Converted Organics Inc. Urges Shareholders to Vote on Proposed Acquisition of TerraSphere Systems Ahead of August 31st Meeting

BOSTON, August 25, 2010 (Globe Newswire) Converted Organics Inc. (NASDAQ: COIN) today announced that industry-leading proxy advisory firms have issued reports recommending that Converted Organics Shareholders vote in favor of the TerraSphere Systems, LCC proposal found in the Special Meeting Proxy materials.

In part, the Risk Metrics Group's report found that the proposed consideration for the business is at the lower end of the implied aggregate transaction consideration value range derived by Duff & Phelps, the investment firm that issued the fairness opinion in connection with the transaction. In addition, the report states that the proposed transaction would complement the Company's green tech business.

The Special Meeting is scheduled for August 31, 2010 and the Company encourages all Shareholders to vote their shares as soon as possible. If you are a Shareholder and wish to vote, but have not received or are no longer in possession of proxy materials, please contact your broker and ask for your control number. Upon receipt of the control number, please visit www.proxyvote.com to vote your shares.

On July 6, 2010, Converted Organics Inc. entered into an agreement to acquire TerraSphere. This acquisition is expected to close in September 2010, pending approval of Converted Organics Shareholders on August 31, 2010. The transaction is expected to make a significant positive impact to the combined company and strengthen the collective market-strength of Converted Organics.
