FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

In order to utilize the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 ("the Reform Act"), Sappi Limited (the "Company") is providing the following cautionary statement. Except for historical information contained herein, statements contained in this Report on Form 6-K may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Reform Act. The words "believe", "anticipate", "expect", "intend", "estimate", "plan", "assume", "positioned", "will", "may", "should", "risk" and other similar expressions which are predictions of or indicate future events and future trends which do not relate to historical matters identify forward-looking statements. In addition, this Report on Form 6-K may include forward-looking statements relating to the Company's potential exposure to various types of market risks, such as interest rate risk, foreign exchange rate risk and commodity price risk. Reliance should not be placed on forward-looking statements because they involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which are in some cases beyond the control of the Company, together with its subsidiaries (the "Group"), and may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Group to differ materially from anticipated future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements (and from past results, performance or achievements). Certain factors that may cause such differences include but are not limited to: the highly cyclical nature of the pulp and paper industry; pulp and paper production, production capacity and pricing levels in North America, Europe, Asia and southern Africa; any major disruption in production at the Group's key facilities; changes in environmental, tax and other laws and regulations; adverse changes in the markets for the Group's products; any delays, unexpected costs or other problems experienced with any business acquired or to be acquired; consequences of the Group's leverage; adverse changes in the South African political situation and economy or the effect of governmental efforts to address present or future economic or social problems; and the impact of future investments, acquisitions and dispositions (including the financing of investments and acquisitions) and any delays, unexpected costs or other problems experienced in connection with dispositions. These and other risks, uncertainties and factors are discussed in the Company's Registration Statement on Form F-1 and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including this Report on Form 6-K. Shareholders and prospective investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of the filing of this Report on Form 6-K and are not intended to give any assurance as to future results. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any of these forward-looking statements, whether to

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT AT THE SAPPI LIMITED ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING: 3 MARCH 2003

Trading conditions in our major coated fine paper markets remain difficult. However, demand for our products has increased compared to the low levels prevailing after the events of 11 September 2001 because of improvements in advertising in print media. Current global supply levels for coated fine paper still exceed demand and we continue to curtail output to match our customers' needs.

In spite of the slow economy and downward pressure on pricing, our European business is producing reasonable returns, partly as a result of the stronger Euro (which helps to contain input costs) and partly as a result of its operating efficiency. We expect some price recovery, announced recently in Southern Europe, to become effective during March.

In North America, the announced price increases on coated fine paper continue to be implemented. The effect on average prices will however be partly offset by a shift in sales mix towards lower-priced products but margins should begin to improve in the second half year.

The strength of the Rand is putting pressure on the margins of our South African business as most of its exports are priced in Dollars. This will be partly offset by Dollar pulp price increases. However, the effect of price increases for dissolving pulp will only be seen when they are realised next quarter.

For the current quarter we expect earnings per share to be similar to the first quarter and we still expect earnings for the full year to show improvement over last year.

We recently announced that Jonathan Leslie will be joining the company in April this year as CEO and we look forward to welcoming him to the Group.
