PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed, Diebold, Incorporated (the Company) determined that its previous, long-standing method of accounting for bill and hold transactions was in error, representing a misapplication of generally accepted accounting principles, and that it would discontinue its use of bill and hold as a method of revenue recognition in its North America and International businesses.

The Company's corrected method of recognizing revenue will be adopted retroactively by restating previously issued financial statements. On January 9, 2008, management of the Company had concluded that the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006, 2005, 2004 and 2003; the quarterly data in each of the quarters for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005; and the quarter ended March 31, 2007, must be restated and should no longer be relied upon.

As also previously disclosed, as a result of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) ongoing investigation, the Company and the Audit Committee, in consultation with their outside advisors, have been reviewing other accounting items, including various balance sheet accounts, such as prepaids, accruals, capitalized assets, deferred revenue and reserves within the Company's North America and International businesses. This review is expected to be complete upon filing the Company's restated financial statements.

The Company is currently in the process of preparing its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007, which, as previously announced, will reflect the Company's restated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the selected financial data for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003. In addition, the Company is also in the process of preparing its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2007, September 30, 2007 and March 31, 2008, which will also reflect the Company's restated financial statements for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 through the filing of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2008.

Accordingly, until the review of these other accounting items and these prior quarterly and annual reports are completed, the Company will be unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2008 within the prescribed time period. The delays could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2007, September 30, 2007, March 31, 2008 and June 30, 2008 and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 will be filed as soon as practicable after resolution of these issues. While the restated financial statements will address the issues identified in the review, the previously disclosed investigation by the SEC and the Department of Justice remain ongoing and there can be no assurance that the results of these investigations will not impact previously reported financial statements.
