REGIONS AND UNION PLANTERS ANNOUNCE
AGREEMENT IN PRINCIPLE TO SETTLE STOCKHOLDER LITIGATION

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., AND MEMPHIS, TENN. - Regions Financial Corporation (NYSE: RF) and Union Planters Corporation (NYSE: UPC) have agreed in principle to settle the previously disclosed purported stockholder class actions pending against them which challenged the proposed merger between the companies.

"Regions and Union Planters have agreed to the settlement of these class actions to eliminate the burden and expense of further litigation," said Regions Chairman and CEO Carl E. Jones Jr.

In the settlement, Regions and Union Planters will agree to waive their right to receive any portion of the termination fee payable under the merger agreement in excess of $164,250,000 and $233,600,000, respectively. In addition, the companies have each agreed to publicly announce additional information regarding the merger in a Form 8-K filed with the SEC.

Under the terms of the settlement, all claims relating to the merger agreement and the proposed merger will be dismissed and released on behalf of the settlement class. The settlement is subject to approval by the courts in which the actions are pending. Upon approval of the proposed settlement by the courts, plaintiff's attorneys are expected to apply for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

"We are pleased to put this matter behind us," said Union Planters Chairman and CEO Jackson W. Moore. "We can now focus completely on what we are looking forward to - our respective stockholder meetings on June 8 and then completing the merger of these two companies to create one of the largest financial services companies in the United States."

Statements made in this news release and in oral statements by the management of Regions and Union Planters, other than those containing historical information, are forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the merger between Regions and Union Planters, including future financial and operating results, Regions' and Union Planters' plans, objectives, expectations and intentions. Such statements involve risks and uncertainties that may cause results to differ materially from those set forth in these statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the merger on the proposed terms and schedule; the failure of Regions or Union Planters stockholders to approve the merger; the risk that Regions and Union Planters may not have the ability to effect the proposed merger; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully, including integration of information systems and retention of key personnel; the risk that the cost savings and any revenue synergies from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; disruption from the merger making it more difficult to maintain relationships with clients, employees or suppliers; increased competition and its effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues; the risk of new and changing regulation in the United States and internationally. Additional factors that could cause Regions' and Union Planters' results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in the 2003 annual reports on Forms 10-K of Regions and Union Planters, and in the quarterly reports on Forms 10-Q of Regions and Union
