Other Events

On November 5, 2007, Emerging Vision, Inc. (the “Company”) settled an adversary proceeding (the “Adversary Proceeding”) against BAL Global Finance, LLC, formerly known as Sanwa Business Credit Corporation (“Defendant”) that had been pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”) since 1995. The material terms of the settlement of the Adversary Proceeding include a cash payment to the Company, in the amount of $1,270,000 (less certain costs and expenses incurred in the litigation, including attorney fees), and the mutual release of all claims between the parties.

The Adversary Proceeding arose out of the Company’s purchase of certain assets from Sterling Optical Corporation (“SOC”) in 1992 while SOC was operating as a Chapter 11 debtor before the Court. Pursuant to an asset purchase agreement approved by the Court, the Company purchased substantially all of SOC’s assets, and the Company maintained in the Adversary Proceeding that such assets included all of SOC’s right, title and interest in certain notes which were executed by SOC’s franchisees in favor of SOC. The Court ruled that the Company was entitled to recover the surplus payments under the notes after the Defendant had recovered its investment and authorized fees, and granted the Company’s motion for partial summary judgment.
