PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously announced, Diebold, Incorporated (the Company) has been in discussions with the Office of the Chief Accountant (the OCA) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) with regard to its practice of recognizing certain revenue on a bill and hold basis in its North America business segment. As a result of those discussions, as previously announced the Company determined that it would discontinue its use of bill and hold as a method of revenue recognition in its North America business segment and international businesses. The Company is in the process of determining the most appropriate method to replace its bill and hold practice, and has sought additional guidance from the OCA. In addition, with regard to the SEC's on-going formal, non-public investigation, in October the Company received a further request for documentation with regards to certain bill and hold transactions and select prepaid and accrual accounts.

The Company will be unable to complete its financial statements for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 until it determines the most appropriate revenue recognition method and completes a review of these other outstanding accounting items described above. Accordingly, the Company will be unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 within the prescribed time period. The delays could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2007 and September 30, 2007 will be filed as soon as practicable after resolution of these issues.

SEC 1344 (03-05) Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.
