thirty calendar days prior to the Closing Date, Grand Bank shall deliver to IBG a final list of shareholders (the Shareholder List). The Shareholder List shall be in a form satisfactory to the Exchange Agent and certified as true and correct by the Secretary of Grand Bank. Grand Bank shall reasonably cooperate with the Exchange Agent to finalize the Shareholder List as to content and format. After the date of the Shareholder List, the stock transfer ledger of Grand Bank shall be closed and there shall be no transfers of the shares of Grand Bank Stock on, or changes or modifications of any kind (including without limitation issuances of new certificates to replace lost certificates or to reflect gifts of shares to family members or charitable organizations) to, the stock transfer books of Grand Bank.

C. IBG shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts to cause the Exchange Agent to mail, within ten calendar days following IBG's receipt of the Shareholder List, to each record holder of an outstanding certificate or certificates representing shares of Grand Bank Stock (the Certificates), a form letter of transmittal which will specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates for payment therefor. The form and substance of the letter of transmittal and any associated cover letter shall be mutually acceptable to IBG and Grand Bank before such transmittal materials are mailed to the holders of the Certificates. Upon surrender to the Exchange Agent of a Certificate, together with such letter of transmittal properly completed and duly executed (the Transmittal Materials), the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (i) an amount of cash (the Shareholder Cash Consideration) equal to the product of (x) the Per Share Cash Consideration, multiplied by (y) the number of shares of Grand Bank Stock represented by the Certificate (the Surrendered Shares), (ii) a number of shares of IBG Stock (the Shareholder Stock Consideration) equal to the product of (x) the Per Share Stock Consideration, multiplied by (y) the number of Surrendered Shares, and (iii) an amount of cash as payment in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares of IBG Stock calculated in accordance with Section 1.05(B)(6) (the Fractional Share Consideration), and such Certificate shall forthwith be canceled. The consideration to be received by a shareholder of Grand Bank upon surrender of his Certificate is referred to as the Merger Consideration. Until surrendered in accordance with this Section 1.10, each Certificate (other than Certificates representing Dissenting Shares) shall represent for all purposes the right to receive the Merger Consideration without any interest thereon.

D. If a holder of Certificates surrenders his Certificates and a properly completed and executed letter of transmittal (collectively, the Transmittal Materials) at least two business days prior to the Closing Date, then IBG shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to cause the Exchange Agent to, within five business days after the Effective Time, deposit in the United States mail (first class) the following:

1. A check payable to such holder in the amount of the Shareholder Cash Consideration and the Fractional Share Consideration, if applicable; and
2. An account statement issued by the Exchange Agent stating that the Shareholder Stock Consideration has been issued in book entry form and is being held by the Exchange Agent for the benefit of such holder.

If a holder of Certificates presents to the Exchange Agent his Transmittal Materials after two business days prior to the Closing Date, IBG shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Exchange Agent to deliver the Merger Consideration to such holder promptly, with the intent that the Exchange Agent will mail the Merger Consideration to such holder within ten business days following the Exchange Agent's receipt of the Transmittal Materials from such holder.

E. Former shareholders of Grand Bank shall be entitled to vote after the Effective Time at any meeting of IBG's shareholders the number of shares of IBG Stock into which their shares are converted, regardless of whether such shareholders of Grand Bank have surrendered their Certificates in exchange therefor.

F. No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to shares of IBG Stock and payable to the holders thereof shall be paid to the holder of a Certificate until such holder surrenders such Certificate to the Exchange Agent in accordance with this Section 1.10. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Section 1.10, the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without interest thereon, which had become payable after the Effective Time with respect to the shares of IBG Stock represented by such Certificate.

G. Any portion of the Aggregate Merger Consideration (including the proceeds of any investments thereof) that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of Grand Bank for six months after the Exchange Agent mails the letter of transmittal pursuant to this Section 1.10 shall be delivered to IBG upon demand, and any shareholder of Grand Bank who has not theretofore complied with the exchange procedures in this Section 1.10 shall look to IBG only, and not the Exchange Agent, for the payment of the Merger Consideration in respect of such shares. If outstanding Certificates for shares of Grand Bank Stock are not surrendered or the payment for them is not claimed prior to the date on which such shares of IBG Stock or cash would otherwise escheat to any governmental unit or agency, the unclaimed items shall, to the extent permitted by abandoned property or any other applicable law, become the property of IBG (and to the extent not in its possession shall be delivered to it), free and clear of all claims or interest of any Person previously entitled to such property.

H. If any shares of IBG Stock are to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate so surrendered shall be appropriately endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form (reasonably satisfactory to IBG) for transfer, and that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate representing shares of IBG Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or not payable.

I. None of IBG, Grand Bank, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of Grand Bank Stock for any IBG Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

J. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, then upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by IBG or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as IBG or the Exchange Agent may direct, not to exceed the amount of Merger Consideration to be paid with respect to such lost Certificate, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against IBG, Independent Bank, or Grand Bank with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 1.11. Effective Time. If, between the date hereof and the Effective Time, the shares of IBG Stock shall be changed into a different number or class of shares by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment, or a stock dividend thereon shall be declared with a record date within said period, the Per Share Stock Consideration shall be adjusted accordingly; provided that an offering or sale of IBG Stock shall not be deemed a reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment of the IBG Stock.

Section 1.13. Tax Matters. None of IBG, Independent Bank, or Grand Bank has taken or agreed to take any action, or is aware of any fact or circumstance, that would prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of § 368 of the Code. IBG, Independent Bank, Grand Bank shall each use its reasonable best efforts to cause (i) the Merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of § 368(a) of the Code, and (ii) each of IBG, Independent Bank, and Grand Bank to be a party to the reorganization within the meaning of § 368(b) of the Code. Each of IBG, Independent Bank, and Grand Bank agrees to file all of its tax returns, including complying with the filing requirements of Treasury Regulations § 1.368-3, consistent with the treatment of the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of § 368(a) of the Code and in particular as a transaction described in § 368(a)(2)(D) of the Code, Treasury Regulations § 1.368-2(b)(2). This Agreement is intended to constitute a plan of reorganization within the meaning of Treasury Regulations § 1.368-2(g).

B. A Grand Bank representative shall prepare or cause to be prepared and file or cause to be filed, subject to the review and reasonable approval of IBG, all Tax Returns for Grand Bank for all periods ending on or prior to the Closing Date that are required to be filed after the Closing Date. WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Grand Bank and IBG are parties to that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated as of July 23, 2015 (the Reorganization Agreement), which provides for the acquisition of Grand Bank by IBG through the merger of Grand Bank with and into Independent Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of IBG (the Merger). Terms with their initial letter capitalized and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given them in the Reorganization Agreement;

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Grand Bank, IBG and the Shareholders undertake, promise, covenant and agree with each other as follows:

Notwithstanding, the foregoing sentence, the Shareholders may vote in favor of a Superior Proposal (as that term is defined in the Reorganization Agreement).

4. Each Shareholder hereby covenants and agrees that, until this Voting Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, each Shareholder will not, and will not agree to, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of IBG, (i) sell, assign, transfer or dispose of any of such Shareholder's Shares, (ii) hypothecate such Shareholder's Shares under terms that would prevent the voting thereof, (iii) deposit such Shareholder's Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement with respect to such Shareholder's Shares or grant any proxy with respect thereto except as herein provided, or (iv) enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or undertaking with respect to the direct or indirect sale, assignment, transfer or other disposition of any of such Shareholder's Shares, in connection with a transaction pursuant to which twenty five percent (25%) or more of the voting power of Grand Bank Stock is, or control of Grand Bank otherwise is, transferred to a person or entity other than a party to this Voting Agreement.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, any Shareholder may (i) make such gifts of such Shareholder's Shares as such Shareholder may choose to make, (ii) transfer such Shares to trusts or other entities controlled by the Shareholder or for estate planning purposes, so long as the recipient of such Shareholder's Shares executes and delivers an amendment to this Voting Agreement whereby such recipient becomes bound by the terms of this Voting Agreement.

5. This Voting Agreement shall continue in effect until the earlier to occur of (i) the termination of the Reorganization Agreement, as it may be amended or extended from time to time, or (ii) the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Reorganization Agreement.

6. In the event that a Shareholder transfers a certificate representing any of such Shareholder's Shares prior to the Meeting, Grand Bank shall require such certificate to bear the following endorsement, noted conspicuously thereon:

The shares of stock represented by this certificate are subject to the terms of a Voting Agreement dated July 23, 2015, a copy of which is on file in the principal office of Grand Bank.

7. This Voting Agreement may not be modified, amended, altered or supplemented with respect to a particular Shareholder except upon the execution and delivery of a written agreement executed by Grand Bank, IBG and such Shareholder.

8. This Voting Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. An electronic or facsimile transmission of a signed counterpart of this Voting Agreement shall be sufficient to bind the party or parties whose signature(s) appear thereon.

9. This Voting Agreement, together with the Reorganization Agreement and the agreements contemplated thereby, embody the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto in respect to the subject matter contained herein. This Voting Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings among the parties with respect to such subject matter contained herein.

10. All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted hereby shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered by hand or mail, certified or registered mail (return receipt requested) with postage prepaid to the addresses of the parties hereto set forth on below their signature on the signature pages hereof or to such other address as any party may have furnished to the others in writing in accordance herewith.

APPENDIX B

FAIRNESS OPINION OF HOVDE GROUP, LLC

July 22, 2015

Board of Directors

Grand Bank

16660 Dallas Parkway, Suite 1700

Dallas, TX 75248

Dear Members of the Board:

Hovde Group, LLC (we or Hovde) understand that Independent Bank Group, Inc., a Texas corporation and registered bank holding company with its principal offices in McKinney, Texas (IBG), and Grand Bank, a Texas state banking association with its principal office in Dallas, Texas (Grand Bank or the Company), are about to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization to be dated on or about July 23, 2015 (the Agreement). Pursuant to the Agreement, IBG will acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of Grand Bank common stock (the Grand Bank Stock), through the merger of Grand Bank with and into Independent Bank, a Texas state banking association and wholly owned subsidiary of IBG (Independent Bank), with Independent Bank continuing as the surviving bank (the Merger), pursuant to which the holders of the Grand Bank Stock will be entitled to receive cash and shares of common stock of IBG (the IBG Stock).

Pursuant and subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, by virtue of the Agreement and without any further action on the part of IBG, Grand Bank, or any holder of Grand Bank Stock, all of the shares of Grand Bank Stock outstanding at the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive an aggregate $24,100,000, subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 1.05(E) and Section 1.06(D) of the Agreement, in cash (the Aggregate Cash Consideration), and an aggregate number of shares of IBG Stock as calculated pursuant to Section 1.05(B)(2) of the Agreement with the intent that such shares of IBG Stock have an aggregate value of approximately $56,000,000 (collectively, the Aggregate Merger Consideration).

We note that each share of Grand Bank Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding shares of Grand Bank Stock cancelled pursuant to Section 1.5(A) of the Agreement), shall be converted into the right to receive: (1) a cash amount equal to the quotient of (i) the Aggregate Cash Consideration, divided by (ii) the number of shares of Grand Bank Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Per Share Cash Consideration) subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 1.05(E) and Section 1.06(D) of the Agreement; and (2) a fraction of a share of IBG Stock (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) equal to the quotient of (i) the quotient of (x) $56,000,000, divided by (y) the number of shares of Grand Bank Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (this quotient is referred to as the Per Share Stock Value), divided by (ii) $43.7660 (the Per Share Stock Consideration).

Additionally, in the event the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock is less than $39.3894, the Per Share Stock Consideration shall be adjusted to be a fraction (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) determined by dividing (i) the product of (x) the Per Share Stock Value, multiplied by (y) 90%, by (ii) the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock. In the event the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock is greater than $48.1426, the Per Share Stock Consideration shall be adjusted to be a fraction (rounded to the nearest ten thousandth) determined by dividing (i) the product of (x) the Per Share Stock Value, multiplied by (y) 110%, by (ii) the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock. As used in the Agreement, Average Closing Price means the average of the daily volume weighted average sale price per share of IBG Stock on The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. Global Select Market System (NASDAQ) for the ten (10) consecutive trading days ending on and including the third trading day preceding the Closing Date, as reported by Bloomberg.

We note that the Agreement provides that if the Tangible Book Value (as defined in the Agreement) on the fifth business day preceding the Closing Date (the Calculation Date) is greater than $40,000,000, then on the day prior to the Closing Date, Grand Bank may distribute to its shareholders an amount equal to the difference between (i) the actual amount of Tangible Book Value as of the Calculation Date, less (ii) $40,000,000. Any such distribution is referred to as the Section 1.05(D) Distribution. We further note that if the Tangible Book Value on the Calculation Date is less than $40,000,000, but more than $39,000,000, then the Aggregate Cash Consideration shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between (i) $40,000,000, minus (ii) the Tangible Book Value on the Calculation Date.

We also note that Grand Bank has granted options to purchase shares of Grand Bank Stock which are unexercised and outstanding (the Options). Pursuant to the Agreement, Grand Bank shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts to enter into a written agreement (the Option Holder Agreement) with the holders of the Options listed on Schedule 3.02(A) of the Agreement (the Option Holders), pursuant to which each Option Holder shall agree to either: (1) surrender and terminate the Option in exchange for a cash payment by IBG to the Option Holder in an amount equal to the product of (a) the difference between (i) the sum of (x) the Per Share Cash Consideration, plus (y) the value of Per Share Stock Consideration, minus (ii) the exercise price of the Options, multiplied by (b) the number of shares of Grand Bank Stock underlying the Options (the Option Cash Payment); or (2) exercise the Option by tendering the exercise price for the Option in cash to Grand Bank in exchange for the number of shares of Grand Bank Stock underlying the Option. The shares of Grand Bank Stock issued upon the exercise of the Options shall subsequently be converted into the right to receive the consideration set forth in Section 1.05 of the Agreement at the Effective Time. The Aggregate Cash Consideration shall be reduced by the aggregate amount of cash paid by IBG to the Option Holders who elect to surrender their Options in exchange for the Option Cash Payment. For purposes of determining the Option Cash Payment, the amount of Per Share Cash Consideration and the value of the Per Share Stock Consideration shall be calculated as if the Options being surrendered in exchange for the Option Cash Payment had been exercised in exchange for shares of Grand Bank Stock.

Since the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock, the Tangible Book Value of the Company, and the Option Cash Payment as of their respective determination dates, and the related amounts derived from those figures cannot be determined until dates after the date of this opinion, potential future adjustments to the Per Share Cash Consideration, Per Share Stock Consideration, Aggregate Cash Consideration, and Aggregate Merger Consideration, if any, attributable to changes in the Average Closing Price, Tangible Book Value, or treatment of Options pursuant to the Option Holder Agreement, as applicable, if any, cannot be predicted with precision. In forming our opinion, we have not accounted for the payment of any additional consideration resulting from the Section 1.05(D) Distribution or the exercise of any Options as such events cannot be determined as of the date of this opinion. However, you have instructed us to assume, for purposes of the foregoing and our opinion, that the Average Closing Price of IBG Stock as of the determination date would not be less than $35.0128 and would not be greater than $52.5192, and that the Per Share Stock Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger will have an aggregate estimated value of not less than $50,400,000 and not greater than $61,600,000. You have further advised us to assume that the Tangible Book Value of the Company as of the determination date would be in an amount equal to or greater than $40,000,000. Accordingly, if the Tangible Book Value as of the Calculation Date were equal to or greater than $40,000,000, the total value of Aggregate Cash Consideration, inclusive of any Option Cash Payment, that would be paid in connection with the Merger would be $24,100,000. We have assumed that these amounts are reasonable estimates or projections of the corresponding actual amounts as of the date the Per Share Cash Consideration, Per Share Stock Consideration, Aggregate Cash Consideration, and Aggregate Merger Consideration will be determined, and that any difference between actual amounts assumed in this letter would be immaterial. Accordingly, based on the foregoing assumptions, and for the purposes of this opinion, the holders of Grand Bank Stock will have the right to receive estimated Aggregate Merger Consideration with an aggregate value of not less than $74,500,000 and not greater than $85,700,000.

The foregoing descriptions of the Aggregate Cash Consideration, Per Share Cash Consideration, Per Share Stock Consideration, Options, and Aggregate Merger Consideration are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Agreement. Capitalized terms used herein that are not otherwise defined shall have the same meanings attributed to them in the Agreement. In connection therewith, you have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Aggregate Merger Consideration to the shareholders of Grand Bank. This opinion addresses only the fairness of the Aggregate Merger Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger, and we are not opining on the individual cash, stock or option components of the Aggregate Merger Consideration.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed a draft of the Agreement dated July 21, 2015, as provided to Hovde by the Company;

- (viii) reviewed the terms of recent merger, acquisition and control investment transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving financial institutions and financial institution holding companies that we considered relevant;
- (ix) assessed the general economic, market and financial conditions;

We have assumed, without independent verification, the representations as well as the financial and other information provided to us by the Company or included in the Agreement, which has formed a substantial basis for this opinion, are true and complete. Hovde has relied upon the management of the Company as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therein) provided to and/or discussed with Hovde by the Company and used by us in our analysis, and Hovde has assumed that such forecasts and projections reflect the best currently available information and the Company's judgments and estimates. We have assumed that such forecasts would be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We have been authorized by the Company to rely upon such forecasts and other information and data, including without limitation the projections, and we express no view as to any such forecasts or other information or data, or the bases or assumptions on which they were prepared. We have assumed that each party to the Agreement would advise us promptly if any information previously provided to us became inaccurate or was required to be updated during the period of our review. Hovde has relied on these forecasts without independent verification or analyses and does not in any respect assume any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness thereof.

We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto. We have assumed that such allowances for the Company and IBG are, in the aggregate, adequate to cover such losses, and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. We were not requested to make, and have not made, an independent evaluation, physical inspection or appraisal of the assets, properties, facilities, or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or IBG, the collateral securing any such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals; nor did we review any loan or credit files of the Company or IBG.

We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement, without any waiver of material terms or conditions by the Company, or any other party to the Agreement and that the final Agreement will not differ materially from the draft we reviewed. We have assumed that the Merger has been, and will be, conducted in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to the Company and IBG. The Company has advised us that there are no factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger. We have assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals, no restrictions will be imposed on the Company or on IBG that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Merger.

Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Company as to whether or not such the Company should enter into the Agreement or to any shareholders of the Company as to how such shareholders should vote at any meetings of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the Merger. Our opinion neither addresses the underlying business decision to proceed with the Merger nor the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation, if any, to be received by any of the officers, directors or employees of the Company, or class of such persons, relative to the amounts of consideration to be paid with respect to the Merger. Our opinion should not be construed as implying that the Aggregate Merger Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger is necessarily the highest or best price that could be obtained in the Merger or in a sale, merger, or combination transaction with a third party. We do not express any opinion as to the value of Grand Bank's common stock or IBG's common stock following the announcement of the proposed Merger, the value of Grand Bank's common stock or IBG's common stock following the consummation of the Merger, or the prices at which shares of Grand Bank's common stock or IBG's common stock may be purchased or sold at any time, which in each case, may vary depending on numerous factors, including factors outside of the control of Grand Bank and IBG. Other than as specifically set forth herein, we are not expressing any opinion with respect to the terms and provisions of the Agreement and/or the enforceability of any such terms or provisions. Our opinion is not a solvency opinion and does not in any way address the solvency or financial condition of the Company.

This opinion was approved by Hovde's fairness opinion committee. This letter is directed solely to the board of directors of Grand Bank and is not to be used for any other purpose or quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in any registration statement, prospectus, proxy statement, or any other document, except in each case in accordance with our prior written consent; provided, however, that we hereby consent to the inclusion and reference to this letter in any registration statement, proxy statement, information statement or tender offer document to be delivered to the holders of Grand Bank's common stock in connection with the Merger if, and only if, this letter is quoted in full or attached as an exhibit to such document and this letter has not been withdrawn prior to the date of such document.

Our opinion is based solely upon the information available to us, and the economic, market and other circumstances as they exist as of the date hereof. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the underlying business decision of the Board of Directors of Grand Bank to effectuate the Merger, the structure or legal, tax, accounting or regulatory aspects or consequences of the Merger or the availability or advisability of any alternatives to the Merger. No assurance can be given that adjustments to the consideration to be paid in the Merger will not be required by the actual results of operations of the Company after June 30, 2015.

In arriving at this opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Hovde believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all analyses, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying this opinion.

Hovde, as part of its investment banking business, regularly performs valuations of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In addition to being retained to render this opinion letter, we were retained by the Company to act as their financial advisor in connection with the Merger.

We will receive compensation from the Company in connection with our services, which may include, without limitation, a fairness opinion fee that is contingent upon the issuance of this opinion letter and a completion fee that is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. Further, the Company has agreed to indemnify us and our affiliates for certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement. Additionally, we, or our affiliates have been engaged by and/or received compensation from the Company and IBG in the past, and may presently or in the future, receive compensation from IBG in connection with future transactions, in connection with other potential advisory services and corporate transactions, although to our knowledge none are presently expected at this time. Further, in the ordinary course of our business as a broker dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to the Company and IBG and their affiliates. We may also trade the securities of IBG and their affiliates for our own account and the accounts of our customers. Except for the foregoing, during the past two years there have not been, and there are no mutual understandings contemplating in the future, any material relationships between Hovde and the Company or IBG.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion, as of the date hereof, that the estimated Aggregate Merger Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger is fair to the shareholders of Grand Bank from a financial point of view.

Sincerely,

HOVDE GROUP, LLC

Section 10.351. APPLICABILITY OF SUBCHAPTER.

(a) This subchapter does not apply to a fundamental business transaction of a domestic entity if, immediately before the effective date of the fundamental business transaction, all of the ownership interests of the entity otherwise entitled to rights to dissent and appraisal under this code are held by one owner or only by the owners who approved the fundamental business transaction.

(a) A domestic entity subject to dissenters' rights that takes or proposes to take an action regarding which an owner has a right to dissent and obtain an appraisal under Section 10.354 shall notify each affected owner of the owner's rights under that section if:

(1) the action or proposed action is submitted to a vote of the owners at a meeting; or

(2) approval of the action or proposed action is obtained by written consent of the owners instead of being submitted to a vote of the owners.

(b) If a parent organization effects a merger under Section 10.006 and a subsidiary organization that is a party to the merger is a domestic entity subject to dissenters' rights, the responsible organization shall notify the owners of that subsidiary organization who have a right to dissent to the merger under Section 10.354 of their rights under this subchapter not later than the 10th day after the effective date of the merger. The notice must also include a copy of the certificate of merger and a statement that the merger has become effective.

(c) A notice required to be provided under Subsection (a) or (b) must:

(2) each owner who is entitled to vote on the action and does not consent in writing to the action before the 11th day after the date the action takes effect.

(e) Not later than the 10th day after the date an action described by Subsection (a)(1) takes effect, the responsible organization shall give notice that the action has been effected to each owner who voted against the action and sent notice under Section 10.356(b)(1).

Section 10.356. PROCEDURE FOR DISSENT BY OWNERS AS TO ACTIONS; PERFECTION OF RIGHT OF DISSENT AND APPRAISAL.

(a) An owner of an ownership interest of a domestic entity subject to dissenters' rights who has the right to dissent and appraisal from any of the actions referred to in Section 10.354 may exercise that right to dissent and appraisal only by complying with the procedures specified in this subchapter. An owner's right of dissent and appraisal under Section 10.354 may be exercised by an owner only with respect to an ownership interest that is not voted in favor of the action.

(b) To perfect the owner's rights of dissent and appraisal under Section 10.354, an owner:

(1) if the proposed action is to be submitted to a vote of the owners at a meeting, must give to the domestic entity a written notice of objection to the action that:

(A) is addressed to the entity's president and secretary;

(B) states that the owner's right to dissent will be exercised if the action takes effect;

(C) provides an address to which notice of effectiveness of the action should be delivered or mailed; and

(D) is delivered to the entity's principal executive offices before the meeting;

(D) states the number and class of the ownership interests of the domestic entity owned by the owner and the fair value of the ownership interests as estimated by the owner; and

(E) is delivered to the responsible organization at its principal executive offices at the following time:

(i) not later than the 20th day after the date the responsible organization sends to the owner the notice required by Section 10.355(e) that the action has taken effect, if the action was approved by a vote of the owners at a meeting;

C-4

Table of Contents

(ii) not later than the 20th day after the date the responsible organization sends to the owner the notice required by Section 10.355(d)(2) that the action has taken effect, if the action was approved by the written consent of the owners; or

(iii) not later than the 20th day after the date the responsible organization sends to the owner a notice that the merger was effected, if the action is a merger effected under Section 10.006.

(c) An owner who does not make a demand within the period required by Subsection (b)(3)(E) or, if Subsection (b)(1) is applicable, does not give the notice of objection before the meeting of the owners is bound by the action and is not entitled to exercise the rights of dissent and appraisal under Section 10.354.

(d) Not later than the 20th day after the date an owner makes a demand under Subsection (b)(3), the owner must submit to the responsible organization any certificates representing the ownership interest to which the demand relates for purposes of making a notation on the certificates that a demand for the payment of the fair value of an ownership interest has been made under this section. An owner's failure to submit the certificates within the required period has the effect of terminating, at the option of the responsible organization, the owner's rights to dissent and appraisal under Section 10.354 unless a court, for good cause shown, directs otherwise.

(e) If a domestic entity and responsible organization satisfy the requirements of this subchapter relating to the rights of owners of ownership interests in the entity to dissent to an action and seek appraisal of those ownership interests, an owner of an ownership interest who fails to perfect that owner's right of dissent in accordance with this subchapter may not bring suit to recover the value of the ownership interest or money damages relating to the action.

Section 10.357. WITHDRAWAL OF DEMAND FOR FAIR VALUE OF OWNERSHIP INTEREST.

(a) An owner may withdraw a demand for the payment of the fair value of an ownership interest made under Section 10.356 before:

(1) payment for the ownership interest has been made under Sections 10.358 and 10.361; or

(2) a petition has been filed under Section 10.361.

(b) Unless the responsible organization consents to the withdrawal of the demand, an owner may not withdraw a demand for payment under Subsection (a) after either of the events specified in Subsections (a)(1) and (2).

Section 10.358. RESPONSE BY ORGANIZATION TO NOTICE OF DISSENT AND DEMAND FOR FAIR VALUE BY DISSENTING OWNER.

(1) accepting the amount claimed in the demand as the fair value of the ownership interests specified in the notice; or

(2) rejecting the demand and including in the response the requirements prescribed by Subsection (c).

(b) If the responsible organization accepts the amount claimed in the demand, the responsible organization shall pay the amount not later than the 90th day after the date the action that is the subject of the demand was effected if the owner delivers to the responsible organization:

C-5

Table of Contents

(2) signed assignments of the ownership interests if the ownership interests are uncertificated.

(c) If the responsible organization rejects the amount claimed in the demand, the responsible organization shall provide to the owner:

(2) an offer to pay the amount of the estimate provided under Subdivision (1).

(d) If the dissenting owner decides to accept the offer made by the responsible organization under Subsection (c)(2), the owner must provide to the responsible organization notice of the acceptance of the offer not later than the 90th day after the date the action that is the subject of the demand took effect

(e) If, not later than the 90th day after the date the action that is the subject of the demand took effect, a dissenting owner accepts an offer made by a responsible organization under Subsection (c)(2) or a dissenting owner and a responsible organization reach an agreement on the fair value of the ownership interests, the responsible organization shall pay the agreed amount not later than the 120th day after the date the action that is the subject of the demand took effect, if the dissenting owner delivers to the responsible organization:

(1) endorsed certificates representing the ownership interests if the ownership interests are certificated; or

(2) signed assignments of the ownership interests if the ownership interests are uncertificated.

Section 10.359. RECORD OF DEMAND FOR FAIR VALUE OF OWNERSHIP INTEREST.

(a) A responsible organization shall note in the organization's ownership interest records maintained under Section 3.151 the receipt of a demand for payment from any dissenting owner made under Section 10.356.

(b) If an ownership interest that is the subject of a demand for payment made under Section 10.356 is transferred, a new certificate representing that ownership interest must contain:

(1) a reference to the demand; and

(2) the name of the original dissenting owner of the ownership interest.

Section 10.360. RIGHTS OF TRANSFEREE OF CERTAIN OWNERSHIP INTEREST.

A transferee of an ownership interest that is the subject of a demand for payment made under Section 10.356 does not acquire additional rights with respect to the responsible organization following the transfer. The transferee has only the rights the original dissenting owner had with respect to the responsible organization after making the demand.

Section 10.361. PROCEEDING TO DETERMINE FAIR VALUE OF OWNERSHIP INTEREST AND OWNERS ENTITLED TO PAYMENT; APPOINTMENT OF APPRAISERS.

(a) If a responsible organization rejects the amount demanded by a dissenting owner under Section 10.358 and the dissenting owner and responsible organization are unable to reach an agreement relating to the fair value of the ownership interests within the period prescribed by Section 10.358(d), the dissenting owner or responsible organization may file a petition requesting a finding and determination of the fair value of the owner's ownership interests in a court in:

(b) A petition described by Subsection (a) must be filed not later than the 60th day after the expiration of the period required by Section 10.358(d).

(c) On the filing of a petition by an owner under Subsection (a), service of a copy of the petition shall be made to the responsible organization. Not later than the 10th day after the date a responsible organization receives service under this subsection, the responsible organization shall file with the clerk of the court in which the petition was filed a list containing the names and addresses of each owner of the organization who has demanded payment for ownership interests under Section 10.356 and with whom agreement as to the value of the ownership interests has not been reached with the responsible organization. If the responsible organization files a petition under Subsection (a), the petition must be accompanied by this list.

(d) The clerk of the court in which a petition is filed under this section shall provide by registered mail notice of the time and place set for the hearing to:

(f) The court shall approve the form of a notice required to be provided under this section. The judgment of the court is final and binding on the responsible organization, any other organization obligated to make payment under this subchapter for an ownership interest, and each owner who is notified as required by this section.

(g) The beneficial owner of an ownership interest subject to dissenters' rights held in a voting trust or by a nominee on the beneficial owner's behalf may file a petition described by Subsection (a) if no agreement between the dissenting owner of the ownership interest and the responsible organization has been reached within the period prescribed by Section 10.358(d). When the beneficial owner files a petition described by Subsection (a):

(1) the beneficial owner shall at that time be considered, for purposes of this subchapter, the owner, the dissenting owner, and the holder of the ownership interest subject to the petition; and

(2) the dissenting owner who demanded payment under Section 10.356 has no further rights regarding the ownership interest subject to the petition.

Section 10.362. COMPUTATION AND DETERMINATION OF FAIR VALUE OF OWNERSHIP INTEREST.

(a) For purposes of this subchapter, the fair value of an ownership interest of a domestic entity subject to dissenters' rights is the value of the ownership interest on the date preceding the date of the action that is the subject of the appraisal. Any appreciation or depreciation in the value of the ownership interest occurring in anticipation of the proposed action or as a result of the action must be specifically excluded from the computation of the fair value of the ownership interest.

C-7

(b) In computing the fair value of an ownership interest under this subchapter, consideration must be given to the value of the domestic entity as a going concern without including in the computation of value any control premium, any minority ownership discount, or any discount for lack of marketability. If the domestic entity has different classes or series of ownership interests, the relative rights and preferences of and limitations placed on the class or series of ownership interests, other than relative voting rights, held by the dissenting owner must be taken into account in the computation of value.

(c) The determination of the fair value of an ownership interest made for purposes of this subchapter may not be used for purposes of making a determination of the fair value of that ownership interest for another purpose or of the fair value of another ownership interest, including for purposes of determining any minority or liquidity discount that might apply to a sale of an ownership interest.

Section 10.363. POWERS AND DUTIES OF APPRAISER; APPRAISAL PROCEDURES.

(a) An appraiser appointed under Section 10.361 has the power and authority that:

(1) is granted by the court in the order appointing the appraiser; and

(2) may be conferred by a court to a master in chancery as provided by Rule 171, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) The appraiser shall:

(1) determine the fair value of an ownership interest of an owner adjudged by the court to be entitled to payment for the ownership interest; and

(2) file with the court a report of that determination.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers of Independent

Article VI of Independent's certificate of formation and Article VI of Independent's bylaws provide that Independent shall indemnify any person made a party to or involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Independent or is or was serving at the request of Independent as a director or officer of another foreign or domestic association, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other entity, or employee benefit plan (whether such action, suit or proceeding is based in whole or in part on the sole or contributory gross or ordinary negligence of such person or otherwise).

Article VII of Independent's certificate of formation provides that a director of Independent shall not be liable to Independent or its shareholders for monetary damages for an act or omission in the director's capacity as a director, subject to certain limitations.

In Article VI of Independent's certificate of formation and Article VI of Independent's bylaws, Independent makes mandatory for directors and officers the indemnification provided for in Section 8.101 of the Texas Business Organizations Code (TBOC), which provides that, subject to certain limitations, a corporation may indemnify a governing person, former governing person, or delegate who was, is, or is threatened to be made a respondent in a proceeding to the extent permitted by Section 8.102 of the TBOC if it is determined in accordance with Section 8.103 of the TBOC that:

(1) the person:

(A) acted in good faith;

(B) reasonably believed:

(i) in the case of conduct in the person's official capacity, that the person's conduct was in the corporation's best interests; and

(ii) in any other case, that the person's conduct was not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and

(C) in the case of a criminal proceeding, did not have a reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful.

(2) with respect to expenses, the amount of expenses other than a judgment is reasonable; and

(3) indemnification should be paid.

Independent has entered into indemnification agreements with the members of its board of directors (each an indemnitee). Each indemnification agreement requires Independent to indemnify each indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by the TBOC and any successor statute thereto when such successor statute becomes applicable to Independent. Independent will also, among other things, make the indemnitee whole for costs in any action to establish indemnitee's right to indemnification, whether or not wholly successful.

Independent also maintains directors and officers liability insurance.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(a)(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(g)(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
