Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 13, 2008, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Corrections Corporation of America, a Maryland corporation (the Company), in accordance with the Company's Bylaws, expanded the size of the Board from twelve members to thirteen members and appointed Dennis W. DeConcini to serve as a new member of the Board until the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until his respective successor is elected and qualified. The Board has not yet made any decisions with respect to Mr. DeConcini's potential membership on any committees of the Board. The Board has determined that Mr. DeConcini is independent within the meaning of the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange as currently in effect. There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. DeConcini and any other person or persons pursuant to which the Mr. DeConcini was selected as a director of the Company. There are also no transactions in which Mr. DeConcini has an interest requiring disclosure pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

In connection with his appointment to the Board, Mr. DeConcini was granted an option to purchase 3,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The option was issued pursuant to the Company's Amended and Restated 2000 Stock Incentive Plan and is subject to an individual award agreement, the form of which was previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Mr. DeConcini, age 70, served as a member of the United States Senate as a Senator from Arizona for three terms. He currently is a partner in the law firm DeConcini McDonald Yetwin and Lacy in Tuscon, Arizona, and a principal in the lobbyist consulting firm Parry, Romani, DeConcini & Symms in Washington, DC. Mr. DeConcini serves as a member of the board of directors for Ceramic Protection Corp, a Toronto Stock Exchange listed company that designs, develops and manufactures ceramic and composite components for ballistic armor and industrial wear protection systems. He also is a member of the Arizona Board of Regents and the Board of Directors of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Mr. DeConcini received his B.A. from the University of Arizona in 1959 and his L.L.D. from the University of Arizona in 1963.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 13, 2008, the Company issued a press release announcing the appointment of Dennis W. DeConcini to serve as a new member of the Board. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
