On August 19, 2008, David A. Peacock, Vice President-Marketing of Anheuser-Busch, Inc., issued the e-mail set forth below to the employees of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc.

August 19, 2008

To: All Anheuser-Busch Employees

Yesterday, both Anheuser-Busch and InBev received requests from the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) for additional information about the proposed merger agreement between the two companies. Called a second request, it is a normal and expected part of the regulatory process, and both companies will respond quickly.

The second request means the waiting period for review is extended as the DOJ receives and reviews the additional information. We will continue to work toward a prompt closing of the transaction, and both companies still expect the transaction to close by the end of the year. In the meantime, this DOJ request will not impact our integration efforts, since they are being done in accordance with anti-trust guidelines. The merger transaction remains subject to approval by shareholders of both companies and completion of other closing conditions.

Dave Peacock

Vice President Marketing
